COMMITTEE ON RESPONSIBLE GAMING

The Committee has formed a Safer Gaming Resolution Working Group that has gathered input from multiple, knowledgeable stakeholders across a range of disciplines related to responsible gaming and problem gambling. The goal is to identify, review and synthesize these inputs into a resolution that can assist legislators across the United States to consider and adopt best practices in this important discipline. Today's session will be the final opportunity to incorporate feedback from key stakeholders in attendance; the Resolution will then be discussed with legislators, and a vote on the Resolution will come before the NCLGS membership in Summer 2023.

COMMITTEE ON LOTTERIES

Lotteries across North America face a host of market innovations, from ilottery to courier services. Growth in these areas presents opportunities and challenges for lottery directors and state legislators. Are lotteries prepared? As ilottery and igaming continue to expand, will they complement or compete with existing casinos? How will lotteries address issues related to the expansion of unregulated, gray-market slot machines in convenience stores and bars?

Fighting Illegal Gambling: How a Legal, Regulated Industry Can Win. While the size of the illegal and unregulated gambling market in the United States is subject to a variety of estimates, there is no debate as to its continued existence. States have been endeavoring for decades to battle an industry that is neither taxed nor regulated. The absence of regulation and licensing also means the absence of controls on responsible gaming and under-age gaming, among other serious issues. This panel of experts will discuss what steps are necessary to win this perennial war.
