Check one or more of the following items listed below indicating how the prepaid contracts are secured.

- 1. A firm commitment in the form of a futures contract or other commitment that guarantees that the dealer may purchase, at a fixed price, heating oil, kerosene, or liquefied petroleum gas in an amount not less than 75 percent of the maximum number of gallons that the dealer is committed to deliver pursuant to all prepaid contracts entered into by the dealer. The amount of such futures contract may be reduced to reflect any amount of home heating oil, kerosene, or liquefied petroleum gas already delivered to and paid for by the consumer.
- 2. _____ A surety bond, made payable to the attorney general, in an amount not less than 50 percent of the total amount of funds paid to the dealer by consumers pursuant to prepaid heating oil, kerosene, or liquefied petroleum gas contracts.
- 3. _____ A letter of credit, made payable to the attorney general, from an FDIC-insured institution in an amount that represents 100 percent of the cost to the dealer of the maximum number of gallons that the dealer is committed to deliver pursuant to all prepaid contracts entered into by the dealer. The cost shall be calculated at the time the contracts are entered into.
- 4. _____ A liquid product inventory of home heating oil, kerosene, or liquefied petroleum gas in an amount equal to 75 percent of the outstanding volume in gallons that the dealer is obligated to deliver under the terms of prepaid contracts in force.

DEPARTMENT OF STATE

Hello,

We want to ensure you're aware of an important regulatory requirement for fuel retailers in New Hampshire regarding pre-buy contracts, also known as prepaid heating contracts, petroleum sales contracts, and guaranteed price plans. Any home heating fuel dealer planning to offer pre-buy contracts to customers must file a registration form with the NH Secretary of State's office by May 1 of each year.

To assist you in complying with this requirement, we've provided a link below to download the registration form:

We understand that staying compliant with these regulations is essential, and we're here to support you throughout the process. If you have any questions or need assistance, please feel free to reach out to us. Additionally, you can find helpful information on pre-buy contracts for heating fuels by clicking here.

Furthermore, we invite you to explore Sprague's pricing programs, designed to offer you peace of mind and flexibility in managing your fuel costs. You can learn more about our pricing programs by visiting the link below:
