Roundtable Discussions: Focus on the Unique Needs of Specific Populations

Introduction Representative Kimberly Dudik | @DudikKimberly
Montana State Legislature, NFWL Chair

Service Members & Veterans

The Department of Veterans Affairs reports that there are more than 12 million veterans under the age of 65 living in the U.S. It is critical for elected officials to understand the unique needs of veterans and highlight opportunities for their employment. This roundtable will look at some of the opportunities available, and ways elected women can connect with their constituents. Table Anchors: Tara Anderson, API & Senator Carol Blood, Nebraska State Legislature

Recently Incarcerated Individuals

Ex-offenders face a number of unique challenges to entering the workforce. They often struggle to get past hiring managers' desks and sometimes can lack specialized skills. This session will look at the many ways elected women can help their recently incarcerated constituents build the skills they need, get hired, and back into the workforce. Table Anchor: Representative Julie Emerson, Louisiana State Legislature

Women & Pay Equity

Women in the U.S. who work full time, year round are paid only 80 cents for every dollar paid to men — and for women of color, the wage gap is even larger. This table will look at strategies elected women can take to support their women in the workforce, and the state laws that can improve upon existing protections against pay discrimination. Table Anchor: Sarah David Heydemann, National Women's Law Center
