Registration Deadline: Monday, September 11

Dear Speaker Packard,

Don't miss the chance to join your fellow legislative leaders in Newport, Rhode Island, from October 5-7, for our 2023 Fall Leadership Program focusing on America's energy future. Participants will stay at the beautiful Newport Harbor Island Resort in one of the most iconic seaport communities in the country, and be treated to dinner in one of Newport's historic mansions. (see participant list below)

PROGRAM OVERVIEW

Lawmakers face the daunting challenge of meeting the new federal energy regulations, and keeping the grid secure all while balancing public demand with the resources available to them. Over the course of this program, you will have the opportunity to engage with many of the nation's top scientific experts on renewable energy, along with a select group of state legislative leaders who have been at the forefront of the growing movement to harness reliable and affordable energy. (see attached agenda)

ABOUT SLLF

SLLF enjoys an unmatched reputation for its nonpartisanship and its focus on objectivity and academic excellence. At SLLF, we do not advocate public policy; rather, our sole objective is to inform the debate with verifiable facts that can help all our nation's state legislative leaders in their efforts to better formulate sound public policy.

WHAT'S COVERED

The State Legislative Leaders Foundation, a nonprofit, nonpartisan 501(c) (3) corporation, will cover all scheduled meals as well as your two-night stay at The Newport Harbor Island Resort (October 5 and 6). SLLF will also provide a travel allowance of up to $850 for each attending legislative leader. A travel reimbursement form will be sent to you after the program. (Please hold on to all receipts) You are only responsible for paying a program registration fee of $395 and any incidentals. (see logistics for additional details)

REGISTER

Participants will have the unique opportunity to visit and dine at Belcourt of Newport. This recently renovated mansion serves as an example of using modern-day construction methods to enhance sustainability while ensuring a harmonious blend of timeless elegance and contemporary environmental consciousness. As always, your spouse is most welcome and we have separate activities planned for them. I encourage you to register and make your travel plans as soon as possible and no later than end of day Monday, September 11.

For the educational program.

Yes SOS form for meals, stay, travel

2023 SLLF Fall Leadership Summit

October 5-7 | Newport, Rhode Island

Moderator: Mike Huebsch, former Speaker, Wisconsin State Assembly, former member of the WI Public Service Commission

*Panelists: Representative Abraham Aiyash, Majority Leader, Michigan House of Representatives
Speaker Roger Hanshaw, West Virginia House of Representatives
Speaker Albert Sommers, Wyoming House of Representatives
Christopher Kearns, Acting Energy Commissioner, Rhode Island Office of Energy Resources*

When it comes to energy, not all states are equal. Different strategies will work for different states. In this session we'll talk about the options that each state has at their disposal, and what has worked across the country.

9:30 am            The Federal Context: Federal Policy and the Future of Energy Policy

*Taylor A. Beis, Senior Director, Energy Policy, Stateside Associates
Hanna Conger, Partner, Jenner and Block*

In the past two years, the federal government has passed two pieces of legislation that significantly altered the energy policy landscape in America: The Bipartisan Infrastructure Bill and the Inflation Reduction Act. In this session, we will look at how state policymakers can use these two "game changing" laws and other federal actions to shift energy policy in their states.

10:45-11:00 am    Break

11:00-Noon        Failure is Not an Option
Hon. Sheldon Whitehouse, United States Senate

Smart energy policy can help combat climate change and boost our local economy. Wind power, for example, produces no carbon pollution and supports jobs that can't be sent overseas. In this session, Senator Whitehouse will discuss how he is working to promote clean energy solutions for our country, and to support this growing industry in Rhode Island.

11:45 am            Hotel Check-out

12:00 pm            Lunch
Newport Harbor Island Resort - Rose Island Ballroom

*Panelists: David Ortiz, Head of Government Affairs, Ørsted
Rob Gramlich, Grid Strategies LLC
Richard S. Mroz, Senior Advisor, Protect Our Power*

How can we get solar energy from sunny Arizona to North Dakota in the winter? Can we store wind energy to use on days when the wind isn't blowing? How do we protect and upgrade America's power grids? Join a panel of experts to get answers to these and other questions that must be answered before America can be powered by clean sustainable energy sources.

2:15 pm

What State Legislatures Can (and Cannot) Do

Dr. Barry Rabe, Gerald R. Ford School of Public Policy, University of Michigan

As with any area of public policy, there is only so much that state legislators can do to diversify their state's energy portfolio. In this session, join us in a conversation about the opportunities and limits for legislators to shape the energy future of their states.

3:30 pm

Free Time

5:30 pm

Meet outside of Brenton Hall to board buses

6:00 pm

Reception and Dinner
Belcourt Castle

Belcourt of Newport is a historic mansion located on Bellevue Avenue in Newport with a rich history dating back to the 19th century. It stands as a testament to the Gilded Age era, captivating visitors with its remarkable architecture, historical significance, and role in Newport's social history.

Saturday, October 7, 2023

Saturday Sessions and will be held at the Newport Harbor Island Resort in Rose Island Ballroom

7:00-8:15 am

Breakfast

Newport Harbor Island Resort - Rose Island Ballroom

8:15 am

Every State is Different: Comparing Energy Options and Opportunities

- 8:45 am                      Welcome
Thom Little, Director, Curriculum Development and Research, SLLF
- 9:15 am                      Spouses and Guests meet in the lobby to board bus
- 9:30 am-1:30 pm        Spouse/Guest Tour
- Join us for a scenic narrated tour of historic Newport. You'll enjoy beautiful views along Ocean Drive then stop to tour the grandest of Newport's summer "cottages", the Breakers, the Vanderbilt family's lavish summer residence. We'll finish up with a delicious lunch at a favorite local spot.
- 9:00 am                      The Future of Energy: Outcomes Over Motives
Amory Lovins, Adjunct Professor of Civil and Environmental Engineering, Stanford University
- According to Amory Lovins, it doesn't matter if you want to hand over a healthier planet to our children, or are just looking to get the energy that's best for your states' bottom line and businesses. It all points towards renewables. In this session, Lovins, one of the nation's foremost energy experts, will detail the shift that's underway in our energy grids and how to keep up.
- 10:30 am                      Break
- 10:45 am-Noon            What an Energy Transition Means for Rural America
Dr. Sarah Mills, University of Michigan
- Much of the energy infrastructure that has already been built--and will need to be built--for this energy transformation is sited in rural places. In this session we'll dig into how this infrastructure impacts rural residents and local governments. We'll also look at examples from a range of states to discuss how state policy choices--especially with respect to property taxation and siting/zoning authority--shape the impacts that renewable infrastructure has on rural communities [and the ability to deploy renewables.]
- 12:00-1:00 pm            Lunch
Newport Harbor Island Resort - Rose Island Ballroom
- 1:00 pm                      Roadblocks to a Clean Sustainable Energy Future
- Moderator: Dr. Barry Rabe, Gerald R. Ford School of Public Policy, University of Michigan*
