EXPLANATION

This contract is the result of a competitive solicitation under RFP 2016-006 Statewide IBM Mainframe Technical Support Services issued on January 8, 2016. There was one proposal received from the RFP by the closing date of February 25, 2016. S&CSI was the only vendor to respond and it accepted the proposal. S&CSI has provided data center management, system administration, technical architecture consulting, programming, project management, and training services to the State, and S&CSI has served the State's DoIT data center in Concord, New Hampshire for the last 18 years, and is very familiar with the State's legacy systems.

The State has chosen to outsource the maintenance of the State's IBM mainframe environment due to the specialized and expensive expertise required to administer these systems. The State does not employ adequate numbers of staff with the specialized knowledge required to perform these tasks. Outsourcing also provides us with flexibility to bring in new skill sets as required. This contract will allow us to continue to provide a high level of information technology services to our customers.

S&CSI has a wide range of experience and has been instrumental in developing and maintaining many of the processes used by State agencies. Replacing the quality and experience provided by the S&CSI staff, especially with our old legacy systems, would be difficult and very costly. S&CSI staff members have extensive experience installing, maintaining, and configuring z/OS with a wide variety of IBM and 3rd party layered products to achieve the State's business applications goal. S&CSI staff members have extensive knowledge with performance monitoring and tuning using the latest tools available to maintain a well-functioning system.

S&CSI will also continue to provide technical support and assistance to the applications development staff as requested using its resources, track record, experience, and knowledge required for future planning to support the State of New Hampshire's DoIT centers in the best possible manner.

The Department of Health and Human Services relies on this vendor to support the daily operations of the New HEIGHTs application, its supporting Databases and Infrastructure, which is the gateway to all state benefits to NH citizens. The State of New Hampshire also relies on this vendor to support Hardware, Data Center Process Improvements and Process Automation for other agencies including the Department of Administrative Services, Department of Safety, and New Hampshire Employment Security on an "as needed" basis.

The Department of Information Technology respectfully requests approval of this request.

Respectfully submitted,

Denis Goulet
Commissioner

TESTING SERVICES

S&CSI shall provide the following Products and Services described in this Exhibit F, including but not limited to:

1. TESTING AND ACCEPTANCE

S&CSI shall bear all responsibilities for the full suite of Test Planning and preparation throughout the Project related to the projects S&CSI directs or is requested to direct. S&CSI will also provide training as necessary to the State staff responsible for test activities. S&CSI shall be responsible for all aspects of testing contained in the Acceptance Test Plan including support, at no additional cost, during User Acceptance Test conducted by the State and the testing of the training materials.

The Test Plan methodology shall reflect the needs of the Project and be included in the finalized Work Plan. A separate Test Plan and set of test materials will be prepared for each Software function or module.

All Testing and Acceptance (both business and technically oriented testing) shall apply to testing the System as a whole, (e.g., software modules or functions, and Implementation(s)). This shall include planning, test scenario and script development, Data and System preparation for testing, and execution of Unit Tests, System Integration Tests, Conversion Tests, Installation tests, Regression tests, Performance Tuning and Stress tests, Security Review and tests, and support of the State during User Acceptance Test and Implementation.

In addition, S&CSI shall provide a mechanism for reporting actual test results vs. expected results and for the resolution and tracking of all errors and problems identified during test execution. S&CSI shall also correct Deficiencies and support required re-testing.

1.1 Test Planning and Preparation

S&CSI shall provide the State with an overall Test Plan that will guide all testing. The S&CSI provided, State approved, Test Plan will include, at a minimum, identification, preparation, and Documentation of planned testing, a requirements traceability matrix, test variants, test scenarios, test cases, test scripts, test Data, test phases, unit tests, expected results, and a tracking method for reporting actual versus expected results as well as all errors and problems identified during test execution.

As identified in the Acceptance Test Plan, and documented in accordance with the Work Plan and the Contract, State testing will commence upon S&CSI's Project Manager's Certification, in writing, that S&CSI's own staff has successfully executed all prerequisite S&CSI testing, along with reporting the actual testing results, prior to the start of any testing executed by State staff. The State will be presented with a State approved Acceptance Test Plan, test scenarios, test cases, test scripts, test data, and expected results.

The State will commence its testing within five (5) business days of receiving Certification from S&CSI that the State's personnel have been trained and the System is installed, configured, complete, and ready for State testing. The testing will be conducted by the State in an environment independent from S&CSI's development environment. S&CSI must assist the State with testing in accordance with the Test Plan and the Work Plan, utilizing test and live Data to validate reports, and conduct stress and performance testing, at no additional cost.

Testing begins upon completion of the Software configuration as required and user training according to the Work Plan. Testing ends upon issuance of a letter of UAT Acceptance by the State.

S&CSI must demonstrate that their testing methodology can be integrated with the State standard methodology.

1.2 Unit Testing

In Unit Testing, S&CSI shall test the application components on an individual basis to verify that the inputs, outputs, and processing logic of each application component functions without errors. Unit testing is performed in either the development environment or a testing environment.

The goal is to find errors in the smallest unit of software before logically linking it into larger units. If successful, subsequent testing should only reveal errors related to the integration between application modules.

The S&CSI developer, who is responsible for a specific unit of work, will be responsible for conducting the unit testing of their modules.

Activity Description	Develop the scripts needed to unit test individual application modules, interface(s) and conversion components.
S&CSI Team Responsibilities	For application modules, conversions and interfaces the S&CSI team will identify applicable test scripts and installation instructions, adapt them to the Project specifics, test the process, and compare with the documented expected results.
Work Product Description	Unit-Tested Modules that have been tested to verify that the inputs, outputs, and processing logic of each application module functions without errors. Individual detailed test scripts and installation guides list all the required actions and data to conduct the test, the process for test execution, and the expected results.

1.3 System Integration Testing

The new System is tested in integration with other application systems (legacy and service providers) in a production-like environment. System Integration Testing validates the integration between the individual unit application modules and verifies that the new System meets defined requirements and supports execution of interfaces and business processes. The System Integration Test is performed in a test environment.

Thorough end-to-end testing shall be performed by the S&CSI team(s) to confirm that the Application integrates with any interfaces. The test emphasizes end-to-end business processes, and the flow of information across applications (IF APPROPRIATE). It includes all key business processes and interfaces being implemented, confirms data transfers with external parties, and includes the transmission or printing of all electronic and paper documents.

1.6 User Acceptance Testing (UAT)

UAT begins upon completion of the Software configuration as required and user training according to the Work Plan. Testing ends upon issuance of a letter of UAT Acceptance by the State.

The S&CSI's Project Manager must certify in writing, that the S&CSI's own staff has successfully executed all prerequisite S&CSI testing, along with reporting the actual testing results prior to the start of any testing executed by State staff.

The State shall be presented with all testing results, as well as written Certification that S&CSI has successfully completed the prerequisite tests, meeting the defined Acceptance Criteria, and performance standards. The State shall commence testing within five (5) business days of receiving Certification, in writing, from S&CSI that the system is installed, configured, complete and ready for State testing. The State shall conduct the UAT utilizing scripts developed as identified in the Acceptance Test Plan to validate the functionality of the System and the interfaces, and verify Implementation readiness. UAT is performed in a copy of the production environment and can serve as a performance and stress test of the System. The User Acceptance Test may cover any aspect of the new System, including administrative procedures (such as backup and recovery).

The User Acceptance Test (UAT) is a verification process performed in a copy of the production environment. The User Acceptance Test verifies System functionality against predefined Acceptance criteria that support the successful execution of approved business processes.

UAT will also serve as a performance and stress test of the System. It may cover any aspect of the new System, including administrative procedures such as backup and recovery. The results of the UAT provide evidence that the new System meets the User Acceptance criteria as defined in the Work Plan.

The results of the User Acceptance Test provide evidence that the new System meets the User Acceptance criteria as defined in the Work Plan.

Upon successful conclusion of UAT and successful System deployment, the State will issue a letter of UAT Acceptance and the respective Warranty Period shall commence noted that changes made to the code after baseline testing is completed will skew the results collected to date. All effort will be made to provide a code test base that is tested in the environment for problems prior to the establishment of the baseline, which is used in future testing and tuning efforts. Any changes introduced into the environment after performance testing has started can compromise the accuracy of the results and will force a decision to be made whether baseline results need to be recreated.

1.7 Performance Tuning and Stress Testing

S&CSI shall support the development team and document hardware and Software configuration and tuning of mainframe infrastructure as well as assist and direct the State's appointed developers and Database Administrators in configuring and tuning the infrastructure to support the software throughout the Project.

1.7.1 Scope

The scope of performance testing shall measure the system level metrics critical for the developers of the application, monitoring the infrastructure and operation of the applications in the production environment.

The application transactions shall be identified by the development team with specific roles and selected transactions shall be recorded for the performance measurements. These will be compared to baselines to determine if object and/or system performance increases as changes are made.

Performance testing shall consider the full scope of the application infrastructure with emphasis on the most heavily used or shared transactions. Performance testing of the application will profile the identified user transactions and assist in the identifying performance gaps to improve the most critical parts of the applications.

S&CSI will support the development team in this effort. Responsibilities include identifying appropriate tunable parameters and their default and recommended settings, developing scripts which accurately reflect business load and coordinating reporting of results.

1.7.2 Tuning

Tuning will occur during both the development of the application and load testing. Tuning is the process whereby the application performance is maximized. This can be the result of making code more efficient during development as well as making turning parameter changes to the environment.

For infrastructure tuning, parameters will be identified for all components prior to undertake the load testing efforts. This should include a list of the variables, their definitions, the default settings, range of acceptable settings and the settings as testing begins. This will permit the development teams to identify the areas of most potential gain and a starting point. Tuning is a process which is repeated until the team feels that the system are running at or near optimum performance.

1.8 Security Review and Testing

IT Security involves all functions pertaining to the securing of State Data and Systems through the creation and definition of security policies, procedures and controls covering such areas as identification, authentication and non-repudiation.

All components of the Software shall be reviewed and tested to ensure they protect the State's hardware and software and its related Data assets. Tests shall focus on the technical, administrative and physical security controls that have been designed into the System architecture in order to provide the necessary confidentiality, integrity and availability. Tests shall, at a minimum, cover each of the service components. Test procedures shall include penetration tests (pen tests), code analysis, and review.
