Subject: Invitation: Jan 21 Forum - Economic Perspectives on State and Local Taxes (Lincoln Institute of Land Policy, Cambridge, MA)

January 3, 2011

Dear Senator/Representative:

On behalf of the Lincoln Institute of Land Policy and our cosponsor, the New England Public Policy Center of the Federal Reserve Bank of Boston, we would like to invite you to participate in the Economic Perspectives on State and Local Taxes seminar to be held on Friday, January 21 at the Lincoln Institute in Cambridge, Massachusetts.

Seminar topics include:

- Fiscal Challenges Facing State and Local Governments
- Current Issues in State Aid to Local Governments
- The Latest Economic Forecasts
- Exploring Government Expenditures and Cutting Costs by Improving Efficiency.

Speakers include economic and fiscal experts from Colorado, Connecticut, Georgia, New York, and Vermont and from the Federal Reserve Bank of Boston and the Federal Reserve Board of Governors in Washington, DC.

This will be an interactive seminar targeted to legislators in New England states. A reception and dinner on the evening of January 20 will provide an opportunity for faculty and participants to meet prior to the seminar. The Lincoln Institute will cover hotel costs for one night for participants traveling from out of state or, for Massachusetts legislators, for those traveling from more than one hour away.

To register for this seminar, please complete and return the attached Registration Form by January 10 via fax or regular mail to the address on the form. If you have any questions, please call 1-888-845-8759.

Upon receipt of the form, the Institute will send you a registration confirmation letter, along with information regarding logistical arrangements. Space is limited; those responding after the seminar is full will be put on a waiting list.

We look forward to seeing you at the seminar.

Sincerely,

1/4/2011
