9. Further Business:

A. In the Matter of Peter E. Smith, a hearing held June 4, 2012 where the order stated: “IT IS ORDERED, THAT, The license of Peter E. Smith is hereby suspended for the period of 2 years. IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, THAT, Peter E. Smith pay a fine of $1000 to the State of NH. IT IS FURTHER ORDERED THAT, Peter E. Smith, at his own expense, return all unsold items to the consignor/complainant. If Mr. Smith makes full restitution of all monies and property to the consignor/complainant within 60 calendar days of the receipt of this order, his license shall be reinstated at that time and placed on probationary status for the remainder of the term, and $750 of the fine due to the State of NH will be suspended for the duration of the license probationary period. If Mr. Smith does not make full restitution with the consignor/complainant within 60 calendar days of the receipt of this order, then the additional $750 will be due to the state of NH and the license suspension shall remain in full force and effect for the entire 2 year period.

The consignor received check #11435 dated August 8, 2012 from Peter E. Smith Associates, which he tried to deposit on August 21, 2012 in the amount of $2,805 for payment of consignment to which he was owed, however, the bank stamped the check NSF (non-sufficient funds), and the consignor is still due monies.

As such, Peter E. Smith is in violation of the Board’s Decision and Order dated June 14, 2012, and therefore is ORDERED to pay the additional $750 to the State of New Hampshire within 60 calendar days of the receipt of this order, and it is also ORDERED that the license of Peter E. Smith be suspended for the remainder of the 2 year period ending June 14, 2014.
