Economic Stability and Opportunities Advisory Council
August 7, 2016
Hyatt Regency McCormick Place Hotel
Chicago, Illinois

Goals: The overall objective of this advisory council is to identify key policies and innovative practices that address stability for vulnerable children and their families that can be integrated in a toolkit that will serve as a resource for other state legislators.

Meeting objectives: The meeting is designed to provide time, information, thought partners, and facilitation to assist members of the advisory council in identifying the salient and common issues as well as potential policies which can be implemented in each state. At the end of the meeting, the advisory council will identify specific policy areas that would address the key issues related to economic stability to use along with a set of potential policy recommendations.
