JOSEPH A. FOSTER
ATTORNEY GENERAL

ANN M. RICE
DEPUTY ATTORNEY GENERAL

March 9, 2015

Her Excellency, Governor Margaret Wood Hassan
and the Honorable Council
State House
Concord, New Hampshire 03301

Your Excellency and Members of the Council:

REQUESTED ACTION

Pursuant to RSA 4:8, authorize the Department of Justice to accept a donation of morning refreshments (coffee, fruit and bagels) with an approximate value of $1,734 from Comcast for a training entitled "Human Trafficking for State Prosecutors" to be held April 16-17, 2015 at a Comcast administration building in Manchester, New Hampshire.

EXPLANATION

The Department of Justice is hosting a two-day training for professionals investigating and prosecuting human trafficking cases in New Hampshire and it is our hope to get 100 investigators and prosecutors from around the State in attendance. The National Association of Attorneys General Training and Research Institute (NAAGTRI), provides this training to states for free. Additionally, Comcast provides free training space at its facility to outside agencies so there is no cost to the Department to host this training, which will be made free for participants.

Comcast has a history of supporting victim's issues, especially those involving the exploitation of children. Therefore, they would like to provide morning refreshments to the presenters and attendees for each day of the training, at an estimated cost of $7.95 per person and total estimated donation of $1,590 plus tax.

Respectfully submitted,

Joseph A. Foster
Attorney General

Dear Attorney General Foster:

Comcast NBCUniversal would be pleased to support your upcoming "Human Trafficking for State Prosecutors" training to be held April 16-17, 2015 by hosting you at our 676 Island Pond Road facility in Manchester New Hampshire.

In addition to the use of the facility we will be providing refreshments which have an approximate value of $1,600 and include coffee, juice and morning pastries for up to 100 people attending each of the two days of training.

If I may be of any other assistance please do not hesitate to contact me at 603-224-1871 ext 201.

Regards,

Christopher Hodgdon
Vice President of Government Relations
Comcast NBCUniversal - New Hampshire
