As you may know the 2014 Special Olympics USA Games are going to be held in Princeton, New Jersey from June 15 – June 20. The proximity of the games to New Hampshire is very exciting because it presents an opportunity for parents, family members and friends of the athletes participating to drive down to NJ and take part in the festivities!

With this being said, all 38 athletes representing Special Olympics New Hampshire will be traveling down to New Jersey via passenger vans driven by Law Enforcement personnel! SONH is looking for drivers to transport athletes to and/or from USA Games. The schedule is still tentative but can be viewed below. If you have any interest in driving athletes down to NJ, attending opening ceremonies, staying for the week as an Honored Guest, or attending closing ceremonies and transporting athletes back to NH please reach out to me via phone or email with your interest and availability.

Schedule

Saturday, June 14 –

- Vans will leave from Manchester, NH in the morning to head down to Princeton, NJ.

Sunday, June 15 –

- Opening ceremonies will take place, time TBD.

Monday, June 16th-

- A van will return drivers to New Hampshire.

Friday, June 20 –

- Closing ceremonies will take place from 6 – 9 pm.
- Any van driven back to NH earlier in the week will be driven back to NJ prior to Saturday morning.

Saturday, June 21 –

- Law Enforcement personnel will drive athletes back to NH at 8 am.

If you have any additional questions about the event or the transportation schedule please do not hesitate to reach out to me via phone or email!

I look forward to hearing from you!
