February 16, 2015

Senator Jeanie L. Forrester
78 Tracy Way
Meredith, NH 03253

Dear Senator Forrester,

Thank you for your willingness to dedicate your life to bettering our country. Women throughout the country are inspired by your selfless dedication and relentless pursuit of the American dream. Your hard work is paying off.

2014 was an incredible year for the Unlocking Potential Project. In just five months, we trained hundreds of activists, hired over 100 talented and hardworking grassroots staff members and utilized the best technologies to identify, persuade and turnout voters in key “purple” states – Colorado, Iowa, North Carolina, New Hampshire, and Virginia.

Women across America made a big difference and brought real change at the local, state and national levels. I’m proud of what the Unlocking Potential Project accomplished but the journey is not over. There is more work to be done. We are excited to announce the creation of Unlocking Potential (UP), a non-profit, focused on educating women about today’s issues and policies. At UP, we believe education leads to greater empowerment and real change. The organization may be new but we are wasting no time getting started! Our newest endeavor launches next month. I want to personally invite you to be a part of it.

The From Hometowns to Washington Women’s Conference will ignite passion, deepen knowledge and strengthen the commitment of women across America to create real change. Throughout the weekend, conference attendees will connect with a powerful network of women leaders, examine a broad range of hot button issues and be equipped with the latest tools to develop and spread their message. Armed with fresh ideas and strategies, attendees will leave ready to embrace the challenge to bring real change to their communities.

I want to invite you to join us March 20th – 22nd at the Westin Crystal City. We would be honored to have you participate and encourage women across America in their pursuit to bring real conservative change. For questions or more information, contact Lauren Carney at 603-533-9206 or Lauren@norwayhill.com.

Best,

Carly Fiorina

Presents its 2015 National Women's Conference

From Hometowns to Washington

How Women Across America Can Bring Real Conservative Change

March 20 – 22, 2015 * Arlington, VA

WHO WE ARE

Led by Carly Fiorina, Unlocking Potential (UP) is a non-profit focused on educating women about today's issues and policies. At UP, we believe that educating women about today's issues and policies leads to greater empowerment and real change. We encourage women to focus on personal face-to-face interactions and go beyond the traditional methods of affecting policies in their communities.

THE CONFERENCE

From Hometowns to Washington Women's Conference is the newest component of the UP organization aiming to educate women about a broad range of hot button issues – foreign policy, education reform, the fiscal crisis, new media and more – and then equip them with the latest tools to develop and spread their message. The conference will ignite passion, deepen knowledge and strengthen the commitment of women across the country to bring real change to their communities.

Throughout the weekend, conference attendees will connect with a powerful network of women leaders, examine today's most pressing issues and be equipped with the latest tools to develop and spread their message. Armed with fresh ideas and strategies, participants will leave the conference ready to embrace the challenge to bring real change to their communities by

- becoming community leaders
- spearheading grassroots outreach efforts
- developing new leaders

SCHOLARS PROGRAM

Unlocking Potential's scholars are female leaders representing a wide range of geographic regions, backgrounds and interests. These women are making a difference in their communities and are eager to increase their impact. You are one of those women.

At Unlocking Potential, we believe in you and your commitment to bringing real change. We would be honored to have you participate in the From Hometowns to Washington Women's Conference. As a scholar, you will experience a weekend of networking, learning and fun – on us. Travel, hotel and conference expenses will be covered. A limited number of scholar positions are available. RSVP now to reserve your spot before it's too late.
