Concord, New Hampshire 03301

REQUESTED ACTION

Authorize the Department of Natural and Cultural Resources, Division of the Arts, to award a Partnership Initiative Grant to the New Hampshire Learning Initiative, Inc. (VC #299943), Hampton, NH in the amount of $20,000 for the New Hampshire Poetry Out Loud High School Recitation Program effective upon Governor and Executive Council approval through June 30, 2021. 100% Federal Funds.

Funding is available in account, Federal Arts Partnership Grant, as follows:

03-035-035-353510-41110000-072-500575 – Grants-Federal	FY 2021
	$20,000

EXPLANATION

The New Hampshire Learning Institute, in partnership with NH State Council on the Arts, the National Endowment for the Arts, and the Poetry Foundation, is sponsoring the 2020-21 State of New Hampshire Poetry Out Loud National Recitation Project (NH POL). Since its inception, the NH POL program has worked with a non-profit Fiscal Agent through a partnership model. Pursuant to State of New Hampshire requirements for an open bid process, a Request for Proposal for a Fiscal Agent was issued to non-profit arts organizations for the 2020-21 NH POL Program and it was posted to our website. We received 2 proposals and the New Hampshire Learning Institute was chosen as the appropriate partner for the program.

This project encourages the New Hampshire youth to learn about great poetry through memorization and performance. The NH POL uses a pyramid structure that begins at the classroom level. Winners advance to a school-wide competition, then to the State competition, and ultimately to the National Finals. This year the semifinals will be held virtually with hopes to hold the State Finals in person in March 2021. This exciting program helps students master public speaking skills, build self-confidence, and learn about their literary heritage

The Attorney General's office has review and approved the grant agreement as to form, substance and execution.

Respectfully submitted,

Sarah L. Stewart
Commissioner

BOARD OF DIRECTORS 2020-2021

President

Val Zanchuk is President of Graphicast, Inc., a Jaffrey based manufacturer of precision-machined zinc alloy castings. Val has been active in STEM education and workforce development issues for almost 20 years. Val is past chair of the Business and Industry Association of New Hampshire, chair of the Manufacturing Strategic Partnership Initiative, and chair of the Governor's Pre-Engineering and Technology Advisory Council. He is also on the board of the New Hampshire Manufacturing Extension Partnership, the Manufacturing Leadership Council, the SEE Science Center, and serves on the State Workforce Innovation Board. Val received his BS and MEng degrees in Metallurgical Engineering from Lehigh University.

Treasurer

Dr. Mark Joyce served as executive director of the New Hampshire School Administrators' Association for 20 years, a private not-for-profit organization that represents all New Hampshire school system administrators and advocates on behalf of all children and public education. Mark advises businesses and organizations regarding education, leadership, and communication. He has taught grades 7-12, as well as at the graduate school level and has served as a school principal and as assistant superintendent of schools in New Hampshire. He has also served as a superintendent of schools in both New Hampshire and Maine.

Will Arvelo brings over 30 years of leadership experience within higher education and dealing with workforce development issues. A former President of Great Bay Community College, Will worked tirelessly to bridge higher education and business and industry to meet their workforce needs. Will is currently the Director for the State of New Hampshire Division of Economic Development. He is charged with oversight of the division, as well as developing a comprehensive economic development strategy for NH.

Christine Rath is the former Superintendent of Schools for the Concord, NH School District. She served in Concord for 30 years, as middle school principal, high school principal and Assistant Superintendent before becoming superintendent. Chris is currently an adjunct professor in school administration for the University of New Hampshire and Southern New Hampshire University and a teaching lecturer for Plymouth State University. She serves on the Advisory Committee for NHTI and is a member of the Central NH Regional Advisory Board for New Hampshire Charitable Fund.

Irv Richardson is currently the Coordinator for Public Education and School Support at NEA- New Hampshire. In this role, he provides professional learning opportunities for New Hampshire educators. Irv also teaches at Southern New Hampshire University in the Educational Leadership Doctoral Program. He has worked as an elementary classroom teacher, a principal, and as a senior consultant for TBA Consulting Group working extensively with states on projects such as Teacher Quality Enhancement grants, consulting with state department of education (New Hampshire, Connecticut, Rhode Island, South Carolina, and Hawaii), working on educator induction, developing leadership standards, working on the committee to write the 2011 InTASC standards and the InTASC learning progressions. Irv was Maine's Teacher of the Year in 1988 and received a National Educator Award from the Milken Foundation in 1993.
