Location: The Bedford, Ground Floor

Speaker: Phil Boyle, Ph.D., president, Leadership and Governing Associates

This session is designed to help legislators and legislative staff better understand the fundamental purpose of legislatures, the kinds of public problems, choices and decisions legislators face, the core visions and values of our American republic that underlie all public choices, how these values both unite and divide us, and how legislators and legislative staff can work together to solve public problems and make public decisions that enhance representative democracy and preserve and enhance the legislative institution. In this session we will explore:

- Visions and values that define the public good
- Conflicts that arise in seeking this good
- Choices we face in deciding how to resolve these conflicts
- Challenges of fulfilling governing roles, responsibilities, representation, and relationships necessary to preserve and advance our republic
- Why we elect citizens to address these challenges through representative democracy rather than through direct democracy

Free Afternoon and Evening, dinner on your own. The concierge desk can advise on restaurants and make reservations. Baseball fans: The Phillies play at 7:05 at Citizens Bank Park.

12:31 – 3:00 p.m. Skills Session: The Art and Science of Exercising Influence

Location: The Bedford, Ground Floor

Speaker: Matt Kohut, Managing Partner, KNP Communications

This interactive workshop on the art and science of exercising influence will enable participants to understand the different types and fundamental principles of influence. The speaker will introduce key concepts and actionable techniques that participants can use to exercise influence in both short-term and long-term contexts. He will also provide opportunities to practice new skills that can enhance participants' ability to exercise influence.

3:01 – 4:30 p.m. Social Media Fundamentals: Tactics and Strategy

Location: The Bedford, Ground Floor

Speaker: Matt White, Partner, KNP Communications

Now that so much political communication is taking place online, social media plays an increasingly critical role in connecting with constituents. This hour-long session will cover everything you need to know on how to use Facebook, LinkedIn, Twitter, and Instagram confidently and effectively. Guidance will range from big-picture goals for online presence to specific tactics for crafting a compelling profile and tailoring messages for the right platform to reach your target audience. Which elected officials are doing it best? Who you should be following? What's the best way to connect with journalists? How can you engage commenters, use hashtags, and not fumble an attempt at a meme? This session will answer those questions and many more.
