

THE WHITE HOUSE
WASHINGTON

June 28, 1955

Dear Governor Dwinell:

First, may I tell you how much I enjoyed being with you throughout my memorable visit in New Hampshire? Your many kindnesses and the many wonderful occasions we participated in together, I shall never forget. My only regret was in not having Mrs. Eisenhower with me so that she too could have enjoyed the warm hospitality of your beautiful State.

I only wish I had the means of truly telling the people of New Hampshire how much this visit meant to me. Their graciousness and cordiality were overwhelming.

To you and Mrs. Dwinell, I send my deep appreciation.

Sincerely,

The Honorable Lane Dwinell
Governor of New Hampshire

THE WHITE HOUSE
WASHINGTON

March 11, 1955

Dear Governor Dwinell:

Yesterday morning, as you know, I had the opportunity to meet Chippa Granite and his mother, Mrs. Robert Elliott. They brought with them your kind invitation to visit New Hampshire during your Jubilee Year, commemorating the 150th anniversary of the discovery of the Old Man of the Mountain.

I am more than grateful for your courteous suggestion, and hopeful that some time I may find an opportunity to revisit your wonderful state. You know of course that never for a single day does Sherman Adams fail to impress upon me the delight to be found there.

Thank you too for the very first 1955 New Hampshire maple syrup!

Warm regard,

Sincerely,

The Honorable Lane Dwinell
Governor of New Hampshire

The Columbine

July 5, 1955

Dear Governor Dwinell:

On our arrival back in Washington after our recent trip to New England, we discovered this raincoat on board the Columbine. Upon my inquiry, Mr. Hagerty's office advised me that it belongs to Mrs. Dwinell; and I was asked to send it on to you.

Sincerely yours,

William W. Thomas
