NCSL-Kettering Foundation Advisory Committee Meeting
June 2-3, 2015 | Washington, D.C.

Purpose of NCSL-KF project advisory committee:

To guide the NCSL-KF legislator-citizen engagement project by providing support and feedback on NCSL-KF engagements, promoting the project among legislative colleagues and participating in NCSL-KF meetings and sessions, when available.

Goals of NCSL-KF Advisory Committee:

- To offer guidance and feedback in developing agendas, directing discussions and establishing learning outcomes of the NCSL-KF research exchanges.
- To provide ideas and feedback on how to strengthen the NCSL-KF project through increased legislator interest and participation.
- To share ideas and best practices for engaging citizens and to promote these practices to a larger audience.
- To examine opportunities for collaboration and assistance in helping NCSL meet project deliverables.

Proposed outcomes of NCSL-KF June Advisory Committee meeting:

- Provide feedback and assessment of benefits and challenges of current NCSL-KF engagements.
- Develop discussion points and learning outcomes for July and November 2015 research exchanges and future Kettering engagements.
- Share ideas and strategies for engaging citizens – focus on actual, practical and doable (and creative) practices
