OFFICIAL NOTICE OF DISPUTE AS TO THE
 NON BONA FIDES OF FOUR REPUBLICAN
 CANDIDATES FOR PRESIDENT

Dear Attorney General Foster,

I wish to NOTIFY you that the bona-fides of four Republican Candidates to be President is hereby DISPUTED. It is claimed that the following persons do NOT meet the United States Constitutional requirement that one be a "Natural-Born Citizen" in order to be President under Article II, Sec.1. The U.S. Supreme Court in Minor v Happersett, U.S. Supreme Court 88 U.S. 162 (1875) ruled that:

"The Constitution does not, in words, say who shall be natural born citizens. Resort must be had elsewhere to ascertain that....It was never doubted that all children born in a country of parents [Emphasis added] who are citizens became themselves, upon their birth, citizens also....these were natural born citizens"

The court went on to make reference to the citizenship status of those citizens who derived their citizenship from parents who were not citizens themselves, saying "as to this class there have been doubts".

I am disputing the bona-fides of:

Marco Rubio-NOT an NBC. He was born in the U.S. However his Parents were un-naturalized "Permanent resident" Cuban citizens when he was born

Ted Cruz-NOT an NBC. He was born in Canada to a Cuban Father and American Mother who may have naturalized as a Canadian.

Bobby Jindal- NOT an NBC. He was born in the U.S. to Parents who were un-naturalized Citizens of India at the time of Bob Jindal's birth.

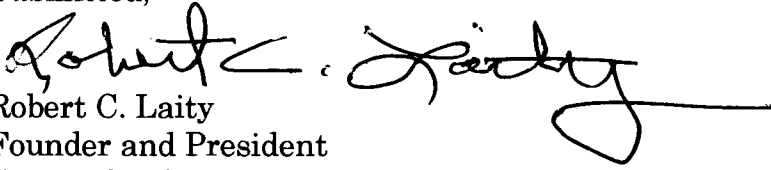

Rick Santorum-NOT an NBC. He was born in the U.S. to a Father who was an Italian citizen not naturalized at the time of Rick's birth.

This is a repeat of what Barack Obama did in 2008 and 2012 and John McCain did in 2008. Both of them are ineligible.
