Re: 2014 New Hampshire Judicial Council 15-A Filings

Dear Assistant Secretary of State Ladd,

The Judicial Council is a State Agency as well as a deliberative body the membership of which is established by RSA 494:1. By statute, the 24 Council members acquire their seats in one of three ways: they serve ex-officio by virtue of their position in the Judicial Branch or State government; they are appointed by the Supreme Court; or they are appointed by the Governor and Council.

We understand RSA 15-A to require the following members of the Council to file financial disclosure statements with your office. We submit this list in satisfaction of the Council's obligation under RSA 15-A:4 to provide you with an organizational chart identifying the names, titles and position numbers of Judicial Council members required by law to file a financial disclosure statement:

		Position Number
Judicial Council Chairperson:	Nina C. Gardner	N/A
Judicial Council Executive Director:	Christopher Keating	N/A
Judicial Council Members appointed by the Governor and Council:
Attorney member:	Joseph M. McDonough, Manchester	N/A
Attorney member:	Phillip Utter, Exeter	N/A
Attorney member:	vacancy	N/A
Lay person:	Alan Seidman, Bedford	N/A
Lay person:	Henry Mock, Jackson	N/A
Lay person:	Steven D. Lubrano, Hanover	N/A
Lay person:	Shari Landry, Loudon	N/A
Lay person:	vacancy	N/A

Upon the filling of the two vacancies we will make certain that the new appointees submit the necessary disclosure forms to your office. Please let me know if you require additional information.

Very truly yours,
