Board Election Results

Congratulations to Eileen Landies for her win as the new Chairman of the NHLA and Dan Garthwaite for his win as the Research Director. These two new Directors are a great addition to the NHLA Board and we look forward to their fresh ideas and valuable efforts at keeping the NHLA moving forward and growing.

A giant "Thank You" goes to outgoing Chairman Mark Warden for his tremendous leadership over the past year and to outgoing Research Director (IT guru) Jeremy Olson whose contributions to the website and Gold Standard helped launch the NHLA into the next dimension.

Legislation Summit Recap

Legislation Summit was a smashing success! Everyone present was very enthusiastic about curtailing public policy back to sanity and freedom. There were over 35 people in attendance presenting many great ideas for next year's Legislative Session.

Thank you to Rep. Joel Winters for his informative summary of the legislative process and for ensuring that the summit ran smoothly and productively. We would also like to thank Rep. Carol McGuire and Rep. Cal Pratt for their contributions and help.

If you're interested in taking part in our ongoing discussion on legislative ideas for 2011, visit our forum thread at <http://forum.nhliberty.org/index.php?topic=3154.0>.

Oktoberfest Benefit Recap

Kudos to Kevin Bloom, one of the founders of Informal University, who hosted a benefit fundraiser for the NHLA and Scholars' Academy at the beginning of September. Many people came, including several state and federal candidates, to mingle, listen to live music, and eat some delicious food. The fundraiser was loads of fun and a great success raising over $375 for the NHLA's Political Action Committee. Thank you Kevin for all your hard work.

In addition, we would like to thank Theos Pizza Restaurant and Lounge for providing food and space for this event.

Membership Upgrade

Because of the wonderful donations made to our PAC fund and the many members who decided to upgrade their membership (which goes directly into the PAC fund unless otherwise stated), we have
