Cross-State presentations allow states to partner collaboratively to present their work and assist attendees in making connections to their own contexts. Examples of cross-state presentations include, but are not limited to, the following topics:
• using school and EPP partnerships to align with inclusive practices,
• working with the SEA to analyze data regarding multiple pathways to teaching,
• discussion on the process for establishing Registered Teacher Apprenticeship Programs (RTAPs),
• and fostering collaboration among deans, superintendents, and the SEA.
These presentations include representatives from the state's EPPs, LEAs, and SEA. It should be noted that EPPs from New Hampshire have presented most recently at the 2021, 2022, and 2023 CEEDAR Cross-State Convenings.

"I have read RSA 15-B and hereby swear or affirm that the foregoing information is true and complete to the best of my knowledge and belief."
