Agenda for Border Tour for NH State Legislators –February 25-26, 2011

Overview: The objective of the proposed border tour is to provide New Hampshire state legislators with a comprehensive overview of how the Canada-U.S. border is working with regards to the movement of people and goods, including joint efforts to improve security. We will also address security/supply chain issues by including a visit to the Port of Montreal, a regional hub and entry point for many goods entering Canada and the United States. Participants will attend presentations by high-level officials from Public Safety Canada (RCMP, CBSA), and the US Department of Homeland Security (CBP).
