National Summit of States/ National Institute for Early Childhood Development

The annual National Summit of States is an intensive work day designed for state leaders working to build and enhance policies for early childhood professional development and career systems. This year, the focus is on state Professional Development system policies. Child Care Licensing, as the licensing agency of child care program, creates and regulates professional development requirements for licensed programs serving over 40,000 children in New Hampshire. This summit The National Institute for Early Childhood Development is designed for professionals who prepare, mentor, train and set policy for early childhood professionals. Participants explore the expanding early childhood knowledge base, develop skills that improve professional preparation and practice, and discuss effective, active learning approaches for adults.
