FILING OF WITHDRAWAL OF CHRISTOPHER G. ASLIN, ESQ.

NOW COMES Petitioner, the New Hampshire Bureau of Securities Regulation (the “Bureau”), a part of the Corporations Division within the Department of State, by and through counsel, Bernstein, Shur, Sawyer & Nelson, P.A., and states as follows:

1. In HealthTrust’s November 6, 2014 Memorandum of Law In Support of Motion for Order Directing the BSR to Produce Certain Bernstein Shur Attorneys and Professionals and Certain BSR Attorneys at Hearing on Reasonableness of Attorneys’ Fees, they state at page 3, footnote 2, that Attorney Christopher G. Aslin has not filed a withdrawal in this matter.

2. Christopher Aslin prepared a withdrawal for filing in this matter on August 22, 2014. In the event that Atty. Aslin’s withdrawal was not filed in this matter, I have attached a copy of Atty. Aslin’s withdrawal so that the docket and record in this matter can be updated accordingly.

3. Effective August 22, 2014, Attorney Aslin was no longer employed at Bernstein Shur and has not represented the Petitioner since that time.

WHEREFORE, the Petitioner prays that the record in this matter be updated to reflect Atty. Aslin’s withdrawal effective August 22, 2014.

Respectfully submitted,

The Bureau of Securities Regulations
State of New Hampshire
By its attorneys,
Bernstein, Shur, Sawyer &
Nelson, P.A.
