Beyond the Horizon: U.S. Economic Outlook

10:15 a.m. – 12:30 p.m.
Boston Convention
Center
Room 204 AB

The national economy continues to improve, but revenue growth in states remains weak. Demographic shifts, proposed federal policies, and the possibility of major changes in spending priorities challenge lawmakers as they navigate a recovery unlike any other in recent history.

Speakers

- Jonathan Ball, Office of the Legislative Fiscal Analyst, Utah (Moderator)
- Beth Ann Bovino, Standard & Poor's, New York
- William Fox, University of Tennessee
- Daniel White, Moody's Analytics, Pennsylvania

Exhibit Hall Luncheon

Center
Hall B1

NCSL gratefully acknowledges ISRI for their support of this luncheon.

Enjoy a delicious lunch with your colleagues and visit exhibitors from around the nation with interesting information and policy perspectives.

Measuring Risk in State Pension Plans

2:15 – 3:30 p.m.
B.C.C.
Room 254 AB

Since 2000, investment losses and other risks have helped create more than a $1 trillion gap in state pension funding. New tools are available to better understand the effect various types of market and benefit changes can have on pension plan funding levels. Learn how state policymakers can stress test their plans and mitigate any risks these tools reveal.

Speakers

- Graham Schmidt, Cheiron, Inc., California
- John Sugden, S&P Global Ratings, New York

Reception at Fenway Park

6:30 – 10 p.m.
Offsite

Never been to Major League Baseball's oldest ballpark? Well now is your chance! Experience the view from Yawkey Way and the Green Monster while snacking on ballpark cuisine. This is an event you won't want to miss.

Wednesday, August 9

8 – 9:15 a.m.	Republican and Democrat Breakfasts
9:30 a.m. – 10:45 a.m. B.C.C. Room 206 AB	What Happened to the American Dream? The idea that children are able to achieve a higher standard of living than their parents was part of the American dream. But a recent study from Stanford and Harvard says this no longer holds true. Just 46 percent of 30-year-olds today are making more than their parents did at age 30. This changing landscape will affect consumption, the job market and the economy. Speakers <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Katherine Schill, Minnesota (Moderator)• Kenan Fikri, Economic Innovation Group• Robert Manduca, Harvard University
11 a.m. – 12:15 p.m. B.C.C. Room 156 BC	What Could Federal Tax Reform Mean for the States? The Trump administration has made federal tax reform a key proposal and would likely have the support of Congress in making some changes. Learn how potential reforms could affect state budgets and spending priorities since many state taxes closely conform to the federal tax code. Speakers <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Joseph Crosby, MultiState Associates (Moderator)• Representative Jay R. Kaufman, Massachusetts• Representative Julie S. Stokes, Louisiana
12:30 – 2:15 p.m. Boston Convention Center Ballroom	2018 Legislative Summit Kick-Off Luncheon – Where Do We Go From Here? Leadership in Challenging Times. Presidential historian Doris Kearns Goodwin will reflect on more than 150 years of U.S. history to put into context our most recent unconventional presidency. Goodwin will share her deep understanding of the ambition, resolution and resilience of some of our nation’s most revered presidents, and explain how past setbacks and triumphs shed light on the cultural, economic and political transformations that define today’s times. Goodwin will bring to life some of our most successful presidents to provide insight for today’s leaders, and to demonstrate that however fractured our modern political culture has become, our democracy is also resilient and has survived—even thrived—through troubling times in the past. Speaker <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Doris Kearns Goodwin

NCSL STANDING COMMITTEE ON BUDGETS AND REVENUE MEMBERSHIP

Updated August 1, 2017

NCSL's Budgets and Revenue Committee is one of nine NCSL Standing Committees.
