- Lauren Sisneros, LESN Coordinator and State Relations Manager, Education Commission of the States

10 - 11:15 a.m. SESSION 1

Trending Topics in State Education Policy in 2019

Which state education policy issues are top of mind for legislators, governors, chiefs and SHEEOs in 2019? This presentation includes a brief overview of the top eight issues addressed in state legislation and highlighted in governors' State of the States addresses this legislative season. It is followed by multiple rounds of rotating, facilitated small-group discussions to allow us to delve more deeply and share specific state strategies around these issue areas.

Session Lead:

- Sharmila Mann, Director of Policy, Education Commission of the States

11:15 - 11:30 a.m. Break

11:30 a.m. - 12:30 p.m. SESSION 2

Why Do Bills Fail? A Look at Failed School Finance Legislation in the 2019 Legislative Sessions

In the 2019 legislative sessions, there were over 700 introduced pieces of legislation that aimed to change a state's school funding system. Yet the vast majority of these bills (about 650) will never become law. Of the major trends in education funding legislation — including funding formulas, sources of revenue, funding for high-need student populations and teacher compensation — why do most bills fail? What can we learn from other state experiences? This presentation includes small group discussions to answer these questions and more.

Session Lead:

- Emily Parker, Senior Policy Analyst, Education Commission of the States

12:30 - 1:15 p.m. Lunch

1:15 - 2:15 p.m. SESSION 3

Talent Development: Exploring Connections Between Education and Work

States across the country are striving to meet educational attainment goals and connect to the needs of local labor markets. This session explores considerations in state talent development policy. We also will interpret findings from a national survey of perceptions of higher education and its connection to workforce opportunities.

Session Lead:

- Sarah Pingel, Senior Policy Analyst, Education Commission of the States

2:15 - 2:30 p.m. Break

2:30 - 3:30 p.m. PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT BREAKOUT 1

Ethics and Civility

This session explores ethical values and how they can help guide decisions and actions. We also will define civility and identify ways staff can protect and promote civility, including communication skills and personal empowerment.

Resource Expert:

- Mark Quiner, Director, Center for Ethics in Government, National Conference of State Legislatures

3:30 - 4:30 p.m. SESSION 4

Early Learning

This session focuses on some of the specifics and rationales for trending early learning topics, including governance structures, preschool, full-day kindergarten, quality, alignment and equity. Other topics include third-grade reading and math proficiency and financing.

Session Lead:

- Bruce Atchison, Principal, Education Commission of the States
