Commissioner Helen Hanks
New Hampshire Department of Corrections
105 Pleasant Street
Concord, NH 03302

Dear Commissioner Hanks,

I invite you to our CEO Leadership Technology Summit, December 4-5, 2023 in Scottsdale, AZ, that will focus on technologies to help make correctional environments safer. For 30 years, we have developed public safety technologies with the sole mission to protect life. We have done this through ground-breaking technologies including body worn cameras, Conductive Electrical Weapons (TASERS), digital evidence management tools, drone detection and others.

At this CEO Summit, you will be joined by fellow correctional leaders from across the country, along with our product teams, to learn and share best practices about current and future technologies to help accomplish our shared mission. In addition, we will seek your feedback on new technologies, such as autonomous robots, biometric trackers, and less lethal technologies. Your feedback is valued and essential to ensure that we deliver what your agency and the profession will find valuable to serve your staff and incarcerated population – and to protect life.

The summit will be organized around current key areas, including:

- Officer and inmate safety
- Modern de-escalation strategies
- Leveraging technology to mitigate staffing challenges
- Contraband mitigation
- Future innovations in corrections

We will have discussions and presentations on:

- Body cameras and prisoner transport cameras
- Moving from a “use of force” program to a modern, data-driven de-escalation program
- Real-time correctional systemwide monitoring software
- Response-to-resistance/use-of-force reporting
- Drones (counter-drone) and robotics
- Generative AI in corrections technologies

As a valued partner, should state law and agency policy allow, we will cover the cost for two (2) people from your agency to attend. This conference is geared toward agency leadership. Below are further details:
