DENYING STAY

1. On February 18, 2016, the Supreme Court issued its decision in Appeal of Town of Salem, et al, 168 N.H. 572 (2016). The Supreme Court order included a remand to the administrative tribunal “for further proceedings.”
2. On June 3, 2016, the presiding officer issued an Interim Order Following Remand and, subsequent to a hearing at which all parties were represented and appeared, a Final Order Addressing Remand was issued by the undersigned presiding officer on October 7, 2016.
3. On November 6, 2016, HealthTrust, Inc. (“HT”) filed a Motion for Reconsideration of the Final Order Addressing Remand.
4. On November 6, 2016, HT filed a Motion for Stay of Final Order.

5. On November 10, 2016, the Bureau of Securities Regulation (“BSR”) filed a Notice of Intent to File Objection.
6. On November 11, 2016, the Intervenors filed an Objection to HT’s Motion for Reconsideration and an Objection to HT’s Motion to Stay.
7. On November 14, 2016, the BSR filed an Objection to HT’s Motion for Reconsideration and Response to HT’s Motion to Stay.
8. On November 16, 2016, HT filed its Reply to the Bureau of Securities Regulation’s Objection to HealthTrust’s Motion for Reconsideration of the Final Order Addressing Remand, along with Exhibit A entitled “HealthTrust, Inc. Bylaws.”
9. The presiding officer reviewed all filings and arguments by the parties, as well as orders and rulings issued, during the conduct of the administrative proceedings undertaken in furtherance of the Supreme Court’s remand.
10. The presiding officer reviewed the contents of the Final Order Addressing Remand issued on October 7, 2016.
11. Following review, pursuant to RSA 421-B:6-613, a reasonable reading of the entire Final Order Addressing Remand does not constitute an error of law or reasoning, or erroneous conclusion. Therefore, the motion for reconsideration filed by HT is denied for reasons contained in the previous rulings and Final Order Addressing Remand.

12. In light of this denial of reconsideration, and pursuant to RSA 541:18, the instant request for stay of the October 7, 2016 Final Order Addressing Remand is denied. Therefore, unless other further action is taken, all payments required under the existing order shall be paid in accordance with the terms of that order on or before December 6, 2016.

So Ordered this 21st day of November, 2016.
