October 21, 2015

Her Excellency, Governor Margaret Wood Hassan
and the Honorable Council
State House
Concord, NH 03301

Your Excellency and Honorable Councilors:

REQUESTED ACTION

Pursuant to RSA 365:37, II and III, authorize the Public Utilities Commission to enter into a contract with The Liberty Group, 65 Main Street, P.O. Box 1237, Quentin, PA 17083, Vendor Code #166984 for the conduct of a management and operations audit of EnergyNorth Natural Gas d/b/a Liberty Utilities effective upon the date of Governor and Council approval through June 30, 2016, in an amount not to exceed $299,940.00. Funding is 100% Utility Assessment.

Funds will be available, pursuant to RSA 365:37, II, in account 02-81-81-810010-33260000-046-500464, Liberty Utility Project, General Consultants, for FY 2016.

FY2016	Total
$299,940.00	$299,940.00

EXPLANATION

The Public Utilities Commission (Commission) respectfully requests authority to enter into a contract in an amount not to exceed $299,940.00 with The Liberty Consulting Group (LCG), a consulting firm specializing in the regulated utilities industry, to conduct an independent management and operations audit of EnergyNorth Natural Gas d/b/a Liberty Utilities. Pursuant to RSA 365:37, III (effective June 5, 2012), the Commission shall seek approval of governor and council for contracts with experts greater than $100,000 for investigations or proceedings that do not involve the acquisition, merger, transfer, sale, or lease of the works or system of a public utility.

Liberty Utilities acquired EnergyNorth Natural Gas and Granite State Electric Company from National Grid in July 2012. Liberty Utilities created a new presence in New Hampshire following its acquisition of EnergyNorth Natural Gas and Granite State Electric Company. As with many new or transitioning companies, Liberty Utilities has experienced growing pains which have affected its relationship with its customers and its ability to deliver the quality of service to its customers that it would like to deliver. The Commission believes the transition to a new regulatory environment has also created some challenges for Liberty with its accounting functions. In September 2013, EnergyNorth Natural Gas customer accounts were converted from National Grid's systems to Liberty Utilities' systems. The accounts of Granite State Electric customers were converted in July 2014. While the focus of this audit is on the customer service and accounting functions of EnergyNorth Natural Gas, Granite State shares the same systems and follows the same policies and procedures.

As part of a settlement agreement in Liberty Utilities' recent rate filing, DG 14-180, Liberty Utilities, Commission staff and the Office of the Consumer Advocate agreed that a targeted audit would be conducted by an independent consultant selected by the Commission following a competitive bid process. On June 26, 2015, the Commission issued Order No. 25,797 approving the settlement.

The Commission issued a Request for Proposals (RFP) on July 24, 2015. The notice of the RFP was published in the Union Leader for three days and was posted on the Commission's website. The Commission received eight responses to its RFP. An evaluation team comprised of the Director of the Commission's Consumer Affairs Division, the Assistant Director of the Commission's Gas and Water Division and an attorney from the Commission's Legal Division reviewed the RFP responses. Four respondents were eliminated from consideration as their bid responses contained little, if any, relevant experience. A fifth respondent was eliminated from further consideration as the quoted price of $732,100 significantly exceeded quotes from other bidders. The remaining three bid responses were reviewed and scored using the selection criteria identified in the RFP, weighted as follows: 40% relevant experience, 30% work plan and 30% price. After the bids were scored and ranked, LCG was the top ranked bidder. The evaluation team reviewed the work product of similar projects undertaken by LCG and checked LCG's references. While LCG's bid was the highest priced of the top three bidders, the evaluation team concluded that the quality of LCG's work plan and the related experience of its proposed project team make it best suited to conduct the customer service and accounting management audit of Liberty Utilities. Based upon the above, the Commission selected LCG to perform the contracted for work.

The contract amount will not affect the General Fund. Funds will be assessed pursuant to RSA 365:37, II which permits the Commission to obtain experts and assess the costs to the utility, Liberty Utilities.

Your consideration of our request is appreciated.

Respectfully submitted,

Martin P. Honigberg
Chairman

Management Audit of the Customer Service and Accounting Functions of EnergyNorth Natural Gas d/b/a Liberty Utilities

CC: Stephen Frink

On July 24, 2015, a request for proposals (RFP) was issued seeking proposals from qualified firms or individuals to conduct a targeted management audit focused on the customer service and accounting functions of Liberty Utilities. The scope of work was consistent with that proposed in the settlement agreement filed in DG 14-180 and approved by the Commission on June 26, 2015 in Order No. 25,797.

Eight proposals were received on or before the submittal deadline of 4:00 pm on August 21, 2015. Proposals were received from the following:

1. Blue Ridge Consulting Services, Inc.
2. Gorham, Gold, Greenwich and Associates (G3)
3. The Liberty Consulting Group
4. Ron L. Beaulieu and Company, Certified Public Accountants
5. Sage Management Consultants, LLC
6. Schumaker & Company, Inc.
7. Silverpoint Consulting LLC
8. Williams Consulting, Inc. (WCI)

A review team consisting of Stephen Frink, Assistant Director of the Gas and Water Division, Michael Sheehan, Staff Attorney, and Amanda Noonan, Director of the Consumer Affairs Division met to review the bid responses on August 31, 2015. Bid responses were reviewed and ranked based on the following: relevant experience, work plan and price. Each ranking was weighted with 40% assigned to relevant experience and 30% assigned to the work plan and the price.

Following the review, bid responses received from Ron L. Beaulieu and Company, Sage Management Consultants, LLC, Schumaker & Company, Inc., and Silverpoint Consulting, LLC were eliminated from consideration as their bid responses contained little, if any, relevant experience. G3 was also eliminated from consideration as the quoted price significantly exceeded quotes from other bidders. The remaining three bid responses – those from Blue Ridge Consulting Services, Inc., the Liberty Consulting Group, and WCI – were ranked and weighted as shown in the tables below.

RANKING
	Price	Relevant Experience	Work Plan
Blue Ridge	3	3	2
	($289,000)
Liberty Consulting	3	4	4
	($299,940)
WCI	4	3	1

WEIGHTED RANKING
	Price (30%)	Relevant Experience (40%)	Work Plan (30%)	Total
Blue Ridge	.90	1.20	.60	2.70
Liberty Consulting	.90	1.60	1.20	3.70
WCI	1.20	1.20	.30	2.70

The Staff review team recommends the Commission award the bid to the Liberty Consulting Group. While the price quote in the Liberty Consulting bid is higher than that of the other two bidders, the quality of Liberty Consulting’s work plan and the related experience of its proposed project team make it best suited to conduct the customer service and accounting management audit of Liberty Utilities. The Staff review team has reviewed the work product of similar products cited by the Liberty Consulting Group and checked references to verify the accuracy of the bid information and the quality of the work.

By-Laws of The Liberty Consulting Group

ARTICLE I -- OFFICES

Section 1. The registered office of the corporation shall be at: 279 North Zinns Mill Road, Suite H, Lebanon, Pennsylvania.

Section 2. The corporation may also have offices at such other places as the Board of Directors may from time to time appoint or the business of the corporation may require.

ARTICLE II -- STOCKHOLDERS' MEETINGS

Section 1. Meetings of stockholders shall be held at the registered office of the corporation in this state or at such place, either within or out of this state, as may be selected from time to time by the Board of Directors.

Section 2. Annual Meetings: The annual meeting of the stockholders shall be held on the 29th day of December in each year if not a legal holiday, and if a legal holiday, then on the preceding secular day following at 10:00 A.M., when they shall elect a Board of Directors and transact such other business as may properly be brought before the meeting. If the annual meeting for election of directors is not held on the date designated therefor, the directors shall cause the meeting to be held as soon thereafter as convenient.

Section 3. Election of Directors: Elections of the directors of the corporation shall be by written ballot.

Section 4. Special Meetings: Special meetings of the stockholders may be called at any time by any Director, or stockholders entitled to cast at least one-fifth of the votes which all stockholders are entitled to cast at the particular meeting. At any time, upon written request of any person or persons who have duly called a special meeting, it shall be the duty of the Secretary to fix the date of the meeting, to be held not more than sixty days after receipt of the request, and to give due notice thereof. If the Secretary shall neglect or refuse to fix the date of the meeting and give notice thereof, the person or persons calling the meeting may do so.

Business transacted at all special meetings shall be confined to the objects stated in the call and matters germane thereto, unless all stockholders entitled to vote are present and consent.

Written notice of a special meeting of stockholders stating the time and place and object thereof, shall be given to each stockholder entitled to vote thereat at least 30 days before such meeting, unless a greater period of notice is required by statute in a particular case.

Section 5. Quorum: A majority of the outstanding shares of the corporation entitled to vote, represented in person or by proxy, shall constitute a quorum at a meeting of stockholders. If less than a majority of the outstanding shares entitled to vote is represented at a meeting, a majority of the shares so represented may adjourn the meeting from time to time without further notice. At such adjourned meeting at which a quorum shall be present or represented, any business may be transacted which might have been transacted at the meeting as originally noticed. The stockholders present at a duly organized meeting may continue to transact business until adjournment, notwithstanding the withdrawal of enough stockholders to leave less than a quorum.

Section 6. Proxies: Each stockholder entitled to vote at a meeting of stockholders or to express consent or dissent to corporate action in writing without a meeting may authorize another person or persons to act for him by proxy, but no such proxy shall be voted or acted upon after three years from its date, unless the proxy provides for a longer period.

A duly executed proxy shall be irrevocable if it states that it is irrevocable and if, and only as long as, it is coupled with an interest sufficient in law to support an irrevocable power. A proxy may be made irrevocable regardless of whether the interest with which it is coupled is an interest in the stock itself or an interest in the corporation generally. All proxies shall be filed with the Secretary of the meeting before being voted upon.

Section 7. Notice of Meetings: Whenever stockholders are required or permitted to take any action at a meeting, a written notice of the meeting shall be given which shall state the place, date and hour of the meeting, and, in the case of a special meeting, the purpose or purposes for which the meeting is called. Unless otherwise provided by law, written notice of any meeting shall be given not less than ten nor more than sixty days before the date of the meeting to each stockholder entitled to vote at such meeting.

Section 8. Consent in Lieu of Meetings: Any action required to be taken at any annual or special meeting of stockholders or a corporation, or any action which may be taken at any annual or special meeting of such stockholders, may be taken without a meeting, without prior notice and without a vote, if a consent in writing, setting forth the action so taken, shall be signed by the holders of outstanding stock having not less than the minimum number of votes that would be necessary to authorize or take such action at a meeting at which all shares entitled to vote thereon were present and voted. Prompt notice of the taking of the corporate action without a meeting by less than unanimous written consent shall be given to those stockholders who have not consented in writing.

Section 9. List of Stockholders: The officer who has charge of the stock ledger of the corporation shall prepare and make, at least ten days before every meeting of stockholders, a complete list of the stockholders entitled to vote at the meeting, arranged in alphabetical order, and showing the address of each stockholder and the number of shares registered in the name of each stockholder. No share of stock upon which any installment is due and unpaid shall be voted at any meeting. The list shall be open to the examination of any stockholder, for any purpose germane to the meeting, during ordinary business hours, for a period of at least ten days prior to the meeting, either at a place within the city where the meeting is to be held, which place shall be specified in the notice of the meeting, or, if not so specified, at the place where the meeting is to be held. The list shall also be produced and kept at the time and place of the meeting during the whole time thereof, and may be inspected by any stockholder who is present.

ARTICLE III -- DIRECTORS

Section 1. The business and affairs of this corporation shall be managed by its Board of Directors, three in number. The directors need not be residents of this state or stockholders in the corporation. They shall be elected by the stockholders at the annual meeting of stockholders of the corporation, and each director shall be elected for the term of one year, and until his successor shall be elected and shall qualify or until his earlier resignation or removal.

Section 2. Regular Meetings: Regular meetings of the Board shall be held without notice, at least semi-annually, at the registered office of the corporation, or at such other time and place as shall be determined by the Board.

Section 3. Special Meetings: Special Meetings of the Board may be called by any director on two days' notice to each director, either personally or by e-mail.

Section 4. Quorum: A majority of the total number of directors shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business.

Section 5. Consent in Lieu of Meeting: Any action required or permitted to be taken at any meeting of the Board of Directors, or of any committee thereof, may be taken without a meeting if all members of the Board or committee, as the case may be, consent thereto in writing, and the writing or writings are filed with the minutes of proceedings of the Board or committee. The Board of Directors may hold its meetings, and have an office or offices, outside of this state.

Section 6. Conference Telephone: One or more directors may participate in a meeting of the Board, or a committee of the Board or of the stockholders, by means of conference telephone or similar communications equipment by means of which all persons participating in the meeting can hear each other; participation in this manner shall constitute presence in person at such meeting.

Section 7. Compensation Directors as such, shall not receive any stated salary for their services, but by resolution of the Board, a fixed sum and expenses of attendance at each regular or special meeting of the Board PROVIDED, that nothing herein contained shall be construed to preclude any director from serving the corporation in any other capacity and receiving compensation therefor.

Section 8. Removal: Any director or the entire Board of Directors may be removed, with or without cause, by the holders of a majority of the shares then entitled to vote at an election of directors, except that when cumulative voting is permitted, if less than the entire Board is to be removed, no director may be removed without cause if the votes cast against his removal would be sufficient to elect him if then cumulatively voted at an election of the entire Board of Directors, or, if there be classes of directors, at an election of the class of directors of which he is a part.

ARTICLE IV -- OFFICERS

Section 1. The executive officers of the corporation shall be chosen by the directors and shall be a President and the Secretary and Chief Financial Officer. The Board of Directors may also choose one or more Vice Presidents and such other officers as it shall deem necessary. Any number of offices may be held by the same person.

Section 2. Salaries: Salaries of all officers and agents of the corporation shall be fixed by the Board of Directors.

Section 3. Term of Office: The officers of the corporation shall hold office for one year and until their successors are chosen and have qualified. Any officer or agent elected or appointed by the Board may be removed by the Board of Directors whenever in its judgment the best interest of the corporation will be served thereby.

Section 4. Chairing Meetings: The President shall preside at all meetings of the stockholders and directors; he shall see that all orders and resolutions of the Board are carried into effect, subject, however, to the right of the directors to delegate any specific powers, except such as may be by statute exclusively conferred on the President, to any other officer or officers of the corporation.

Section 5. President: The President shall attend all sessions of the Board. The President shall be the chief executive officer of the corporation; he shall have general and active management of the business of the corporation, subject, however, to the right of the directors to delegate any specific powers, except such as may be by statute exclusively conferred on the President, to any other officer or officers of the corporation. He shall have the general power and duties of supervision and management usually vested in the office of President of a corporation.

Section 6. Secretary: The Secretary shall attend all sessions of the Board and all meetings at the stockholders and act as clerk thereof, and record all the votes of the corporation and the minutes of all its transactions in a book to be kept for that purpose, and shall perform like duties for all committees of the Board of Directors when required. The Secretary shall give, or cause to be given, notice of all meetings of the stockholders and of the Board of Directors, and shall perform such other duties as may be prescribed by the Board of Directors or President, and under whose supervision he shall be. The Secretary shall keep in safe custody the corporate seal of the corporation, and when authorized by the Board, affix the same to any instrument requiring it.

Section 7. Chief Financial Officer: The Chief Financial Officer, who may also serve as Secretary shall have custody of the corporate funds and securities and shall keep full and accurate accounts of receipts and disbursements in books belonging to the corporation, and shall keep the moneys of the corporation in a separate account to the credit of the corporation. The Chief Financial Officer shall disburse the funds of the corporation as may be ordered by the Board, taking proper vouchers for such disbursements, and shall render to the President and directors, at the regular meetings of the Board, or whenever they may require it, an account of all his transactions as Chief Financial Officer and of the financial condition of the corporation.

ARTICLE V -- VACANCIES

Section 1. Any vacancy occurring in any office of the corporation by death, resignation, removal or otherwise, shall be filled by the Board of Directors. Vacancies and newly created directorships resulting from any increase in the authorized number of directors may be filled by a majority of the directors then in office, although not less than a quorum, or by a sole remaining director. If at any time, by reason of death or resignation or other cause, the corporation should have no directors in office, then any officer or any stockholder or an executor, administrator, trustee or guardian of a stockholder, or other fiduciary entrusted with like responsibility for the person or estate of stockholder, may call a special meeting of stockholders in accordance with the provisions of these By-Laws.

Section 2. Resignations Effective at Future Date: When one or more directors shall resign from the Board, effective at a future date, a majority of the directors then in office, including those who have so resigned, shall have power to fill such vacancy or vacancies, the vote thereon to take effect when such resignation or resignations shall become effective.

ARTICLE VI -- CORPORATE RECORDS

Section 1. Any stockholder of record, in person or by attorney or other agent, shall, upon written demand under oath stating the purpose thereof, have the right during the usual hours for business to inspect for any proper purpose the corporation's stock ledger, a list of its stockholders, and its other books and records, and to make copies or extracts therefrom. A proper purpose shall mean a purpose reasonably related to such person's interest as a stockholder. In every instance where an attorney or other agent shall be the person who seeks the right to inspection, the demand under oath shall be accompanied by a power of attorney or such other writing which authorizes the attorney or other agent to so act on behalf of the stockholder. The demand under oath shall be directed to the corporation at its registered office in this state or at its principal place of business.

ARTICLE VII -- STOCK CERTIFICATES, DIVIDENDS, ETC.

Section 1. The stock certificates of the corporation shall be numbered and registered in the share ledger and transfer books of the corporation as they are issued. They shall bear the corporate seal and shall be signed by the President.

Section 2. Transfers: Transfers of shares shall be made on the books of the corporation upon surrender of the certificates therefor, endorsed by the person named in the certificate or by attorney, lawfully constituted in writing. No transfer shall be made which is inconsistent with law.

Section 3. Lost Certificate: The corporation may issue a new certificate of stock in the place of any certificate theretofore signed by it, alleged to have been lost, stolen or destroyed, and the corporation may require the owner of the lost, stolen or destroyed certificate, or his legal representative to give the corporation a bond sufficient to indemnify it against any claim that may be made against it on account of the alleged loss, theft or destruction of any such certificate or the issuance of such new certificate.

Section 4. Record Date: In order that the corporation may determine the stockholders entitled to notice of or to vote at any meeting of stockholders or any adjournment thereof, or the express consent to corporate action in writing without a meeting, or entitled to receive payment of any dividend or other distribution or allotment of any rights, or entitled to exercise any rights in respect of any change, conversion or exchange of stock or for the purpose of any other lawful action, the Board of Directors may fix, in advance, a record date, which shall not be more than sixty nor less than ten days before the date of such meeting, nor more than sixty days prior to any other action.

If no record date is fixed:

(a) The record date for determining stockholders entitled to notice of or to vote at a meeting of stockholders shall be at the close of business on the next day preceding the day on which notice is given, or if notice is waived, at the close of business on the next day preceding the day on which the meeting is held.

(b) The record date for determining stockholders entitled to express consent to corporate action in writing without a meeting, when no prior action by the Board of Directors is necessary, shall be the day on which the first written consent is expressed.

(c) The record date for determining stockholders for any other purpose shall be at the close of business on the day on which the Board of Directors adopts the resolution relating thereto.

(d) A determination of stockholders of record entitled to notice of or to vote at a meeting of stockholders shall apply to any adjournment of the meeting; provided, however, that the Board of Directors may fix a new record date for the adjourned meeting.

Section 5. Dividends: The Board of Directors may declare and pay dividends upon the outstanding shares of the corporation from time to time and to such extent as they deem advisable, in the manner and upon the terms and conditions provided by the statute and the Certificate of Incorporation.

Section 6. Reserves: Before payment of any dividend there may be set aside out of the net profits of the corporation such sum or sums as the directors, from time to time, in their absolute discretion, think proper as a reserve fund to meet contingencies, or for equalizing dividends, or for repairing or maintaining any property of the corporation, or for such other purpose as the directors shall think conducive to the interests of the corporation, and the directors may abolish any such reserve in the manner in which it was created.

ARTICLE VIII -- MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

Section 1. Checks: All checks or demands for money and notes of the corporation shall be signed by the Secretary, or such other officer(s) as the Board of Directors may from time to time designate.

Section 2. Contracts: The President and the Secretary each shall have the power individually to enter into any contract or to execute any instrument in the name of and on behalf of the corporation for all amounts up to but not exceeding $3 million. No officer, agent, employee, or other person purporting to act on behalf of the corporation shall have any power or authority to bind the corporation in any way, to pledge the corporation's credit, or to render the corporation liable for any purpose or in any amount, unless that person was acting with authority duly granted by the Board of Directors as provided in these By-Laws, or unless an unauthorized act was later ratified by the corporation.

Section 3. Fiscal Year: The fiscal year shall begin on the first day of January.

Section 4. Notice: Whenever written notice is required to be given to any person, it may be given to such person, either personally or by sending a copy thereof through the mail, by fax, or by telegram, charges prepaid, to his address appearing on the books of the corporation, or supplied by him to the corporation for the purpose of notice. If the notice is sent by mail, fax or by telegraph, it shall be deemed to have been given to the person entitled thereto when deposited in the United States mail, faxed or with a telegraph office for transmission to such person. Such notice shall specify the place, day and hour of the meeting and, in the case of a special meeting of stockholders, the general nature of the business to be transacted.

Section 5. Waiver of Notice: Whenever any written notice is required by statute, or by the Certificate or the By-Laws of this corporation a waiver thereof in writing, signed by the person or persons entitled to such notice, whether before or after the time stated therein, shall be deemed equivalent to the giving of such notice. Except in the case of a special meeting of stockholders, neither the business to be transacted at nor the purpose of the meeting need be specified in the waiver of notice of such meeting. Attendance of a person either in person or by proxy, at any meeting shall constitute a waiver of notice of such meeting, except where a person attends a meeting for the express purpose of objecting to the transaction of any business because the meeting was not lawfully called or convened.

Section 6. Resignations: Any director or other officer may resign at any time, such resignation to be in writing, and to take effect from the time of its receipt by the corporation, unless some time be fixed in the resignation and then from that date. The acceptance of a resignation shall not be required to make it effective.

ARTICLE IX -- ANNUAL STATEMENT

Section 1. The President and Board of Directors shall present at each annual meeting a full and complete statement of the business and affairs of the corporation for the preceding year. Such statement shall be prepared and presented in whatever manner the Board of Directors shall deem advisable and need not be verified by a certified public accountant.

ARTICLE X -- AMENDMENTS

Section 1. These By-Laws may be amended or repealed by the vote of stockholders entitled to cast at least a majority of the votes which all stockholders are entitled to cast thereon, at any regular or special meeting of the stockholders, duly convened after notice to the stockholders of that purpose.
