NCSL Legislative Summit Preconference Meeting

Family First Policy Forum

Sunday, August 4, 2019 – Omni Nashville Hotel

Legends A&B Room

This invitational preconference session, sponsored by Casey Family Programs, is designed to educate and engage lawmakers in the new federal Family First Prevention Services Act of 2018. Attendees will learn about the major provisions of the legislation and potential benefits for improving policymaking around vulnerable children and families.

Policymakers will discuss implementation issues, how to assess what their states will need to do to meet the goals of Family First, and important stakeholders to bring to the table. Legislators in attendance will develop plans of action that will contain goals, anticipated outcomes, a timeline and partners to engage.

Participants will gain the following:

- Increased understanding of the major provisions of the Family First Prevention Services Act.
- Ways to use the new law to approach major reform of the child welfare system in their states.
- Greater awareness of Family First planning and implementation issues and strategies to address those issues in their states.
- New professional connections to support continued learning and engagement.
