EXPLANATION

This contract amendment is for Windsor Solutions Inc., to continue to provide a software system and associated services for the Business One Stop Project, through Amazon Web Services (AWS), to manage automated form submittal and processing functions within the State which include back office functions as well as a public facing forms management site.

Since 2011, Windsor Solutions Inc., has been utilizing Amazon Web Services (AWS) as a hosting environment for the applications and services they sell and support. Windsor Solutions, Inc. will continue to provide the knowledge, skill and support to maintain this system. As a systems integrator specializing in governmental information management, Windsor brings extensive and relevant experience to this project. This amendment is configured to ensure secure, reliable, and fully auditable services. AWS is Federal Risk and Authorization Management Program (FedRAMP) compliant and certified to ISO 27001. This level of security enables the AWS Government Cloud to provide an environment that meets compliance requirements for both Payment Card Industry (PCI) standards and Criminal Justice Information Services (CJIS) standards.

This contract is Sole Source because the contract that is being amended is for more than 10% of the original amount due to the cost of moving the application to the AWS Government Cloud environment.

The Department of Information Technology requests your favorable consideration to move forward with this contract amendment.

Respectfully submitted,

Denis Goulet

EXPLANATION

The State of New Hampshire wishes to enhance the way it interacts with business entities to foster and create a more business friendly environment. A component of this transformation is the development of the New Hampshire Business One Stop Center.

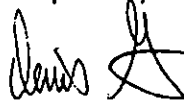

This contract is for Windsor Solutions Inc., to continue to provide a software system and associated services for the Business One Stop Project, through the Department of Information Technology, to manage automated form submittal and processing functions within the State which include back office functions as well as a public facing forms management site.

A critical part of this project is to continue to enhance how the State collects data from businesses. The current process is manual and labor intensive, requiring the business entities working with the State to print out forms, fill in the needed information, and deliver the completed form to the necessary agencies where the State also must provide manual oversight in reviewing and entering the form data into the State systems. Often, the same information is required by multiple agencies. With this in mind, it is the States goal to provide greater efficiencies throughout the process and to significantly enhance the end user experience in dealing with the State, improving the quality of the data entered and reducing the time, effort and expense in these interactions.

Windsor Solutions, Inc. will continue to provide the knowledge and skill to maintain this system and will continue to provide support. As a systems integrator specializing in governmental information management, Windsor brings extensive and relevant experience to this project. They have the business knowledge and technical expertise to continue providing the automated forms submittal solution to address the State's specific needs in regard to critical data collection, appropriate analysis, and timely information sharing with a cost effective enterprise level application.

The Department of Information Technology requests your favorable consideration to move forward with this contract.

Respectfully submitted,

Denis Goulet

EXPLANATION

The State of New Hampshire is in the process of transforming how it interacts with business entities to foster and create a more business friendly environment. A component of this transformation is the development of the New Hampshire Business One Stop Center. Business One Stop is an on-line portal that will enable NH businesses to file their business related forms through this one service portal rather than through each individual agency.

Through a competitive bidding process, Department of Information Technology issued a request for proposals. The posting was advertised to hundreds of IT vendors through an email release and posting on the State's purchasing web site. The Department received five proposals; all five proposing companies gave extensive presentations to the selection team. Windsor Solutions, Inc., the proposal, was chosen because it earned the highest score. Their proposed solution provides the best solution for the disparate users in the agencies.

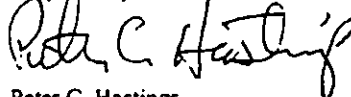

Windsor Solutions, Inc. will provide the knowledge and skill to implement this system and will provide support after implementation. Windsor has prior experience working with the New Hampshire Department of Environmental Services, on prior engagements and is familiar with the agency's organization, technical environment, and information systems infrastructure. As a systems integrator specializing in governmental information management, Windsor is able to bring extensive and relevant experience to this project. They have the business knowledge and technical expertise to implement the automated forms submittal solution to address the State's specific needs concerning critical data collection, appropriate analysis, and timely information sharing with a cost effective enterprise level application. Windsor will:

1. Provide and install enterprise-licensed software with functions to process web-initiated forms from the public or from State users, which includes back office forms management, document management as related to those forms, and mobile inspections.
2. Windsor will configure the system to provide the forms creation, workflow, and integration requirements which will be adapted to the following five agencies: Department of Labor, Department of Environmental Services, Department of Safety, Department of Administrative Services, and Department of Health and Human Services.
3. Train designated technical staff on software installation and configuration; train designated technical staff on software administration, forms creation, and data management, as well as training designated agency users on software operation, giving the State independence in the configuration, forms creation, and use of the forms system.

The implementation of Business One Stop is a major step towards increasing the user friendliness of the State's business environment. Several agencies will come on line during the first year and thereafter others will follow. Agencies will begin with a few forms and make a major investment over time, automating virtually all their business related forms. For this reason, we are requesting an additional 5-year extension with the approval of the Governor and Executive Council. This will ensure continuity of operations and maximize the State's investment in this technology. Funding for the extension years is dependent upon future budget appropriations.

Your favorable consideration of this request is appreciated.

Respectfully submitted,

Peter C. Hastings
Commissioner

The State may terminate this Contract and any sub-contract or sub-agreement if it is determined that payments, gratuities or offers of employment of any kind were offered or received by any officials, officers, employees or agents of the Contractor or Sub-Contractor.

3. Retroactive Payments

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in the Contract or in any other document, contract or understanding, it is expressly understood and agreed by the parties hereto, that no payments will be made hereunder to reimburse the Contractor for costs incurred for any purpose or for any services provided to any individual prior to the Effective Date of the Contract and no payments shall be made for expenses incurred by the Contractor for any services provided prior to the date on which the individual applies for services or (except as otherwise provided by the federal regulations) prior to a determination that the individual is eligible for such services.

4. CONDITIONAL NATURE OF AGREEMENT.

Notwithstanding any provision of this Agreement to the contrary, all obligations of the State hereunder, including without limitation, the continuance of payments, in whole or in part, under this Agreement are contingent upon continued appropriation or availability of funds, including any subsequent changes to the appropriation or availability of funds affected by any state or federal legislative or executive action that reduces, eliminates, or otherwise modifies the appropriation or availability of funding for this Agreement and the Scope of Services provided in Exhibit A, Scope of Services, in whole or in part. In no event shall the State be liable for any payments hereunder in excess of appropriated or available funds. In the event of a reduction, termination or modification of appropriated or available funds, the State shall have the right to withhold payment until such funds become available, if ever. The State shall have the right to

The State shall not be required to transfer funds from any other source or account into the Account(s) identified in block 1.6 of the General Provisions, Account Number, or any other account, in the event funds are reduced or unavailable.

2. SUBPARAGRAPH 10 of the General Provisions of this contract, Termination, is amended by adding the following language;

10.1 The State may terminate the Agreement at any time for any reason, at the sole discretion of the State, 30 days after giving the Contractor written notice that the State is exercising its option to terminate the Agreement.

10.2 In the event of early termination, the Contractor shall, within 15 days of notice of early termination, develop and submit to the State a Transition Plan for services under the Agreement, including but not limited to, identifying the present and future needs of clients receiving services under the Agreement and establishes a process to meet those needs.

EXHIBIT F – TESTING SERVICES

Windsor Solutions, Inc. shall provide the following Products and Services described in this Exhibit F, including but not limited to:

1. TESTING AND ACCEPTANCE

Windsor shall bear all responsibilities for the full suite of Test Planning and preparation throughout the Project. Windsor will also provide training as necessary to the State staff responsible for test activities. Windsor shall be responsible for all aspects of testing contained in the Acceptance Test Plan including support, at no additional cost, during User Acceptance Test conducted by the State and the testing of the training materials.

The Test Plan methodology shall reflect the needs of the Project and be included in the finalized Work Plan. A separate Test Plan and set of test materials will be prepared for each Software function or module.

All Testing and Acceptance (both business and technically oriented testing) shall apply to testing the System as a whole, (e.g., software modules or functions, and Implementation(s)). This shall include planning, test scenario and script development, Data and System preparation for testing, and execution of Unit Tests, System Integration Tests, Conversion Tests, Installation tests, Regression tests, Performance Tuning and Stress tests, Security Review and tests, and support of the State during User Acceptance Test and Implementation.

In addition, Windsor shall provide a mechanism for reporting actual test results vs. expected results and for the resolution and tracking of all errors and problems identified during test execution. Windsor shall also correct Deficiencies and support required re-testing.

1.1. Test Planning and Preparation

Windsor shall provide the State with an overall Test Plan that will guide all testing. The Windsor provided, State approved, Test Plan will include, at a minimum, identification, preparation, and Documentation of planned testing, a requirements traceability matrix, test variants, test scenarios, test cases, test scripts, test Data, test phases, unit tests, expected results, and a tracking method for reporting actual versus expected results as well as all errors and problems identified during test execution.

As identified in the Acceptance Test Plan, and documented in accordance with the Work Plan and the Contract, State testing will commence upon Windsor's Project Manager's Certification, in writing, that Windsor's own staff has successfully executed all prerequisite Windsor testing, along with reporting the actual testing results, prior to the start of any testing executed by State staff. The State will be presented with a State approved Acceptance Test Plan, test scenarios, test cases, test scripts, test data, and expected results.

The State will commence its testing within five (5) business days of receiving Certification from Windsor that the State's personnel have been trained and the System is installed, configured, complete, and ready for State testing. The testing will be conducted by the State in an environment independent from Windsor's development environment. Windsor must assist the State with testing in accordance with the Test Plan and the Work Plan, utilizing test and live Data to validate reports, and conduct stress and performance testing, at no additional cost.

Testing begins upon completion of the Software configuration as required and user training according to the Work Plan. Testing ends upon issuance of a letter of UAT Acceptance by the State.

Vendor must demonstrate that their testing methodology can be integrated with the State standard methodology.

1.2. Unit Testing

In Unit Testing, Windsor shall test the application components on an individual basis to verify that the inputs, outputs, and processing logic of each application component functions without errors. Unit testing is performed in either the development environment or a testing environment.

The goal is to find errors in the smallest unit of software before logically linking it into larger units. If successful, subsequent testing should only reveal errors related to the integration between application modules.

The Windsor developer, who is responsible for a specific unit of work, will be responsible for conducting the unit testing of their modules.

Activity Description	Develop the scripts needed to unit test individual application modules, interface(s) and conversion components.
	For application modules, conversions and interfaces the Windsor team will identify applicable test scripts and installation instructions, adapt them to the Project specifics, test the process, and compare with the documented expected results.
	Unit-Tested Modules that have been tested to verify that the inputs, outputs, and processing logic of each application module functions without errors. Individual detailed test scripts and installation guides list all the required actions and data to conduct the test, the process for test execution, and the expected results.

1.3. System Integration Testing

The new System is tested in integration with other application systems (legacy and service providers) in a production-like environment. System Integration Testing validates the integration between the individual unit application modules and verifies that the new System meets defined requirements and supports execution of interfaces and business processes. The System Integration Test is performed in a test environment.

Thorough end-to-end testing shall be performed by the Windsor team(s) to confirm that the Application integrates with any interfaces. The test emphasizes end-to-end business processes and the flow of information across applications (IF APPROPRIATE). It includes all key business processes and interfaces being implemented, confirms data transfers with external parties, and includes the transmission or printing of all electronic and paper documents.

1.4. Conversion Validation Testing

In Conversion Validation Testing, target application functions are validated.

	The conversion validation test should replicate the entire flow of the converted data through the Software Solution. As the Software Solution is interfaced to legacy or third-party applications/interfaces, testing verifies that the resulting flow of the converted data through these interface points performs correctly.
	For conversions and interfaces, the Windsor team will execute the applicable validation tests and compare execution results with the documented expected results.
	Extract and cleanse, if necessary, the legacy data to be converted in the data conversions
	Validation-Tested Conversion Programs. These programs include conversion programs that have been tested to verify that the resulting converted legacy data performs correctly in the entire suite of the Application.

1.5. Installation Testing

1.6. User Acceptance Testing (UAT)

UAT begins upon completion of the Software configuration as required and user training according to the Work Plan. Testing ends upon issuance of a letter of UAT Acceptance by the State.

The Vendor's Project Manager must certify in writing, that the Vendor's own staff has successfully executed all prerequisite Vendor testing, along with reporting the actual testing results prior to the start of any testing executed by State staff.

The State shall be presented with all testing results, as well as written Certification that Windsor has successfully completed the prerequisite tests, meeting the defined Acceptance Criteria, and performance standards. The State shall commence testing within five (5) business days of receiving Certification, in writing, from Windsor that the system is installed, configured, complete and ready for State testing. The State shall conduct the UAT utilizing scripts developed as identified in the Acceptance Test Plan to validate the functionality of the System and the interfaces, and verify Implementation readiness. UAT is performed in a copy of the production environment and can serve as a performance and stress test of the System. The User Acceptance Test may cover any aspect of the new System, including administrative procedures (such as backup and recovery).

The User Acceptance Test (UAT) is a verification process performed in a copy of the production environment. The User Acceptance Test verifies System functionality against predefined Acceptance criteria that support the successful execution of approved business processes.

UAT will also serve as a performance and stress test of the System. It may cover any aspect of the new System, including administrative procedures such as backup and recovery. The results of the UAT provide evidence that the new System meets the User Acceptance criteria as defined in the Work Plan.

The results of the User Acceptance Test provide evidence that the new System meets the User Acceptance criteria as defined in the Work Plan.

Upon successful conclusion of UAT and successful System deployment, the State will issue a letter of UAT Acceptance and the respective Warranty Period shall commence

1.7. Performance Tuning and Stress Testing

Windsor shall develop and document hardware and Software configuration and tuning of nFORM infrastructure as well as assist and direct the State’s System Administrators and Database Administrators in configuring and tuning the infrastructure to support the software throughout the Project

1.7.1. Scope

The scope of performance testing shall measure the system level metrics critical for the development of the applications infrastructure and operation of the applications in the production environment. It will include the measurement of response rates of the application for end-user transactions and resource utilization (of various servers and network) under various load conditions. These response rates shall become the basis for changes and retesting until optimum system performance is achieved.

The application transactions shall be identified with specific roles and selected transactions shall be recorded for the performance measurements. These will be compared to baselines to determine if object and/or system performance increases as changes are made.

Performance testing shall consider the full scope of the application infrastructure with emphasis on the most heavily used or shared transactions. Performance testing of the application will profile the identified user transactions and assist in the identifying performance gaps to improve the most critical parts of the applications.

Performance testing and tuning shall occur in the final production environment and shall use a copy of the final production database to provide the best results.

Windsor must lead this effort. Responsibilities include identifying appropriate tunable parameters and their default and recommended settings, developing scripts which accurately reflect business load and coordinating reporting of results.

1.7.2. Test types

Performance testing shall use two different types of tests to determine the stability of the application. They are baseline tests and load tests

- a. Baseline Tests: Baseline tests shall collect performance data and load analysis by running scripts where the output is broken down into business transactions or functions. The test is like a single user executing a defined business transaction. During baseline testing, each individual script is run to establish a baseline for transaction response time, throughput and other user-based metrics. Usually each

STATE OF NEW HAMPSHIRE
DEPARTMENT OF INFORMATION TECHNOLOGY
AUTOMATED FORMS SUBMITTAL PROJECT
CONTRACT 2014-069 - PART 3
EXHIBIT F – TESTING SERVICES

business transaction is executed multiple times during a single test run to obtain an average for the user-based metrics required for the performance testing evaluations. It must be noted that changes made to the code after baseline testing is completed will skew the results collected to date. All effort will be made to provide a code test base that is tested in the environment for problems prior to the establishment of the baseline, which are used in future testing and tuning efforts. Any changes introduced into the environment after performance testing has started can compromise the accuracy of the results and will force a decision to be made whether baseline results need to be recreated.

- b. Load Tests: Load testing will determine if the behavior of a system can be sustained over a long period of time while running under expected conditions. Load tests help to verify the ability of the application environment under different load conditions based on work load distribution. System response time and utilization is measured and recorded.

1.7.3. Tuning

Tuning will occur during both the development of the application and load testing. Tuning is the process whereby the application performance is maximized. This can be the result of making code more efficient during development as well as making tuning parameter changes to the environment.

For infrastructure tuning, parameters will be identified for all components prior to undertaking the load testing efforts. This should include a list of the variables, their definitions, the default settings, range of acceptable settings and the settings as testing begins. This will permit the team to identify the areas of most potential gain and a starting point. Tuning is a process which is repeated until the team feels that the systems are running at or near optimum performance.

1.7.4. Implementing Performance and Stress Test

Performance and Stress test Tools must be provided by the vendor for this effort. Consideration must be given to licensing with respect to continued use for regression testing. If the vendor is familiar with open source low/no cost tools for this purpose those tools should be identified in your response.

1.7.5. Scheduling Performance and Stress Testing

Windsor shall perform Test Planning. The steps for planning include identification of application functionality as well as what percentage of normal daily use is represented by each function. This information will become the foundation for scripting so that tests closely represent what loads in production will look like.

Windsor shall provide definition and expectations from testing. This definition should include who is in charge of testing and coordinating results, anticipated run times, logs required for tracking, their locations and which technician is responsible to track and provide them following each test to the team.

Initial test runs shall be completed to establish that the tests and data sets can be run to completion without errors. The ratio of types of transactions which makeup the test shall

STATE OF NEW HAMPSHIRE
DEPARTMENT OF INFORMATION TECHNOLOGY
AUTOMATED FORMS SUBMITTAL PROJECT
CONTRACT 2014-069 - PART 3
EXHIBIT F – TESTING SERVICES

be reviewed prior to the beginning of testing and then again once testing has begun to make sure that testing accurately reflects the system performing in production.

Initial tests shall be used to establish a baseline from which all subsequent tests will be compared. Tests will be considered for baseline status once two of them have been run within 2% of each other in key and overall performance areas. No changes to the test scripts or data sets (with the exception of restores after each test) can be done to the test environment once tuning has begun so as to not damage the comparison to baseline results. The systems must be restarted prior to each test run to assure all cache is cleaned out. All effort will be made to run these tests at a time when system and network infrastructure utilization doesn't impact the results. Tests will be run in close proximity to our infrastructure so as to eliminate the public network from our environment.

Posttest reporting and result assessment will be scheduled following each test. The team will compare these results to the baseline and a determination must be made to make additional changes to the parameter being tuned or return to the prior configuration and select another parameter to tune while keeping in mind that significant changes to any one parameter may require the retesting of some others. Careful work on identifying dependencies up front should minimize this impact.

If defects are identified in the application during testing they will be recorded; however, changes to the application code should be avoided if possible so as not to affect baseline comparisons. If a change to the application is required new baselines will be established (and possibly the execution of prior tests to validate changes with the new application) before testing can continue.

When performing capacity testing against a GUI the focus will be on the ability of the interface to respond to user input.

During stress/load testing the tester will attempt to stress or load an aspect of the system to the point of failure. The goal being to determine weak points in the system architecture. The tester will identify peak load conditions at which the program will fail to handle required processing loads within required time spans.

During Performance testing the tester will design test case scenarios to determine if the system meets the stated performance criteria (i.e. A Login request shall be responded to in 1 second or less under a typical daily load of 1000 requests per minute.). In both cases the tester will determine the capacity of the system under a known set of conditions.

1.7.6. Regression Testing

As a result, of the user testing activities, problems will be identified that require correction. The State will notify the Vendor of the nature of the testing failures in writing. The Vendor will be required to perform additional testing activities in response to State and/or user problems identified from the testing results. Regression testing means selective re-testing to detect faults introduced during the modification effort, both to verify that the modifications have not caused unintended adverse effects, and to verify that the modified and related (possibly affected) System components still meet their specified requirements:

- a. For each minor failure of an Acceptance Test, the Acceptance Period shall be extended by corresponding time defined in the Test Plan.

Windsor will have up to five (5) business days to make corrections to the problem unless specifically extended in writing by the State.
- c. When a programming change is made in response to a problem identified during user testing, a regression Test Plan should be developed by Windsor based on the understanding of the program and the change being made to the program. The Test Plan has two objectives:
 1. Validate that the change/update has been properly incorporated into the program; and
 2. Validate that there has been no unintended change to the other portions of the program.
- d. Windsor will be expected to:
 1. Create a set of test conditions, test cases, and test data that will validate that the change has been incorporated correctly;
 2. Create a set of test conditions, test cases, and test data that will validate that the unchanged portions of the program still operate correctly; and
 3. Manage the entire cyclic process.
- e. Windsor will be expected to execute the regression test, provide actual testing results, and certify its completion in writing to the State prior to passing the modified Software application to the users for retesting.

In designing and conducting such regression testing, Windsor will be required to assess the risks inherent to the modification being implemented and weigh those risks against the time and effort required for conducting the regression tests. In other words, Windsor will be expected to design and conduct regression tests that will identify any unintended consequences of the modification while taking into account Schedule and economic considerations.

1.8. Security Review and Testing

EXHIBIT L – TRAINING SERVICES

Windsor shall provide the following Training Services.

Windsor provides training to clients based upon their specific needs. This is generally provided by the analysts that have the greatest familiarity with the applications being designed, developed, or deployed for the client. In general, training covers a set curriculum that is defined by the structure of each application and essentially follows the test case and user guides outline.

Rather than offering scheduled training sessions for the user community, Windsor prefers to establish trainers within a client's organization structure who can support the internal training needs of their staff. This train-the-trainer approach is more efficient for Windsor and more cost effective for the client. Staff members selected to become internal trainers will attend the courses that are relevant to them.

Where necessary, more technical training will be provided and in these cases it may not always be possible to use a train-the-trainer approach. Windsor will provide technical training in terms of implementation, administration and user support, as well as code reviews where necessary.

Windsor will facilitate technical knowledge transfer with staff to ensure the DoIT has the knowledge to maintain and administer the nFORM system. An Administrator's Guide will be provided that presents information pertinent to maintaining and administering the system such as installation instructions, configuration settings, common questions, common maintenance tasks and support guidelines.

A. Training

All courses are to be offered on-site in New Hampshire and shall be available for up to 15 students. Following the provision of classes, access to on-line course materials shall be provided for thirty (30) days through the online training library to the extent that it is available.

1. Delivery Method -Instructor-Led Class Training

This method helps build the in-depth knowledge and hands-on experience the State's employees will need to succeed in their job role with Windsor. From in-class demonstrations led by experienced Windsor instructors, to realistic hands-on labs, Instructor-Led In Class courses provide a dynamic learning environment.

This instruction is targeted to train the group of Users defined as Project Team, Users from Departments and selected Subject Matter Experts (SMEs).

2. Project Team Developed Training

- a. Windsor and the State agree to an end user training approach to meet training objectives, including:
 - 1) developing "in house" experts and end-user support channels that involve and leverage internal resources and subject matter experts (SMEs); and
 - 2) leveraging statewide access to computers and the Web by accessing On-line courses whenever possible to lessen time away from the job and reduce travel costs for those who are spread across the State.

The Training Plan shall address the specific curriculum for each user category and provide support for the design, development, and deployment of training for each user category. It shall also provide a blueprint for the State's Team to manage its resources, activities, and timeline throughout the course of the initiative.

3) Develop Training Curriculum

Windsor shall develop a recommended training curriculum for the State of New Hampshire End Users.

4) Produce Training Materials and End-User Documentation.
