3. How many other states belong to this organization, and is your agency the sole New Hampshire state agency that is a member? There are 52 state and provincial lotteries that are part of this organization; there are no other New Hampshire state agencies that are members.
4. How is the dues structure established? (Standard fee for all states, based on population, based on other criteria, etc). The membership dues are based on population.
5. What benefit does the state receive from participating in this membership? NASPL provides a central information source for the lottery industry where members can benefit from its expertise, resources and advice. It provides a vehicle for communication among lottery organizations regarding development of industry standards and matters of mutual interest, particularly those which relate to the integrity, security and efficiency of state and provincial lottery jurisdictions.
6. Are training or educational/research materials included in the membership? If so, is the cost included? Explain in detail. Yes, training and education is included in the membership at no cost.
7. Is the membership required to receive any federal grants or required in order to receive or participate in licensing or certification exams? Explain. No.
8. Is there any travel included with this membership fee? Explain in detail any travel to include the number of employees involved, the number of trips, destination if known and purposes of membership supported trips. No, travel is not included with the membership fee.
9. Which state agency employees are directly involved with this organization? (Indicate if they are members, voting members, committee members, and/or officers of the organization.) New Hampshire Lottery's Executive Director is directly involved with this organization; he serves as the President, a member of the Executive Committee, and is a voting member.
10. Explain in detail any negative impact to the State if the Agency did not belong to this organization. None.

Thank you for your consideration and please contact me should you have any questions.

Respectfully submitted,

Charles R. McIntyre
Executive Director
