The Department of Health and Human Services encourages and supports employees who wish to further their professional growth through continuing education in disciplines that are mutually advantageous.

This course, offered by New England College, entitled, Governmental Policy Makers, examines the way in which the United States Congress plays an indispensable role in the formulation of Public Policy. This course examines the way this complex institution fulfills its essential role in dealing with committees, lobbyists, the executive branch, constituency groups, and the media, and the way these groups help shape policy in local, regional, and state government.

This employee has worked for the Department for eleven years and is currently a Program Planning and Review Specialist in the Bureau of Homeless and Housing. The skills mastered in this program will benefit her office by increasing understanding of how federal and state governmental policy is formulated which will strengthen her ability to communicate and apply Department policies to her unit and to the clients she serves. Successful completion of the program will add to the overall strength of the Department to perform its mission to the residents of New Hampshire. This course will not be taken on State time.
