REQUESTED ACTION

Authorize the Department of Information Technology (DoIT) to amend a sole source contract with Horizon Lab Systems, LLC (f.k.a. Chemware, LLC), 900 Ridgefield Drive, Suite 150, Raleigh, NC.27609. (Vendor #171140) for the provision of software maintenance and support and other optional services, by increasing the price limitation by $7,500 from $673,428 to $680,928, with no change to the completion date of June 30, 2021, effective upon Governor and Executive Council approval. The original agreement was approved by the Governor and Executive Council on March 9, 2016 (Item #54).

Funds to support this request are available in the following accounts for State Fiscal Year (SFY) 2019, with authority to adjust amounts within the price limitation and adjust encumbrances between State Fiscal Years through the Budget Office, without further approval from Governor and Executive Council, if needed and justified.

Source of Funds: 100% Federal Funds from Centers for Disease Control and Prevention, Environmental Public Health and Emergency Response Grant Catalogue of Federal Domestic Assistance (CFDA) #93.070, FAIN # U77EH0001142.

EXPLANATION

This request is sole source because the Contractor is currently providing report writing and instrument interface services for the Horizon Laboratory Information Management System (LIMS) used by the Public Health Laboratories (PHL), and has the expertise to develop a sophisticated custom biomonitoring report. The CDC has awarded the New Hampshire Expanded Biomonitoring Program

His Excellency, Governor Christopher T. Sununu
and the Honorable Executive Council

additional funds to add to the report enhancement line of the contract with the PHL LIMS contractor, specifically to develop a custom biomonitoring report.

The CDC has awarded the New Hampshire Expanded Biomonitoring Program additional funds to develop a custom biomonitoring report. The purpose of this request is to allow the Contractor to develop this custom biomonitoring report. The Biomonitoring Program must present complex environmental and clinical testing results to the general population. This request will allow the Department of Health and Human Services (DHHS) to present information in a format that can be easily read and understood by the general public. The custom report will be automated, in the Horizon Laboratory Information Management System (LIMS), saving the Public Health Laboratories (PHL) staff substantial time and effort, while eliminating potential data entry and transcription errors. This custom report could also potentially be used in other environmental health investigations, expanding the PHL's ability to respond to environmental contamination incidents.

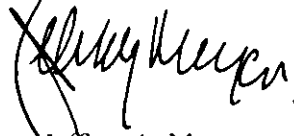

Should the Governor and Executive Council not authorize this request, DHHS may not be able to process complex environmental and clinical testing results, and may not present the information to the public in a timely and efficient manner, as required by the CDC grant.

The Department's of Information Tehnology and Health and Human Services respectfully request your approval.

Respectfully Submitted,

Denis Goulet

(5) Termination for Cause

In addition to Paragraph 10 of the standard terms and conditions (P-37) of this Agreement the Covered Entity may immediately terminate the Agreement upon Covered Entity's knowledge of a breach by Business Associate of the Business Associate Agreement set forth herein as Exhibit I. EXPLANATION

This is a Sole Source contract because no other vendor can maintain and upgrade this vendor's software, Horizon Laboratory Information Management Systems (LIMS) due to its proprietary nature. It would be cost prohibitive to competitively bid for a replacement system for Horizon, especially since Horizon has been performing to standards and meeting the business needs.

The purpose of the contract is to provide software maintenance and support for the ChemWare Horizon LIMS originally installed 2003. Optional services such as report writing may be performed as needed, and instrument interfaces will be provided. It is imperative that this software be maintained and fully operational in order to respond to disease outbreaks and other events (biological, chemical, and radiological) in order to protect citizens and visitors in the State.

The Department of Information Technology respectfully requests your approval.

Respectfully submitted, independent from ChemWare's development environment. ChemWare must assist the State with testing in accordance with the Test Plan and the Work Plan, utilizing test and live Data to validate reports, and conduct stress and performance testing, at no additional cost.

Testing begins upon completion of the Software configuration as required and user training according to the Work Plan. Testing ends upon issuance of a letter of UAT Acceptance by the State.

ChemWare must demonstrate that their testing methodology can be integrated with the State standard methodology.

1.2 Unit Testing

In Unit Testing, ChemWare shall test the application components on an individual basis to verify that the inputs, outputs, and processing logic of each application component functions without errors. Unit testing is performed in either the development environment or a testing environment.

The goal is to find errors in the smallest unit of software before logically linking it into larger units. If successful, subsequent testing should only reveal errors related to the integration between application modules.

The ChemWare developer, who is responsible for a specific unit of work, will be responsible for conducting the unit testing of their modules.

Activity Description	Develop the scripts needed to unit test individual application modules, interface(s) and conversion components.
ChemWare Team Responsibilities	For application modules, conversions and interfaces the ChemWare team will identify applicable test scripts and installation instructions, adapt them to the Project specifics, test the process, and compare with the documented expected results.
Work Product Description	Unit-Tested Modules that have been tested to verify that the inputs, outputs, and processing logic of each application module functions without errors. Individual detailed test scripts and installation guides list all the required actions and data to conduct the test, the process for test execution, and the expected results.

1.3 System Integration Testing

The new System is tested in integration with other application systems (legacy and service providers) in a production-like environment. System Integration Testing validates the integration between the individual unit application modules and verifies that the new System meets defined requirements and supports execution of interfaces and business processes. The System Integration Test is performed in a test environment.

Thorough end-to-end testing shall be performed by the ChemWare team(s) to confirm that the Application integrates with any interfaces. The test emphasizes end-to-end business processes, and the flow of information across applications (IF APPROPRIATE). It includes all key business processes and interfaces being implemented, confirms data transfers with external parties, and includes the transmission or printing of all electronic and paper documents.

Activity Description	Systems Integration Testing validates the integration between the target application modules and other systems, and verifies that the new System meets defined interface requirements and supports execution of business processes. Activity Description	The conversion validation test should replicate the entire flow of the converted data through the Software Solution. As the Software Solution is interfaced to legacy or third-party applications/interfaces, testing verifies that the resulting flow of the converted data through these interface points performs correctly.
ChemWare Team Responsibilities	For conversions and interfaces, the ChemWare team will execute the applicable validation tests and compare execution results with the documented expected results.
State Responsibilities	Extract and cleanse, if necessary, the legacy data to be converted in the data conversions. <CAN MAKE THIS A ChemWare RESPONSIBILITY>
Work Product Description	Validation-Tested Conversion Programs. These programs include conversion programs that have been tested to verify that the resulting converted legacy data performs correctly in the entire suite of the Application.

1.5 Installation Testing

In Installation Testing the application components are installed in the System Test environment to test the installation routines and are refined for the eventual production environment. This activity serves as a dry run of the installation steps in preparation for configuring the production system.

1.6 User Acceptance Testing (UAT)

UAT begins upon completion of the Software configuration as required and user training according to the Work Plan. Testing ends upon issuance of a letter of UAT Acceptance by the State.

The ChemWare's Project Manager must certify in writing, that the ChemWare's own staff has successfully executed all prerequisite ChemWare testing, along with reporting the actual testing results prior to the start of any testing executed by State staff.

The State shall be presented with all testing results, as well as written Certification that ChemWare has successfully completed the prerequisite tests, meeting the defined Acceptance Criteria, and performance standards. The State shall commence testing within five (5) business days of receiving Certification, in writing, from ChemWare that the system is installed, configured, complete and ready for State testing. The State shall conduct the UAT utilizing scripts developed as identified in the Acceptance Test Plan to validate the functionality of the System and the interfaces, and verify Implementation readiness. UAT is performed in a copy of the production environment and can serve as a performance and stress test of the System. The User Acceptance Test may cover any aspect of the new System, including administrative procedures (such as backup and recovery).

The User Acceptance Test (UAT) is a verification process performed in a copy of the production environment. The User Acceptance Test verifies System functionality against predefined Acceptance criteria that support the successful execution of approved business processes.

UAT will also serve as a performance and stress test of the System. It may cover any aspect of the new System, including administrative procedures such as backup and recovery. The results of the UAT provide evidence that the new System meets the User Acceptance criteria as defined in the Work Plan.

Work Product Description	The Deliverable for User Acceptance Tests is the User Acceptance Test Results. These results provide evidence that the new System meets the User Acceptance criteria defined in the Work Plan.

1.7 Performance Tuning and Stress Testing

ChemWare shall develop and document hardware and Software configuration and tuning of the Horizon infrastructure as well as assist and direct the State's System Administrators and Database Administrators in configuring and tuning the infrastructure to support the software throughout the Project

1.7.1 Scope

The scope of Performance Testing shall be to measure the System level metrics critical for the development of the applications infrastructure and operation of the applications in the production environment.

It will include the measurement of response rates of the application for end-user transactions and resource utilization (of various servers and network) under various load conditions. These response rates shall become the basis for changes and retesting until optimum System performance is achieved.

Performance testing and tuning shall occur in the final production environment and shall use a copy of the final production database to provide the best results.

1.7.2 Test Types

Performance testing shall use two different types of testing to determine the stability of the application. They are baseline tests and load tests.

- a) Baseline Tests: Baseline tests shall collect performance data and load analysis by running scripts where the output is broken down into business transactions or functions. The test is like a single user executing a defined business transaction. During baseline testing, each individual script is run to establish a baseline for transaction response time, throughput and other user-based metrics.
- b) Load Tests: Load testing will determine if the behavior of the System can be sustained over a long period of time while running under expected conditions. Load test helps to verify the ability of the application environment under different load conditions based on workload distribution. System response time and utilization is measured and recorded.

1.7.3 Tuning

Tuning will be ChemWare led and occur during both the development of the application and load testing. Tuning is the process whereby the application performance is maximized. This can be the result of making code more efficient during development as well as making tuning parameter changes to the environment.

1.7.4 Implementing Performance and Stress Test

Performance and stress test tools must be provided by the ChemWare for this effort. Consideration must be given to licensing with respect to continued use for regression testing. If the ChemWare is familiar with open source low/no cost tools for this purpose those tools should be identified in your response.

1.7.5 Scheduling Performance and Stress Testing

ChemWare shall perform Test Planning. The steps for planning include identification of application functionality as well as what percentage of normal daily use is represented by each function. This information will become the foundation for scripting so that tests closely represent what loads in production will look like.

ChemWare shall provide definition and expectations from testing. This definition should include who is in charge of testing and coordinating results, anticipated run times, logs required for tracking, their locations and which technician is responsible to track and provide them following each test to the team.

Initial test runs shall be completed to establish that the tests and data sets can be run to completion without errors. The ratio of types of transactions which makeup the test shall be reviewed prior to the beginning of testing and then again once testing has begun to make sure that testing accurately reflects the system performing in production.

Initial tests shall be used to establish a baseline from which all subsequent tests will be compared. Tests will be considered for baseline status once two of them have been run within 2% of each other in key and overall performance areas. No changes to the test scripts or data sets (with the exception of restores after each test) can be done to the test environment once tuning has begun so as not to damage the comparison to baseline results. The systems must be restarted prior to each test run to assure all cache is cleaned out. All effort will be made to run these tests at a time when

STATE OF NEW HAMPSHIRE
DEPARTMENT OF HEALTH AND HUMAN SERVICES
CHEMWARE MAINTENANCE
CONTRACT 2016-021 PART 3
EXHIBIT F

system and network infrastructure utilization doesn't impact the results. Tests will be run in close proximity to our infrastructure so as to eliminate the public network from our environment.

Posttest reporting and result assessment will be scheduled following each test. The team will compare these results to the baseline and a determination must be made to make additional changes to the parameter being tuned or return to the prior configuration and select another parameter to tune while keeping in mind that significant changes to any one parameter may require the retesting of some others. Careful work on identifying dependencies up front should minimize this impact.

If defects are identified in the application during testing they will be recorded; however, changes to the application code should be avoided if possible so as not to affect baseline comparisons. If a change to the application is required new baselines will be established (and possibly the execution of prior tests to validate changes with the new application) before testing can continue.

When performing capacity testing against a GUI the focus will be on the ability of the interface to respond to user input.

During stress/load testing the tester will attempt to stress or load an aspect of the system to the point of failure. The goal is to determine weak points in the system architecture. The tester will identify peak load conditions at which the program will fail to handle required processing loads within required time spans.

During Performance testing the tester will design test case scenarios to determine if the system meets the stated performance criteria (i.e. A Login request shall be responded to in 1 second or less under a typical daily load of 1000 requests per minute.). In both cases the tester will determine the capacity of the system under a known set of conditions.

1.8 Regression Testing

As a result, of the user testing activities, problems will be identified that require correction. The State will notify the ChemWare of the nature of the testing failures in writing. The ChemWare will be required to perform additional testing activities in response to State and/or user problems identified from the testing results. Regression testing means selective re-testing to detect faults introduced during the modification effort, both to verify that the modifications have not caused unintended adverse effects, and to verify that the modified and related (possibly affected) System components still meet their specified requirements:

- a.) For each minor failure of an Acceptance Test, the Acceptance Period shall be extended by corresponding time defined in the Test Plan.
- b.) ChemWare shall notify the State no later than <five (5) business days> from the ChemWare's receipt of written notice of the test failure when ChemWare expects the corrections to be completed and ready for retesting by the State. ChemWare will have up to five (5) business days to make corrections to the problem unless specifically extended in writing by the State.

- c.) When a programming change is made in response to a problem identified during user testing, a regression Test Plan should be developed by ChemWare based on the understanding of the program and the change being made to the program. The Test Plan has two objectives:
1. validate that the change/update has been properly incorporated into the program; and
 2. validate that there has been no unintended change to the other portions of the program.
- d.) ChemWare will be expected to:
1. Create a set of test conditions, test cases, and test data that will validate that the change has been incorporated correctly;
 2. Create a set of test conditions, test cases, and test data that will validate that the unchanged portions of the program still operate correctly; and
 3. Manage the entire cyclic process.
- e.) ChemWare will be expected to execute the regression test, provide actual testing results, and certify its completion in writing to the State prior to passing the modified Software application to the users for retesting.

In designing and conducting such regression testing, ChemWare will be required to assess the risks inherent to the modification being implemented and weigh those risks against the time and effort required for conducting the regression tests. In other words, ChemWare will be expected to design and conduct regression tests that will identify any unintended consequences of the modification while taking into account Schedule and economic considerations.

1.9 Security Review and Testing

IT Security involves all functions pertaining to the securing of State Data and Systems through the ~~creation and definition of security policies, procedures and controls covering such areas as~~ identification, authentication and non-repudiation.

All components of the Software shall be reviewed and tested to ensure they protect the State's hardware and software and its related Data assets. Tests shall focus on the technical, administrative and physical security controls that have been designed into the System architecture in order to provide the necessary confidentiality, integrity and availability. Tests shall, at a minimum, cover each of the service components. Test procedures shall include penetration tests (pen tests), code analysis, and review.

Service Component	Defines the set of capabilities that:
Identification and Authentication	Supports obtaining information about those parties attempting to log onto a system or application for security purposes and the validation of users
Access Control	Supports the management of permissions for logging onto a computer or network
Encryption	Supports the encoding of data for security purposes
Intrusion Detection	Supports the detection of illegal entrance into a computer system

Tests shall focus on the technical, administrative and physical security controls that have been designed into the System architecture in order to provide the necessary confidentiality, integrity and availability. Tests shall, at a minimum, cover each of the service components. The ChemWare shall provide a certificate of application, vulnerability scanning, and 3rd party Penetration Tests (pen test) when appropriate.

Prior to the System being moved into production ChemWare shall provide results of all security testing to the Department of Information Technology for review and Acceptance. All Software and hardware shall be free of malicious code (malware).
