NATIONAL HEALTH POLICY Conference

Donald Berwick, M.D., M.P.P.
Dr. Berwick is the administrator for the Centers for Medicare & Medicaid Services (CMS). As administrator, Dr. Berwick oversees the Medicare, Medicaid, and Children's Health Insurance Program (CHIP). Before assuming leadership of CMS, Dr. Berwick was president and CEO of the Institute for Healthcare Improvement, clinical professor of pediatrics and health care policy at the Harvard Medical School, and professor of health policy and management at the Harvard School of Public Health. He also is a pediatrician, adjunct staff in the Department of Medicine at Boston's Children's Hospital, and a consultant in pediatrics at Massachusetts General Hospital. Dr. Berwick has served as chair of the National Advisory Council of the Agency for Healthcare Research and Quality, and as an elected member of the Institute of Medicine (IOM). He also served on the IOM's Governing Council from 2002 to 2007. In 1997 and 1998, he was appointed by President Clinton to serve on the Advisory Commission on Consumer Protection and Quality in the Healthcare Industry. Dr. Berwick received the 2007 William B. Graham Prize for Health Services Research and the 2007 Heinz Award for Public Policy from the Heinz Family Foundation. Dr. Berwick holds a Master in Public Policy from the John F. Kennedy School of Government at Harvard College and a medical degree from Harvard Medical School.

Anthony G. Brown
Lieutenant Governor Brown was appointed chair of the governor's BRAC subcabinet by Governor Martin O'Malley and is playing a leading role in the administration's efforts on higher education, veterans' affairs, domestic violence prevention, workforce creation, and health care. Prior to his election as Maryland's 8th lieutenant governor, he was a member of the Maryland House of Delegates, where he served as the majority whip. He also served on the board of trustees at Prince George's Community College for four years before joining the House of Delegates. Lieutenant Governor Brown has been active in the United States Army since joining Army ROTC at Harvard College. In December 2007, he was promoted to the rank of colonel in the United States Army Reserves and commands the 153rd Legal Support Organization. In 2005, he deployed with the 353rd Civil Affairs Command in support of Operation Iraqi Freedom. He served with distinction in Baghdad, Fallujah, Kirkuk, and Basra and continues to serve in the United States Army Reserves. He also served a tour of duty in Germany as a helicopter pilot with the 4th Combat Aviation Brigade, 3rd Infantry Division in 1984.

Carolyn M. Clancy, M.D.
Dr. Clancy was appointed director of the Agency for Healthcare Research and Quality (AHRQ) on February 5, 2003, and reappointed on October 9, 2009. Prior to her appointment, Dr. Clancy was director of AHRQ's Center for Outcomes and Effectiveness Research. Before joining AHRQ in 1990, she was also an assistant professor in the Department of Internal Medicine at the Medical College of Virginia. Dr. Clancy holds an academic appointment at The George Washington University School of Medicine (clinical associate professor, Department of Medicine) and serves as senior associate editor for the journal Health Services Research. She serves on multiple editorial boards, including Annals of Internal Medicine, Annals of Family Medicine, American Journal of Medical Quality, and Medical Care Research and Review. Dr. Clancy is a member of the Institute of Medicine and was elected a Master of the American College of Physicians in 2004. In 2009, she was awarded the William B. Graham Prize for Health Services Research. Dr. Clancy, a general internist and health services researcher, is a graduate of Boston College and the University of Massachusetts Medical School. Following clinical training in internal medicine, she was a Henry J. Kaiser Family Foundation Fellow at the University of Pennsylvania.

Howard Cohen
Mr. Cohen serves as chief health counsel on the House Energy and Commerce Committee under Representative Fred Upton. Mr. Cohen returns to the committee after a decade of service in the 1990s where he worked on issues in Medicare, Medicaid, and the Public Health Service Act. Mr. Cohen has a Ph.D. from the University of Massachusetts in psychology and a law degree from The George Washington University.

Cheryl L. Jaeger, M.P.P.
Ms. Jaeger is a senior policy advisor to Majority Leader Eric Cantor. She has served as a leadership aide for more than five years, previously working with the former Republican Whip Roy Blunt. She has also served as a professional staff member for the Committee on Energy and Commerce, under former Chairman Billy Tauzin and Chairman Joe Barton. Ms. Jaeger started her tenure on Capitol Hill nearly 12 years ago as an aide to former Congressman Christopher Cox. She holds a Master in Public Policy from Georgetown University and is a graduate of the University of Virginia.

NATIONAL HEALTH POLICY Conference

Jenelle Krishnamoorthy, Ph.D.
Dr. Krishnamoorthy is the health policy director for the Health, Education, Labor and Pensions Committee and is trained as a licensed clinical psychologist. She first joined Chairman Harkin's team as an AAAS Fellow in 2003 and 2004. During 2004 and 2005 she worked at the U.S. State Department on health, science, technology, and environment issues with India on a diplomacy fellowship. Dr. Krishnamoorthy rejoined the Harkin office in January 2006 and has been responsible for Senator Harkin's health legislative agenda. Prior to joining the Senate, Dr. Krishnamoorthy worked at Brown Medical School where she was part of The Centers for Behavioral and Preventive Medicine and the Department of Child and Family Psychiatry. While there, she published in the areas of childhood obesity and tobacco issues, and conducted clinical work with kids and families that had chronic illnesses.

Mark Miller, Ph.D.
Dr. Miller is the executive director of the Medicare Payment Advisory Commission (MedPAC), a nonpartisan federal agency that advises the U.S. Congress on Medicare payment, quality, and access issues. Dr. Miller has more than 20 years of health policy experience and has held several policy, research, and management positions in health care, including assistant director of health and human resources at the Congressional Budget Office, deputy director of health plans at the Centers for Medicare & Medicaid Services, health financing branch chief at the Office of Management and Budget, and senior research associate at the Urban Institute. He earned a Ph.D. in public policy analysis from the State University of New York at Binghamton.

David Schwartz, J.D.
Mr. Schwartz joined the Senate Finance Committee Democratic Staff in January 2004 as a Capitol Hill Fellow from the Social Security Administration (SSA). He remained with the committee on detail from SSA for 2005 and 2006. In January 2007, Mr. Schwartz joined the staff of the Finance Committee and continued focusing on oversight and drug pricing and benefits in Medicare and Medicaid. Later in 2007, he became responsible for Medicaid and the Children's Health Insurance Program. Mr. Schwartz worked on public program and program integrity provisions during the health care reform effort in 2009 and 2010. In July 2010, Chairman Max Baucus named Mr. Schwartz acting chief health and human services counsel.

Ronald A. Williams, M.S.
Mr. Williams is chairman of Aetna, Inc. He joined Aetna in 2001 and has since focused on creating innovation in the industry, helping make possible new levels of transparency in the health care system. He was named CEO in February 2006 and chairman of the board in October 2006. Mr. Williams serves on the board of directors of the Boeing Company and American Express Company. He also serves on the board of trustees for the Connecticut Science Center. In January 2010, he co-chaired the World Economic Forum's Annual Meeting in Davos, Switzerland. Mr. Williams is a graduate of Roosevelt University and holds an M.S. in management from the Sloan School of Management at the Massachusetts Institute of Technology.
