WHY CHRISTIAN FREEDOM DEFENSE NOW?

Senator Mark Hounsell, Chairman explains.

It is from both a sense of heritage and a call to duty that the Christian community participates in political forums. Now, more than ever, we must organize and influence elections and government policies at the local, state and federal levels. CHRISTIAN FREEDOM DEFENSE (CFD) is determined to vigorously encourage like-minded Christians to rally together in support of those candidates that best represent the core interests of freedom.

At this time CFD has selected five fundamental issues as our focus for the 2002 election year. We will support those candidates who:

- 1 - Are committed to defending the rights of the unborn.
- 2 - Will recognize and support the traditional family structure as an American strength worth defending.
- 3 - Will defend Americans at home and abroad by supporting our military by providing more spending for our nation's security.
- 4 - Will defend Israel's right to exist unimpeded by continual acts of terrorism by the PLO
- 5- Defend the constitutional right for law-abiding Americans to keep and bear firearms without government infringement.

THREE CHEERS FOR KARL ROVE!

Advisor to President Bush is Right On. GOP Does a Better Job Protecting U.S.A

Austin, Texas –Democrat National Committee Chairman, Terry McAuliffe may not like it, but when White House Political Adviser Karl Rove stated at the Republican National Committee winter meetings on January 18, 2002, “We (Republicans) can go to the country on this issue because they trust the Republican Party to do a better job of protecting and strengthening America’s military might and hereby protecting America,” he spoke accurately and boldly. Even though McAuliffe cried foul, the RNC will be playing a fair and winning hand if they resolve themselves to remind voters that it was the irresponsible downsizing and systematic dismantling of America’s military by former Democrat President Bill Clinton that has left us needing to catch up in military preparedness. Clearly, the voters all across America are thankful that President George W. Bush, not Al Gore is our country’s Commander-in-Chief. Few would prefer Medeleine Albright over Secretary of State Colin Powell; Janet Reno over Attorney General John Ashcroft; or any Democrat over Secretary of Defense Donald Rumsfeld. With the security of America and the World at stake Americans must be continually reminded that it is clearly the Republican Party who have and will “do a better job of protecting and strengthening America’s military might and hereby protecting America”, THREE CHEERS KARL ROVE! Keep it up. Christian Freedom Defense is in full agreement.

CFD MOURNS FOR ISRAEL’S INNOCENT VICTIMS

Palestinian gunman continues PLO terror in Northern Israel - 6 innocent Israelis Die

Or Akiva Israel - Late Thursday, armed with an assault rifle, a Palestinian gunman opened fired on unarmed innocent Israeli citizens killing six. When will American politicians recognize Arafat’s PLO as being no different than Bin Laden’s al-Qaida? Christian Freedom Defense and the rest of America are waiting. We find President Bush’s “cold shoulder” to Arafat at a recent United Nation’s refreshing. Lets hope that members of the United State’s Congress follows his lead. In the meantime we pray for Israel and we also mourn for the mounting loss of innocent civilian life.
