WHEREAS, on June 26, 2014, the Bureau of Securities Regulation (hereinafter "Bureau") submitted to the Director of the Bureau a Staff Petition for Relief in the above-referenced matter; and

WHEREAS, on June 26, 2014, the Director of the Bureau issued an Order to Cease and Desist and an Order to Show Cause, notice of which was sent to the Respondent by certified mail; and

WHEREAS, on November 17, 2014, a hearing on the merits was held in which the presiding officer provided for the payment of monetary and that the payment of monetary sanctions was subject to a petition for review by the Bureau; and

WHEREAS, at the hearing on the merits, Respondent represented that the first of three tranches of the payment of monetary sanctions would be coming within three to five business days of the hearing; and

WHEREAS, on January 8, 2015, the presiding officer issued his Findings, Ruling and Order, which, in part, ordered that the Respondent shall, subject to petition for review by the Bureau, pay restitution of $99,997.50; and

WHEREAS, on December 15, 2014, the Bureau submitted a Motion for Review, which stated that the Bureau had not received any payment toward monetary sanctions and requested a review of the Respondent's failure to pay monetary sanctions, a finding that the Respondent has violated a Bureau Order, and the imposition of further sanctions;

ORDER

THEREFORE, it is hereby ORDERED that

1. The parties shall attend hearing on Friday, January 16, 2015 at 10:00 a.m. at the offices of the Bureau of Securities Regulation, 25 Capitol Street, 3rd Floor, Concord, New Hampshire for the purpose of considering the Bureau's Motion for Review.
2. Pursuant to RSA 421-B:26-a, XV, with the consent of the parties, the hearing may be conducted with one or more participants appearing by telephone.
