Third Annual Energy Summit

August 24-25, 2011
Omni William Penn Hotel
Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania

Agenda

Wednesday, August 24, 2011

6:30 pm – 8:30 pm     Welcome Reception and Dinner

7:00 pm                      Welcome Remarks

   Marjorie Maginn
   President/Executive Director
   Women In Government

Thursday, August 25, 2011

7:30 am – 8:30 am     Breakfast

---

8:45 am – 9:45 am     Legislator Roundtable: Update on Regional Activities

Senator Amy Koch (CONFIRMED)
Minnesota State Legislature

Representative Vickie Orsini Nardello (CONFIRMED)
Connecticut State Legislature

Representative Tiffany Rogers (CONFIRMED)
Arkansas State Legislature

Legislators from WIG's four regional areas will discuss current legislative initiatives and hot topics regarding energy policies in their state.

Please note this is a draft agenda and subject to change prior to the conference.

9:45 am – 10:15 am    Meeting Energy Demand with Nuclear Power

Kate Jackson (CONFIRMED)
Senior Vice President & Chief Technology Officer
Westinghouse

While the nuclear industry is learning from the tragedy in Japan, it is also important to realize that new, passive designs being built today would have performed exceptionally well and offer the latest innovations in nuclear energy and safety. The U.S. leadership in these technologies can mean jobs in America, higher safety standards worldwide, energy security, and economic returns here in the U.S.

---

10:15 am – 10:45 am    Forthcoming EPA Regulations & Their Potential Impact on Energy

Paula Jackson (CONFIRMED)
Vice President, Operations
American Association of Blacks in Energy

The U.S. Environmental Protection Agency's air pollution control regulations will be implemented between 2012-2017 and could force many power plant owners to consider switching from coal to natural gas in order to reduce conventional air pollutants including nitrogen oxide (NOx), sulfur dioxide (SO2), and mercury. This session will address practical issues for electric utilities in all states.

10:45 am – 11:00 am    Break

---

11:00 am – 11:30 am    Update on Coal Mining Issues & Policies

Marty Irwin (CONFIRMED)
Director, Center for Coal Technology Research
Purdue University Energy Center

Half of United States households paid 20 percent or more of their after-tax incomes on energy in 2008, while poor and working families – those with incomes less than $30,000 - paid nearly one-quarter of their after-tax income on energy in 2008. States continue to seek ways to diversify their energy portfolios, and studies suggest that the use of clean coal and shale as part of that portfolio is one way to help maintain the cost of energy to American families.

Please note this is a draft agenda and subject to change prior to the conference.

11:30 am – 12:00 pm Emerging Topics & Policies in Utilities Regulation

Robin Lunt, JD (CONFIRMED)

Assistant General Counsel

National Association of Regulatory Utility Commissioners

The National Association of Regulatory Utility Commissioners' Board of Directors recently approved numerous resolutions across all utility sectors, including new policies on smart-grid deployment, supplier diversity, carbon-capture, flexibility on environmental rules, call-termination, and much more. This session will provide an overview of these resolutions as well as discuss ways in which NARUC and their members can be a resource to state legislators.

12:00 pm – 12:30 pm Innovations in Energy, Green Jobs & Community Revitalization

Khari Mosley (CONFIRMED)

Director of Green Economy Initiatives

Green For All Regional Liaison

Growth Through Energy & Community Health (GTECH) Strategies is a nonprofit social enterprise investing in community revitalization through green economic development initiatives. GTECH partners with community organizations, service providers, and public agencies to develop and implement community-based projects that include vacant land management, green infrastructure, weatherization and retrofitting, deconstruction, residual waste reuse, and biofuel production.

12:30 pm – 1:20 pm Luncheon

12:40 - 1:10 pm

Hydraulic Fracturing & the Use of Unconventional Gas in Today's Domestic Energy Market

Rayola Dougher (CONFIRMED)

Senior Economic Advisor

American Petroleum Institute

Recent innovations in hydraulic fracturing technology have potentially unlocked new supplies of natural gas. This session will provide an overview of the technology and discuss the potential of this source of energy.

Please note this is a draft agenda and subject to change prior to the conference.

1:30 pm – 2:00 pm     Encouraging Adoption of Energy Efficient Construction & Products

Josh Young (CONFIRMED)
Director, Government Affairs
American Chemistry Council

More than 40 percent of energy in the United States is used in buildings and 31 percent is used in industry. Through updated building codes and tax incentives, states can potentially improve energy efficiencies in the industrial, commercial, and residential sectors and create significant energy savings. This session will discuss a variety of ideas and policy options for legislators to consider.

2:00 pm – 2:30pm     Updates on Renewable Energy Technologies & Policies

This session will discuss the latest policy developments regarding wind energy and other renewable energy technologies, particularly those regarding state adoption of renewable portfolio standards and tax policies that encourage the use of renewable energy, as well as innovations in addressing transmission challenges.

2:30 pm – 3:00 pm     State Energy Programs & Their Economic Impacts

Kate Marks (CONFIRMED)
Managing Director
National Association of State Energy Officials

A study conducted by the Oak Ridge National Laboratory (ORNL) showed that each $1 of State Energy Program funds is associated with a cost savings of $7.22. Additionally, each $1 of federal funds is typically leveraged by $10.71 of state and private funds, making the federal money go much further than typical federal energy programs.

3:00 pm – 4:00 pm     Legislator Workshop: Creating Energy Action Plans

---

4:00 pm     Wrap Up & Adjourn

Marjorie Maginn
President/Executive Director
Women In Government
