ABOUT THE HEARTLAND INSTITUTE

The Heartland Institute is a national nonprofit public policy research organization. It is tax exempt under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code and was founded in Chicago in 1984. Heartland is devoted to discovering, developing, and promoting free-market solutions to social and economic problems.

The Heartland Institute's Board of Directors oversees a staff of 35 and an annual budget of approximately $6 million. Heartland has more than 5,000 donors.

The Heartland Institute publishes three monthly public policy newspapers featuring some of the best research and writing by America's free-market think tanks: Budget & Tax News, Environment & Climate News, and School Reform News. These publications are sent by mail and/or email to every state and national elected official in the United States.

State legislators know and trust The Heartland Institute. In June 2016, a telephone survey of 503 randomly selected state officials conducted by Victory Enterprises found 82 percent of the state elected officials surveyed read one or more Heartland newspapers "sometimes" or "always"; 79 percent recognize The Heartland Institute; 45 percent reported a Heartland newspaper "influenced my opinion or led to a change in public policy"; and 43 percent consider Heartland to be a "very" or "somewhat" valuable source of information.
