BIOGRAPHICAL NOTES BY THE EDITOR.

[The editor would have been pleased to give brief sketches of all the delegates in the foregoing list, had the means of doing it been at his command. The sketches that follow are gathered from such sources of information as were accessible, and may be relied on as essentially correct. Many names in this list are also found among the representatives in the convention to revise the constitution in 1791-2. Of a portion of these, with many others, sketches will be appended to the journal of that convention.—ED.]

- (1) JOHN LANGDON, Esq., one of New Hampshire's most distinguished citizens, was born in Portsmouth, 1740; son of John L. and grandson of Tobias Langdon. He was one of the party which siezed Fort William and Mary, at New Castle, 1774, and carried away the powder and military stores; a delegate to the continental congress in 1775 and 1775; representative and speaker of the house of representatives, N. H., 1776 and 1777; he forwarded the expedition, under Gen. Stark, to cut off Burgoyne's march, 1777; judge of the court of common pleas; in 1779 he was continental agent in New Hampshire for building of public ships; and again delegate to congress, in 1783. In 1784-5, he was a member of the N. H. senate, and in the latter year was president of the state, and in November, 1788, was elected senator of the United States, and was the first president, pro tem., of that body under the federal constitution. He served in the senate two terms. From 1805 to 1808, and again in 1810 and 1811, he was governor of the state. Governor Langdon was eminent for his personal dignity, his patriotism, his capacity for offices of high honor and trust, and for his religious reverence and devotion. He was a member of the first church in Portsmouth. An excellent portrait of him is in the council chamber of the state. He died Sept. 18, 1819, aged 78. (See Allen's Biog. Dic., and N. H. State Pap., Vols. VII and VIII.)
- (2) PIERCE LONG, Esq., first appears in the provincial records as an active and influential member of the 4th provincial congress, at Exeter, May, 1775, and again in December of that year. In 1776 he had command of the forces to defend the harbor and fortresses of the Piscataqua; in November, 1777, he marched his regiment to Ticonderoga. He often represented the town of Portsmouth, and filled many offices, military and civil, with fidelity and honor.

- (3) JOHN TAYLOR GILMAN, Esq., of Exeter, was son of Nicholas Gilman, who married Ann Taylor, a daughter of Rev. John Taylor, of Milton, Mass. He was born Dec. 19, 1733. With only the advantages of a common academic education, he rose to distinction in all the public offices of the state. The morning after the news of the battle of Lexington, he marched as a volunteer, with a hundred others, to Cambridge. In 1782 he was a member of congress; in 1783, treasurer of the state, and again in 1791-93. He filled the office of governor from 1794 to 1805; was again elected in 1813, 1814, and 1815. His long and useful services were gratefully acknowledged by the legislature in a farewell address. Politically he was known as a federalist. He died in Exeter, September, 1828, aged 74.
- (4) Col. Daniel Runnels, or Reynolds, of Londonderry, served as captain in Col. Nichols's regiment at the battle of Bennington, also as captain in Col. Peabody's regiment in Rhode Island in 1778. He was representative from Londonderry, and an able and distinguished citizen.

- (6) Hon. Josiah Bartlett, Esq., takes rank with the most eminent of New Hampshire's sons. He was born in Amesbury, Mass., in 1720,—son of Stephen Bartlett. In his profession of medicine he acquired distinction, but was called from a successful practice to fill offices of trust and honor in the state and in the national congress. He was one of the signers of the Declaration of Independence, July, 1776; chief justice of the court of common pleas (N. H.), 1779; justice of the superior court, 1784,—chief justice in 1788. In 1790 he was chosen by the legislature president of New Hampshire, and in 1701 he was elected to the same office by the people; and, under the revised constitution, he was chosen governor, 1792. He was appointed judge of the district court of New Hampshire by Washington, 1789, which office he held till his death, Jan. 23, 1795, at the age of 54. In 1781 he petitioned for liberty to raise a company of sixty men, to be employed as scouts, for the defence of the western frontiers. In the disputes with Vermont about the New Hampshire grants, he was appointed by the town of Cornish, March 9, 1779. as their agent to attend a convention in Dresden, on the 20th of July; and at an adjourned meeting, Aug. 30th, the same year, the voters present unanimously rejected the plan of government for the state of New Hampshire, which was sent to them. ### STATE OF NEW HAMPSHIRE.

In Convention of the Delegates of the People of the State of New Hampshire, June 21st, 1788:—

The Convention having impartially discussed and fully [P. 34-] considered the Constitution for the United States of America, reported to Congress by the Convention of Delegates from the United States of America, and submitted to us by a Resolution of the General Court of said State passed the fourteenth day of December last past, and acknowledging with grateful hearts the Goodness of the Supreme Ruler of the Universe in affording the People of the United States, in the course of his Providence, an opportunity, deliberately and peaceably, without fraud or surprise, of entering into an explicit and solemn compact with each other, by assenting to and ratifying a new Constitution, in order to form a more perfect union, establish justice, insure domestic tranquillity, provide for the common defence, promote the general welfare and secure the blessings of Liberty to themselves and their posterity, Do in the name and in behalf of the people of the State of New Hampshire, assent to and ratify the said Constitution for the United States of America; and as it is the opinion of this Convention, [P. 35.] that certain amendments and alterations in the said Constitution would remove the fears and quiet the apprehensions of many of the good people of this State, and more effectually guard against an undue administration of the federal Government, the Convention do therefore recommend that the following alterations and provisions be introduced into the said Constitution;

First, That it be explicitly declared that all powers not expressly and particularly delegated by the aforesaid Constitution, are reserved to the several States to be by them exercised.

Secondly, That there shall be one Representative to every thirty Thousand persons according to the Census mentioned in the Constitution, until the whole number of Representatives amounts to two hundred.

Thirdly, That Congress do not exercise the power vested in them by the fourth Section of the first Article, but in cases when a State shall neglect or refuse to make the reg[P. 36.] ulations therein mentioned, or shall make regulations subversive of the rights of the people to a free and equal representation in Congress, nor shall Congress in any case make regulations contrary to a free and equal representation.

Fourthly, That Congress do not lay direct Taxes but when the money arising from the impost excise and their other resources are insufficient for the public exigencies; nor then, until Congress shall have first made a requisition upon the States to assess, Levy and pay their respective proportions of such requisition agreeably to the census fixed in the said Constitution, in such way and manner as the Legislature of the State shall think best; and in such case, if any State shall neglect, then Congress may assess and Levy such State's proportion, together with the interest thereon at the rate of six pr. cent pr. Annum from the time of payment prescribed in such requisition.

Sixthly, That no person shall be tried for any crime by which he may incur an infamous punishment or loss of life, until he be first indicted by a grand jury—except in such cases as may arise in the government and regulation of the land and naval forces.

Secondly, All common law cases between citizens of different States shall be commenced in the Common Law Courts of the respective States, and no appeal shall be allowed to the federal Courts in such cases, unless the sum or value of the thing in controversy amount to three hundred? dollars.

Eighthly, In civil actions between citizens of different States, every issue of fact arising in actions at common Law, shall be tried by a jury if the parties or either of them request it.

Ninthly, Congress shall at no time consent that any person holding an office of trust or profit under the United [P. 38.] States, shall accept a title of nobility or any other title or office, from any king, prince or foreign State.

Tenthly, That no standing army shall be kept up in time of peace, unless with the consent of three fourths of the members of each branch of Congress; nor shall soldiers in a time of peace, be quartered upon private houses without the consent of the owners.

Eleventhly, Congress shall make no Laws touching religion or to infringe the rights of conscience.

Twelfthly, Congress shall never disarm any citizen, unless such as are or have been in actual rebellion.

And the Convention do, in the name and in behalf of the people of this State enjoin it upon their Representatives in Congress, at all times, until the alterations and provisions aforesaid have been considered, agreeably to the fifth article of the said Constitution, to exert all their Influence and use all reasonable and legal methods to obtain a Ratification of the said alterations and provisions in such manner as is provided in the said article.

President of Convention, and John Langdon, Esq<sup>r</sup>. President of the State, transmit the same countersigned by the Secretary of Convention and the Secretary of the State under their hands and seals, to the United States in Congress assembled.*

JOHN CALFE, Secretary.

[Dr. Belknap, in his history of New Hampshire, says,—"This was the nimth State in the union which accepted the Constitution; and thus the number was completed which was necessary to put in motion the political machine."—ED.]

*The adoption and ratification of the Constitution, by the Convention of the people of New Hampshire, was the occasion of great joy to all the friends of the Union throughout the country. It was announced to Gov. John Hancock, of Massachusetts, in a letter, by Presi-dent Sullivan, as follows:

Mr. Duncan rose and said, in his Scottish accent,—"Mr. Speaker: There are different kinds of pallyars: there is a kind of pallyars that supports buildings; there is also another kind of pallyars called cater-pallyars, that devour men's substance. [P. 37.] A JOURNAL of the Proceedings of the Convention of the State of New Hampshire for revising the Constitution of said State.

Upwards of eighty members met in Convention agreably to precepts issued for that purpose: After making choice of the Honbl Timothy Walker, Esq. as chairman and being sworn, proceeded to the choice of a Secretary by ballot, and John Calfe, Esq. was chosen and sworn for that purpose.

Motion was then made for the choice of a President and the Honbl. Samuel Livermore, Esq. was chosen.

Voted, That Mr. Cilley, Mr. Thompson, Mr. Newcomb, Mr. Walker & Mr. Macgregore be a Committee to examine the returns of the several members and report thereon.

Voted, That Mr. Plummer, Mr. Page, Mr. Rogers, Mr. [P. 38.] Livermore & Mr. Atherton be a Committee to report such rules as they may judge necessary to be observed in regulating the proceedings in this Convention.

Voted that the Rev<sup>d</sup> Mr. Evans be requested to attend and officiate as Chaplain (1) to this Convention during their present Session.

Adjourned to 9 o'clock to-morrow morning.

Thursday, Septr 8th, 1791.

Met according to adjournment.

The Committee to examine the returns having reported: Resolved that the returns of members from the Towns and districts intitled to send delegates to this Convention be received and deemed sufficient unless any particular objection is made thereto.

With respect to Towns that had chosen members, who had not heretofore sent Representatives to the General Court, the Committee reported as follows:—That the Town of Epsom is intitled by Constitution to send a member to Convention.

<sup>(1)</sup> The Rev. Israel Evans was at this time minister of Concord, and pastor of the Congregational church. He was a chaplain in the army during the revolution. From 1779 till the close of the war he was connected with the New Hampshire brigade, at first under the command of Gen. Encoh Poor. He was a great admirer and friend of Gen. Washington. It is related that in his last sitchness, being visited by Rev. Dr. McParland, his successor in office, the latter prayed for him, "That at life's close he might sit down with Abraham, Issac, and Jacob in the kingdom of God." To which Mr. Evans audibly added, "and with Washington, too." He died in Concord, March 9, 1807, in the 60th year of his age.—ED.

[P. 39.] They have also had satisfactory evidence to them, that Northwood & Allenstown have a Constitutional right to send a member, & that Allenstown was notified to join in the meeting at which Jonathan Clark Esq was chosen.

It appears to your Committee from evidence satisfactory to them that Hinnekar & Hillsborough each have a right by the Constitution to send members.

The Town of Litchfield hath not been classed with any other Town for representation since the Constitution was adopted & therefore have not been represented in the General Court, but would have been entitled to send a member had they petitioned the General Court for the purpose.

That Rochester has a Constitutional right to send two members to the Convention.

The foregoing report was accepted, and the Delegates allowed a seat in Convention.

The Committee to report such Rules as they judged necessary to be observed in regulating the proceedings in Convention reported the following rules.

a vote of the Convention.

16th. No person except a member or an officer of this Convention shall be allowed to come within the Bar of the House, (1) except such public characters as the President may invite, for whom particular seats shall be assigned.

<sup>(1)</sup> The meeting of the convention was held in the town-house in Concord, built in 1790, and designed at the time partly for the accommodation of the general court. It was a one-story building, on the spot where the city hall stands, with a door in the middle. The interest of the stands of the stands of the content of the senate, on the south, the house of representatives, on the north side, and the other for the senate, on the south, when the stands were the stands of the senate court held its sessions till the completion of the state house in 1819. ## THE CONSTITUTION OF NEW HAMPSHIRE.

PART I.

THE BILL OF RIGHTS.

ARTICLE 1st.

All men are born equally free and independent: Therefore, all government, of right, originates from the people, is founded in consent, and instituted for the general good.

All men have certain natural, essential, and inherent rights—among which are, the enjoying and defending life and liberty; acquiring, possessing, and protecting property; and, in a word, of seeking and obtaining happiness.

When men enter into a state of society, they surrender up some of their natural rights to that society, in order to ensure the protection of others; and, without such an equivalent, the surrender is void.

Among the natural rights, some are, in their very nature, unalienable, because no equivalent can be given or received for them. Of this kind are the RIGHTS OF CONSCIENCE.

Every individual has a natural and unalienable right to worship God according to the dictates of his own conscience and reason; and no subject shall be hurt, molested, or restrained, in his person, liberty, or estate, for worshipping God in the manner and season most agreeable to the dictates of his own conscience, or for his religious profession, sentiments, or persuasion; provided he doth not disturb the public peace, or disturb others in their religious worship.

As morality and piety, rightly grounded on evangelical principles, will give the best and greatest security to government, and will lay, in the hearts of men, the strongest obligations to due subjection; and as the knowledge of these is most likely to be propagated through a society, by the institution of the public worship of the Deity, and of public instruction in morality and religion; therefore, to promote those important purposes, the people of this State have a right to empower, and do hereby fully empower, the Legislature, to authorize, from time to time, the several towns, parishes, bodies corporate, or religious societies, within this State, to make adequate provision, at their own expense, for the support and maintenance of public protestant teachers of piety, religion, and morality:

piety, religion, and morality:

Provided notwithstanding, That the several towns, parishes, bodies corporate, or religious societies, shall, at all times, have the exclusive right of electing their own public teachers, and of contracting with them for their support and maintenance. And no person, of any one particular religious sect or denomination, shall ever be compelled to pay towards the support of the teacher or teachers of another persuasion, sect, or denomination.

And every denomination of Christians, demeaning themselves quietly, and as good subjects of the State, shall be equally under the protection of the law: And no subordination of any one sect or denomination to another, shall ever be established by law.

And nothing herein shall be understood to affect any former contracts made for the support of the ministry; but all such contracts shall remain, and be in the same state as if this Constitution had not been made.

The people of this State have the sole and exclusive right of governing themselves as a free, sovereign, and independent State; and do, and forever hereafter shall, exercise and enjoy every power, jurisdiction, and right, pertaining thereto, which is not, or may not hereafter be, by them expressly delegated to the United States of America in Congress assembled.

8.

All power residing originally in, and being derived from, the people, all the magistrates and officers of government are their substitutes and agents, and at all times accountable to them.

9.

No office or place whatsoever, in government, shall be hereditary—the abilities and integrity requisite in all, not being transmissible to posterity or relations.

10.

Government being instituted for the common benefit, protection, and security of the whole community, and not for the private interest or emolument of any one man, family, or class of men; therefore, whenever the ends of government are perverted, and public liberty manifestly endangered, and all other means of redress are ineffectual, the people may, and of right ought to, reform the old, or establish a new government. The doctrine of nonresistance against arbitrary power and oppression, is absurd, slavish, and destructive of the good and happiness of mankind.

II.

All elections ought to be free, and every inhabitant of the State, having the proper qualifications, has equal right to elect, and be elected, into office.

Every member of the community has a right to be protected by it, in the enjoyment of his life, liberty, and property; he is therefore bound to contribute his share in the expense of such protection, and bound to continue his share in the expense of such protection, and to yield his personal service when necessary, or an equivalent. But no part of a man's property shall be taken from him, or applied to public uses, without his own consent, or that of the representative body of the people. Nor are the inhabitants of this State controlable by any other laws than those to which they, or their representative body, have given their consent.

No person, who is conscientiously scrupulous about the lawfulness of bearing arms, shall be compelled thereto, provided he will pay an equivalent.

Every subject of this State is entitled to a certain remedy, by having recourse to the laws, for all injuries he may receive in his person, property, or character; to obtain right and justice freely, without being obliged to purchase it; completely, and without any denial; promptly, and without any delay; conformably to the laws.

No subject shall be held to answer for any crime, or offence, until the same is fully and plainly, substantially and formally, described to him; or be compelled to accuse or furnish evidence against himself. And every subject shall have a right to produce all proofs that may be favorable to himself; to meet the witnesses against him, face to face; and to be fully heard in his defence, by himself, and counsel. And no subject shall be arrested, imprisoned, despoiled, or deprived of his property, immunities, or privileges, put out of the protection of the law, exiled or deprived of his life, liberty, or estate, but by the judgment of his peers, or the law of the land. of his peers, or the law of the land.

No subject shall be liable to be tried, after an acquittal, for the same crime or offence. Nor shall the Legislature make any law that shall subject any person to a capital punishment, (excepting for the government of the army and navy, and the militia in actual service), without trial by Jury.

In criminal prosecutions, the trial of facts, in the vicinity where they happen, is so essential to the security of the life, liberty, and estate of the citizen, that no crime or offence ought to be tried in any other counthe charen, that no crime or ohence ought to be then in any other county than that in which it is committed; except in cases of general insur-rection in any particular county, when it shall appear to the Judges of the Superior Court, that an impartial trial cannot be had in the county where the offence may be committed, and upon their report, the Legislature shall think proper to direct the trial in the nearest county in which an impartial trial can be obtained.

All penalties ought to be proportioned to the nature of the offence.

No wise Legislature will affix the same punishment to the crimes of theft, forgery, and the like, which they do to those of murder and treason: Where the same undistinguishing severity is exerted against all offences, the people are led to forget the real distinction in the crimes themselves, and to commit the most flagrant with as little compunction as they do those of the lightest die. For the same reason a multitude of sanguinary laws is both impolitic and unjust. The true design of all punishments being to reform, not to exterminate, mankind.

ÍQ.

Every citizen hath a right to be secure from all unreasonable searches and seizures of his person, his houses, his papers, and all his possessions. Therefore, all warrants to search suspected places, or arrest a person for examination or trial, in prosecutions for criminal matters, are contrary to this right, if the cause or foundation of them be not previously supported by oath or affirmation; and if the order, in a warrant to a civil officer, to make search in suspected places, or to arrest one or more suspected persons, or to seize their property, be not accompanied with a special designation of the persons or objects of search, arrest, or seizure; and no warrants ought to be issued, but in cases, and with the formalities, prescribed by law.

In all controversies concerning property, and in all suits between two or more persons, except in cases in which it has been heretofore otherwise used and practised, the parties have a right to a trial by Jury; and this method of procedure shall be held sacred, unless in causes arising on the high seas and such as relate to mariners' wages, and also in actions where the sum demanded in damages shall not exceed twenty shillings; the Legislature shall think it necessary hereafter to alter it.

In order to reap the fullest advantage of the Inestimable privilege of the trial by Jury, great care ought to be taken, that none but qualified persons should be appointed to serve; and such ought to be fully compensated for their travel, time, and attendance.

22.

The LIBERTY OF THE PRESS is essential to the security of Freetiom in a State: It ought, therefore, to be inviolably preserved.

23.

Retrospective laws are highly injurious, oppressive, and unjust. No such laws, therefore, should be made, either for the decision of civil causes, or the punishment of offences.

24.

25.

Standing armies are dangerous to liberty, and ought not to be raised, or kept up, without the consent of the Legislature.

г6.

In all cases, and at all times, the military ought to be under strict subordination to, and governed by, the civil power.

27.

No soldier, in time of peace, shall be quartered in any house, without the consent of the owner; and in time of war, such quarters ought not to be made but by the civil magistrate, in a manner ordained by the Legislature.

Se

No subsidy, tharge, tax, impost, or duty, shall be established, fixed, laid, or levied, under any pretext whatsoever, without the consent of the people, or their Representatives in the Legislature, or authority derived from that body.

The power of suspending the laws, or the execution of them, ought never to be exercised but by the Legislature, or by authority derived therefrom, to be exercised in such particular cases only as the Legislature shall expressly provide for.

The freedom of deliberation, speech, and debate, in either House of the Legislature, is so essential to the rights of the people, that it cannot be the foundation of any action, complaint, or prosecution, in any other Court or place whatsoever.

31.

The Legislature ought frequently to assemble for the redress of grievances, for correcting, strengthening, and confirming the laws, and for making new ones as the common good may require.

32

The people have a right, in an orderly and peaceable manner, to assemble and consult upon the common good, give instructions to their Representatives, and to request of the legislative body, by way of petition or remonstrance, redress of the wrongs done them, and of the grievances they suffer.

33

No Magistrate, or Court of Law, shall demand excessive bail or sureties, impose excessive fines, or inflict cruel or unusual punishments.

34.

No person can, in any case, be subjected to law-martial, or to any pains or penalties by virtue of that law, except those employed in the army or navy, and except the militia in actual service, but by authority of the Legislature.

35.

It is essential to the preservation of the rights of every individual, his life, liberty, property, and character, that there be an impartial interpretation of the laws, and administration of justice. It is the right of every citizen to be tried by judges as impartial as the lot of humanity will admit. It is therefore not only the best policy, but for the security of the rights of the people, that the Judges of the Supreme (or Superior) Judicial Court should hold their offices so long as they behave well; and that they should have honorable salaries, ascertained and established by standing laws.

Economy being a most essential virtue in all States, especially in a young one; no pension shall be granted, but in consideration of actual services; and such pensions ought to be granted with great caution, by the Legislature, and never for more than one year at a time.

In the government of this State, the three essential powers thereof, to wit, the Legislative, Executive, and Judicial, ought to be kept as separate from, and independent of, each other, as the nature of a free government will admit, or as is consistent with that chain of connection that binds the whole fabric of the Constitution in one indissoluble bond of union and amity.

A frequent recurrence to the fundamental principles of the Constitution, and a constant adherence to justice, moderation, temperance, industry, frugality, and all the social virtues, are indispensably necessary to preserve the blessings of liberty and good government; the people ought, therefore, to have a particular regard to all those principles in the choice of their officers and Representatives: And they have a right to require of their law-givers and magistrates, an exact and constant observance of them, in the formation and execution of the laws necessary for the good administration of government.

Beasts of the plough, not exceeding a yoke of oxen, or a horse, instruments of husbandry, & the necessary tools of a man's trade, shall not be liable to be distrained, attached, or taken on execution for debt, unless by the person who furnished them.

PART II.

Voted, that Mr. Plummer, Mr. Thompson, Mr. Jereh Smith and Mr. Freeman be a Committee to take under consideration what is necessary to be done by the Convention with the Constitution, and the Report of the Committee this day made upon the amendments proposed: and report thereon.

Convention met according to adjournment.

The Committee to take under consideration what is necessary to be done by the Convention with the Constitution and the Report of the Committee this day made upon the amendments proposed;—Reported in the following words, (viz.)

"Your Committee have carefully compared the several articles of amendments that are approved of by the people with the Constitution, and it appears that under the head Senate, the people have directed the Senate to elect their own President, and authorized him to fill the chair of Governor when vacant, but when he exercises the office of Governor he shall not hold the office of President of the Senate: That they have made some additions to the Constitution under this head, but have not altered the number of Senators or the mode of their election.

"That under the head of Executive Power, the Stile of the Chief [P. 136.] Magistrate is changed from President to Governor; That he is not to preside in the Senate, but by the Constitution is to have a vote there with any other Senator, and a casting vote in case of a tie.

"That the paragraphs under the head Council in the Constitution are not expunged, yet several paragraphs of the Amendments are approved of that seem to recognize the election of Counsellors by the people and not by the Legislature; and that the people by a clause agreed upon in the Exclusion bill, have expressly prohibited the members of the Council from having a seat in the Legislature.

"That as to the other Articles of Amendments that are approved of,

"That as to the other Articles of Amendments that are approved of, it appears that they are not inconsistent with the Constitution, except such parts of it as are thereby repealed: Your Committee therefore submit it to the consideration of the Convention, whether it is not necessary that some further articles of amendments respecting the Governor and Council should be again submitted to the people for their approbation.

Sign<sup>d</sup> Wm. Plumer, for the Committee."

Resolved, that it is the opinion of this Committee that amendments to the Constitution be sent out to the people of this State for their approbation,—the amendments by the returns made to this Convention having been found on examination to be inconsistent with the Constitution and with each other.

The Committee then rose and the President took the chair. Report was then made by the Chairman to the President & Convention of the proceedings of the Committee of the whole:—which report was received and accepted.

Motion was then made to appoint a Committee for the purpose of draughting such amendments as may be judged necessary to be sent out to the people; which motion obtained, and that the s<sup>d</sup> Com<sup>toc</sup> consist of seven. Motion was then made that such part of the amendments as are contained under the head Executive Power, as hereto[P. 139.] fore sent out to the people, be again sent out for their acceptance, or rejection, with the alterations of the last Wednesday of October to the 1st Wednesday of June—which motion prevailed.

Adjourned to 3 o'clock, P. M. Met accordingly.

[P. 151.] The Committee find that the following articles of amendments being approved by the people, are so unconnected with other articles that there is no necessity for again submitting them to the people

The Committee are of opinion that the Articles last mentioned be printed, that the People may be informed what is already ratified, and that the amendments now to be sent out be printed with the following Certificate at the end, viz.

- do certify that at a legal town clerk of meeting duly warned and held in the town of _______in the county of ______ this ____ day of ______ Anno Domini, 1792, for the purpose of considering the foregoing amendments to the Constitution of the State of New Hampshire, as agreed upon in Convention, that there [P. 153] were _____ voters present who voted for the amendments and ______ voters present who voted against the amendments.

Attest, Town Clerk.

The Committee are further of opinion that the following Resolve be printed with the amendments to be sent out, viz.

Whereas, if the articles now sent out are not approved by two thirds [P. 155.] of the qualified voters, the last clause in the exclusion bill, which is in the words following,—"No member of the Council shall have a seat in the Senate or House of Representatives," will be repugnant to other parts of the Constitution:—Therefore Resolved, That an article be sent out for expunging said clause.

THE CONSTITUTION OF

New Hampshire as agreed and amended by a Convention of Delegates held at Concord in said State, and approved by the people, and established by the Convention on the first Wednesday of September, 1792.

PART FIRST.

BILL OF RIGHTS.

ARTICLE I. ALL men are born equally free and independent; therefore all government of right originates from the people, is founded in consent, and instituted for the general good.

II. All men have certain natural, essential and inherent rights—among which are the enjoying and defending life and liberty, acquiring, possessing and protecting property; and in a word, of seeking and obtaining happiness:

III. When men enter into a state of society, they surrender up some of their natural rights to that society, in order to ensure the protection of others; and without such an equivalent, the surrender is void:

IV. Among the natural rights, some are in their very nature unalienable; because no equivalent can be given or received for them; of this kind are the rights of conscience.

V. Every individual has a natural and unalienable right to worship God according to the dictates of his own conscience and reason; and no subject shall be hurt, molested, or restrained, in his person, liberty, or estate, for worshipping God in the manner and season most agreeable to the dictates of his own conscience, or for his religious profession, sentiments, or persuasion; provided he doth not disturb the publick peace, or disturb others in their religious worship.

VI. As morality and piety, rightly grounded on evangelical principles, will give the best and greatest security to government, and will lay, in the hearts of men, the strongest obligations to due subjection; and as the knowledge of these is most likely to be propagated through a society, by the institution of the publick worship of the Deity, and of publick instruction in morality and religion; therefore, to promote these important purposes, the people of this state have a right to empower, and do hereby fully empower the legislature, to authorize, from time to time, the several towns, parishes, bodies corporate, or religious societies, within this state, to make adequate provision, at their own expense, for the support and maintenance of publick Protestant teachers of piety, religion and morality.

Provided notwithstanding, That the several towns, parishes, bodies corporate, or religious societies, shall at all times have the exclusive right of electing their own publick teachers, and of contracting with them for their support and maintenance. And no person of any one particular religious sect or denomination, shall ever be compelled to pay towards the support of the teacher or teachers of another persuasion, sect or denomination.

And every denomination of christians, demeaning themselves quietly, and as good subjects of the state, shall be equally under the protection of the law: and no subordination of any one sect or denomination to another, shall ever be established by law.

And nothing herein shall be understood to affect any former contracts made for the support of the ministry; but all such contracts shall remain, and be in the same state as if this constitution had not been made.

VII. The people of this state have the sole and exclusive right of governing themselves as a free, sovereign and independent state; and do, and forever hereafter shall exercise and enjoy every power, jurisdiction and right, pertaining thereto, which is not, or may not hereafter be by them expressly delegated to the United States of America in congress assembled.

VIII. All power residing originally in, and being derived from the people, all the magistrates and officers of government are their substitutes and agents, and at all times accountable to them.

- IX. No office or place whatsoever in government, shall be hereditary—the abilities and integrity requisite in all, not being transmissible to posterity or relations.
- X. Government being instituted for the common benefit, protection and security of the whole community, and not for the private interest or emolument of any one man, family, or class of men; therefore, whenever the ends of government are perverted, and publick liberty manifestly endangered, and all other means of redress are ineffectual, the people may and of right ought to reform the old, or establish a new government. The doctrine of non-resistance against arbitrary power and oppression, is absurd, slavish, and destructive of the good and happiness of mankind.
- XI. All elections ought to be free, and every inhabitant of the state, having the proper qualifications, has equal right to elect and be elected into office.
- XII. Every member of the community has a right to be protected by it, in the enjoyment of his life, liberty and property; he is therefore bound to contribute his share in the expense of such protection, and to yield his personal service when necessary, or an equivalent. But no part of a man's property shall be taken from him, or applied to publick uses, without his own consent, or that of the representative body of the people. Nor are the inhabitants of this state controlable by any other laws than those to which they, or their representative body, have given their consent.
- XIII. No person, who is conscientiously scrupulous about the lawfulness of bearing arms, shall be compelled thereto, provided he will pay an equivalent.
- XIV. Every subject of this state is entitled to a certain remedy, by having recourse to the laws, for all injuries he may receive in his person, property, or character; to obtain right and justice freely, without being obliged to purchase it; completely and without any denial; promptly and without delay, conformably to the laws.
- XV. No subject shall be held to answer for any crime or offence, until the same is fully and plainly, substantially and formally described to him; or be compelled to accuse or furnish evidence against himself. And every subject shall have a right to produce all proofs that may be favourable to himself; to meet the witnesses against him, face to face; and to be fully heard in his defence, by himself and counsel. And no subject shall be arrested, imprisoned, despoiled, or deprived of his property, immunities, or privileges, put out of the protection of the law, exiled or deprived of his life, liberty, or estate, but by the judgment of his peers, or the law of the land.

XVI. No subject shall be liable to be tried, after an acquittal, for the same crime or offence. Nor shall the legislature make any law that shall subject any person to a capital punishment, (excepting for the government of the army and navy, and the militia in actual service) without trial by jury.

XVII. In criminal prosecutions, the trial of facts, in the vicinity where they happen, is so essential to the security of the life, liberty, and estate of the citizen, that no crime or offence ought be tried in any other county than that in which it is committed; except in cases of general insurrection in any particular county, when it shall appear to the judges of the superior court, that an impartial trial cannot be liad in the county where the offence may be committed, and upon their report, the legislature shall think proper to direct the trial in the nearest county in which an impartial trial can be obtained.

XVIII. All penalties ought to be proportioned to the nature of the offence. No wise legislature will affix the same punishment to the crimes of theft, forgery and the like, which they do to those of murder and treason; where the same undistinguishing severity is exerted against all offences, the people are led to forget the real distinction in the crimes themselves, and to commit the most flagrant with as little compunction as they do the lightest offences: for the same reason a multitude of sanguinary laws is both impolitic and unjust. The true design of all punishments being to reform, not to exterminate mankind.

XIX. Every subject hath a right to be secure from all unreasonable searches and seizures of his person, his houses, his papers, and all his possessions. Therefore, all warrants to search suspected places, or arrest a person for examination or trial, in prosecutions for criminal matters, are contrary to this right, if the cause or foundation of them be not previously supported by oath or affirmation; and if the order, in a warrant to a civil officer, to make search in suspected places, or to arrest one or more suspected persons, or to seize their property, be not accompanied with a special designation of the persons or objects of search, arrest, or seizure; and no warrant ought to be issued, but in cases, and with the formalities, prescribed by law.

XX. In all controversies concerning property, and in all suits between two or more persons, except in cases in which it has been heretofore otherwise used and practised, the parties have a right to a trial by jury, and this method of procedure shall be held sacred, unless, in cases arising on the high seas and such as relate to mariners' wages, the legislature shall think it necessary hereafter to alter it.

XXI. In order to reap the fullest advantage of the inestimable privilege of the trial by jury, great care ought to be taken, that none but qualified persons should be appointed to serve; and such ought to be fully compensated for their travel, time and attendance, XXII. THE LIBERTY OF THE PRESS is essential to the security of freedom in a state: it ought therefore to be inviolably preserved.

XXIII. Retrospective laws are highly injurious, oppressive and unjust. No such laws therefore should be made, either for the decision of civil causes, or the punishment of offences.

XXIV. A well regulated militia is the proper, natural and sure defence of a state.

XXV. Standing armies are dangerous to liberty, and ought not to be raised, or kept up without the consent of the legislature.

XXVI. In all cases and at all times, the military ought to be under strict subordination to, and governed by, the civil power.

XXVII. No soldier in time of peace, shall be quartered in any house, without the consent of the owner; and in time of war, such quarters ought not to be made but by the civil magistrate, in a manner ordained by the legislature.

XXVIII. No subsidy, charge, tax, impost, or duty, shall be established, fixed, laid, or levied, under any pretext whatsoever, without the consent of the people, or their representatives in the legislature, or authority derived from that body.

XXIX. The power of suspending the laws, or the execution of them, ought never to be exercised but by the legislature, or by authority derived therefrom, to be exercised in such particular cases only as the legislature shall expressly provide for.

XXX. The freedom of deliberation, speech and debate, in either house of the legislature, is so essential to the rights of the people, that it cannot be the foundation of any action, complaint, or prosecution, in any other court or place whatsoever.

XXXI. The legislature shall assemble for the redress of publick grievances, and for making such laws as the publick good may require.

XXXII. The people have a right in an orderly and peaceable manner, to assemble and consult upon the common good, give instructions to their representatives, and to request of the legislative body, by way of petition or remonstrance, redress of the wrongs done them, and of the grievances they suffer.

XXXIII. No magistrate, or court of law, shall demand excessive bail or sureties, impose excessive fines, or inflict cruel or unusual punishments.

XXXIV. No person can in any case be subjected to lawmartial, or to any pains or penalties by virtue of that law, except those employed in the army or navy, and except the militia in actual service, but by authority of the legislature.

XXXV. It is essential to the preservation of the rights of every individual, his life, liberty, property, and character, that there be an impartial interpretation of the laws and administration of justice. It is the right of every citizen to be tried by judges as impartial as the lot of humanity will admit. It is therefore not only the best policy, but for the security of the rights of the people, that the judges of the supreme judicial court should hold their offices so long as they behave well: subject, however, to such limitations on account of age, as may be provided by the constitution of the state:

and that they should have honorable salaries ascertained and established by standing laws.

XXXVI. Economy being a most essential virtue in all states, especially in a young one; no pension shall be granted, but in consideration of actual services; and such pensions ought to be granted with great caution by the legislature, and never for more than one year at a time.

XXXVII. In the government of this state, the three essential powers thereof, to wit, the legislative, executive and judicial, ought to be kept as separate from, and independent of each other, as the nature of a free government will admit, or as is consistent with that chain of connection that binds the whole fabric of the constitution in one indissoluble bond of union and amity.

XXXVIII. A frequent recurrence to the fundamental principles of the constitution, and a constant adherence to justice, moderation, temperance, industry, frugality, and all the social virtues, are indispensably necessary to preserve the blessings of liberty and good government; the people ought therefore to have a particular regard to all those principles in the choice of their officers and representatives: and they have a right to require of their law-givers and magistrates, an exact and constant observance of them, in the formation and execution of the laws necessary for the good administration of government.

PART SECOND.

FORM OF GOVERNMENT.

The people inhabiting the territory formerly called the Province of New-Hampshire, do hereby solemnly and mutually agree with each other, to form themselves into a free, sovereign and independent body-politic, or state, by the name of the State of New-Hampshire.

GENERAL COURT.

The supreme legislative power, within this state, shall be vested in the senate and house of representatives, each of which shall have a negative on the other.

The senate and house shall assemble every year on the first Wednesday of June, and at such other times as they may judge necessary; and shall dissolve, and be dissolved seven days next preceding the said first Wednesday of June; and shall be stiled the General Court of New-Hampshire.

The general court shall forever have full power and authority to erect and constitute judicatories, and courts of record, or other courts, to be holden in the name of the state, for the hearing, trying and determining all manner of crimes, offences, pleas, processes, plaints, actions, causes, matters and things whatsoever, arising or happening within this state, or between or concerning persons inhabiting or residing, or brought within the same; whether the same be criminal or civil, or whether the crimes be capital, or not capital, and whether the said pleas be real, personal, or mixed; and for the awarding and issuing execution thereon. To which courts and judicatories, are hereby given and granted, full power and authority, from time to time, to administer oaths or affirmations, for the better discovery of truth in any matter in controversy, or depending before them.

And further, full power and authority are hereby given and granted to the said general court, from time to time to make, ordain and establish, all manner of wholesome and reasonable orders, laws, statutes, ordinances, directions and instructions, either with penalties, or without, so as the same be not repugnant or contrary to this constitution, as they may judge for the benefit and welfare of this state, and for the governing and ordering thereof, and of the subjects of the same, for the necessary support and defence of the government thereof; and to name and settle annually, or provide by fixed laws for the naming and settling, all civil officers within this state; such officers excepted, the election and appointment of whom are hereafter in this form of government otherwise provided for; and to set forth the several duties, powers and limits, of the several civil and military officers of this state, and the forms of such oaths or affirmations as shall be respectively administered unto them, for the execution of their several offices and places, so as the same be not repugnant or contrary to this constitution; and also to impose fines, mulcts, imprisonments and other punishments; and to impose and levy proportional and reasonable assessments, rates and taxes, upon all the inhabitants of, and residents within, the said state; and upon all estates within the same; to be issued and disposed of by warrant, under the hand of the governor of this state for the time being, with the advice and consent of the council, for the public service, in the necessary defence and support of the government of this state, and the protection and preservation of the subjects thereof, according to such acts as are, or shall be in force within the same.

And while the publick charges of government, or any part thereof, shall be assessed on polls and estates in the manner that has heretofore been practised; in order that such assessments may be made with equality, there shall be a valuation of the estates within the state taken anew once in every five years at least, and as much oftener as the general court shall order.

No member of the general court shall take fees, be of council, or act as advocate, in any cause before either branch of the legislature; and upon due proof thereof, such member shall forfeit his seat in the legislature.

The doors of the galleries, of each house of the legislature, shall be kept open to all persons who behave decently, except when the welfare of the state, in the opinion of either branch, shall require secrecy.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

There shall be, in the legislature of this state, a representation of the people, annually elected and founded upon principles of equality: and in order that such representation may be as equal as circumstances will admit, every town, parish, or place entitled to town privileges, having one hundred and fifty rateable male polls, of twenty-one years of age and upwards, may elect one representative; if four hundred and fifty rateable polls, may elect two representatives; and so proceeding in that proportion, making three hundred such rateable polls the mean increasing number, for every additional representative.

Such towns, parishes, or places, as have less than one hundred and fifty rateable polls, shall be classed by the general court for the purpose of choosing a representative, and seasonably notified thereof. And in every class, formed for the abovementioned purpose, the first annual meeting shall be held in the town, parish, or place, wherein most of the rateable polls reside; and afterwards in that which has the next highest number; and so on annually by rotation, through the several towns, parishes, or places, forming the district.

Whenever any town, parish, or place, entitled to town privileges as aforesaid, shall not have one hundred and fifty rateable polls, and be so situated as to render the classing thereof with any other town, parish or place, very inconvenient, the general court may, upon application of a majority of the voters in such town, parish, or place, issue a writ for their electing and sending a representative to the general court.

The members of the house of representatives shall be chosen annually in the month of March, and shall be the second branch of the legislature.

All persons qualified to vote in the election of senators, shall be entitled to vote within the district where they dwell, in the choice of representatives. Every member of the house of representatives shall be chosen by ballot; and for two years at least, next preceding his election, shall have been an inhabitant of this state; shall have an estate within the district which he may be chosen to represent, of the value of one hundred pounds, one half of which to be a free-hold, wherof he is seized in his own right; shall be at the time of his election an inhabitant of the town, parish or place he may be chosen to represent, shall be of the protestant religion, and shall cease to represent such town, parish or place, immediately on his ceasing to be qualified as afore-said.

The members of both houses of the legislature shall be compensated for their services out of the treasury of the state, by a law made for that purpose; such members attending seasonably, and not departing without license. All intermediate vacancies in the house of representatives, may be filled up from time to time, in the same manner as annual elections are made.

The house of representatives shall be the grand inquest of the state; and all impeachments made by them, shall be heard and tried by the senate.

All money bills shall originate in the house of representatives; but the senate may propose, or concur with amendments, as on other bills. The house of representatives shall have power to adjourn themselves, but no longer than two days at a time.

SENATE.

The senate shall consist of twelve members, who shall hold their office for one year from the first Wednesday of June next ensuing their election.

And that the state may be equally represented in the senate, the legislature shall, from time to time, divide the state into twelve districts, as nearly equal as may be without dividing towns and unincorporated places; and in making this division, they shall govern themselves by the proportion of direct taxes paid by the said districts, and timely make known to the inhabitants of the state the limits of each district.

The freeholders and other inhabitants of each district, qualified as in this constitution is provided, shall annually give in their votes for a senator, at some meeting holden in the month of March.

The senate shall be the first branch of the legislature; and the senators shall be chosen in the following manner, viz. every male inhabitant of each town, and parish with town privileges, and places unincorporated, in this state, of twenty-one years of age and upwards, excepting paupers, and persons excused from paying taxes at their own request, shall have a right at the annual or other meetings of the inhabitants of said towns and parishes, to be duly warned and holden annually forever in the month of March, to vote in the town or parish wherein he dwells, for the senator in the district whereof he is a member.

Provided nevertheless, That no person shall be capable of being elected a senator, who is not of the protestant religion, and seized of a freehold estate in his own right, of the value of two hundred pounds, lying within this state, who is not of the age of thirty years, and who shall not have been an inhabitant of this state for seven years immediately preceding his election, and at the time thereof he shall be an inhabitant of the district for which he shall be chosen.

And every person, qualified as the constitution provides, shall be considered an inhabitant for the purpose of electing and being elected into any office or place within this state, in the town, parish and plantation, where he dwelleth and hath his home.

And the inhabitants of plantations and places unincorporated, qualified as this constitution provides, who are or shall be required to assess taxes upon themselves towards the support of government, or shall be taxed therefor, shall have the same privilege of voting for senators, in the plantations and places wherein they reside, as the inhabitants of the respective towns and parishes aforesaid have. And the meetings of such plantations and places for that purpose shall be holden annually in the month of March, at such places respectively therein as the assessors thereof shall direct; which assessors shall have like authority for notifying the electors, collecting and returning the votes, as the selectmen and town clerk have in their several towns by this constitution.

The meeting for the choice of governor, council, and senators, shall be warned by warrant from the selectmen, and governed by a moderator, who shall in the presence of the selectmen (whose duty it shall be to attend) in open meeting, receive the votes of all the inhabitants of such towns and parishes present, and qualified to vote for senators; and shall, in said meetings, in presence of the said selectmen, and of the town clerk in said meetings, sort and count the said votes, and make a public declaration thereof, with the name of every person voted for, and the number of votes for each person; and the town clerk shall make a fair record of the same at large, in the town book, and shall make out a fair attested copy thereof, to be by him sealed up, and directed to the secretary of the state, with a superscription expressing the purport thereof: And the said town clerk shall cause such attested copy to be delivered to the sheriff of the county in which such town or parish shall lie, thirty days at least before the first Wednesday of June, or to the secretary of the state at least twenty days before the said first Wednesday of June: and the sheriff of each county, or his deputy, shall deliver all such certificates, by him received, into the secretary's office, at least twenty days before the first Wednesday of June.

And that there may be a due meeting of senators on the first Wednesday of June annually, the governor, and a majority of the council for the time being, shall as soon as may be, examine the returned copies of such records, and four-teen days before the first Wednesday of June, he shall issue his summons to such persons as appear to be chosen senators, by a majority of votes, to attend and take their seats on that day.

Provided nevertheless, That for the first year the said returned copies shall be examined by the president, and a majority of the council then in office; and the said president shall in like manner notify the persons elected, to attend and take their seats accordingly.

And in case there shall not appear to be a senator elected by a majority of votes, for any district, the deficiency shall be supplied in the following manner, viz., the members of the house of representatives, and such senators as shall be declared elected, shall take the names of the two persons having the highest number of votes in the district, and out of them shall elect, by joint ballot, the senator wanted for such district; and in this manner all such vacancies shall be filled up in every district of the state, and in like manner all vacancies in the senate, arising by death, removal out of the state, or otherwise, shall be supplied as soon as may be after such vacancies happen.

The senate shall be final judges of the elections, returns and qualifications of their own members, as pointed out in this constitution.

The senate shall have power to adjourn themselves, provided such adjournment do not exceed two days at a time.

Provided nevertheless, That whenever they shall sit on the trial of any impeachment, they may adjourn to such time and place as they may think proper, although the legislature be not assembled on such day, or at such place.

The senate shall appoint their president and other officers, and determine their own rules of proceedings: and not less than seven members of the senate shall make a quorum for doing business; and when less than eight senators shall be present, the assent of five at least, shall be necessary to render their acts and proceedings valid.

The senate shall be a court, with full power and authority to hear, try and determine, all impeachments made by the house of representatives against any officer or officers of the state, for bribery, corruption, mal-practice or mal-administration, in office; with full power to issue summons, or compulsory process, for convening witnesses before them: but previous to the trial of any such impeachment, the members of the senate shall respectively be sworn truly and impartially to try and determine the charge in question, according to evidence. And every officer, impeached for bribery, corruption, mal-practice or mal-administration in office, shall be served with an attested copy of the impeachment, and order of senate thereon, with such citation as the senate may direct, setting forth the time and place of their sitting to try the impeachment; which service shall be made by the sheriff, or such other sworn officer as the senate may appoint, at least fourteen days previous to the time of trial; and such citation being duly served and returned, the senate may proceed in the hearing of the impeachment, giving the person impeached (if he shall appear) full liberty of producing witnesses and proofs, and of making his defence, by himself and council, and may also, upon his refusing or neglecting to appear, hear the proofs in support of impeachment, and render judgment thereon, his non-appearance notwithstanding; and such judgments shall have the same force and effect as if the person impeached had appeared and pleaded in the trial. Their judgment, however, shall not extend further than removal from office, disqualification to hold or enjoy any place of honor, trust, or profit, under this state; but the party so convicted, shall nevertheless be liable to indictment, trial, judgment and punishment, according to the laws of the land.

Whenever the governor shall be impeached, the chief justice of the supreme judicial court shall, during the trial, preside in the senate, but have no vote therein.

an election by a majority of votes through the state, the choice shall be by them declared and published.

And in case of any infectious distemper prevailing in the place where the said court at any time is to convene, or any other cause, whereby dangers may arise to the health or lives of the members from their attendance, the governor may direct the session to be holden at some other the most convenient place within the state.

Every bill which shall have passed both houses of the general court, shall, before it become a law, be presented to the governor; if he approve, he shall sign it, but if not, he shall return it with his objections, to that house in which it shall have originated, who shall enter the objections at large on their journal and proceed to reconsider it; if after such reconsideration, two thirds of that house shall agree to pass the bill, it shall be sent, together with such objections, to the other house, by which it shall likewise be reconsidered, and if approved by two thirds of that house, it shall become a law. But in all such cases the votes of both houses shall be determined by yeas and nays, and the names of the persons, voting for or against the bill, shall be entered on the journal

If any bill shall not be returned by the governor, within five days (Sundays excepted) after it shall have been presented to him, the same shall be a law in like manner as if he had signed it, unless the legislature, by their adjournment, prevent its return, in which case it shall not be a law.

NOTES BY THE EDITOR.

The several papers and documents which follow in this volume, relating to the great controversy in which New Hampshire was involved, with New York and Vermont, through a period of more than forty years, were chiefly copied from a manuscript volume in the office of the Secretary of State, N. H., as they were filed and arranged by the late John Farmer, Esq., under authority of the legislature. The order in which these papers were arranged has ordinarily been followed by the editor. They have never before been published, by authority.* Other official papers and documents, from New York and Vermont, have been introduced, as judged expedient, to elucidate or confirm our own; or to form connecting links in the history, which otherwise might be obscure. The editor has also added notes and marginal references as helpful to readers.

It is well to bear in mind that these papers and documents are on the New Hampshire side of the controversy; and that a full, authentic, and complete history of the affair can be gathered only from like papers and documents which belong to the other states involved. The New York documents are mostly published, it is believed, in the Colonial Documentary History of that state—now in our state library—and may be found by reference to the General Index, under the head of "New Hampshire" and "New Hampshire Grants," &c. The Vermont papers are very copious, and may be found in Slade's Vermont State Papers, 1823; in Records of Governor & Council, Ver., vols. I and II; in Coll. of Ver. Hist. Soc., vols. I and II; and in current histories of Vermont, by Samuel Williams, D. D., Hiland Hall, and Benjamin H. Hall.

In order to give distinctness, and to mark the progress of the long controversy in which New Hampshire was involved, in relation to the abovesaid Grants; and also to the troubles and conflicts on border towns lying east and west of Connecticut river, the editor has thought proper to arrange the documents relating to these several matters, as they occurred, under distinct Sections, as in the following pages.

The late Capt. Wm. F. Goodwin made a copy of these papers, privately, in full or in part, and they were printed in successive numbers of the Historical Magazine, 1872, published by Henry B. Dawson, Morrisania, N. Y.—E.

CONTROVERSY WITH NEW YORK IN RELATION TO BOUND-ARIES.

CORRESPONDENCE.

[Copied from Vermont State Papers, by William Slade, jun., 1823, pp. 10-17.]

Letter from Gov. Benning Wentworth to the Governor of New York.

SIR-

I have it in command from his Majesty, to make grants of the unimproved lands within my government, to such of the inhabitants and others as shall apply for grants for the same, as will oblige themselves to settle and improve, agreeable to his Majesty's Instructions.

The war hitherto has prevented me from making so great a progress as I hoped for, on my first appointment; but as there is a prospect of a lasting peace with the Indians, in which your Excellency has had a great share, people are daily applying for grants of land in all quarters of this government, and particularly some for townships to be laid out in the western part thereof, which will fall in the neighborhood of your government. I think it my duty to apprise you thereof, and to transmit to your Excellency the description of New Hampshire, as the King has determined it in the words of my commission; which, after you have considered, I shall be glad you will be pleased to give me your sentiments in what manner it will affect the grants made by you or preceding Governors; it being my intention to avoid, as much as I can, consistent with his Majesty's instructions, interfering with your government.

In consequence of His Majesty's determination of the boundaries between New Hampshire and Massachusetts, a surveyor and proper chainmen were appointed to run the western line from three miles north of Patucket Falls; and the surveyor, upon oath, has declared that it strikes Hudson's River about eighty poles north of where Mohawk's River comes into Hudson's River, which I presume is north of the city of Albany; for which reason it will be necessary for me to be informed, how far north of Albany the government of New York extends by His Majesty's commission to your Excellency, and how many miles to the eastward of Hudson's River, to the northward of the Massachusetts line, that I may govern myself accordingly. And if, in the execution of the King's commands with respect to the lands, I can oblige any of your Excellency's friends, I am always at your service.——I am, with the greatest respect, Sir, your Excellency's most obedient humble servant.

B. Wentworth.

Minutes of the Council of New York.

Council Chamber, City of New York, April 3d, 1750. His Excellency communicated to the Board a letter from the Hon. Benning Wentworth, Esq. Governor of New Hampshire, dated the 17th November last, acquainting his Excellency, that he has it in command from his Majesty, to make grants of the unimproved lands in New Hampshire government, and therefore desiring information, how far north of Albany this Province extends, and how many miles to the eastward of Hudson's River, to the northward of the Massachusetts line, that he may govern himself accordingly. Also an extract of his Majesty's letters patent to Governor Wentworth respecting the boundaries of New Hampshire.* And his Excellency having required the advice of the Board thereupon, the council humbly advised his Excellency to acquaint Governor Wentworth, in answer to his said letter, that this province is bounded eastward by

Connecticut River; the letters patent from King Charles II. to the Duke of York, expressly granting 'all the lands from the west side of Connecticut River to the east side of Delaware Bay.'

N. B. The above resolve was communicated to Governor Wentworth in a letter, dated April 9th, 1750, by G. Clinton,

Letter from Gov. Benning Wentworth to Gov. George Clinton.

Portsmouth, April 25, 1750.

SIR-

I have the honour of your Excellency's letter of the 9th instant before me, in which you are pleased to give me the opinion of his Majesty's Council of your government, that Connecticut River is the eastern boundary of New York government; - which would have been entirely satisfactory to me on the subject of my letter, had not the two charter governments of Connecticut and Massachusetts-Bay extended their bounds many miles to the westward of said river; and it being the opinion of his Majesty's Council of this government, whose advice I am to take on these occasions, that New Hampshire had an equal right to claim the same extent of western boundaries with those charter governments: I had, in consequence of their advice, before your letter came to my hands, granted one township due north of the Massachusetts line, of the contents of six miles square, and by measurement twenty-four miles east of the city of Albany; presuming that this government was bounded by the same north and south line with Connecticut and the Massachusetts-Bay, before it met with his Majesty's other governments. Although I am prohibited by his Majesty's commission to interfere with his other governments, yet it is presumed that I should strictly adhere to the limits prescribed therein; and I assure you that I am very far from desiring to make the least encroachment or set on foot any dispute on these points. It will therefore give me great satisfaction, if at your leisure, you can inform me, by what authority Connecticut and the Massachusetts governments claimed so far to the westward as they have settled; and in the mean time I shall desist from making any further grants on the western frontier of my government, that may have the least probability of interfering with your government.——I am, with great respect, Sir, your Excellency's most obedient humble servant.

Letter from Gov. Clinton to Gov. Wentworth.

June 6th, 1750.

STR-

I have received your letter of the 25th April last, in answer to mine of the 9th of the same month, respecting the eastern boundary of this province, wherein you desire to be informed by what authority Connecticut and the Massachusetts governments claim so far to the westward as they have settled.

As to Connecticut, their claim is founded upon an agreement with this government, in or about the year 1684, afterwards confirmed by King William, in consequence of which the lines between the two governments were run, and the boundaries marked in the year 1725, as appears by the commissioners and surveyors proceedings, of record here. But it is presumed the Massachusetts government, at first, possessed themselves of those lands by intrusion, and through the negligence of this government have hitherto continued their possession, the lands not being private property.

From the information I have, there is reason to apprehend that the lands within the township you have lately granted, or part of them, have been granted here: And as my answer to your letter might probably have furnished you with objections against any grant which might interfere with this province, I am surprised you did not wait till it came to hand, before you proceeded therein. If it is still in your power to recall the grant, your doing so will be but a piece of justice to this government: otherwise I shall think myself obliged to send a representation of the matter to be

Letter from Gov. Wentworth to Gov. Clinton.

Portsmouth, June 22d, 1750.

Sir-

As soon as your letter of the 6th inst. came to my hands, I thought it proper to have the sense of his Majesty's Council thereon, who were unanimously of the opinion, not to commence a dispute with your Excellency's government respecting the extent of the western boundary to New Hampshire, until his Majesty's pleasure should be further known; accordingly the council have advised, that I shall, on the part of New Hampshire, make a representation of the matter to his Majesty, relying that your Excellency will do the same on the part of New York; and that whatever shall be determined thereon, this government will esteem it their duty to acquiesce in, without any farther dispute, which I am hoping will be satisfactory on that point.

When I first wrote you on this subject, I thought I had given sufficient time to receive an answer to my letter, before I had fixed the day for passing the grant referred to in your letter; and as the persons concerned therein lived at a great distance, it was inconvenient for them to be delayed beyond the appointed time: I was not apprehensive any difficulty could arise by confining myself to the western boundaries of the two charter-governments; accordingly I passed the patent about ten days before your favor of the 9th of April, 1750, came to hand. There is no possibility of vacating the grant as you desire; but if it falls by his Majesty's determination in the government of New York, it will be void of course. I shall be glad the method I have proposed may be agreeable to your province; and if submitting the affair to his Majesty meets with your approbation, I shall, upon receiving an answer, lose no time in transmitting what concerns this province to the proper offices.

I am with the greatest respect, Sir, your Excellency's most obedient humble servant.

B. WENTWORTH,

New York, July 25th, 1750.

I have taken the sense of his Majesty's Council on your Excellency's letter of the 22d ult. respecting the extent of the western boundary of your government, who think it highly expedient I should lay before his Majesty a representation of the matter on the part of this province; and as you propose to do the like on the part of New Hampshire, they are of opinion it will be for the mutual advantage of both governments, if we exchange copies of each others representation on this head. If you approve of this, I will send you a copy of mine accordingly.

I am, &c.

To arrest the proceedings of New Hampshire, Mr. Colden, Lieutenant Governor of New York, on the 28th of December, 1763, issued a Proclamation, "commanding the sheriff of the County of Albany to make a return of the names of all persons who had taken possession of lands under New Hampshire Grants; and claiming jurisdiction as far east as Connecticut river," by virtue of a grant to the Duke of York;—of which Grant the following is an extract [as given in the "Slade State Papers," pp. 16, 17]:

CHARLES the Second, by the Grace of God, King of England, Scotland, France and Ireland, Defender of the Faith, &c. To all to whom these presents shall come, greeting: Know ye, that we, for divers good causes and considerations, have, of our especial grace, certain knowledge and mere motion, given and granted, and by these presents, for us, our heirs and successors, do give and grant unto our dearest brother, James, Duke of York, his heirs and assigns, all that part of the main land of New England, beginning at a certain place, called or known by the name of St. Croix, next adjoining to New Scotland, in America, and from thence extending along the Sea-coast, unto a certain place called Petuaguine or Pemaquid, and so up the river thereof to the furtherest head of the same, as it tendeth northwards; and extending from the river of Kinebeque, and so upwards, by the shortest course of the river Canada, northwards: And all that island or islands, commonly called by the several name or names of Matowacks or Long Island, situate and being towards the west of Cape Cod, and the Narrow Highgansetts, abutting upon the main land, between the two rivers there, called or known by the several names of Connecticut and Hudson's River, together with the said River, called Hudson's, and all the lands from the west side of Connecticut river, to the east side of Delaware Bay; and also, all those several Islands, called or known by the names of Martin's Vineyard, and Nantuckes, otherways Nantucket; together with all, &c. Dated the twenty-ninth day of June, in the twenty-sixth year of the reign of King Charles the second."

[Note. Upon the issue of the abovesaid proclamation and claim of territory, by virtue of said grant to the Duke of York, Gov. Benning Wentworth, of New Hampshire, sent forth a proclamation designed to counteract the influence of the former, and to inspire the grantees of the new townships with confidence in the validity of their grants.—Ed.]

BENNING WENTWORTH, Esq.,

Captain-General, Governour and Commander in Chief of His Majesty's Province of New Hampshire, in New England, &c.

A PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS His Honor CADWALLADER COLDEN, Esq. Lieutenant Governor and Commander in Chief of His Majesty's Province of New York, hath lately issued a Proclamation, of a very extraordinary Nature, setting forth, that King Charles the Second, on the 12th day of March 1663-4, and the 29th of June, 1674, did by his several Letters Patent of those Dates, grant in Fee to his Brother, the Duke of York, among other things, all the land from the West side of Connecticut River to the East side of Delaware Bay: and therein also sets forth, or Describes the Bounds of New Hampshire; in which Description there is a very material Mistake; besides, there is omitted the Fact, on which the description of New Hampshire depended, viz. His Majesty's determination of the Northern and Western Boundaries of the Province of the Massachusetts Bay in 1739: And nothing can be more evident, than that New Hampshire may legally extend her Western boundary as far as the Massachusetts Claim reaches, and she claims no more; -- But New York pretends to claim even to the Banks of Connecticut River, although she never laid out and settled one Town in that part of His Majesty's Lands, since she existed as a Government.

When New York Government extends her Eastern boundary to the Banks of Connecticut River, between New York and the Colony of Connecticut; and to the Banks of said River between New York and the Province of the Massachusetts Bay, it would have been full early for New York to declare that the Government of New Hampshire was fully apprised of the Right of New York, under the before recited Letters Patent to the Duke of York.

In virtue of the final Determination of the Boundary Lines settled by his late Majesty between this Government and the Massachusetts Bay, all the Lands capable of Settlements have been erected into Townships agreeable to His Majesty's commands, and a considerable revenue is daily arising to the Crown, unless interrupted and impaired by His Honor's Proclamation, which New Hampshire will not be answerable for.

At present the Boundaries of New York to the Northward are unknown; and as soon as it shall be His Majesty's Pleasure to determine them, New Hampshire will pay a ready and cheerful Obedience thearunto; not doubting but that all grants made by New Hampshire, that are fulfilled by the grantees, will be confirmed to them, if it should be His Majesty's Pleasure to alter the Jurisdiction.

be His Majesty's Pleasure to alter the Jurisdiction.
For Political Reasons, the claim to Jurisdiction by New York, might have been deferred, as well as the strict Injunction on the civil power, to exercise Jurisdiction in their respective Functions, as far as the Eastern Banks of Connecticut River.

The said Proclamation carrying an Air of Government in it, may possibly affect and retard the settlement of His Majesty's Lands, granted by this Government; For preventing an injury to the Crown of this kind, and to remove all Doubts that may arise to Persons holding the King's Grants, they may be assured, that the Patent to the Duke of York is obsolete,—and cannot convey any certain Boundary to New York, that can be claimed as a boundary, as plainly appears by the several boundary lines of the Jersies on the West, and the Colony of Connecticut on the East, which are set forth in the Proclamation, as Part only of the Land included in the said Patent to the Duke of York.

To the End therefore, that the grantees now settled, and settling on those Lands, under his late, and present Majesty's Charters, may not be intimidated, or any way hindered or obstructed in the improvement of the Lands so granted; as well as to ascertain the Right, and maintain the Jurisdiction of his Majesty's Government of New Hampshire, as far Westward, as to include the grants made; I have thought fit, by and with the advice of His Majesty's Council, to issue this Proclamation, hereby encouraging the several grantees, claiming under this Government, to be industrious in clearing and cultivating their Lands, agreeable to their respective grants.

And I do hereby require and command all civil officers, within this Province, of what Quality soever, as well those that are not, as those that are inhabitants on the said Lands to continue and be diligent in exercising Jurisdiction in their respective offices, as far Westward as grants of Land have been made by this Government; and to deal with any Person or Persons, that may presume to interrupt the Inhabitants or settlers on said Lands, as to Law and Justice doth appertain, the pretended Right of Jurisdiction mentioned in the aforesaid Proclamation, notwithstanding.

Given at the Council Chamber in Portsmouth, the 13th Day of March, 1764, and in the fourth Year of His Majes-TY's Reign.

B. WENTWORTH.

By His Excellency's Command, with Advice of Council.

T. ATKINSON, jun. Secretary.

GOD SAVE THE KING.

Letter from Cadwallader Colden, of New York, to Benning Wentworth, [p. 23.] SrNew York, May 13th, 1765.

I have the Favour of yours of the 26th of last month, soon after I received his Majesty's order in Council for determining the Boundary between this Province and New Hampshire.

I gave directions to the Attorney General to forbear any further Prosecutions you mentioned in your Letter; of which, I doubt not, you have rec'd an acc' from Home before this Time. It gives me pleasure to have done a thing so agreeable to you before your Desire was made known to me.

CADWALLADER COLDEN.

His Excellency
Benning Wentworth, Esq.

[Note. It will serve to throw light on the controversy which the foregoing correspondence opened, to introduce at this point a representation of the case made to the Lords of Trade in England by Lieut.-Gov. Colden, under date of January 20, 1764.—ED.]

[Copied from Doc. Col. Hist., New York, vol. VII, pp. 595-598.] New York, 20 January, 1764.

My Lords-

The dispute subsisting between this, and his Majesty's Governt of New Hampshire, respecting their boundary, obliges me to lay the State of this matter before your Lordpo.

In April, 1750, Gov Clinton communicated to the Council a letter of the 17th Nov from Mr. Wentworth Gov of New Hampshire, representing that he had it in command from His Majo to make grants of the unimproved lands in New Hampshire, and desiring information how far north of Albany this Province extended, and how many miles to the Eastward of Hudson's river, to the northward of the Massachusetts line, that he might govern himself accordingly—As also an extract of his Majv's Commission to Mr. Wentworth describing the houndaries of that Govern's By the advice of the Council, Mr. Clinton informed Mr. Wentworth, in answer to his request, that this Province is bounded Eastward by Connecticut River, the letters Patent from King Cha' the Second to the Duke of York expressly granting "all the lands from the west side of Connecticut River, to the East side of the Delaware Bay."

Mr. Wentworth in answer of the 25th April, says, that he had communicated to His Majesty's Council of that Govern the above opinion of the Council of this Passings which he delease rated have of the Council of this Province, which he declares would have been satisfactory, had not the two Charter Govern's of Connecticut and Massachusetts Bay, extended their bounds many miles to the westward of Connecticut River; and desires to be informed, by what authority Connecticut and the Massachusetts Govern's claimed so far to the westward necticut and the Massachusetts Govern canned so far to the westward as they had settled, & acquainted Gov Clinton, that before the receipt of his letter of the 9th of April, he had granted a township due north of the Massachusetts line, of the contents of six miles square, and by of the Massachusetts line, of the contents of six miles square, and by measurement twenty-four miles east of the City of Albany. Upon Gov Clinton's laying this letter before the Council, they advised him to inform Gov Wentworth, that the claim of the Gov of Connecticut is founded upon an agreement with that of New York in the year 1683, afterwards confirmed by King William. But that as to the Massachusetts Settlements, so far to the westward, it was presumed they were first made by intrusion, and since continued thro; the neglect of this govern. And that it was probable the lands within the township he had lately granted, or some part of them, had been already granted by the Govern of New York.

Govern' of New York.

In July 1750, Mr. Wentworth's letter of the 22<sup>d</sup> June preceeding, was laid before the Council; declaring, that his Maju's Council of that Proverer unanimously of opinion not to commence a dispute with this Govern' respecting the extent of western Boundary to New Hampshire, until His Majesty's pleasure should be further known; and accordingly the Council had advised that he should on the part of New Hampshire, make a representation of the matter to His Majesty, relying that Mr. Clinton would do the same on the part of New York. To which proposal this Govern' agreed, adding, that it would be a measure for the mutual advantage of both provinces, that the copies of the respective representations to be made to his Majesty on this head should be exrepresentations to be made to his Majesty on this head should be ex-

On the 2nd September Mr. Wentworth signified the Assent of his Governt to the last mentioned proposal as it might contribute to the speedy settlement of the boundary between the two provinces, and assured Mr Clinton, that he would transmit to him, a copy of the representation he should make in behalf of New Hampshire, as soon as perfected.

I find the representation on the Part of New York was not approved of by the Council, until the 18th Oct 1751, when it was entered on the minutes, together with a letter of mine on the same subject. But before this period, Mr. Wentworth had in his letter to the Board of Trade, of the 23<sup>d</sup> March, 1750, suggested to their Lord<sup>pp</sup> what he thought proper to urge on this subject, in behalf of his own Governt, without transmitting any copy thereof to Gov Clinton.

Thus the matter rested, according to my information, until the incursions of the Indians into this Province, immediately preceeding the late War, put an entire stop to any new settlements, and rendered both Govern less solicitous to bring this controversy to an issue. The Govern of New York, confiding that New Hampshire, after what had passed, would not venture to make any further grants, until his Majesty should be pleased to determine the limits between his two Provinces, as such Grants, where they might interfere with those of New York, must be considered as a mere nullity.

But how great was the surprise of this Governt, when they lately dis-covered that New Hampshire had, since the transactions above recited, granted upwards of thirty, some affirm one hundred and sixty townships, each of six miles square, westward of Connecticut River; a fact which had probably been still concealed from the knowledge of this Governt, had not the grantees or persons employed by them, travelled thro' all parts of this and the neighboring province of New Jersey, puplickly offering the lands for sale, at such low rates as evince the claimants had no intention of becoming settlers, either from inability, or conscious they could derive no title to the lands under the grants of New Hampshire.

To prevent therefore the further progress of this mischief, by informing the people of the true state of the claim of the two Provinces, His Majesty's Council unanimously advise me to issue a Proclamation, asserting the ancient jurisdiction of this Province to Connecticut River, a copy whereof I have the honor to inclose to your Lordpos.

The Claim of the Governt of New Hampshire to within twenty miles east of Hudson's River, being founded solely on the example of Connecticut and the Massachusetts Bay, it will be necessary to consider the right of those two Governt to that Boundary:—

The limits of Connecticut were settled by agreement with this province confirmed by the Crown, and tho' the possession and claim of the Dutch, might have been offered as an argument to confine the limits of that Colony to the River Connecticut; yet as the Tract might thereby have been rendered too inconsiderable for the establishment of a Colony, and the people had so early extended their settlements Westward of the River, these considerations probably were the motives which induced the Govern' of New York, first in 1664, and afterwards in 1683, to yield to Connecticut the Lands westward, to the distance of about twenty miles of Hudson's River.

But no agreement or settlement of Boundaries can be alleged on the part of Massachusetts Bay. The Dutch, at the time of the Massachusetts first grant, possessed this Province then called New Netherlands, extended their claims between the two Rivers Delaware and Connecticut; and had long before the English approached the last mentioned River, a Fort, called Fort Hope, on the western Banks, near where the Town of Hertford now stands—these facts were well known at the time, and therefore in the grant to the Council of Plymouth in 1620, of the lands within the 34th and 48th degrees of North latitude, on which the claim of Massachusetts Bay and Connecticut was originally founded, all lands which were held or possessed by any other Christian Prince or State, are expressly saved and excepted—hence it appears that the grant to the Duke of York in 1664 of the lands Westward of Connecticut River, was entirely grounded on an opinion, that the Crown had an absolute right to those lands, notwithstanding the claim of the New England Colonies, and that this grant which immediately preceeded the conquest of this Province from the Dutch, was intended to include all the lands which the Dutch held here.

I have not till lately seen an extract of a Report of the Commissioners appointed by the Crown in 1664, to visit the New England Governia, who declare, they find the limits of Massachusetts Bay to be Seconnet Brook on the south-west, and Merimack River on the North East, and two right lines drawn from each of those two places till they come within twenty miles of Hudson's River.

Nor an extract of a letter from Coll. Nichols Gov of New York, in which, speaking of the agreement made with Connecticut he says: "This determination was a leading case of equal justice and of great good consequence in all the Colonies; and therefore we were assured "would be an acceptable service to your Royal highness, though to the diminution of your bounds, so that to the East of New York and "Hudson's River, nothing considerable remains to your Royal Highness, except Long Island, and about twenty miles from any part of "Hudson's River. I look therefore upon all the rest as empty names, and places possessed forty years by former grants, and of no consequence to your Royal Highness, except all New England could be brought to submit to your Royal Highness' Patent"—
If any extension was then made by the Compiler and the Maccocky

If any settlement was then made by the Commiss" and the Massachusetts Bay, it appears not on record, although that with Connecticut in the same year is Registered in both Provinces; and if actually made, it was unauthorized; the powers to the Commissioners being expressly confined to the disputes between the New England Govern<sup>10</sup>, namely, Massachusetts Bay, Connecticut, New Plymouth, Rhode Island, and the Denvitance clearation of a guidanty appears from the Commission the Providence plantation, as evidently appears from the Commission, a copy of which I enclose your Lorder, nor can it be supposed that the Crown meant to invest a power in the Commiss, to settle boundaries between the Govern's of New England and this Prove, the commission bearing date in April 1664, and the conquest of this Governt from the Dutch, not taking place till the month of August following. There is also a mistake in the assertion, that the "places were possessed forty years by former grants"—unless by the Dutch, for the English did not settle to the westward of Connecticut River, till 1635 or 1636, which settlement was made southward of the Massachusetts south line, with-out authority from any Govern. The determination then in respect to Connecticut could not with propriety be considered as a leading case of equal justice in all the Colonies, nor could the boundary of Connecticut River have affected the other Govern's so materially as Connecticut, as those Govern's have a far greater extent Eastward than Connecticut. This reasoning is justified also from these considerations, that the Crown did not by any act, ratify or approve the opinion of the Commissioners, or of Gov Nicholls who was one of them, but on the contrary, after the Dutch had in 1673, reconquered this Province, and by the Treaty of Breda in 1674, yielded it to England, made a second grant to the Duke of York in the same terms with the first; and it appears by the minutes of the agreement with Connecticut in 1683, that Gov Nicholls and the other Commiss, had been deceived in the line they established with that Colony in 1664, which instead of leaving to this Province twenty miles East of Hudson's River, soon crossed that River, and left the far greater part of that River out of New York Govern.

Massachusetts Bay hath nothing I humbly conceive to urge in support of their claim to a twenty mile line East of Hudson's River, but a possession gained in opposition to the letter and spirit of their grants from the Crown, thro' the inattention of this Govern'. This argument may in equity entitle individuals to a confirmation from the Crown, of the lands they actually possess, rendering to His Majesty the usual quitrent reserved in this Province, but cannot be offered as conclusive on the part of the Crown, in respect to its interests arising either from its Revenue of quit-rents, which by computation at 2 | 6 pt 100 acres, would amount to near £1200 Sterling pt Annum, or from Escheats, neither can it with justice I think, be extended to the case of those inhabitants of New York, who hold lands Eastward of a twenty mile line, the lands being at the time they obtained their grants, vested in the Crown, within the express limits of the province of New York, and not within the grants on which the Massachusetts Bay found their claim.

Having thus fully considered this point, in respect to the Province of Massachusetts Bay, I need add very little as to New Hampshire. That Govern' is to extend Eastward and Northward till it meets with his Majesty's other Govern', and cannot therefore interfere with the limits of this Province. The lands in question lay much more convenient to be included within New York, than New Hampshire. Hudson's River being navigable by vessels of considerable burthen to Albany; the Trade of that part of the country will probably centre there, to which place the transportation of carriage will be much easier than to the ports of New Hampshire, and where the inhabitants are likely to meet with a better market for their produce. The Revenue to the Crown, if the lands are settled under this province, will be greater, than if granted under New Hampshire, in proportion to the difference of quit-rent, which I am informed is I sh. sterl: pr 100 acres in that Prove, and is by his Majesty's Instructions fixed here at 2 | 6 sterl. There is another circumstance of some weight at this juncture. The preference given to this Govern' from its evident superiority, has induced a great number of reduced officers to claim here, the bounty His Majesty has been pleased by his Proclamation of the 7th Oct' last, to extend to those who have served in North America during the late war; and many of them have located their spotts within the claim of New Hampsh'n, indeed if they had not, it would have been impossible for this Govern' to have found lands enough for them, clear of dispute, and not reserved to the Indians; but they absolutely decline any application to New Hampshire for lands westward of Connecticut River.

As the settling the limits of Jurisdiction of the Govern's of New York and New Hampshire absolutely depends on his Majesty's pleasure, sh'i His Majesty on any consideration extend the limits of New Hampshire westward of Connecticut River, I humbly presume to hope the right of property and the right of jurisdiction will be saved to this Province, in respect to all lands before granted by this Govern', whose right to the boundary of Connecticut River, especially when considered as to New Hampshire, appears clear and unquestionable.

I am with great submission
My Lords,
Your most obedient & faithful Servant

SECTION II.

Proceedings in Relation to the New Hampshire Grants, under the Administration of Gov. John Wentworth.

Memorial of John Wendell, respecting lands on the west side of Connecticut river annexed to the province of New York.

To the Honble His Majesty's Council and House of Representatives in General Assembly convened this 18th day of Oct, 1768, by adjournment.

The Memorial of John Wendell of Portsmouth in the Province aforesaid, Esq<sup>r</sup>, unto your Excellency & Honors humbly shews:

That your Memorialist being appointed the agent of a Committee, chosen by the voices of more than one Thousand Grantees, claiming lands on the western side of Connecticut River, under the Grants of Benning Wentworth, Esq<sup>r</sup>, late Governor of this province, which have since been taken away and annexed to the Province of New York; by virtue of which appointment, he is impowered to act, transact and do, anything, whereby the Interest of his Constituents and their Principles may be advanced; as also to correspond with their other agents, M<sup>r</sup> Sam¹ Johnston & Sam¹

Robinson Esquires, who have preferred a Petition to his [P. 26.] Majesty in Council in behalf of the said grantees, praying to be re-annexed to this Government, and to set forth other heavy grievances, under which the s<sup>d</sup> grantees then laboured, and which still continue.

During a correspondence which y' Memorialist has had with the said Johnston, some anecdotes have dropt from his Pen, which your Memorialist is desired to communicate, as worthy the notice and attention of the whole Legislature of this Provce, but as the said Johnston has strictly enjoined it upon him, not to divulge this intelligence he has received, or give Extracts of his Letters only to such, whose Prudence & Secrecy may be absolutely relied upon, your memorialist has hitherto postponed this communication; and now placing an unlimited Confidence on the Prudence of this Honb Court, he takes the Liberty to lay an attested Extract of said Johnston's Letter before them, from which may be deduced;-that if the Legislature of this Province would join with said Grantees in their application to his Majesty in Council, the one for the Jurisdiction, and the other for the Property of said Lands, there is a great Probability of success to both.

Your Memorialist does not presume to dictate any particular measures whereby this valuable & much desired acqui[P. 27.] sition may be obtained, but leaves to the consideration of this Honble Court the nature & substance of this memorial, as it is y Memorialist's only Intention & highest Ambition, that the grantees in particular, and the Province in general may reap an advantage that may result from this Discovery.

John Wendell.

London, March 31st 1763. Extract from Mr. S. Fohnston's Letter of that date to Fohn Wendell.

&quot;I am really surprised at the supiness of the Proprietors and even of your Province in this matter; had it been pursued with spirit immediate upon the alteration of the Jurisdiction & before any Grants had been made by New York, it is very plain to me, that the Proprimight very easily have secured their Lands, tho' the Province had not recovered its Jurisdiction, and even the latter I think was very probable.

&quot;Many things which have since happened have increased the difficulty, but I should by no means even now despair of it, if the cause

"was supported as it ought to be by the joint aid and application of all "the Proprietors and the Province, the one for the Property and the [P. 28.] "other for the Jurisdiction of the lands, the real Poverty of "those who joined Capt. Robinson (tho' they did the best they could) "rendered them unable to give the cause that effectual support which was (and is) necessary to give it proper weight and render the application to the Crown as regular and respectable as its Importance and the usual course of Proceedings in cases of this kind justly required; Money has in fact been wanting to do Justice to this Cause; it came there rather in Forma Pauperis which is an appearance seldom made or much regarded in this country, and is by no means an Eligible Ilight in which to place an affair of this kind."

A true coppy taken by me JOHN WENDELL.

[P. 29.] Extract of Governor John Wentworth's Letter to Governor William Tryon of New York, dated 19th of October, 1771.

"The Information refer'd to in your Excellency's Letter of 2<sup>a</sup> Inst. altho' wholly different from the real fact, is not unexpected to me having been often menaced by a number of People on Connecticut River who have not only taken great pains to vilify & asperse me in that District, and by the most artful, unjust sollicitations to obtain equally injurious Representations, not hesitating to scatter threats of Plans form'd to remove me from his Majesty's Service. These things I shou'd have neglected in silence; but their attempts to convey such prejudicial Insinuations to your Excellency justifys my Explanation.

"The Surveyor General of the Northern District being in the course of Duty station'd here for two years, and by the Winter's Rigor precluded from surveying the Sea Coast, I formed a Design of obtaining thro' his assistance a perfect and complete Survey of this Province,—such interior Surveys being recommended in his Official Instructions. Captain Holland very obligingly was dispos'd to employ himself & his party on this service if he could be aided by three or four additional men to assist in the Surveys.

[P. 30.] "Whereupon I recommended to the Assembly, but they refus'd to make any provision for the expense, altho' it could not amount to Fifty Guineas; but as the advantage was so evidently great, and such an invaluable opp might never again happen, to acquire a faithful and exact Map of the Province, unless at a far greater Expense, Capt. Holland's Requisition was rais'd by subscription.

"He undertook in person to survey the Eastern District. One Deputy, Mr. Grant, he sent to Connecticut River, & one Deputy thro' the middle of the Province. In the Spring each party made Return to Capt. Holland, and this Winter the intermediate parts of those Divisions are to be perfected and a general Map compos'd.

"These Gentlemen being strangers the people of the Country, naturally jealous of every thing they don't understand, and the whole survey depending upon voluntary assistance, I wrote to some Gent<sup>n</sup> in this Prov<sup>e</sup> a circular Letter for each party to secure proper Reception & assistance for them: which letter in many instances sav'd them much distress and difficulty.

"Whether Mr. Grant (Mr. Whiting had no sort of power [P. 31.] or Direction, but merely as one hand hir'd) pursued an Easterly Branch of Connecticut River, instead of a Northerly Branch, or which of the two is properly the main River I know not; but am inclin'd to think so skilful an officer under the strictest injunction of care from his principal, and subject to his penetrating Examination, cou'd not well be mistaken in such a material point as this, yet, if it is, the error is so much injurious to New Hampshire.

"The ill-tim'd parsimony of the late Assembly refus'd so useful & necessary a grant altho' requisite to carry into effect a royal Instruction. I confess it gave me pain, yet I could by no means solicit aid of the Government of N. York towards surveying Connect. River, which by his Majesty's Order in Council (whereby the Western District was granted from this to that Province) is established expressly to be in N. Hampsh; to its Western Banks-more especially as it is part of a Provincial Survey, wen hath not been forwarded to his Majesty's ministers of State, neither will it be, until next Spring; when the whole Prov: Map is finish'd and must then obtain what credit its own truth may merit.

"Whatever may be the consequences of the conduct held by those people, whom y' Excell is informed are exciting Disturbances on the District formerly in this Province, they [P. 32] cannot in any Degree be ascrib'd to me: that my name has been used therein, I consider as an effort of those unworthy wretches, who daily presume in that country to calumniate me in ye rudest & most indecent Forms.

"To preclude all possibility of mistake on my side, I have cautiously & unexceptionably avoided speaking to any man or men upon this Dispute, unless in the presence of some other persons; and have invariably recommended implicit obedience to the Laws, where his Majesty had been pleas'd to assign them; and upon all occasions positively disavow'd any connection with them or even a desire for their reverting to this Prov: But at all times told them that I have met with occasionally, that submission was their Duty & Interest. Upon y' Excelly's accession to the government, I was still more explicit & earnest in public & private recommending those unhappy complaining people immediately to refer themselves & their cause to y' Decision, & in abiding thereby I was confident they would have Justice; neither might they expect me to reconsider or alter what might be y' Determination, even if that Country should ever be re-annexed to this Province—an event wen [P. 33.] cou'd not be expected, considering the great Disparity in Interest, Wealth, Diligence & Ability, weh I grieve to acknowledge is manifestly against N. Hampsh.

"Hence it is my wish to hear that every outrage & violence committed under any pretence whatsoever may meet the severest censure of Law, weh I shall see without concern; but on the contrary rejoyce in, as the avenger of those groundless aspersions & still more culpable conduct practised by many towards me, in defiance of all Law or Rectitude whatever: And I entreat as a peculiar favor, the greatest severity may fall on those who presume in any way to ascribe their conduct to me. The merits of the Dispute are too tedious for me to enter into at this time, suffice it to say that the whole arose upon Representations & Plans from N. York in the year 1762, totally unsuspected & unknown to this Province, containing many cruel Reflections on ye late Governor and Council; whereon N. Hamp: suffered the loss unheard; altho' they labor under a Tax to the year 1774 incurr'd in the defence of this very land in obedience to a Royal Instruction specifying it to be part of this Province, and enjoyning a penalty of its loss to Massa. Bay upon neglect'g to obey; an event further remarked by a Dissolution of an Assembly, who disapproving the mode of Defence, rejected the Recommendation wen was acceeded to by the next Assembly. I am positively convinced that [P. 34.] these people are to a man certain of my abhorrence of every species of outrage or illegality, and that all pretences of my favor are made by a few disaffected persons, merely to vilify me. Nor do they even venture openly to avow this among the people in general, who universally know the contrary: therefore any public act of mine cannot in the least undeceive them; but wou'd be considered as an exterior condescension to two or three wicked men who have been for three years past disseminating the most mischievous measures in that remote country."

SIR—

Having been favored with your letter of the 19th October, I lost no time in laying it before His Majesty's Council of this Province, by whose advice I issued a Proclamation, setting forth the Proceedings that have passed between our governments, respecting the Lands lying in this Province to the Westward of Connecticut River: A copy of which Proclamation I have the Honor to transmit to you, requesting if you, Sir, see no objection, that it may be inserted in the public Papers within your government. The Facts stated therein are taken from original Letters & papers now in the Secretary's office of this Province. It was thought necessary to prevent the malicious Insinuations of designing men from gaining credit among the deluded Inhabitants [P. 36.] in the Western Frontiers of this Colony, to express in the Proclamation, your Excellency's Disavowal & Disapprobation of the rash conduct of those Rioters who so much disturb the peace of this government. I still hope you will, upon further Reflection, make known by some public act within your government, your Dissatisfaction of such injurious Reflections, & that you will consider such a step rather as a compliance with my earnest request, than as an exterior condescension to a few wicked men.

The Commissioners appointed for runing the partition line between this government and the Province of Canada being prevented this season from proceeding any further than twenty-two miles of the course; I am desirous of informing your Excellency, as you may possibly consider your Province in some measure effected thereby, that I have fixed upon the first day of March next, for the commissioners to meet at the house of Colo Christy's on the [P. 37.] River Cole, about two leagues to the westward of Point Moore, from whence they are to proceed in compleating the Extension of the Boundary Line between the two Governments, agreeable to His Majesty's Instructions.

I am truly sensible of the Politeness of your sentiments towards me & wish you may by an early visit to this City, afford me an opportunity of renewing an acquaintance which was begun during your short stay in your Tour through North Carolina.

I am, with much esteem,

Sir, Your Excellency's most obedient servant
WM. TRYON.

P. S. Our Correspondence being of a public nature I shall communicate the same to His Majesty's Secretary of State for American affairs.

His Excellency John Wentworth, Esq. Gov. &c. &c.

NOTE BY THE EDITOR.

In the volume of State Papers—labelled "Vermont Controversy,"—as arranged by the late John Farmer, Esq., pp. 41-48, is found a brief history of that controversy, as contained in Dr. Belknap's History of New Hampshire, pp. 385-392, Farm. ed., Dover, 1831. Inasmuch as this presents a fair view of the controversy, in the judgment of Dr. Belknap, it may be helpful to readers in forming their opinions on the subject.

SECTION III.

BRIEF HISTORY OF THE CONTROVERSY WITH VERMONT.

[Copied from Dr. Jeremy Belknap's Hist. of N. H.]

The inhabitants of the district on the western side of Connecticut river, which was severed from New Hampshire in 1764, had been engaged in a long and bitter controversy with the government of New York. They had even been obliged to have recourse to arms in defence of their estates, and frequent acts of violence had been committed. There was among them a set of intrepid men ready to encounter dangers, and trained to hardy enterprise. At the commencement of hostilities, by the advice of some principal opposers of the British government in the other colonies, a company of those people, styling themselves Green Mountain Boys, marched to Ticonderoga, and wrested that fortress, together with Crown Point, out of the hands of the British garrisons. A regiment of them was embodied by order and in the pay of the general congress. Their exertions in the common cause were meritorious, and their services were acceptable.

Soon after the declaration of independence, the inhabitants of that territory assembled in convention to consider their peculiar situation, and concert measures for their safety. The opportunity 1776. which then presented for a change in their political connexions was too precious to be lost. By the dissolution of the bonds which had held America in subjection to the crown of Britain, they conceived themselves free from the government of New York, to which the most of them had never voluntarily submitted; and being, as they said, reduced to "a state of nature," they thought they had a right to form such connexions as were agreeable to themselves. Accordingly, they made and published a declaration,—"that they would at all times consider themselves as a free and independent state, capable of regulating their own internal police; that they Jan. 15. had the sole exclusive right of governing themselves in such manner as they should choose, not repugnant to the resolves of congress; and that they were ready to contribute their proportion to the common defence." Under the influence of these principles, they formed a plan of government and a code of laws, and petitioned congress to receive them into the union.

The inhabitants on the eastern side of Connecticut river were very conveniently situated to unite with those on the western side, and many of them had the same principles and views. They argued that the original grant of New Hampshire to Mason was circumscribed by a line drawn at the distance of sixty miles from the sea; that all the lands westward of that line, being royal grants, had been held in subjection to the government of New Hampshire by force of the royal commissions, which were vacated by the assumed independence of the American colonies; and therefore that the inhabitants of all those lands had reverted to a "state of nature." By this expression, however, they did not mean that each individual was reduced to such a state, but that each town retained its corporate unity, unconnected with any superior jurisdiction. They distinguished between commissions derived from the king, which were revokable at his pleasure, and incorporations held on certain conditions, which being performed, the powers and privileges granted by the incorporations were perpetual. They asserted, that jurisdictions, established by royal commissions, could bind a people together no longer than the force which first compelled continues to operate; but when the coercive power of the king was rejected, and its operation had ceased, the people had a right to make a stand at the first Jegal stage, viz., their town incorporations. These, by universal consent, were held sacred. Hence they concluded that the major part of each one of those towns had a right to control the minor part; and they considered themselves as so many distinct corporations until they should agree to unite in one aggregate body.

agree to unite in one aggregate body.

In these sentiments the people were not all united. The majority of some towns was in favor of their former connexion, and in those towns where the majority inclined the other way the minority claimed protection of the government.

They supposed that the existence of their town incorporations, and of the privileges annexed to them, depended on their union to New Hampshire; and that their acceptance of the grants was in effect an acknowledgment of the jurisdiction, and a submission to the laws of the state, from which they could not fairly be disengaged without its consent; as the state had never injured or conversed them.

the state had never injured or oppressed them.

Much pains were taken by the other party to disseminate the new ideas. Conventions were held, pamphlets were printed, and at length a petition was drawn in the name of sixteen towns on the eastern side of Connecticut river requesting the new state, which had assumed the mame of Vermont, to receive them into its union, alleging "that they were not connected with any state, with respect to their internal police." The assembly at first appeared to be against receiving them, but the members from those towns which were situated near the river on the west side declared that they would withdraw and join with the people on the east side in forming a new state. The question was then referred to the people at large, and means were used to influence a majority of the towns to vote in favor of the union which June 11. the assembly could not but confirm. The sixteen towns were accordingly received, and the Vermont assembly resolved that any other towns on the eastern side of the river might be admitted on producing a vote of a majority of the inhabitants, or on the appointment of a representative. Being thus admitted into the state of Vermont, they gave notice to the government of June 22. New Hampshire of the separation which they had made, and expressed their wish for an amicable settlement of a jurisdictional line, and a friendly correspondence.

The president of New Hampshire, in the name of the assembly, wrote to the government of Vermont claiming the sixteen towns as part of the state, the limits of which had been determined prior to the Revolution, reminding him that those towns had sent Aug. 23.

delegates to the Convention in 1775; that they had applied to the assembly for arms and ammunition, which had been sent to them; that their military officers had accepted commissions and obeyed orders from the government; that the minority of those towns was averse to a disunion and had claimed protection of the state, which the assembly thought themselves bound to afford; and beseching him to use his influence with the assembly of Vermont to dissolve the newly formed connexion.

At the same time the president wrote to the delegates of the state in Congress, desiring them to take advice and endeavor to obAug. 19.

Aug. 19

The governor and council of Vermont sent a messenger to congress to see in what light the new state was viewed by them. On his return he reported that the congress was unanimously opposed to the union of the sixteen towns with Vermont; otherwise they (excepting the delegates of New York) had no objection to the independence of the new state. At the next session of the Vermont assembly at Windsor, when the

At the next session of the Vermont assembly at Windsor, when the representatives of the sixteen towns had taken their seats, October. a debate arose on a question whether they should be erected into a new county, which passed in the negative. Conceiving that they were not admitted to equal privileges with their brethren, the members from those towns withdrew; and were followed by several others belonging to the towns adjoining the river on the west side. They formed themselves into a convention, and invited all the towns on both sides of the river to unite and set up another state by the name of New Connecticut. This secession had nearly proved fatal to the state of Vermont. A ridge of mountains, which extends from south to north through that territory, seemed to form not only a natural but a political line of division. A more cordial union subsisted between the people on the eastern side of the Green Mountains and the eastern side of Connecticut river, than between the latter and those on the western side of the mountains, but these alone were insufficient, without the others, to make a state. The governor and other leading men of Vermont, who resided on the west side of the mountains, wrote letters to the assembly of New Hampshire informing them of the separation, and expressing their disapprobation of a connexion with the sixteen towns. The assembly regarded these letters as ambiguous, and as not expressing a disinclination to any future connexion with them. Jealousy is said to be a republican virtue;—it operated on this occasion, and the event proved that it was not without foundation.

A convention of delegates from several towns on both sides of the river assembled at Cornish and agreed to unite without any Dec. 9. regard to the limits established by the king in 1764, and to make the following proposals to New Hampshire, viz., either to agree with them on a dividing line, or to submit the dispute to congress, or to arbitrators mutually chosen. If neither of these proposals were accepted, then, in case they could agree with New Hampshire on a form of government, they would consent that "The whole of the grants on both sides of the river should connect themselves with New Hampshire, and become one entire state, as before the royal determination in 1764." Till one or other of these proposals should be complied with, they determine "To trust in providence and defend themselves."

An attempt was made in the following year to form a constitution for New Hampshire, in which the limits of the state were said to be the same as under royal government "reserving nevertheless 1779, our claim to the New Hampshire Grants west of Connecticut river." Though this form of government was rejected by a majority of the people, yet there was a disposition in a great part of the assembly to retain their claim to the whole of the grants westward of the river. At the same time the state of New York set up a claim to the same lands, and it was suspected, perhaps not without reason, that intrigues were forming to divide Vermont between New Hampshire and New York, by the ridge of mountains which runs through the territory. Certain it is that the Vermonters were alarmed, and that they might have the same advantage of their adversaries they extended their claim westward into New York and eastward into New Hampshire; and thus not only the sixteen towns, but several other towns in the counties of Cheshire and Grafton, became incorporated with Vermont by articles of union and confederation.

It is not easy to develop the intrigues of the several parties, or to clear their transactions from the obscurity which surrounds them. He who looks for consistency in the proceedings of the conventions and assemblies which were involved in this controversy will be disappointed.

Several interfering interests conspired to perplex the subject. The people on the western side of the Green Mountains wished to have the seat of government among them; those adjoining Connecticut river, on both sides, were desirous of bringing the centre of jurisdiction to the verge of the river; the leading men in the eastern part of New Hamp-shire were averse to a removal of the government from its old seat; Vermont had assumed independence, but its limits were not defined; New York had a claim on that territory as far as Connecticut river, from which there was no disposition to recede. That state had been always:

opposed to the independence of Vermont.

New Hampshire at first seemed to acquiesce in it, and some letters which the President wrote to the governor of Vermont, when threatened with invasion in 1777, were understood as an acknowledgment of it. Had there been no attempt to unite with the towns on the eastern side. of the river, New Hampshire would perhaps never have opposed the independence of Vermont. But the assembly was afterward induced to claim all that territory which before the year 1764 had been supposed to be within the limits of the state. This interfered with the claim of New York, and at the same time Massachusetts put in a claim to a part The controversy had become so intricate that it was thought necessary to be decided by congress; and application being made to that body, they recommended to the three states of New York, Massachusetts, and New Hampshire to pass acts which should authorize congress to determine their boundaries, and at the same time they advised the people of Vermont to relinquish jurisdiction over all persons on the west or east sides of Connecticut river who had not denied the authority of New York and New-Hampshire, and to abstain from granting lands or confiscating estates within their assumed limits till the matter should be decided. The states of New York and New Hampshire passed these acts, but Massachusetts did not. The Vermont assembly proceeded in granting lands and confiscating estates, and congress could only resolve that their proceedings were unwarrantable.

It was necessary that nine states should be present in congress, besides those whose claims were to be heard. A deficiency in the representation caused a long delay; but after the expiration of another year, the question was brought on. The claims of New York and New Hampshire were put in, and both pleaded that Vermont had no right to independence. The agents of the new state Sept. 20. had no right to independence. The agents of the new state Sept. 20. asserted their right, and offered to become part of the Union, intimating that if they could not be admitted they should be reduced to the necessity of making the best terms [they could with] the British

The cause was further perplexed by a constitutional question, -- whether congress had any power to form a new state within the limits of the Union. The decision was deferred, and after: eleven months congress had proceeded no farther than to lay Aug. 20, it down as an indispensable preliminary to the recognition of Vermont as a member of the Union that they should "explicitly relinquish all demands of land and jurisdiction on the east side of Connecticut river, and on the west side of a line drawn twenty miles cast-ward of Hudson's river to Lake Champlain.'

When this resolution was laid before the Assembly of Vermont, which met at Charlestown, they determined to "remain firm in the principles on which they first assumed government, and to hold the articles of union inviolate; that they would not submit the ques-tion of their independence to the arbitrament of any power whatever, but they were willing at present to refer the question of their jurisdictional boundary to commissioners, mutually chosen; and when they should be admitted into the American Union, they would submit any such disputes to congress."

The state of society within the seceding towns at this time was very unhappy. The majorities attempted to control the minorities, and these were disposed not to submit, but to seek protection of the government with which they had been connected. At the same time and in the same place justices, sheriffs, and constables, appointed by the authority of both states, were exercising jurisdiction over the same persons. Party rage, high words, and deep resentment were the effect of these clashing interests. An affray which began in the town of Chesterfield threatened a scene of open hostility between the states of New Hampshire and Vermont.

A constable, appointed by the authority of Vermont, had a writ in an action of debt against a man who was in the interest of New Hampshire.

He found the man, in company with a number of people of his own party, and attempted to arrest him. The owner of the house interposed. The constable produced a book, which he said contained the laws of Vermont, and began to read. The owner of the house forbade him. Threatening words were used, and the offior the house totaled min. Interesting works were deed, and to the cere was compelled to retreat. By a warrant from a Vermont justice, the householder and another of the company were committed to prison in Charlestown. They sent a petition to the assembly of New Hampshire for relief. The assembly empowered the Committee of Safety to direct the sheriff of Cheshire to release the prisoners. They farther empowered the committee to cause to be apprehended and committed to prison in any of the counties all persons acting under the pretended authority of the state of Vermont, to be tried by the courts of those counties where they might be confined; and for this purpose the sheriffs were empowered to raise the posse

In attempting to release the two prisoners from Charlestown gaol the sheriff himself was imprisoned by the Vermont sheriff, under the authority of a warrant from three justices. The imprisoned sheriff applied to a brigadier-general of New Hampshire to raise the militia for his liberation. This alarmed the Vermonters, and orders were issued to the contract of the contra by the governor for their militia to oppose force with force. A committee of Vermont was sent to Exeter "to agree on measures to prevent hostilities." One of this committee was ont sheriff. He was immediately arrested and thrown into Jan. 12. the Vermont sheriff. prison at Exeter, and there held as a hostage for the release of the sheriff of Cheshire. The assembly issued a proclamation allowing forty days for the people in the revolted towns to repair to some magistrate of New Hampshire, and subscribe a declaration that they acknowledged the extent of New Hampshire to Connecticut river, and that they would demean themselves peaceably as good citizens of the state. They also ordered the militia of all the counties to hold themselves in readiness to march against the revolters.

While affairs wore such a threatening aspect between the two states, means were used at congress to take up the controversy on more general ground. A committee who had under consideration the affair of admitting Vermont into the Union and determining its boundaries, prevailed on General Washington, then at Philadelphia, to write to the governor of Vermont, advising to a relinquishment of their late extension as an "indispensable preliminary" to their admission into Jan. 1, the Union, intimating, also, that upon their non-compliance they must be considered as having a hostile disposition towards the United States, in which case coercion on the part of congress,

This letter had the desired effect. The assembly of Vermont, taking advantage of the absence of the members from the eastern side of the river, obtained a majority for complying with the Feb. 22. preliminary, and resolved "that the western bank of Connecticut river on the one part, and a line drawn from the north-west corner of Massachusetts northward to Lake Champlain on the other part, be the eastern and western boundaries of the state of Vermont, and that they relinquished all claim of jurisdiction without those limits." When the members from the eastern side of Connecticut river arrived, they found themselves excluded from a seat in the assembly, and took their leave with some expressions of bitterness.

After this compliance, it was expected that Vermont would be admitted into the Union, and the question was solemnly put in congress; but a majority decided against it, to the no small disappointment of many persons, beside the inhabitants of the disputed terri- Apr. 14. tory. The pretence for this decision was, that they had exceeded the limited time; but they had complied with the "indispensable realizations." and the order of the realizations.

ceeded the limited time; but mey nad compiled with the "indispensable preliminary," and the order of congress requiring it stood unrepealed. Though cut off from their connexion with Vermont, the revolted towns did not at once return to a state of peace; but the divisions and animosities which had so long subsisted continued to produce disagreeable effects. The judicial courts of New Hampshire had sat without much interruption in the counties of Cheshire and Grafton, whilst the officers of Vermont held inrisdiction also: but when the latter were excluded of Vermont held jurisdiction also; but when the latter were excluded by the act of the Vermont assembly, a spirit of opposition began to arise against the sitting of the former,

When the inferior court was holden at Keene, a number of persons appeared to oppose its proceedings, and effected their purpose so far as to make an adjournment necessary; but three of the leaders of the opposition were arrested and bound over to the superior court. In the mean time efforts were made to raise a party who should oppose the superior court; and it was reported that two hundred men had associated and armed themselves for that purpose. On men had associated and armed themselves for that purpose. On the morning before the court was opened several of the leaders Oct. came to the judge's chambers, and presented a petition praying "that the court might be adjourned, and that no judicial proceedings might be had whilst the troubles in which the country had been involved still subsisted." They were told that the judges could come to no determination on the subject but in open court. When the court was opened their petition was publicly read, and the consideration of it was termination on the subject but in open court. When the court was opened their petition was publicly read, and the consideration of it was postponed to the next day. The court then proceeded to its common business. The grand jury being impanneled, the doors of the house where they met were kept open whilst the attorney-general laid before them the case of the rioters at the inferior court. A bill was found against them. They were arraigned, they pleaded guilty, and cast themselves on the mercy of the court. The court remitted their punishment on condition of their future peaceable behaviour. This well-judged combination of firmness and lenity disarmed the insurgents, and they quietly dispersed. From that time the spirit of opposition to government in that quarter gradually abated, and the people returned to their connexion with New Hampshire.

DISCONTENT IN THE BORDER TOWNS OF NEW HAMPSHIRE LYING EAST OF CONNECTICUT RIVER.

Note by the Editor.

Readers will please bear in mind that on the 5th of January, 1776, the general assembly of New Hampshire "took up civil government," and adopted what was called a "temporary constitution," to continue during the war then commenced with Great Britain (see State Pap. N. H., vol. VIII, pp. 2-4). Soon after, they assumed the name of the "State of New Hampshire," of which Hon. Meshech Weare was the chief magistrate, with the title of "President of the Council." This temporary constitution, it appears, was not acceptable to a portion of the people.

GENTLEMEN-

"I enclose you an Address of Several Towns in the County of Grafton to the people at large (fabricated I suppose at Dartmouth College) and calculated to stir up contention & animosities among us at this difficult time: Especially as our Government is only temporary & the state of matters not allowing a Revisal. However this Pamphlet with the assiduity of the College Gentlemen, has had such an effect that almost the whole County of Grafton, if not the whole, have refused to send members to the new Assembly, which is to meet next Wednesday."

AN | ADDRESS | OF THE | INHABITANTS | OF THE | TOWNS | OF PLAINFIELD, LEBANON, ENFIELD, (alias RELHAN) CANAAN, CARDIGAN, HANOVER, LIME, ORFORD, HAVERHILL, BATH, and LANDAFF, to the Inhabitants of the several Towns in the Colony of New-Hampshire. | NORWICH: PRINTED BY JOHN TRUMBULL, M,DCC,LXXVI.

THE INHABITANTS of a Number of Towns in the Colony of New-Hampshire, to the People of the several Towns throughout said Colony.

FRIENDS AND BRETHREN.

THE important Crisis is now commenced wherein the providence of GOD; the Grand Continental Congress; and our necessitous circumstances, call upon us to assume our natural right of laying a foundation of Civil Government within and for this Colony.—Our anxious concern how the present time may be improved, whenever we are acting, not only for ourselves, but ages yet unborn; and on which the fate of posterity politically depends, imbolden us to address you in this manner upon the important subject. How many millions are there in the world, who would count nothing in this life, too dear to part with, if they might arrive at such a period: and yet how frequent are the instances, wherein such golden opportunities have been lost, principally through the inattention of the people: whereby ambitious and designing men have inshralled [inthralled] whole Kingdoms and Empires; and thereby brought them to ruin and destruction. The Tyrant would never rise, nor the Oppressor reign, were it not for the pusillanimous submission of the people, who have it in their power to prevent them, and ought to hold the reins of Government in their own hands. Freedom and liberty never can be lost, nor gained in the hands of Tyrants, but by the tame submission of the subject, or through their criminal neglect, or inattention: and are seldom if ever regained, but by bloody conflicts. Witness the present day. Who could have thought, even less than twenty years ago, that arbitrary power and oppression could have reigned predominant in one of the best constitutions (as supposed) in the world, in so short a time; but not more strange than true. This in part, may be accounted for by the parliament's giving up into the hands of the King such power and influence; but principally by the criminal neglect, if nothing worse, of the people; who have the right of constituting one main branch of the British parliament. It may be observed, as a self-evident proposition, that, whenever a people give up their right of representation, they consequently give up to our neighbours or posterity to reproach us, by saying, that we made a glorious stand against the strides of arbitrary power, and oppression; and with our blood and treasure gained the happy conquest, but in the first advance we made towards establishing a constitution for ourselves and posterity, we either inadvertently or carelessly, gave up our most essential rights and liberties; or rather that we did nothing to preserve them.—Upon these considerations, Brethren, are we induced to treat with you freely upon this subject; which leads us to a particular inquiry into, and observations upon the present state and circumstances of the Colony.

Colony.

AND 1st. We shall all doubtless agree, that the former government of this Colony was in a manner absolute; perhaps more so than any of the united Colonies especially in point of representation, which was solely under the controul of the chief Magistrate of the Colony; and that it was owing to the goodness of the ruler that we did not feel the whole weight of the iron rod, that was thereby put into his hands: and also that the whole intention of the people now is to abolish the old, and form a new Government upon a republican establishment, a design the most noble; a free people governing themselves by their own laws &c. It will also be allowed no doubt, that as the Colony hath formerly been divided into Counties, Towns and districts, for the convenient and regular governing the same, they will still act as such. Therefore, if there was nothing more in the way, we should likewise be agreed to take the necessary step for a remedy in the case, which naturally arises; (viz) as the body is too large and numerous to act individually, that the people elect their Representatives, and appoint them a time and place, to assemble together, for the purpose of laying a foundation or form of civil Government, throughout the Colony. But we are not insensible that there are several objections and embarrassments in the way; and by many, perhaps, thought to be weighty and important; which, if removed, will clear the way for our unanimous proceeding. Therefore, we shall endeavor to consider, and remove them by fair and reasonable observation.

In the first place it will be objected no doubt, that there is now subsisting in the Colony, an Assembly, lately appointed by the people; who have formed themselves into a Council, and House of Assembly (as they stile themselves) and that said Assembly have already formed a plan for electing a new Assembly, this insuing fall, for the then insuing year: And, therefore, it would be preposterous, now to appoint a new Assembly, &c.—To which we answer, 1st. That, at the time, when the members of said Assembly should be appointed, did not exist: As the reasons for calling said Assembly then, and the purpose, for which they were appointed, was only of a temporary duration; (viz.) to act in the exigences of the Colony, under their distressed and difficult circumstances, as the case might require. No one we believe thought at that time, they were appointed to institute a lasting plan of Civil Government for the Colony; especially, independant of, and in contradistinction to the Crown of Great Britain; therefore they were not elected for the purpose; and consequently have not the power that an Assembly now ought to have.

A FORMER Convention sitting in the Colony elected much as it chanced to happen under our then broken and confused circumstances, assumed to themselves the prerogative to regulate and determine how and in what manner the present Assembly should be elected, omitting some towns, uniting half a dozen others together, for the purpose of sending one member only; granting to some the liberty of sending one, and to some towns two, and others three, confining the electors in their choice of a Representative to persons of £200 estate and so on, in that manner, as they of their sovereign pleasure thought fit to dictate, and accordingly thus sent out their precepts; in which way and manner the present Assembly were elected: By which means, many towns are deprived of any representation at all, and many others so in effect: And therefore, the Colony is far from being properly represented. On this point we are acquainted, that those, who are in favour of the pres-ent Assembly, have much to say, though we apprehend but little to the purpose. It is argued in the first place, that when there is a number of towns, of which the inhabitants are not more numerous than some one other town, that it is not reasonable they should have a greater number other town, that it is not reasonable they should have a power, I. That the number of inhabitants in this case, in point of right, argues nothing in favour of the proposition; for every body politic incorporated with the same powers and privileges, whether large or small, are legally the same. We may and privileges, whether large or small, are legally the same. with the same parity of reasoning as well argue, that a small body consisting of all the constituent parts of a man, is not a man; because there are others of the same species of a much larger size: Or that a person at the age of twenty one, is not legally capable of acting, because there are others of fifty or sixty, that can do no more.—The arguments may as well be applied in another case as follows, (viz.) That a person, of a large estate in a community, should have the privilege of voting equal to half a dozen others of small estates: Yet we believe even those that are most sanguine for the argument, will not insist upon it; although we cannot see if they gain the first, why they may not the latter. Notwithstanding, we do not deny, but the legislative body may, in point of prudence, grant to the large capital towns in the Colony some greater privileges in this respect, than the other towns have; but to unite half a dozen or more towns together, equally privileged, in order to make them equal to some one other town, is a new practice in politics. may as well take the souls of a number of different persons and say they make but one, while yet they remain separate and different, as in a political sense to compound a number of different corporate bodies into one, and yet they remain distinct. The very idea destroys their being; one, and yet they remain distinct. The very idea destroys their being; but this manner of arguing is only begging the question: For even granting for argument sake, that it is reasonable that some one town in the Colony ought to have as large a part in the representative body, as half a dozen others, or nearly as a whole county; (which is the case in the present Assembly and that County too consists of above forty towns, the present feether the control of the country too consists of above forty towns. the most of which are very considerably settled) yet our assertion holds good; (viz.) That no person or body corporate, can be deprived of any natural or acquired right without forfeiture or voluntary surrender, neither of which can be pretended in the present case: Therefore, they who espouse the argument, are necessarily driven to adopt this principle; (viz.) that one part of the Colony hath a right to curtail or deprive the other part of their natural and acquired rights and privileges, even the most essential, without their consent. The argument is so absurd, that we shall only say, that they who advance such doctrines, and maintain them, are rank Tories, in the modern sense of the phrase. If this principle must take place, we had better lay down our arms, and spend no more precious blood and treasure in the contest; for it is only destroying with one hand, and setting up the same thing or that which is worse with the other; they who will tamely submit to such a government as this, deserves not a cohabitation, amongst a free people. Besides, if there is any reason, why one town should have a greater share of representation than another, it must be done by enlarging their privileges, and not by curtailing the others.

WE proceed 2dly, to take notice of the proceedings of said Assembly, which we think will serve much to the removing the objection. 1. Observe, that the precepts issued out for calling said Assembly, directed the people to elect Representatives to sit in Congress, with power, if thought advisable, to form themselves into a House of Representatives for said Colony; and the first step after they had thus formed themselves, was to elect, principally if not wholly, from among themselves, a certain number, called a Council, thus dividing the representative body into two parts, assuming the title of Council and Assembly of the Colony, &c.—How such a plan of formation came first into consideration, we leave for others to judge: For our part we think, that if it was necessary for part of the representative body to be set apart in that capacity, it was more necessary that they should have, in the first place, appointed some person, whom they might have had to council and advise. We can hardly think, that at the time of their election, the invention of their constituents so fruitful, or that they were by them thus instructed. Perhaps they might think they were imitating a neighbouring Colony, but the case is very different, as the other government acted by ancient practices and charters; but this was by mere institution.

adly. It appears by their publications, that the next principal step was to settle the plan of representation for the future. Whereby they established their new mode of government; and for this purpose direct the people in the colony, in some future time, to elect twelve persons in the Colony to be a Council, (viz.) Five in the county of Rockingham; two in the county of Hillsborough; two in the county of Strafford; two in the county of Cheshire; and one in the county of Grafton: And as to the representative body, that is to be elected in such a way and manner, as the present Assembly shall see cause to direct. This precedent to us, not only appears novel and unintelligible, but alarming; for in all governments where the people elect their Council, they chuse them at large, without restrictions to any particular part of the Colony. It is true, there is a practice in the Massachusetts-Bay, which at first view seems to be somewhat similar, but essentially different; which is this, that upon their receiving their latest charter, there was a union of two antient governments; in settling of which it was stipulated between them, that there should be such a number of counsellors in one, and such a number in the other, and such a number at large; which in no way resembles the present case: And we might with as much propriety limit the Council to particular towns as counties.

adly. WE are at a loss by the modling of this Council, what they would be aiming at. At first view we should conjecture, that they intended to arrange them in such a manner, (according to their plan of representation) as equally to represent the people in the Colony; but when we observe the title they have given them, it appears this cannot be their intention; for by it they not only exclude them from the representative body, but even the Assembly itself—stiling them when acting in conjunction with the Representatives, The Council and Assembly of the Colony, &c. But we shall leave that matter for their future explanaand colony, acc. But we shall leave that matter for their ruture explanation, and only add, that if they are not part of the Assembly, they ought not to have a political being in the Colony.

3dly. It is alarming, in that it appears from the whole face of the thing, that monopolizing and aggrandisement are the principal objects in view; and that this new mode of government is a little horn, growing up in the place where the other was broken off; for by this plan, the majority of the Coloncil are to be chosen out of a part of the Colony; perhaps not more than one fourth part of the extension of inhabited. perhaps not more than one fourth part of the extension of inhabited territory in the Colony: And as the same power that formed the Council are to regulate the representative body, we may depend upon it that their conduct will be all of a piece so as to support their new formed and instituted body; as they have reserved to themselves the power of regulating this matter, as their wisdom and soverign pleasure shall dictate. If they meant to establish a plan for future representation, why was it not put on some equal footing or rule, whereby the people might be able to judge of its propriety, and know when they acted upon it or not? But as the case now is, if any town or number of towns are neglected, or deprived of having a Representative, the only remedy is to go with a petition or complaint to the new erected house, praying for redress &c. And what may be expected for answer? If it is rational it will be this only. it will be this only; that it was not the sovereign pleasure of the former Assembly that you should be represented; which will be a full answer. Pray where is the difference between this establishment and the former one, so much complained of, except that the Governor had the power in the former, and a number of persons in the latter. Much more might be offered, to obviate the objection, but we think what is said already Much more might is sufficient: And shall now proceed to some others. 2dly. It is objected by some, that a large and full representation will be more expensive, and a small number can do the business sufficiently.-To which we answer—by the same parity of reasoning we may say, that one man is sufficient to do the business, which will make a greater saving still, and so put out our own eyes, and trust to others to lead us. But remember, he that gave up his birthright for a small mess of pottage, had in the barying that the barying the his better should make a small mess. his fate into the bargain, that his brother should rule over him.believe this objection arises principally for want of a just estimate of so invaluable a privilege—the other Colonies have thought it necessary, and actually made it a precedent, that every incorporated town, or district, should be represented by one member at least, and generally two. And it may be observed, almost universally, that where there is a full representation, the people chearfully submit to whatever is done: especially, in laying the foundation of government, and establishing a constitution. We think it of the utmost importance, that every inhabited town have the liberty, if they please, of electing one member, at least, to make up the legislative body—As it may be much questioned, if any one distinct corporate body be neglected, or deprived of actual representation, whether, in that case, they are any ways bound, or included by what the others may do: Certainly, if they are considered in a state of nature, they are not: No, not even an individual person. But suppose it should be thought prudent at any time, by the legislative body, to restrict, or lessen the number of representatives; it is absolutely necessary that the whole should be active in the matter, in order to surrender their privileges in this case, as they cannot be curtailed

3dly. It will be objected perhaps by many, that to contend about this matter at the present time, will have a tendency to stir up division and contentions amongst the people, which would be fatal to the common cause, which so much depends upon our union, &c. This objection, at first view, appears important: But upon examination will vanish. We readily agree, that it is a thousand pities, that when we are engaged in a bloody contest, merely to oppose arbitrary power without us, we should have occasion to contend against the same within ourselves; especially by those who profess to be friends of liberty.—We imagine that this objection arises for want of due consideration. We are much misthis objection arises for want of due consideration. taken in our views, if we are not proposing that, and that only, which will prevent contentions, and divisions taking place amongst us: And that which will have the most happy effect to unite us in indissoluble bonds of union and friendship. Certainly, if the observations, we have made, are just, the objection must cease in the mind of every reasona-ble person; for if we consider, that the great object we have in view, for which the present unnatural war is pursued between Britain and us, principally consists in this, that there cannot be any legislation or taxation without representation: Or in more explicit terms, That no person is, or ought to be subject to a law, which he had no hand in making; or to which he hath not given his consent; or that his property cannot be taken from him, but by his voluntarily giving it.—Now if the case under consideration be similar, (which we think very plainly appears) are we not pursuing the same general cause? the only difference is, we are contending against the same enemy within, that is also without: And certainly, if arbitrary power without us, ought to be rewarded with vengeance, that within ought to have seven-fold. Therefore, we are persuaded that every one who is a true friend to the liberties of mankind, and has any sense of his own or posterity's good, will think, that the cause well deserves a serious consideration, and speedy remedy.

If there were no steps taken towards settling a foundation of government in the Colony, we might more easily be excused at so difficult a time, as the present is: But to our surprise we find the plan already laid, and confirmed, as to the most essential part—by the present pretended Assembly.

4thly. Perhaés it will be said by some, that the proper remedy in this case would be by petition and remonstrance to said Assembly for relief &c. To this we can say, that it was early done by several towns in the Colony; but to no purpose; as the petitions were rejected, and in a manner treated with contempt. Besides, if they represent but part of the Colony, and are not legally constituted, it is absurd to petition them as a legal body, to grant relief, especially, if in doing it they would destroy their own political being. The true state of the case is, that we have no legal power subsisting in the Colony, for the purposes, for which it is now necessary there should be: It is still in the hands of the people, to whom we address ourselves; and whom we call upon, to exercise the rights and privileges they have to erect a supreme ligislative Court for the Colony, in order to lay a foundation and plan of government in this critical juncture of affairs: And that we no longer remain, as in a state of nature or anarchy; without law or government. Now is the time, when we may not only act for ourselves, and posterity, freely, and without controul—but we are called upon to do it; and if this opportunity be lost, we shall not have it renewed again, although we may seek it carefully with tears, when it is too late. The time has been, when we have petitioned and prayed to others, for this privilege, but to no purpose: And depend upon it, if we sleep on a little longer, we shall awake up in the like circumstances. As for ourselves, we are determined not to spend our blood and treasure, in defending against the chains and fetters, that are forged and prepared for us abroad, in order to purchase some of the like kind of our own manufacturing.—But mean to hold them alike detestable. Therefore, Brethren, we refer the case, with what we have offered upon it, to your candid perusal—desiring, the same may conduce to the general good of the inhabitants of the Colony; which is the only motive exciting us hereto. And will only add that though we have no desire to dictate in the matter, yet as it is necessary some method be proposed by which the sentiments of different towns may be known to each other, relative hereto; it is our desire in case any town, or number of towns, concur with us in sentiments as herein expressed; that they will communicate the same by letters directed to BEZALEEL WOODWARD, Esq; of Hanover, Clerk of the United-Committees, by whom the foregoing address is published; that we may be able to correspond on the subject; and that some measure may be pursued whereby our invaluable privileges may be secured.

Signed in behalf of the inhabitants of the towns before mentioned, by order of their Committees.

NEHEMIAH ESTERBROOK, Chairman. Hanover, July 31, A. D. 1776. BEZALEEL WOODWARD, Clerk.

STATE OF NEW HAMPSHIRE.

The Government and People of said State to the Selectmen of Hanover, in said State, Greeting:*

You are hereby required to notify the legal inhabitants paying taxes in the towns of Hanover, Canaan and Cardigan (giving them fifteen days notice) to meet at some convenient place in your town, to elect one person having a real estate of the value of two hundred pounds lawful money in this State, to represent them in the Assembly, to be held at Exeter, on the third Wednesday in December next, at three o'clock in the afternoon, and to empower such representative, for the term of one year from their first meeting, to transact such business and pursue such measures as they may judge necessary for the publick good. And the person who shall be elected you are to notify that he attend at time and place afore-mention'd.

And at said meeting, each voter, as aforesaid, on one paper, is to bring in votes for one person, being a reputable freeholder and inhabitant within your County, having a real estate of two hundred pounds, to serve as members of the Council for the year ensuing.

And the Clerk of your town is hereby directed to seal up all such votes under cover, and send them to the house of Mr. Green, in Wentworth, in your County, by the second Wednesday in December next, directed to Francis Worcester, Charles Fohnson, and Abel Chandler, a Committee appointed to receive them.

And it is Resolved, That no person be allowed a seat in Council or Assembly, who shall, by himself or any person for him, before said choice, treat with liquor, &c. any elector, with an apparent view of gaining their votes, or afterwards on that account.

And make return of this writ, with your doings thereon, into the Secretary's office at Exeter, by the third Wednesday in December next.

Meeting at Hanover.

Hanover, November 27, 1776.

Pursuant to the within precept, we notified the inhabitants paying taxes in the town of Hanover, Canaan and Cardigan, to meet at the Meeting-House in said Hanover, this day, for the purposes within mentioned, who being met passed the following votes, viz:

Tet Voted unanimously, That the Address of the inhabitants of this and other towns, to the people of the several towns through this Colony, published by their committee in July last, is truly expressive of our sentiments respecting representation, and the unconstitutional forma-tion and procedures of the present Assembly of this State.

2d. Voted unanimously, That we will not choose a Representative as directed in the precept issued by the Assembly of this State, for the following reasons, viz:

1. Because no plan of representation is as yet formed in this State

1. Because no plan of representation is as yet formed in this State consistent with the liberties of a free people, in that the people have not universally had a full representation in any Assembly since the State was declared independent of the Crown of Great Britain, by which declaration we conceive that the powers of Government reverted to the people at large, and of course, annihilated the political existence of the Assembly which then was; notwithstanding which they have since presumed to act in the name of the people, and in their precept undertake to prescribe and limit the mode of procedure in our choice of a Representative, while it does not appear that they are to be chosen for the purpose of recognizing the rights of the people and assuming such Government as shall be agreeable to them, though nothing of that nature has at any time been done in the State, except a plan formed by the Representatives of a part of this State, by which the whole rights of the people are assumed by that House.

2. Because the precept, in consequence of which this meeting was called, is inconsistent with the liberties of a free people, in that it directs to have different corporate towns (who have a right to act by themselves in all cases) to unite for the purpose of Choosing a Representative and Counsellor.

3. Because it limits us in our choice to a person who has real estate of two hundred pounds, lawful money; whereas we conceive that there ought to be no pecuniary restriction, but that every elector is capable to be elected.

- 3d. Voted unanimously, That the Selectmen be directed to make return of the foregoing vote with the reasons annexed, together with the precept, to the Assembly proposed to be held at Exeter, on the third Wednesday in December next.
- 4th. Voted unanimously, That we will not give in our Votes for a Counsellor as directed in the precept.

1. Because we can see no important end proposed by their creation, unless to negative the proceedings of the House of Representatives, which we humbly conceive ought not to be done in a free state.

2. Because every elector ought to have a voice in the choice of each courseller. (In Cases where the proposed of the concerning of the content of the co

- 2. Because every elector ought to have a voice in the choice of each Counsellor (in Cases where they are needful,) and not to be restricted in his Choice to any particular limits within the State. For which reason we protest against any Counsellor being chosen in this County as directed in the precept.
- 5th Voted unanimously, That the Clerk be directed to make return of the last vote, with the reasons annexed, and our Protest, as the Precept directs, relative to vote for a Counsellor.
- 6th Voted, That this meeting be dissolved and it was accordingly dissolved.

Meeting at Lyme.

At a meeting of the inhabitants of the town of Lyme, legally warned, and convened at the house of Ebenezer Green, Esq., on Monday the 25th of November, and continued by adjournment to Monday, the 2<sup>d</sup> of December inst.

rat Voted That the pamphlet lately published by the Committee of the towns of Lyme, Hanover, Lebanon and Plainfield, is truly expressive of our sentiments on Representation, and the unconstitutional formation and proceedings of the present Assembly. 2d. Voted. That we cannot comply with the precept issued to this town, in Conjunction with five other towns, for choosing a Representative, for the reasons following, viz: Because the present plan of Representation is entirely inconsistent with a free State, where every corporate town hath an undoubted right to act for themselves in choosing a member of the legislative Body; Because the elections are limited to persons of £200 lawful money, real estate, for their choice, whereas every elector in free states is capable of being elected.

3d. Voted, That the Clerk be directed to make return of our reasons for our non-compliance to the proposed Assembly that is to sit at Exeter on the third Wednesday of December next.

Voted, That we cannot comply with the direction to the choice of a Counsellor in manner proposed in the precept, for the reasons following: First, Because that in every free State the people have an undoubted right to their voice in the choice of the whole Council, either by themselves or their Representatives; Secondly, Because we cannot see any good proposed by confining the electors to certain limits within the State for their choice.

[4th] Voted, That the Clerk be directed to make return of our reasons for non-compliance to the Committee appointed for the receiving of the votes for a Counsellor, and also to enter a protest against the choice.

Meeting at Acworth.

The reason why we do not join with the towns of Unity, Acworth, Lempster, Saville, Croydon, and Newport, as we did last year, in choosing a representative, is this, viz: Then we supposed they was to act only upon the present exigencies of the Government; but now the case is much altered. The honorable Continental Congress has declared their independence of Great Britain; therefore we think that the present Assembly has not taken right methods in issuing out their precepts for the choice of Representatives and Counsellors for the year ensuing; for, in the first place, they have, as to Representative, in some incorporated towns, allowed two or three Representatives; to others, they have joined five or six towns together; whereas we think every incorporated town ought to be represented by themselves. Then, as to Counsellors, in one County they have ordered five, in some two, and in one County but one, which we look upon not according to liberty; for as this State is but one body, we think they ought to be chose by the people at large. And also they have ordered that neither of these shall have a seat in the Assembly without they have real estate to the value of two hundred pounds, lawful money; whereas we think every lawful elector is a subject to be elected.

Voted, That the above reasons be sent to the Council and Assembly of this State, which is to convene together at Exeter, the third Wednesday of this instant, and that the Town Clerk shall sign it in behalf of the town.

This done at a legal town meeting, Acutorth, December 9th 1776.

Petition from Inhabitants of Marlow, &c.

To the honourable Council and Assembly of the Colony of New Hamp-shire to be convened and assembled at Exeter, on the third Wednesday of December instant.

The petition of the inhabitants of the towns of Marlow, Alstead, and Surry, humbly showeth; That whereas, it is the advice and direction of the Continental Congress relative to the assuming Civil Government in this Colony, have advised and directed the Provincial Congress of this Colony, previous to their assuming a form of Civil Government, that they at their Convention do grant warrants for a full and free election of Representatives in this Colony; and whereas various coupling of various towns together in the western parts of the Colony, and allowing but one Representative to a coupling, and we being differently treated from the major parts of this Colony, who are allowed a Representative to each town; and whereas the towns of Marlow, Alstead and Surry, are towns incorporated with all invariable privileges and immunities that any other towns do or may enjoy in this Colony, and being thus coupled together as aforesaid, are abridged or curtailed of the privilege of each individual town electing a Representative, which we humbly conceive cannot be construed to be a full and free election or representation of the said Colony agreeable to the advice of the Continental Congress above recited; we therefore, your humble petitioners, would beseech the honourable Council and House of Representatives, that previous to the further pursuing the plan of Civil Government, that there may warrants be granted for a full and free election or representation of each of the individual towns above-mentioned, pursuant to the advice of the Continental Congress aforesaid: thus shall your humble petitioners, as in duty bound, ever pray.

Chesterfield—Instructions.

To Mr. Michael Creasy, Representative for the Town of Chesterfield, in the State of New Hampshire.

Whereas it having pleased Almighty God to humble the people of this land, by permitting the tyrant of Great Britain and his minions, in the fulness of their rage, to prevail against them by subverting the Civil Constitution of every Province in his late American dominions, affecting thereby the activity of law and justice, and the introduction of vice and profaneness, attended with domestick confusion, and all the calamities attendant on a dissolution of the power of Civil Government, which, in this alarming progress, have made it absolutely necessary for each state to separate itself from that land from whence their forefathers were exiled by the cruel hand of tyranny, and to form for itself, under the ruler of all the earth, such plans of Civil Government as the people thereof should think most conducive to their own safety and advantage: Notwithstanding the importance of an equitable system of Government, as it affects ourselves and our posterity, we are brought to the disagreeble necessity of declaring, that it is our candid opinion that the State of New Hampshire, instead of forming an equitable plan of Government, conducing to the peace and safety of the State, have been influenced by the iniquitous intrigues and secret designations of persons unfriendly, to settle down upon the dregs of Monarchical and Aristocratical tyranny, in imitation of their late British oppressor. We can by no means imagine ourselves so far lost to a sense to the natural rights and immunities of ourselves and our fellow men, as to imagine that the State can be either safe or happy under a Constitution formed without the knowledge or particular authority of a great part of its inhabitants; a Constitution which no man knows the contents of, except that the whole Legislative power of the State is to be entirely vested in the will and pleasure of a House of Representatives, and that chosen according to the Sovereign determination of their own will, by allowing to some towns sundry voices in the said House, others but one, and other none; and in a Council of twelve men, five of which are always to be residents of Rockingham County, who by the assistance of two others of said Council, have the power of a casting voice in all State affairs.

Thus we see the important affairs of the State liable to be converted: to the advantage of a small part of the State, and the emolument of its officers, by reason of the other part of the State not having an equal or equitable share in the Government, to counterbalance the designs of the other. You are therefore authorized and instructed to exert yourself to the utmost to procure a redress of the afore-mentioned grievances, and in case they will not comply, to return home for further instructions.

Chesterfield, December ye 12th, 1776.

Haverhill and other Towns.

The inhabitants of the Towns of Haverhill, Lyman, Bath, Gunthwait, Landaff and Morristown.

At a meeting legally warned, in consequence of a precept from the Assembly at Exeter, for the purpose of choosing a representative, as also to give in their votes for a Counsellor for the County of Grafton, having refused a compliance with said precept, have chosen us, the subscribers, a Committee to return the precept, together with the reasons of their non-compliance: which reasons are as follows, viz:

First. Because no plan of Representation has yet been found in this State consistent with the liberties of a free people; and it is our humble opinion, that when the Declaration of Independency took place, the Colonies were absolutely in a state of nature, and the powers of government reverted to the people at large, and of consequence annihilated the political existence of the Assembly which then was.

Secondly. Because the precept directs to have a number of different towns (who have an undoubted right to act by themselves separately) to unite for the purpose of choosing a Representative and Counsellor.

Thirdly. Because we are limited in our choice of a Representative to a person who has a real estate of two hundred pounds, lawful money; whereas we conceive that every elector is capable of being elected. Fourthly. Because that no bill of rights has been drawn up, or form of Government come into, agreeable to the minds of the people of this State, by any Assembly peculiarly chosen for that purpose, since the Colonies were declared independent of the Crown of Great Britain.

Fifthly, Because if a Council is necessary, every elector ought to have a voice in the choice of each Counsellor, and not to be restricted to any particular limits within this State.

For which reasons we protest against a Counsellor being chosen in this County, as directed in the precept.

VERMONT ASSUMES GOVERNMENT-NEW YORK OPPOSES.

NOTE BY THE EDITOR.

On the 30th of December, 1776, a joint committee of the house and council of New Hampshire was appointed "to take under consideration the difficulties and grievances subsisting and complained of by sundry towns and people in the County of Grafton, & any other towns, respecting the present form of government," &c., and to make report. The committee on the part of the house consisted of Samuel Gilman, Jun., Jos. Whipple, Benj. Giles, Geo. Gains, Timothy Ellis, Daniel Brainerd, John Wentworth, Jun., Christopher Webber, and Thomas Odiorne. On the part of the council, Geo. King, Jonathan Blanchard, and Ebenzer Thompson. On the 3d of January, 1777, the said committee made report to the house "on the affairs of Grafton," in which report conciliatory measures were recommended and adopted, to allay the spirit of discontent among the people; and another committee was appointed to visit the county, and "in the most earnest manner entreat the people to consider the consequences of such internal discords and divisions among ourselves," &c. This latter committee consisted of Hon. Meshech Weare, Benjamin Giles, Esq., and John Wentworth, Jun., Esq. (see State Pap. N. H., vol. VIII, pp. 442, 450), to which committee, subsequently, January 14, Hon. Josiah Bartlett was added (p. 463). What was effected by this committee does not appear; but the condition of the country, in the mean time, seems to have arrested the progress of disaffection in Grafton county, and to have turned attention to measures for their defence against the common enemy. Ticonderoga was surrendered, and Burgoyne's army was on its invading march into the New Hampshire grants. All was alarm and anxiety, so that the border towns east of Connecticut river made earnest application to the New Hampshire government for help. In the mean time, however, between New York and the people of the New Hampshire grants on the west side of Connecticut river, the controversy was earnestly waged. On the 24th of July, 1776, a convention was held at Dorset, Vt., which consisted of fifty-one members, representing thirty-five towns, which, by adjournment, again met, Sept. 25, 1776, and again, at Westminster, January 15, 1777. At this latter meeting of the convention, it was resolved, no one contradicting, "That the district of land commonly called and known by the name of 'New Hampshire Grants,' be a new and separate state; and for the future conduct themselves as such." (See documents in Slade's Ver. Pap., pp. 65-88.) Of this important step, due official notice was given to the continental congress. (See, also, N. Y. Col. Documents, under N. H. Grants.) The action of the Westminster convention, Jan. 15, 1777, led to new complications with New Hampshire. The said convention adjourned, to meet at Windsor July 2, 1777; and then a draft of a constitution was presented, read, and adopted. The convention then adjourned again, to meet at Windsor on the 24th of December, when the constitution was revised, and the day for election of officers under it appointed the first day March, 1778. The first assembly of the new state, called Vermont, was to be held on the second Thursday of the same month.

The documentary papers, relating to the proceedings above referred to, are found in detail in Slade's Vermont State Papers, pp. 21-66; also, in Governor and Council Rec. Ver., vol. I, App., and in the Colonial Doc. Hist. of New York.

Declaration and Petition of the Inhabitants of the New Hampshire Grants to Congress, Jan. 15, 1777.

[P. 51.] To the Honble the Continental Congress:

The declaration and petition of the inhabitants of that part of North America, situate south of Canada line, west of Connecticut River, North of the Massachusetts bay and East of a Twenty mile line from the Hudson's River, containing about one hundred and forty-four townships, of the contents of six miles square each, granted your petitioners by the authority of New Hampshire, besides several grants made by the authority of New York, and a quantity of vacant land:

Humbly sheweth—That your petitioners, by virtue of the several grants made them by the authorities aforesaid, have many years since, with their families, become actual settlers and inhabitants of the said described premises, by which it is now become a respectable frontier to three neighbouring states, and is of great importance to our common barrier Ticonderoga, as it has furnished the army there with much provisions, and can muster more than five thousand hardy soldiers capable of bearing arms in defence of American liberty:

That shortly after your petitioners began their settlements, a party of land-jobbers in the city and State of New York began to claim the lands, and took measures to have them declared to be within that jurisdiction:

That on the fourth day of July 1764,* the king of Great Britain did pass an order in council, extending the jurisdiction of New York Government to Connecticutt River, in consequence of a representation made by the late Lieuten-[P. 52.] ant Governor Colden, that for the convenience of trade and administration of justice, the inhabitants were desirous of being annexed to said State:

That upon this alteration of jurisdiction the said Lieutenant Governor Colden did grant several tracts of land in the above-described limits, to certain persons living in the State of New-York, which were at that time in the Actual possession of your petitioners; and under colour of the lawful authority of said State did proceed against your petitioners as lawless intruders upon the Crown-lands in their province. This produced an application to the King of Great Britain from your petitioners, setting forth their claims under the Government of New-Hampshire, and the disturbance and interruption they had suffered from said post-claimants under New-York. And on the 24th day of July 1767, an order was passed at St. James' prohibiting the Governors of New York for the time being from granting any part of the said described premises on pain of incurring his Majesty's highest displeasure. Nevertheless, the same Lieutenant Gov-

ernour Colden, the Governours Dunmore and Tryon have each and every one of them in their respective turns of administration, presumed to violate the said royal order, by making several grants of the prohibited premises, and countenancing an actual invasion of your petitioners to drive them off from their possessions.

These violent proceedings (with the solemn determination of the Supreme Court of the State of New-York that the Charters, Conveyances &c. of your petitioners' lands were utterly null and void, on which they were founded) reduced your petitioners to the disagreeable necessity of taking up arms, as the only means left for the security of their posses-[r. 53.] sions. The consequence of this step was the passing of twelve acts of outlawry by the Legislature of New-York on the ninth day of March 1774, which were not intended for the State in general, but only for part of the Counties of Albany and Charlotte, viz. such parts thereof as are covered by the New Hampshire charters.*

Your petitioners having had no representation in that Assembly when the acts were passed, they first came to the knowledge of them by the publick-papers in which they were inserted. By these they were informed, that 'if three or more of them assembled together to oppose' what said Assembly called legal authority that 'such as should be found assembled to the number of three or more should be adjudged felons; and that in case they or any of them should not surrender himself or themselves to' certain 'officers appointed for the purpose of securing them after a warning of seventy days, that then it should be lawful for the respective judges of the Supreme Court of the Province of New-York to award execution of Death, the same as though he or they had been attainted before a proper Court of Judicatory.' These laws were evidently calculated to intimidate your petitioners into a tame surrender of their rights, and such a state of vassalage as would entail misery to their latest posterity.

It appears to your petitioners that an infringement of their rights is still meditated by the State of New York, as we find that in their General Convention at Haerlem the second day of August last, it was unanimously voted, 'That all the quit-rents formerly due to the Crown of Great Britain within this State are now due and owing to this Convention, or such future Government as may hereafter [P. 54.] be established in this State.'

By a submission to the claims of New-York your petitioners would be subjected to the payment of two shillings and six pence sterling on every hundred acres annually, which compared with the quit-rents of Livingston's, Phillips's and Ransaeler's manors, and many other enormous tracts in the best situations in the State, would lay the most disproportionate share of the publick expense on your petitioners, in all respects the least able to bear it.

The Convention of New York have now nearly complete a Code of laws for the future government of that State, which, should they be attempted to be put in execution will subject your petitioners to the fatal necessity of opposing them by every means in their power.

When the Declaration of the Honble the Continental Congress of the 4th of July last, reached your petitioners, they communicated it throughout the whole of their District; and being properly apprised of the proposed meeting of delegates from the several Counties and Towns in the District described in the Preamble to this petition, did meet at Westminster in said district, and after several adjournments for the purpose of forming themselves into a distinct and separate State, did make and publish a declaration, 'That they would at all times thereafter consider themselves as a free and independent State capable of regulating their own internal police in all and every respect whatsoever; and that the people in said described district have the sole exclusive right of governing themselves in such manner and form as [P. 55] they in their wisdom should chuse, not repugnant to any resolves of the Honble the Continental Congress;' and for the mutual support of each other in the maintenance of the Freedom and Independence of the said District or separate State, the said delegates did jointly and severally pledge themselves to each other by all the ties that are held sacred among men, and resolve and declare, that 'they were at all times ready in conjunction with their brethren in the United States to contribute their full proportion towards the maintaining and supporting the present just war against the Fleets and armies of Great Britain.'

To convey this declaration and resolution to your Honble Body, the Grand representative of the United States, were we, your more immediate petitioners delegated by the united and unanimous voice of the representatives of the whole body of settlers upon the described premises, in whose name and behalf we humbly pray, that the said declaration may be received and the district described therein be ranked by your Honours among the Free and Independent States, and delegates then admitted to seats in the Grand Continental Congress;—and your petitioners, as in duty bound, &c.

Extract from the Minutes of the Committee of Safety for State of New York.

[F. 57.] In Committee of Safety for the State of New York, Fishkill, January 20th, 1777.

Whereas, until the commencement of the present contest with Great Britain, the inhabitants of Cumberland and Gloucester counties in general submitted to the jurisdiction of this State; many of them obtained grants and confirmations of Title from the late government, and justice was administered by magistrates of its appointment:

And whereas a Spirit of Defection and revolt has lately been extended to those Counties through the arts and misrepresentations of certain people inhabiting the County of Charlotte, distinguishing themselves by the name of the Green mountain boys, and their emissaries:

And whereas the Congresses and Conventions of this State have hitherto contemplated the effects of this dangerous Insurrection with silent concern, being restrained from giving it a suitable opposition by the apprehension that it might at so critical a juncture, weaken our exertions in the common cause:

And whereas the said Insurgents and their Emissaries, taking advantage of the patient forbearance of this State, and flattered by the countenance and strength which they have acquired by being embodied into a regiment under the immediate authority of the Continental Congress, and without the consent or co-operation of this state have lately incited divers of the Inhabitants of Towns within the said Counties of Cumberland and Gloucester to unite with them in assuming a total independence of this State, chusing a [P. 58.] separate Convention, and framing a petition to the Honourable Congress for its sanction and approbation of this unprovoked revolt:-

And whereas the loss of so valuable a territory as is now attempted to be wrested from this State by the violence of an inconsiderable part of its members, who have, during the present war, received liberal allowances out of the publick Treasury for their more immediate protection, will not only oppress the remainder with the payment of the enormous debts which have accrued in the common cause, but must, at every future period, expose this State to be intruded into and overrun, its jurisdiction to be denied, and its authority contemned and set at Defiance:

And whereas, divers ill-disposed persons have, with wicked and sinister purposes, reported that members of the Honourable, the Continental Congress, and other men of Influence and Authority in the neighbouring States do fa-your and support the Insurrection aforesaid:

And whereas the said ill-disposed persons have also insinuated that the Honourable the Congress do countenance a design of dismembering this State by appointing Seth Warner who hath heretofore been and still continues a principal agent and abettor of the riot and revolt aforesaid, to command the before mentioned regiment:

And whereas the appointment of the said Seth Warner is utterly inconsistent with the usual mode adopted in Congress and approved of in this and the neighbouring States, [p. 59.] and contrary to the express representation in similar case made to the Hon'ble Congress on the 11 day of July last by the Convention of this State:

And whereas such reports and insinuations not only tend to justify the turbulent and disaffected inhabitants of the said Counties, but divers of the good subjects of this State are discouraged from risquing their Lives and Fortunes in the defence of America, while there is reason for apprehending that after all their vigorous efforts and all they have suffered and must continue to suffer for the common cause, and even after a successful period to the present conflict shall have restored Happiness and Security to their sister States, this State alone may remain exposed to havock, devastation and anarchy, and be deprived of great and valuable Territories to gratify the ambitious, unjust and selfish projects of its disorderly subjects:

And whereas the inveterate foes to the Liberties of America, from the earliest commencement of the present glorious contest have endeavoured to alienate the minds of the good people of this State from the common cause by representing that nothing less than the power of Great Britain can guard their territorial rights and protect their jurisdiction against usurpation and Encroachment; and it is a Truth to be lamented that such representations have proved but too successful, and have now acquired additional Force by reason of the Premises:

And whereas it has become absolutely necessary not only [P. 60.] for the preservation of the authority of this Convention and the confidence and respect of its Constituents; but for the success of the United States, so far as they depend upon or are connected with this Branch of the grand American Confederacy, that proper and vigorous means should be forthwith exerted for vindicating its rights and asserting and securing its jurisdiction; and as a preliminary step to quieting the aforesaid disturbances, removing the jealousies and apprehensions of the good people of this State, and depriving the wicked emissaries of Great Britain of the principal argument by which they hitherto have, and still continue to debauch their minds, and seduce them from their allegiance to this State, and their attachment to the common cause; a suitable application to the Hon'ble the Congress of the United States may be attended with the most salutary effects, and that, in the mean time coercive measures be suspended :

Resolved therefore,

That a proper application be immediately made to the Hon'ble the Congress, to whose justice the said insurgents have appealed, and on whose advice they pretend to rely, requesting them to interpose their authority, and recommend to the said insurgents a peaceable submission to the jurisdiction of this State, and also to disband the said regiment directed to be raised by Col® Warner, as this Convention hath chearfully and voluntarily undertaken to raise a Regiment in addition to the quota designed for this State by Congress; have opened their utmost resources to the wants and necessities of the American army; have a very great [P. 61.] proportion of their militia now in the field, and are heartily disposed to contribute to the publick service in every respect as far as the circumstances and abilities of the State will permit,

ROBERT BENSON, Sec'ry.

Letter of the Committee of Safety of New York, signed Abraham Tenbroeck, to John Hancock, President of Congress.

Fishkill, 20 January, 1777.

Sir-

I am directed by the Committee of Safety of New York to inform Congress that by the arts and Influence of certain designing men, a part of this State hath been prevailed on to revolt and disavow the authority of its Legislature.

It is our misfortune to be wounded so sensibly, while we are making our utmost exertions in the common cause.

The various evidences and informations we have received would lead us to believe, that persons of great influence in some of our sister-states have fostered and fomented these divisions, in order to dismember this State at a time when by the inroads of our common Enemy we were supposed to be incapacitated from defending our just claims. But as these informations tend to accuse some members of your Hon'ble Body of being concerned in this scheme, decency obliges us to suspend our belief.

The Congress will doubtless remember that so long ago [P. 62.] as in the month of July last, we complained of the great injury done us by appointing officers within this State without our consent or approbation. We could not then, nor can we now perceive the reason of such disadvantageous discrimination between this State and its neighbours, We have been taught to believe that each of the United States is entitled to equal rights: In what manner the rights of New York have been forfeited we are at a loss to discover: and although we have never received an answer to our last letter on this subject, yet we did hope that no fresh ground of complaint would have been offered us.

The Convention are sorry to observe that by conferring a Commission upon Colo Warner, with authority to name the officers of a regiment to be raised independent of the legislature of this State, and within that part which hath lately declared an Independence upon it, Congress hath given but too much weight to the Insinuations of those who pretend that your hon'ble Body are determined to support these insurgents; especially as this Colo Warner hath been constantly and invariably opposed to the legislature of this State, and hath been, on that very account, proclaimed an outlaw, by the late government thereof. However, confiding in the honour and justice of the great Council of America, we hope that you have been surprised into this measure.

By order of the House, Sir, I inclose you the Resolution upon the important subject of this letter, and am further to observe that it is absolutely necessary to recall the Commissions given to Colo Warner and the officers under him, [P. 63.] as nothing else will do justice to us and convince those deluded people that Congress have not been prevailed on to assist in dismembering a State, which, of all others, has suffered most in the common cause.

The King of Great Britain hath, by force of arms, taken from us five Counties, and an attempt is made in the midst of our distresses, to purloin from us three other Counties. We must consider the persons concerned in such designs as open Enemies of this State, and, in consequence, of all America.

To maintain our jurisdictions over our own subjects is become indispensably necessary to the authority of the Convention; nor will any thing less silence the plausible arguments by which the disaffected delude our constituents and alienate them from the common cause. On the success of our efforts in this respect depends, too probably even the power of Convention to be longer serviceable in this glorious contest. It is become a common remark in the mouths of our most zealous friends, that if the State is to be rent asunder, and its jurisdiction subverted to gratify its deluded and disorderly subjects, it is a folly to hazard their Lives and fortunes in a Contest, which, in every event, must terminate in their ruin.

I have the honour to be with great respect, Sir, your most obed* and hhbl Serv*.

Hon'ble John Hancock, Esq.

Letter from Abraham Tenbroeck to John Hancock, President of Congress, dated

[P. 65.] Kingston, Ulster County I March, 1777.

The inclosed letters and resolutions were proposed some time since, but for reasons with which you need not be troubled were delayed. Some late proceedings of the disaffected within this State, occasions their being now transmitted

I am directed to inform you that the Convention are engaged in establishing a firm and permanent system of Government. When this important Business is accomplished, they will dispatch a satisfactory state of their Boundaries, and the principles on which they are founded for the Information of Congress. In the mean time they depend upon the justice of your Hon'ble House, in adopting every wise and salutary expedient to suppress the mischiefs which must ensue both to this State and the General Confederacy, from the unjust and pernicious project of such of the Inhabitants of New-York, as merely from selfish and interested motives, have fomented this dangerous Insurrection. The Congress may be assured that the spirit of Defection, notwithstanding all the arts and violence of the seducers, is by no means general. The County of Gloucester, and a very great part both of Cumberland and Charlotte Counties, continue steadfast in their allegiance to this Government. Brigadier-General Bailey's letter, a copy of which is inclosed,* will be a sufficient proof of the temper of the people of Gloucester Charlotte and Cumberland continue to be represented in Convention, and from very late Information, we learn that out of 80 members which were expected to have attended the mock-Convention of the deluded subjects of [P. 66.] this State, twenty only attended.

We are informed by good authority that Col<sup>o</sup> Warner was directed by the general to send forward his men as he should enlist them, to Ticonderoga; notwithstanding which it appeared by a return from thence not long since, that only 24 privates had reached that post; nor is there the least prospect of his raising a number of men, which can be an object of publick concern, though instead of confining himself to the Green Mountains, as we understand was the intention

Vermont asks Aid from New Hampshire.

Letter from Ira Allen to the Committee of Safety in New Hampshire urging immediate assistance.

[State Pap. N. H., vol. VIII, p. 632.]

In Council of Safety, State of Vermont.

GENTLEMEN-This State in particular seems to be at present the object of Destruction. By the surrender of the Fortress Ticonderoga a communication is opened to the defenceless inhabitants on the Frontier, who, having little more in present store than sufficient for the maintenance of their respective Families, and not ability immediately to remove their effects, are therefore induced to accept such Protections as are offered them by the Enemy: By this means those Towns who are most contiguous to them are under necessity of taking such Protection by which the next Town or Towns become equally a frontier as the former Towns before such Protection; and unless we can obtain the assistance of our friends so as to put it immediately in our power to make a sufficient stand against such strength as they may send, it appears that it will soon be out of the power of this State to maintain a frontier. This country, notwithstanding its infancy, seems as well supplied [with] provisions for victualing an army as any country on the Continent; so that on that account, we cannot see why a stand may not as well be made in this State, as in the State of New Hampshire; and more especially as the inhabitants are heartily disposed to defend their You, Gentlemen, will be at once sensible, that every such Town as accept protection, are rendered at that instant forever incapable of affording us any further assistance; and what is infinitely worse, as some disaffected persons eternally lurk in almost every Town, such become double fortified to injure their country; our good dispositions to defend ourselves and make a frontier for your State with our own, cannot be carried into execution without your assistance: Should you send immediate assistance we can help you, and should you neglect till we are put to the necessity of taking protection, you readily know it is in a moment out of our power to assist you: your laying these circumstances together, will I hope induce your Honours to take the same into consideration and immediately send us your determination in the Premises.

To all Militia Officers whom it may concern:

This is the second and perhaps the last Express we may be able to send you from this post. Your immediate Assistance is absolutely necessary: a few hundred militia troops to be joined to our present strength would greatly add to our present encouragement; as, by very late information we learn that a large scout of the enemy are disposed to take a Tour to this Post, the inhabitants with their families cannot be quieted without an assurance of the arrival of troops directly for their assistance: You will please to let us know your determination without delay.

The Continental Store at Bennington seems to be their present aim. You will be supplied with provision here on your arrival. Pray send all the troops you can possibly raise. We can repulse them if we have assistance.

SIR----

I was favoured with yours of the 15th inst. yesterday by express, and laid the same before our General Court who are sitting.

We had, previous thereto, determined to send assistance to your State.* They have now determined that a quarter part of the Militia of twelve regiments shall be immediately draughted, formed into three battalions, under the command of Brig. Gen. John Stark, and forthwith sent into your State, to oppose the ravages and coming forward of the enemy; and orders are now issuing, and will all go out in a few hours to the several Colonies for that purpose. Dependence is made that they will be supplied with provisions in your State; and I am to desire your Convention will send some proper person or persons to Number Four, by Thursday next, to meet Gen. Stark there, and advise with him relative to the route and disposition of our Troops, and to give him such information as you may then have, relative to the manœuvres of the enemy.

In behalf of the Council and Assembly,

[NOTE. The fortunate result of the assistance rendered in this emergency, by the victory of Stark at Bennington on the 16th of August ensuing, is matter of history. ## Proclamation of Governor George Clinton of New York, February 23, 1778.

[See Slade's Ver. State Pap., pp. 82-84.]

By his Excellency George Clinton, Esq. Governor of the State of New York, General of all the Militia, and Admiral of the Navy of the

A PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS the Senate and Assembly of this State, did by L. S. their several resolutions, passed the twenty-first day of this instant month of February, declare and resolve, That the disaffection of many persons, inhabiting the north eastern parts of the County of Albany, and certain parts of the Counties of Charlotte, Cumberland and Giovester, clearly included within the ancient, original, true and lately established bounds of this State, arose from a contest about the property of the soil of many tracts of land, within those parts of the said counties respectively:

That the said contest was occasioned, partly by the issuing of divers Interfering patents or grants, by the respective Governments of New York on the one part, and those of Massachusetts Bay and New Hampshire on the other, antecedent to the late establishment of the eastern boundary of this State; partly by an higher quit-rent reserved on the said lands when re-granted under New York, than were reserved in the original grants under New Hampshire of Massachusetts Bay, and the original grants under New Hampshire of Massachusetts Bay, and the exorbitant fees of office accruing thereon; and partly by a number of grants made by the late Government of New York, after the establishment of the said Eastern boundary, for lands which had been before granted by the Governments of New Hampshire and Massachusetts Bay, respectively, or one of them; in which last mentioned grants by the late government of New York, the interest of the servants of the Crown, and of new adventurers, was, in many instances, contrary to justice and policy, preferred to the equitable claims for confirmation, of those who had patented the lands under New Hampshire or Massachusetts Bay:

That the aforesaid disaffection has been greatly increased, by an Act passed by the Legislature of the late Colony of New-York, on the ninth day of March, in the year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and seventy-four, entitled, "An act for preventing tumultuous and riotous assemblies in the places therein mentioned, and for the more speedy and effectual punishing the rioters: "* That many of the aforesaid disaffected persons, though unjustifiable in their opposition to the authority of this State, labour under grievances, arising from the causes above mentioned, which, in some measure, extenuate their offence, and which ought to be redressed:—

That, therefore, the Legislature of this State, while on the one hand, they will vigorously maintain their rightful supremacy over the persons and property of those disaffected subjects, will, on the other hand, make overtures to induce the voluntary submission of the delinquents :-

That an absolute and unconditional discharge and remission of all prosecutions, penalties and forfeitures, under the above-mentioned Act, shall be an established preliminary to such overtures; which overtures are as follows, viz.—

ist. That all persons actually possessing and improving lands, by title under grants from New Hampshire or Massachusetts Bay, and not granted under New-York, shall be confirmed in their respective possessions.

2d. That all persons actually possessing and improving lands, not granted by either of the three Governments, shall be confirmed in their respective possessions, together with such additional quantity of vacant land, lying contiguous to each respective possession, as may be necessary to form the same into a convenient farm; so as the quantity to be confirmed to each respective person, including his possession, shall not exceed three hundred acres.

3d. That where lands have heretofore been granted by New Hamp-shire and Massachusetts-Bay, or either of them, and actually possessed in consequence thereof, and being so possessed, were, atterwards, granted by New-York, such possessions shall be confirmed; the posterior rior grant under New-York, notwithstanding. Provided always, That nothing in the above regulations contained, shall be construed to determine any question of title or possession, that may arise between different persons claiming under New Hampshire or Massachusetts-Bay, or between persons claiming under New Hampshire on the one, and under Massachusetts-Bay on the other part independent of any right or claim under New-York.

4th. That, with respect to all such cases, concerning the aforsaid controverted lands, as cannot be decided by the rules exhibited in the aforegoing articles, or some of them, the Legislature of the State of New-York, will provide for the determination of the same, according to the rules of justice and equity, arising out of such cases respectively, without adhering to the strict rules of law.

5th. That in all cases, where grants or confirmations shall become necessary, on acceptance of the above overtures, such grants or confirmations shall issue to the grantees, at, and after, the rate of five pounds for a grant or confirmation of three hundred acres or under; and for every additional hundred acres, the additional sum of sixteen shillings; except in cases, where lands shall be granted or confirmed to divers persons in one entire tract; in which case, the grants shall issue, respectively, for fifteen pounds each; which allowances shall be in lieu of all other fees or perquisites whatsoever.

6th. That whenever, agreeable to the above regulations, new grants or confirmations shall become necessary under this State for lands hitherto granted by New Hampshire or Massachusetts-Bay, the same quitrent only shall be reserved, which was reserved in the original grants under New Hampshire or Massachusetts-Bay.

7th. That where lands, heretofore granted by New Hampshire or Massachusetts Bay, have been, since, confirmed to such grantees by new grants under New York, the quit-rents on such lands, shall be reduced to what they were in the original grants under New-Hampshire or Massachusetts-Bay.

8th. That in order to encourage the settlement of the aforesaid disputed lands, in a peaceable subjection to the authority and jurisdiction of this State, and also of all other lands held within and under this State, the following commutation for quit-rents shall be allowed, viz:

That on payment, at the rate of two shillings and six pence, lawful money, of this State, into the treasury of this State, for every penny sterling of quit-rent reserved; or, on delivering into the same, of seventeen times the quantity of grain or other commodity reserved for such quit-rent, the same shall thence forward be utterly discharged, and forever cease and be extinguished.

That these overtures should be offered with a view, not only to induce the aforesaid discontented inhabitants of the Counties of Albany, Charlotte, Cumberland and Gloucester, to return to a lawful and rightful obe-dience to the authority and jurisdiction of this State, but also in favor of all others whom the same may concern; and to be of no avail to any person or persons whatsoever, who shall, after the first day of May next, yield or acknowledge, any allegiance or subjection to the pretended state of Vermont, the pretended government thereof, or to any power or authority pretended to be held or exercised thereunder.

That the foregoing overtures, on the condition above expressed, be tendered for acceptance to all persons, to whose care the same, or any or either of them, do or shall apply, upon the public faith and assurance of the legislature and government of the State of New York, pledged to such person and persons for the purpose.

That the several branches of the Legislature of the State of New York, will concur in the necessary measures for protecting the loyal inhabitants of this State, residing in the counties of Albany, Charlotte, Cumberland and Gloucester, in their persons and estates, and for compelling all persons, residing within this State and refusing obedience to the government and legislature thereof, to yield that obedience and allegiance, which by law and right, they owe to this State.

And whereas, The said Senate and Assembly of this State of New-York, have also, by their resolution, requested me to issue my Proclamation, under the privy seal of this State, reciting their aforesaid declarations and resolutions, and strictly charging and commanding all manner of persons in the name of the people of the State of New-York, to take due notice thereof, at their peril, and govern themselves accordinly:

I DO THEREFORE hereby, in the name of the people of the State of New York, publish and proclaim the aforesaid declarations and resolutions; and I do hereby, strictly charge and command all manner of persons within this State, at their peril, to take due notice of this Proclamation, and of every article, clause, matter and thing therein recited and contained, and to govern themselves accordingly.

Given under my hand, and the privy seal of the State of New York, at Poughkeepsie, in the County of Dutchess, the twenty-third day of February, in the year of our Lord, one thousand seven hundred and seventy-eight.

GEO. CLINTON.

FRIENDS AND FELLOW CITIZENS.

My acquaintance with Your Political State and circumstances, and of the difficulties attending You, induces me to present You with the following Remarks and Observations, which, according to my apprehension, may serve in some measure to point out the way for a removal of them: And as my only design is to promote the Public Good, if it should have that effect, it will much more than compensate Your real Friend for his little pains.—You will observe, I have proposed to consider the Right of Jurisdiction claimed over You by the States of New York and New-Hampshire.—In prosecuting which I shall begin with the Origin of that Jurisdiction, and pursue it down to the present time.

SHALL therefore begin by taking notice "that King James the First, by his Patent, dated November 34, 1620, incorporated the Duke of Lenox, the Marquises of Buckingham and Hamilton, The Earls of Arundel and Warwick, Sir Fernando Gorges, and thirty-four others, by the name of the Great Council, established at Plymouth, in the County of Devon, for the planting, ruling, ordering, and governing of New-England, in America"—And grants to them and their successors and "assigns all that part of America lying and being in breadth from the 40° of northerly latitude inclusively, and in length of and within all the breadth aforesaid throughout the main lands from sea to sea, together also with all the firm lands, soil, grounds, havens, &c.——Provided always, that the said islands or any the premises by the said letters patent intended and meant to be granted be not actually possessed or inhabited by any other Christian Prince or State."

This Great Council established at Plymouth as aforesaid soon granted

all the lands contained in their said Grant (as they supposed) to the several New-England Colonies, and resigned their Grant into the King's hands; and among the several grants they made, they granted to the ancestors of Robert Mason, Esq.; his heirs, &c. a tract of land about twenty-four miles on the sea shore, extending back into the Country about sixty miles, commonly called New-Hampshire; which lands on the east-erly part of them next to the sea soon began to settle, but were much prevented by the Indian wars, and the settlers were under no regular form of Government, except that the Massachusetts-Bay in some measure exercised Jurisdiction over them. --- In this situation they continued until after the restoration of Charles the Second, and in the sixth year of his reign a commission was granted to John Cutts, Esq; President of the Council established for the ruling and governing of said New-Hampshire, bounding it as follows, viz. "Lying and extending from Hampshire, bounding it as follows, vis. "Lying and extending from three miles northward of Merrimack-River, or any part thereof, unto the province of Maine (No. "E.")"—Afterwards, in said commission there is this further clause, viz. "And it appearing unto Us that the ancestors of Robert Mason, Esq; obtained Grants from our Great Council of Plymouth for the tract of land aforesaid, and were at great expense."

Whench is consequently the consequently the said provides of March. upon the same," &c,----Whereby it appears that said province of New-Mamphire as it was then bounded, and the grant to the said Mason was one and the same tract of land; under which form of Government said province of New-Hampshire continued until a commission was granted to Benning Wentworth, Esq; enlarging the extent of said prov-ince by including all the lands in said Grants on both sides of Connecticut-River, with power of granting them in the name of the King; and also right of Jurisdiction over the whole; which Governor Wentworth granted great part of those lands included in said Grant previous to the was revoked, and a commission granted to John Wentworth, Esq; to preside Governor over the same extent of Territory; who continued in his seat of government until the commencement of the present war, and then left it vacant.—These commissions are all the Grants that were ever made or given to said province of New-Hampshire relative to their Civil Government; and were held subject to alteration or revocation at the pleasure of the Crown: And the said John Wentworth while he presided Governor as aforesaid granted the remainder of the lands on said Grants; and in consequence thereof the Grantees have entered upon them and cultivated and improved them, extending from said former province of New-Hampshire, or said Mason's westerly line westward to Lake-Champlain or thereabouts; southerly to the north line of the Massachusetts-Bay; northerly to the Canada line, and easterly to the province of Main.

THESE Grants remained under the Government of New-Hampshire until about the year 1764; when a determination of the Lords of the Board of Trade and Plantations was obtained by the Province of New-York, that the Jurisdiction of the Grants west of Connecticut-River should be under New-York; at the same time confirming and approving those Grants by Governor Wentworth as aforesaid.

In this situation the Government on those Grants continued until the commencement of the present war; since which the several Conventions and Assemblies of the State of New York claim Jurisdiction over those Grants west of Connecticut-River, and the Conventions and Assemblies of the State of New-Hampshire claim Jurisdiction over the Grants east of said River, nothwithstanding the refusals to submit and repeated remonstrances against said claim.—In order therefore to examine the justice of them, it will be necessary to consider them distinctly and apart.

AND First, -All the right that ever New York had, either to the Soil or Jurisdiction of those Grants west of Connecticut-River, came by virtue of the Royal Grant to the Duke of York; this is the only basis of the extent of said Province or State of New-York, except the decree of the Board aforesaid. It will be necessary therefore in this inquiry to recite part of said Royal Charter, so far as it relates to the bounds and limits thereof, together with date, &c .--But before we proceed shall take notice that at the time of the Grant made by King James to the Council established at Plymouth as aforesaid, the Dutch and Sweeds were in possession of New-York, Albany, and part of the Jersies; and about that time or a little after and before 1653 there was a settlement of some French at a place called St. Croix near to New-Scotland (alias) Nova-Scotia (and a few families of Dutch settled at Hartford on Connecticut-River, which settlement at Hartford was evacuated long before the Grant to the Duke of York, and all pretensions to any claim on Connecticut-River given up.) I now proceed to observe that 1664 (there being a war between the English and Dutch) King Charles meditated sending a force to cause the Dutch to surrender the lands by them possessed on Hudson's River, and on the 12th of March, 1664, by his letters patent "Gave and granted to his Royal Brother James, Duke of York all that part of the main-land in New England, beginning at a certain place called and known by the name of St. Croix next adjoining to New-Scotland in America, and from thence extending along the sea coast unto a place called Peroniquie or Pieniquid and so up the River thereof to the furthermost head of the same as it tendeth northward, and extending from thence to the River Kenebeque and upward by the shortest course to the River Canada northward; and also all that island or islands commonly called by the several name or names Mattawacki or Long Island, situate, lying, and being toward the west of Cape-Cod and the Narragansett, abutting up the main land between the two Rivers there called and known by the names of Connecticut and Hudson's-River, and all the land from the west side of Connecticut-River, to the east side of Delaware-Bay.—And also all those several islands ealled or known by the names of Martin's-Vineyard and Nantucks, otherwise called Nantucket, together with all the lands, soils, islands, otherwise caned transacter, together with all the state, right, title, interest, benefit, advantage, claim and demand of, in, or to the said lands and premises, or any part or parsels thereof,"—'And at the same time gave a commission to Colorate the said lands. nel Richard Nichols to dispossess the Dutch and take possession thereof in behalf of his Brother the Duke of York, which was accordingly executed in the month of August 1664, and Colonel Nichols remained in the Duke's Government three years, and in June 1670 the Dutch Government Duke's Government three years, and in June 1070 the Duke Government was again revived and continued until 1674 on a treaty of peace signed at Westminster in February. The English Government was restored, and on the 29th of June 1674 his Royal Highness the Duke of York obtained from the King a new Patent of the same lands and territories in the same words with the former differing only in the date.

HAVING thus far recited the bounds and limits of the Grant to the Duke of York which is all that can be claimed in favor of the present State of New-York, as to the extent of their Jurisdiction as being patentees or Assignees to the Duke, I shall now proceed to consider in a legal and rational point of light, and show that by a fair construction it cannot be supposed to include those Grants or any part of them west of Connecticut-River.—Therefore, in the first place take notice that two thirds or more of the lands and territories literally contained in the Duke's Grant were so obviously absurd (as to its holding them) that all pretensions of claim to them have been laid aside from the beginning; and scarcely any part thereof is holden according to the literal and express words of the Grant.—This therefore makes it necessary to inquire upon what principle or construction they do or can hold?—I answer by the reserve made in the Grant of King James to the Council established at Plymouth as before recited, viz. "All lands, &c. in the possession of some other Christian Prince or State;" and had it not hear for this provise or received the Duke would have the recited and the state of the provise or received the Duke would have the possession. possession of some other Christian Frince or State; and nad it not been for this proviso or reserve the Duke would have taken nothing by his Grant; For all except this was granted to the Council of Plymouth, and by them regranted, &c.—Therefore the fair construction of the grant must be that it includes all the lands within the limits of New-England that were in the possession of some Christian Prince or State other than the King of England at the time of granting to the Council of Plymouth as aforesaid, and no more.—Consonant to this construction has been the practice and proceeding of all parties concerned from the has been the practice and proceeding of all parties concerned from the beginning: To this we may observe that the subduing the Dutch in order to obtain possession for the Duke was as early and even coeval with the Grant itself.—And when the Dutch had revolted from under the English government and were a second time brought under subjection the Duke applied for a second Grant of the same land which plainly shews he was apprehensive that his first Grant was lost by the revolt of the Dutch; and also that the lands they were in possession of, and which they claimed, were the lands and territories contained in his Grant; agreeable to this have been all the settlement of the limits and boundaries of this Grant but the Dutch is Petersteen and Assistance with boundaries of this Grant by the Duke, his Patentees, or Assignees with the other Colonies adjoining to them from first to last.—Also the bounds and extensions of this Grant clearly show that this was the intent of it.

For observe, the Grant expressly extends to every part of New-England where there had been any settlement of any foreign nation, though ever so remote from the main object, viz. New York; which cannot rationally accounted for but upon this principle, vis. to include all the lands that were reserved as aforesaid. MUCH more might be said to establish this construction of the Grant, but I think what has been assigned is sufficient, at least for my present purpose: And therefore shall only observe, that if this construction be true, and there was no settlement or claim of the Dutch or any other Christian Prince or State other than the English on or near Connecticut-River at the time of granting to the Council of Plymouth or the Duke of York there can be no pretensions of extending said Grant to Connecticut-River or any part thereof.

I shall observe once more, that even by the literal expressions in said Grant or Patent it cannot be supposed to include those lands; for the only clause in said Grant that can be pretended to include the lands on which said Grants are is this, vis. "And all the land from the west side of Connecticut-River to the east side of Delaware-Bay."—Now all the lands that may be fairly said to lie between those two extremes may be said to be included by that clause, and those lands which cannot be said to lie between those boundaries cannot be said to be included, although they may be said to lie west of Connecticut-River: For observe by the expression they must lie east of Delaware-Bay as well as west of Connecticut-River .- Therefore for trial's sake let us suppose a line drawn from the mouth of Connecticut-River to the east side of Delaware-Bay even to the northern extent of it .- This I believe without dispute would leave all, or nearly all the lands on the main west of Connecticut-River to the north; this construction therefore won't answer: Then let us suppose a line drawn from the head of said River to the east side of Delaware-Bay, and then the lands on those Grants will still lie west-ward, and not be included: There is therefore but one way that I can possibly think of that will comport with the phrase and include the lands in question; and that is to extend Delaware-Bay in the same degree of longitude that it is now in as far north as the head of Connecticut-River, and then all the lands west of Connecticut-River and east of Delaware-Bay would be included by that clause so as to take in the lands on the said Grants; such a construction every unbiassed mind will reject.—I shall therefore dismiss this point relative to the right of Jurisdiction merely by the extent of said Grant, and proceed to the consideration of it in a different view: For whether the lands on those Grants are included in the Grant to the Duke of York or not, the fee of them has been granted by the Crown to the present Grantees and since confirmed to them; so that Jurisdiction is the only matter in dispute. The light in which I shall now consider this right is relative to the decree of the Lords of Trade and Plantation before-mentioned, which, I suppose, is the greatest right that can be urged in favor of the claim. And in this point of light I consider all the grants upon equal footing: For as to any connexions by grant or charter either with the State of New-York or New-Hampshire, I have observed there is none, except royal commissions to Governors in the one case, and a decree of the Lords in the other, that can be challenged as giving them a right to exercise Jurisdiction in this Let us therefore consider what the nature and design of these commissions to exercise Jurisdiction over particular territories and extent of lands are.

1st. They are altogether exparte without the privity, knowledge, or consent of the People governed; for they never know by whom or in what manner they are to be governed until the commission be published. 2st. They are held only at the pleasure of the Crown; and that too by being liable to alteration at any time as the Crown shall see fit.

by being hable to alteration at any time as the crown snail see nt.

3d. It is an express command to the subjects to submit and obey; this is all the People can claim any right to: In short it amounts to this; do you A. B. or C. exercise government or rule over my subjects in such a place during my pleasure according to such and such rules, and such others as I shall give you from time to time; and do you my people as subjects obey according.—I ask in this case what act or choice the people have in this jurisdiction any more than a company of slaves have in a plantation under the government of one driver to-day and a new one to-morrow? Those who think this is pointed too high are desired to read either of those Governor's commissions at their leisure.——Therefore what absurdity is it to urge that since this oppressive arm of power is broken, and the oppressed set at liberty to govern themselves, that therefore one part has right of Jurisdiction over the other part merely because they were once under the same master by mear compulsion; that this is the case relative to the People on these Grants is clear and indisputable, for this Jurisdiction has been changed twice if not three times in the course of twelve or fourteen years without the least of their privity or consent. Such Jurisdictions as these therefore never bind a people together any longer than the force that first compelled continues over them, and when that ceases they in point of social compact revert to a state of nature. No part in this case can claim right of Jurisdiction over the other without claiming power from the same fountain. One thing more enters into the consideration of this same which I will be a single of the same of the same fountain. this right which I shall take notice of in this place; and that is the local situation of the people in a particular state or Jurisdiction; when they are so situated that they cannot attend upon the matter of Government that concern them with any tolerable convenience, it becomes necessary for an alteration of the extent of such Jurisdiction. Otherwise the design of Government would be entirely frustrated. I know in government when the state of the ments when the people had little or nothing else to do but to obey Royal Mandates, &c. the more remote they were from the seat of government the better; but in Republican States it is otherwise, there every one has more or less to do, and therefore ought to be so situated every one has more or less to do, and therefore ought to be so situated that he can act his part, otherwise he has no share in the Government. When any part of a State is so situated that the Inhabitants cannot attend upon the matter of Government within the State with any tolerable degree of convenience, this ill effect will always follow, viz. That they will grow remiss and negligent, and thereby expose themselves to be overreached and oppressed by the other part.

FROM what has been said therefore relative to the right claimed by

New-York and New Hampshire over the said Grants on account of these Royal Commissions or Impositions, it is clear and plain that it is alto-gether founded in force and compulsive power, and not in compact and agreement, which power upon the Declaration of Independence of the United States became null and void, and therefore, there being no compact or agreement of the People whereby they became united with either of those States, they in that case reverted to a State of nature as to Government, and stand entirely unconnected with them. This being the case necessity, the Providence of God, your own interest and prudence call upon you to put yourselves into a state of Government either by connecting with some State already formed, or by erecting yourselves into a new and distinct State. If you have already pursued all reasons the contraction of the contraction reasonable measures for a Union with some other State to no effect, or your local and other circumstances are such as render it extremely difficult if not impracticable to be united with any State already formed, your indepensible duty is to form yourselves into a distinct State, and that without delay. The common cause in which we are all embarked; your interest, and especially that of the orphan and widow, and your morals suffer by the delay.—But doubtless there will be objections arising in the middle of the orphan and widow, and your morals suffer by the delay.—But doubtless there will be objections arising in the original transfer of the original transfer or the original ing in the minds of some against proceeding at this time: I will therefore endeavor to mention the most material and answer them.

Ist. It will be objected that you are not of sufficient ability to support and maintain Government.—To this I would only say, you are much more able in any respect than any of the United States were when they first began their respective Governments.

OBJECTION 24. We have not yet fully established our Independence; let us finish that matter first, and then see about erecting new States, &c.—To this I would answer, The only way to vanquish our inveterate Enemy and support our Independence is first to regulate and settle matters at home; for while things remain in confusion among ourselves, we may expect they will be so throughout: Hence ariseth the difficulty of raising our army, equiping, cloathing them, &c.—And further as the United States are all settled and settling their plans of Government, for you to be still or in part to act with them until all things are settled, and then break off and set up a new State would be imposing upon and dealing deceitfully with them: Besides you will thereby give up your natural right of forming into a State of Government, and lie at the will of those with whom you have acted whether you shall have the liberty or not.—Therefore now is the time either to go forward and act on the affair or give up all pretensions of ever doing anything about it hereafter. In addition to this you may be assured that whoever lives to see matters abroad fully settled respecting the present dispute will also see greater altercations and sharper contests about our internal police and domestic affairs, if they remain unsettled until that time, than we have yet seen, or men and things will be much altered from whatever they have been.

BUT I pass to another Objection, riz. That there is no supreme power yet erected by the United States to make and grant Jurisdiction to any new State, and therefore it cannot now be done.—I answer it is true there is no such power yet erected, and I pray God there never may be; for should there be such a power established, these Republican States would thereby become a Monarchy.—It will be asked then, why was it that all States or Bodies Politic heretofore obtained Jurisdiction from the Crown before they pretended to exercise Government? And if necessary then why not now from some supreme power? The reason is this, the King of Great-Britain was Lord of the fee, and Chief Magistrate of all executive power throughout his Dominions; therefore all Government was exercised in his name and by his authority. This will therefore lead us to inquire from whence this power of Jurisdiction must now arise? I answer from the People who are to be the subjects of this Government, the true and Original Source of all Government, there is nothing more or less that can give one man right to rule and exercise Government over another but his agreement and consent thereto; therefore eriment over another but his agreement and consent thereto; therefore all that is necessary to give any body of men power or right to exercise Government in and over themselves, is their mutual compact and agreement for that purpose.—When this is done they have all the power they can or ever will have from any true source or fountain; nay they are not under the necessity of asking liberty of any other power thus to confederate together, &c.—Neither is there any power on this Continent (except Lord or General Howe) that will pretend either to give leave or forbid in this case: therefore the objection is of me force—It will be forbid in this case; therefore the objection is of no force.—It will be asked then whether upon a new State being formed on this Continent or (we will say) on these Grants, they have anything to do with the United States in order to be a complete State for Civil Government? I answer as to their internal police or Civil Government simply considered they have not; but in a relative sense they have; and in this way, when they once become a distinct State or Body Politic then they are a proper member or body to be treated with and received into Union and Confederation with this great and Aggregate Body, and not before: In this way only can they become one of the United States, viz. by the United States agreeing to receive, and the particular State agreeing to unite with and submit to the terms and conditions of this Aggregate Body. Thereby they become a proper subject of its control and Government.

—Thus you may plainly see that all Government from the highest to the lowest is founded in compact. But methinks these observations will produce the curiosity to know in what point of light this particular State would be considered, when formed and presented to the United States for acceptance, should it then be rejected? I answer the United States would treat them as a neighbor according to their behavior: For although they should not receive them they cannot in justice annihilate them, because they having never been connected with them, are not under their power or controul. Therefore if they behave as an honest Neighbor they will treat them accordingly, but if their conduct should be inimical to the United States they will be treated as enemies. This doubtless would be the case.

Thus, Gentlemen in a brief manner I have endeavored to point out your political situation and circumstances, and your duty relative thereto. I shall therefore close with a word of advice; and that is, if you should think it expedient upon what has been observed to proceed in forming a distinct State, by all means be unanimous and consider your selves on these Grants as being all on the same foundation. Act together as one collective body so situated by the Providence of God, as clearly point out the necessity and convenience of your being united in a distinct State.—Therefore divisions among yourselves either by rivers more ers, mountains or the like may prove fatal; especially in respect to your acceptance and approbation by the United States, &c. Much will depend on your joint and unanimous proceedings; I therefore submit the whole to your candid perusal:

And am, Gentlemen.

Your most obedient and humble servant, REPUBLICAN.

POSTSCRIPT.

Containing Observations wrote since the Publication of the Articles of Confederation of the United States of America.

SINCE my finishing the foregoing I have had opportunity to peruse the proposed Articles of Confederation of the United States, and think it necessary to make some Observations on the second and ninth articles, which I conceive are of importance to consider, especially as to the proper time for your Uniting and forming into a distinct State, &c.

You will take notice that by the second article "Each State is to retain its sovereignty, freedom, and independence, and every power, jurisdiction, and right which is not by the Confederation expressly delegated to the United States in Congress assembled."

You will observe also that in the ninth article provision is made for the hearing and determining matters of dispute between any two or more States relative to Jurisdiction, boundary, or any other matter whatever; but no provision for Congress to hear or determine any matter of dispute between one part of a State and the other; but are prevented by the second article.—Neither is there any provision for Congress to interpose relative to dividing any State or States, for the purpose of erecting a new State or Jurisdiction, or of transferring any part of one to the Jurisdiction of another, &c. This matter is left to each particular State to determine as they shall think proper: This is agreeable to what I before observed, that as to erecting particular States or Jurisdictions the United States in Congress had nothing to do, neither would they intermeddle in those matters.—Therefore all the particular States as to their Powers, Jurisdictions, and Rights as they are or will be when the Confederation takes place and Government is settled in the respective States will be unalterably established and must so remain as long as the Confederation lasts, unless they shall see fit to alter themselves, the probability of which I leave every one to judge who knows that men and bodies of men are governed by self-interest.—This I think a sufficient answer to those who are for putting off the affair until all public matters are settled and then enter upon making new States, &c. in that case will be told it is now too late; this consideration therefore will make it necessary to enquire more particularly what steps are pru-dent to be taken by the Inhabitants living on the Grants east of Connecticut River, especially as we find the present assembly of New-Hamp-shire "have directed the several towns and districts if they see fit to instruct their Representatives at their next sessions to call an Assembly by a full and free election to convene together for the sole purpose of establishing a permanent plan of Government for the State," and therefore many will say perhaps such a plan will be settled as will give satisfaction to all parties concerned: And further that it is our indispensible duty to assist in forming this plan in order if possible to have it so done that we may be satisfied, but if after all we cannot obtain such a plan as appears to us just and equitable we will not connect with them but seek after connections somewhere else.—But let me tell you my friends that whatever town or district undertakes to act in forming a plan of Government for the State, when once the plan is formed and settled, be it what it will, like or not like it, they are as effectually bound by it as if they had made it altogether themselves; for you cannot act in the least without first uniting and when once united, whatever that Body does will be considered as your act as much as theirs.—Therefore if you consider yourselves now unconnected, and that it is your duty and interest to seek after connection with them, and still retain liberty in your own hands until such time as you can agree to unite, the only proper way is, to propose such terms as you are willing to unite upon, and if agreed to then a union may properly take place; but if not agreed to, then you are at liberty to act otherwise as you think proper.—Therefore every one may know for certain if he once begins to act in this affair he must abide the consequences, for having put his hand to the plough he can't look back. -I urge this the more not to dissuade those who think it their duty and interest to seek after connection, but that they may act with their eyes open, and not dabble in those matters, and afterwards complain that they are unjustly dealt with; therefore all such as are willing to join with said State in forming a plan of Government, and run the venture of obtaining such an one as may be agreeable, let them join, they have a right so to do.—But those that are not, if they intend to keep their hands at liberty by no means ought to meddle in the least.-And as things seem to be ripening fast to a settlement relative to governmental affairs whatever ought to be done ought not to be delayed.

[NOTE. The paper which follows, evidently written in answer to the foregoing, was copied from a manuscript in the hand-writing of the Hon. TIMOTHY WALKER, of CONCOID, who at the time, 1778, was a member of the COUNCIL of the State. When or in what form it was published is not known.*—ED.]

An Address to the Inhabitants of the New Hampshire Grants (so called) lying westward of Connecticut River.

[By Hon. Timothy Walker, Concord, N. H.]

FRIENDS AND FELLOW COUNTRY-MEN.

The occasion of my addressing you at this Time, is the sight of a very insignificant Pamphlet, the other Day thrown in my way, intitled Observations &c. relative to your affairs, lately printed at Danvers, by E. Russel.

I should not think this performance worthy of the least Notice, but that I am certainly informed, that it is circulated up your way, on both sides of the River, and is much relied upon, and has a great effect in misleading the less knowing and judicious, and betraying them into dangerous errors, both in judgment and Practice, destructive of the Public Welfare.

Were we to judge of the Author's design by his Introduction, and indeed, by the bulk of his performance, we should suppose that (however vague and ineffectual it is to any such purpose) he proposed to offer something of use for your direction and assistance, in your endeavors to extricate yourselves from the many Troubles and perplexities you have, for a number of years, been embarrassed with, in consequence of your subjugation to the Government of New York. But by some scattered Hints through the whole, and, especially the last page of his Postscript, I am led to judge that the author's principal view, was to pave the way, and facilitate the introduction of a number of Towns on the east side of the River Connecticut into your new forming State.

My design is, to offer some things to your consideration, which, if they shall appear of equal weight to you, as they do to me, I imagine you will judge them sufficient reasons to bar such a coalition. The author's labored pretense to trace the two Provinces of New York and New Hampshire from their origin, which take up so much room in his performance, serves no other end that I can perceive, than to show his own gross Ignorance in those matters; for, whatever title the Duke of York had, either with respect to soil or jurisdiction, in any part of America, either as a Patentee under his Brother, or afterwards in his own Right, as King, he soon lost it all, together with his Crown, by his misrule; and New York, ever since the Revolution† (be its bounds where they may) has been considered as a Royal Government in contradistinction from the Charter and Proprietary Governments.

No less Ignorant does he seem to be, with respect to the origin of New Hampshire, which, as far as respects Jurisdiction, was, from the beginning, a Royal Government; Capt. John Mason, by several Grants from the Council of Plymouth, had all the land assigned him, between Salem River and Piscataqua River, and sixty miles up into Land; to which he gave the name of New Hampshire, but it was not in the power of that Council to give him Jurisdiction over an Inch, so that, his distinction between Mason's New Hampshire and the King's New Hampshire shire, is the most idle whim that ever entered into the Head of an enthusiast in Politicks.

No less ignorant does he seem to be of the English Constitution and mode of expression, where he speaks of "a Decree of the Board of Trade," as the foundation of your subjugation to the Government of New York. The Board of Trade pass no decrees in such cases, but act New York. as a sort of Committee, who are to enquire into all circumstances of any affair submitted to their cognizance, and to report to the King and Privy Council their opinion what is best to be done.

But, to pass over this and some other Things as of little or no importance, and come to matters of Fact: New York, ever since the Revolution, and New Hampshire from the beginning, had been considered as Royal Governments; and there, I suppose, both Lawyers and Politicians, in both Englands, are agreed, that the King's Commission is the Magna Charter, or rather the vivifying Principle that puts life into the Constitution, as well as determines its Limits and many other circumstances; and now, as the boundaries of these two Provinces, as far as they boundaries are the Charter Course. they bordered upon the Charter Governments, had been ascertained. so, when these were passed by, the place where the two Royal Governments were to meet had not been plainly and explicitly determined, until the year 1764, or thereabouts;—that is, the King had never told his governor of New Hampshire, in express terms, how far west he should go, and there stop, nor his Governor of New York how far East he should go and then cease, until the Aera last mentioned.

Now, this being the case, the was by the English Constitution a matter of mere prerogative, that is, it was by the English Constitution a matter of mere prerogative, that is, it was in the King's Power, to fix this line where and as he pleased; but this, as all acts of Power, should be guided by Wisdom, conducted by Justice, and tempered by Goodness, Now, I suppose, it was the want of these amiable attendants of Power, in this instance of the contribution of the second of t in this instance of its exertion, that is the principal ground of your complaint; that is, you were, in a manner contrary to all good Policy, and subversive of the very end of Government, surreptitiously, as it were, torn and dissevered from a Province, under whose auspices you where you had reason to expect and hope for a good share of those comforts & advantages which render society elegible and Government beneficial, and subjected, as it were, to a foreign Jurisdiction, where these blessing could not be enjoyed at all, or but in a very imperfect degree. This, however slightly and confusedly it is, as it were glanced at the thic Author V suppose it the principal source of reverse confused. degree. This, however slightly and confusedly it is, as it were glanced at by this Author, I suppose is the principal source of your peculiar troubles. But now, my Friends, is any thing like this the case with respect to those Towns on the East side of the River, now about to join you? Exactly the reverse—Every step in the whole progress of their Settlement, from its infanct to its present improved state, has been with the entire consent of the people. They have, in every possible way (except personally signing an instrument for the purpose) expressed their satisfaction in their situation, as a part of New Hampshire, in a manner and to a degree that rather verged towards Adulation, than exhibited the least sign of disgust and uneasiness. They applied to the Governor of New Hampshire and obtained of him Grants of their Lands hibited the least sign of disgust and uneasiness. They applied to the Governor of New Hampshire and obtained of him Grants of their Lands and Charters of Incorporation, held their Town meetings regularly, chose their Town officers, transacted all business which Towns usually do, without the least lisp of murmur or complaint. Gentlemen have taken and executed Commissions, both Civil and Military, and when the Province was divided into Counties, one of those very Towns, who are now aiming at a defection, was honored as a shire Town, and, at an expense bordering on profusion, erected a Court House, held their stated Courts, &c. &c. The Governor of New Hampshire attended the Commencement at Dartmouth College, (where the people now join in the defection) escorted by the principal Gentlemen in the vicinity, and there treated with all the eclat and magnificence that could be exhibited on the occasion.

Thus matters stood, when the British administration stretched the Iron Rod of Tyranny and Despotism over these Provinces, in a manner and to a degree that left no man secure in the enjoyment of his Property or even of his life.

At this dark Period, Delegates from the several Provinces were desired to meet in General Congress to deliberate and determine what could be done to ward off the fatal Blow. Now, these very Towns, by their Representatives, met with their Brethren, the Representatives of the other towns of New Hampshire, and joined with them in the choice of Delegates which made a part of that August Body which now figures in the principal Courts of Europe, and is particularly honored by the Alliance and guarantee of so great a Prince as the Grand Monaroue.

Alliance and guarantee of so great a Prince as the Grand Monarque.
But now, if the Principle which this author lays down, and which is the basis of his whole superstructure, (viz. That the Declaration of Independence dissolves all political relations and connections) be admitted, as not only true in theory, but also carried into practice, by this single blow of the clumsy Fist of this dabbler in politicks, the glorious Fabrick (American Independence) which I suppose I may say is the admiration of all Europe, and the Esteem of all, with a very few exceptions, will be laid prostrate, jumbled into a huge heap of sand, without any cement to hold it together. For, if Provincial Lines that were universally acknowledged and acquiesced in, both by Governors and Governed, as the true boundaries of the several Provinces, be rejected as of no validity, most certainly all subordinate Corporations, depending upon the same authority must share the same Fate. And thus, the fine Country that bids so fair to shine in the annals of futurity, is at once reduced to a State of Nature (the Author's own words) and must soon sink under its own weight. But, this is not all; there is a minority in each of these Towns, which sees things as they are; who look upon themselves as bound by every Social Tie, to approve themselves as liege subjects of the State of New Hampshire; and, consequently, in obedience and conformity to this Principle, which Reason dictates and Religion patronizes, they refuse subjection to any Rules, Regulations or Orders of what name or nature soever, inconsistent with the Faith they have plighted to the State of New Hampshire .- These, when they find themselves unable to bear up against the torrent of Rage and Oppression from their cruel Neighbors, will, doubtless, apply to the State of New Hampshire for protection. I must confess, I dont see how they can, and I have no apprehension that they will, reject such application; but, after all lenient measures have been used, without success, they must and will employ the Power of the State to vindicate and protect their thus injured subjects, altho at the expense of the Blood and Treasure of another Civil War.

Now, pray Gentlemen, consider what an unfavorable light you will stand in with the Confederated States, when you are considered as the abettors at least and accomplices in these scenes of devastation and bloodshed: particularly consider what a fund of Eloquence and Oratory you are laying up in store for the use of New York to be played off against you, whenever your case comes to be candidly discussed before the Continental Congress, (for I am persuaded it must first or last come befor that august Assembly) you, in a manner, put words into their mouths, and direct them to address that Venerable Body in such language as this:—"You now plainly see, Gentlemen, what these men are aiming at; that, however modest and submissive a tone they may, at certain times or on special occasions have assumed, yet, they now begin to them off the made and the state Principle of Mollimite. to throw off the mask, and discover the latent Principle of Malignity which has all along been at the bottom as the animating spring of all that disturbance which they have occasioned. We appeal to facts, Gentlemen; you have a recent instance before you which plainly show they are for grasping all they can lay hold of, Right or Wrong. They have gone over the Line of New Hampshire, where they had not the least shadow of pretence, to intermeddle, more than in any other of the States of the Confederacy; and have been, at least, accessory towards raising a Storm, which no one knows where or how it will be appeased."

I have but one thing more to add, and that is a hint, that it is pretty well known in New Hampshire, that the disappointments of a small junto of aspiring, avaricious men, in their endeavors to raise themselves and their connections to a degree of importance in the State, far, very far, beyond what their numbers or Estates gave them any pretence to, is the source of all this feud. Now unless the course of nature should change and similar Causes should cease to produce similar Effects, one may venture to predict, that this Spring wont lose its stimulus and change its vibratory nature, by being turned the other way, but will be active in endeavors to embarrass and perplex your Affairs.

I have purposely avoided a particular Address to our Seceding Brethren, on the East side of the River Connecticut, because I understand their rash proceeding has so awakened the attention of the State, that it will probably be matter of public enquiry when the General Court meets; and it might appear officious in a private Subject to anticipate a Business which will be much better done by the united Wisdom of the

However, that they may not think themselves wholly neglected, if Provever, that they may not make themselves whosly neglected, it there be any weight in the reasoning and observations in the foregoing Pages, if they will be pleased to read them, they may, with the alteration of a few circumstances, apply them to themselves; and they will find many of them, A fortiori, to conclude against their own conduct.

Thus, Gentlemen, I have honestly endeavored to lay before you the Truth respecting an affair not only of great importance in itself, to the Peace and Weel of those immediately concerned in it, but also will, if not seasonably checked, go far in its consequences towards sapping the foundation of the Confederation of the United States; and am your sincere Friend and well wisher, in all honest pursuits.

SECTION VII.

[First attempt of Border Towns in New Hampshire to unite with Vermont.]

[Vermont had no sooner organized a government than a disposition was manifested by a portion of the inhabitants in border towns east of Connecticut river to dissolve their connection with New Hampshire, and unite with the people of Vermont.

Accordingly, on the 11th of March, 1778, a petition from sixteen towns on the east side of Connecticut river was presented to the legislature of Vermont, in session at Windsor, praying to be admitted into its Union. This led to a direct CONTROVERSY between New Hampshire and Vermont.*—ED.]

NOTES BY THE EDITOR.

With a view to a clear understanding of the controversy between New Hampshire and Vermont, including especially the disputes about "Mason's line" (so called), which was claimed as the western boundary of New Hampshire, the editor takes this opportunity to make the following statements:

The original territory of New Hampshire consisted of grants from the council of Plymouth to Capt. John Mason,—the first dated Nov. 7, 1629, and the second April 22, 1635. In both grants (see Prov. Pap. N. H., Vol. I, pp. 21, 32) the western bound from the sea-coast was limited to three-score miles. A dispute in due time arose both as to where the exact limit should be fixed, and whether the western bound should be a curve or straight line. On these questions, which were not finally settled until 1787, Dr. Belknap, in his History of New Hampshire, Vol. III, pp. 13, 14, 1812, says,—

"The Masonian proprietors claimed a curve line as their western boundary; and under the royal government no person had controverted that claim. When the war with Great Britain was terminated by the peace of 1783, the grantees of some crown lands, with which this line interfered, petitioned the assembly to ascertain the limits of Mason's patent. The Masonians at the same time presented a petition, showing the pretensions which they had to a curve line, and praying that a survey of it, which had been made in 1768 by Robert Fletcher, might be established. About the same time, the heirs of Allen, whose claim had long lain dormant for want of ability to prosecute it, having consulted council, and admitted some persons of property into partnership with them, entered and took possession of the unoccupied lands within the limits of the patent; and in imitation of the Masonians, gave general deeds of quitclaim to all bona fide purchasers, previously to the first of May, 1785, which deeds were recorded in each county, and published in the newspapers. They also petitioned the assembly to establish a head line for their patent.

"After a solemn hearing of these claims, the assembly ordered a survey to be made of sixty miles from the sea on the southern and eastern lines of the state, and a straight line to be run from the end of one line of sixty miles to the end of the other. They also passed an act to quiet all bona fate purchasers of lands between the straight and curve lines, so far as that the state should not disturb them. This survey was made in 1787 by Joseph Blanchard and Charles Clapham. The line begins on the southern boundary, at lot No. 18, in the town of Rindge. Its course is north—thirty-nine east. Its exent is ninety-three and one half miles. It ends at a point in the eastern boundary which is seven miles and two hundred and six rods northward of Great Ossapy river. This line being established, as the head line or western boundary of Mason's patent, the Masonians, for the sum of forty thousand dollars in public securities and eight hundred dollars in specie, purchased of the state all its right and title to the unoccupied lands between the straight line and the curve. The heirs of Allen were then confined in their claim to those waste lands only which were within the straight line. They have since compromised their disputes with the proprietors of eleven of the fifteen Masonian shares by deeds of mutual quitclaim and release. This was done in January, 1790."

The question of the true head line of Mason's patent is exceedingly complicated, and perhaps impossible to be accurately determined. In the original grant to Mason, of November 7, 1629, the said grant included "all that part of the mainland in New England lying upon the sea-coast, beginning from the middle part of Merrimack river, and from thence to proceed northwards along the sea-coast to Pascataqua river, and so forwards up within the said river, and to the furtherest head thereof, and from thence north-westward, until three-score miles be finished from the first entrance of Pascataqua river; also, from Merrimack through the said river, and to the furtherest head theroof, and so forwards up into the lands westwards, until three-score miles be finished; and from thence to cross over land to the three-score miles end, accompted from Pascataqua river." This grant, as modified and confirmed April 22, 1635, still limited the extent into the interior to three-score miles west, and on the eastern bound north-westerly the same extent, and then to cross over from one end to the other (see Prov. Pap. N. H., vol. I, pp. 21, 32).

In their eagerness, perhaps, to make the most of their patent, the Masonians claimed that the cross line from the south-western to northerly bound should be a curve line, or the arc of a circle of sixty miles from a point on the sea-coast. But evidently the quantity of land taken in by a sweep of sixty miles would depend much on the starting-point, and much more whether it should be a straight line or a curve. This, therefore, became a matter of dispute and litigation.

The curve line, as drawn on Mr. Carrigain's map, 1816, commences at the south-western end, in Fitzwilliam, and in its sweep across to the north-eastern bound passes through Marlborough, Roxbury, Sullivan, Marlow, Washington, Goshen, New London, Wilmot, Orange, Hebron, Plymouth, Holderness, Campton, Sandwich, Burton, to or near the south line of Conway.

Mr. Carrigain says, on his map, that "a survey made in 1768 carried the eastern end of the Mason curve line ten miles further down. Hence the straight line of 1787 runs to the S. W. corner of Rindge."

In agreement with this statement, we find that the straight line drawn on Dr. Belknap's map, 1791 (see Belk. Hist. of N. H., vol. I, 1812), commences at the western end, in Rindge, and runs through Jaffrey, Peterborough, Greenfield, Francestown, Weare, Hopkinton, Concord, Canterbury, Gilmanton, across Lake Winnipiseogee, Wolfeborough, Tuftonborough, to Ossipee.

The difference in the quantity of land, as measured by the curve or by the straight line, is, to say the least, worth some litigation. These complications were finally settled by acts of the legislature.

As this is important to a full understanding of the matter, the action of the general assembly is here inserted.

The Mason Line determined.

In the House of Representatives, January 9th 1787.

Report of Committee on unimproved Lands.

"The Committee on ascertaining the waste or unimproved Lands belonging to the State Reported that they recommend that a Bill be brought in appointing and fully authorizing a Committee to settle and ascertain the western line of a Tract of Land originally granted to Capt. John Mason, commonly called the Masonian Line. That said Committee agree with the owners or claimants of said Grant in running, marking and establishing said Line in such way and manner as they may mutually agree—but in case the said owners or claimants & the said Committee should not agree in settling said line, that then the Committee proceed to run and mark said line agreeably to the tenor and construction of the original grant or grants of the same, and make report thereof to the General Court.

The Committee recommend, That some Court be particularly impowered or a new Court erected to try and determine all matters relative to the performance or non-performance of charter conditions of Lands granted in this State, known by the name of King's grants—and that as soon as such court shall be authorized or erected; that the Attorney General be directed from time to time, as the General Court shall think proper, to summon before said Court the owners or claimants of such granted Towns or located lands, as the said General Court shall suppose deficient in performing their respective Charter conditions, to shew cause why their said Lands should not be declared forfeit, and to obtain before said Court an equitable determination thereon.

Signed,

ELISHA PAYNE, for the Committee.

Which report being read and considered, Voted, That it be received and accepted, and that a Bill or Bills be brought in accordingly. [Concurred by the Senate.]"

[Agreeably to the foregoing report and recommendation of the committee, a bill was passed on the 15th of January, 1787, entitled "An act for ascertaining the waste lands belonging to this State." (See Rec. of Acts, 1784 to 1789.)—ED.]

On the 28th of June, 1787, Another Act was passed, entitled "An Act to quiet all bona fide purchasers of lands between a line crossing over lands upon a strait course from the North-east extremity of the East line of Mason's patent; being sixty miles from the Sea on a strait line and running to the extremity of the Western side line of said patent, at sixty miles distance from the sea, on a strait line, and the curve line so called, claimed by the persons calling themselves the Masonian proprietors, as the head line of said patent."

[Copy of said Act.]

Whereas doubts may arise in the minds of honest Settlers, and bona fide purchasers, that they may be disturbed in their possessions, if the lands between the said head line at the end of sixty miles and the said curve line should be recovered and taken possession of by the State: Wherefore, to remove all such doubts—Be it enacted. by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court convened, That all lands situate between the said curve and strait lines, which were bona fide granted or sold by the King of Great Britain, or by the persons calling themselves the Masonian proprietors, or by the persons claiming the lands within the said patent in the right of Samuel Allen, Esquire, prior to the first day of June, 1786. be and hereby are quieted in the title of lands so purchased, so far as that the State shall not hereafter disturb or interfere with such titles.

And be it further enacted, That such persons as have entered and made improvements upon tracts of land between the said curve and strait lines, that have not been heretofore granted or sold by the King of Great Britain, the Masonian proprietors, or the heirs of Samuel Allen, Esquire, such persons or Inhabitants shall be quieted in their possessions upon paying to this State the value of uncultivated lands in the vicinity of the same.

And be it further enacted, That the Boundaries of all Townships within this State, shall be & remain as heretofore fixed & established, notwitstanding any alteration that may happen in the establishment of the head line of said Patent: Provided, nevertheless, that nothing in this Act contained, shall be construed to extend to lands now claimed by persons commonly called the Masonian Proprietors or their heirs, or the proprietors claiming under Samuel Allen, Esquire, or their heirs, in their own right, or any Township granted or conveyed to and among themselves, not bona fide conveyed to any other persons, or to any lands reserved by them, or either of them, to and for the use of themselves and their heirs.

State of New Hampshire, In the House of Representatives
June 28th 1787:—

The foregoing bill having been read a third time, Voted that it pass to be enacted. Sent up for concurrence.

JOHN SPARHAWK, Speaker.

In Senate the same day. This bill having been read a third time, Voted that the same be enacted.

Jnº Sullivan, President.

[Note. The foregoing statement of facts serves to show the difficulty of fixing a head line which should be satisfactory to all parties interested, and also raises a question how far the projected new State would extend east of Connecticut river.—Ed.]

[P. 71.] HONBL SIR-

The Convention of Committees from the several Towns mentioned in the inclosed Copies take this opportunity to transmit to you as President of the Council of the State of New Hampshire, a Resolve of the Assembly of the State of Vermont relative to a union of said Towns with them, by which you will be avail'd of the political situation of these United Towns & others, on the grants who may comply with said Resolve. We hope that notwithstanding an entire seperation has now taken place between your State and those Towns, an amicable settlement may be come into at a proper time between the State of New Hampshire and those Towns on the Grants that unite with the State of Vermont, relative to all civil and military affairs transacted in connec-[P. 72.] tion with the State of New Hampshire, since the commencement of the present war to the time of the union, so that Amity and Friendship may subsist and continue between the two States.

I am, Sir, in behalf of said Convention, with respect,
Your most obedient Humble Servant,
Nehemiah Estabrook,* Chairman.

President of the Council of New Hampshire.

Letter from Meshech Weare to the New Hampshire Delegates in Congress on the subject of the above union, dated

SIR-

By order of the Council and Assembly of this State, I am to inform you that the pretended State of Vermont, not contented with the limits of the New Hampshire Grants (so called) on the West side of Connecticut River, have extended their pretended jurisdiction over the River, and taken into the Union (as they Phrase it) sixteen towns on the east side of Connecticut River, part of this State who can have no more pretence for their defection than any other towns in the State; the circumstances of which you are well acquainted with: And great pains is used to persuade other towns to follow their example. Enclosed I send you the copy of a Letter from Mr. Estabrook who stiles himself chairman of the Convention of Committees from several Towns &c., also the copy of a Resolve of the sd nominal State of Vermont; on which you will make your own comments.

By the best information I have from that County about *Nehemiah Estabrook was of Lebanon. In 1776 he was one of the selectmen of the town, and deacon of the church. He presided at a meeting of several adjacent towns, held at the College hall in Hanover, July 5, 1776, to consider the perilous condition of the frontier towns, and to obtain assistance from the assembly of New Hampshire. (See State Pap., vol. VIII, pp. 248, 297, 298.)—ED.

one third—nearly one half—of the people in the defective Towns are averse to the proceedings of the majority, who threaten to confiscate their estates if they don't join with them; and I am very much afraid the affair will end in the shedding of Blood. Justices of the Peace have been appointed & sworn into office in those towns under the pretended authority of sd Vermont. I must not omit to let you know that Colo Bedel* who has recd great sums from Congress or their Generals under pretence of pays men for service they never did (as I am informed) by the influence of sd money has occasioned a great share of the disorders in those Towns. I am directed to desire you on receipt of this to advise with some of the members of Congress on this affair & proceed as you may judge expedient after advising as aforesd. Endeavor to obtain the aid of Congress, if you think they can with propriety take up the matter. Indeed unless Congress interferes (whose admonition only will be obeyed) I know not what consequences will follow; very possible the sword will decide it, as the minority in those towns are claiming protection from this State, and they think themselves bound by every tie to afford it; and you know every condescending method that could be invented, has been offered them in the beginning of the Schism and was rejected. I doubt not of your application and efforts in this matter, which if effective will exceedingly serve the State and probably prevent numberless calamities to the People.

Hon. Josiah Bartlett & John Wentworth, Esq. 3.

Although I have had information that the people settled on the New Hampshire Grants (so called) west of Connecticut River, had formed a plan for their future Government, and elected you their first magistrate; yet, as they have not been admitted into the confederacy of the United States as a separate, distinct body, I have omitted to address you in your magistratical style, and not out of disrespect to you, or the people over whom you preside; which, in these circumstances, I doubt not, your candor will excuse, and that you will attend to the important subject of this address.

A paper has been laid before the General Assembly, attested by Thomas Chandler, jun. as Secretary of the State of Vermont, dated June 11, 1778, purporting a resolution of the General Assembly of the State of Vermont, to receive into union with said State, sixteen towns on the east side of Connecticut river; and leave, or rather, an invitation, to any towns contiguous to those sixteen, to enter into the same union.

On which I am directed to represent to you, and to desire it may be laid before the representatives of your people, the intimation in said resolve, that the said sixteen towns, 'are not connected with any State, with respect to their internal police,' is an idle phantom, a mere chimera, without the least shadow of reason for its support.

The town of Boston, in Massachusetts, or Hartford in Connecticut (if disposed) might, as rationally, evince their being unconnected with their respective States, as those sixteen towns their not being connected with New Hampshire.

Were not those towns settled and cultivated, under the grant of the Governor of New Hampshire? Are they not within the lines thereof, as settled by the King of Great Britain, prior to the present era? Is there any ascertaining the boundaries between any of the United States of America, but by the lines formerly established by the authority of Great Britain? I am sure there is not. Did not the most of those towns send delegates to the Convention of this State in the year 1775? Have they not, from the commencement of the present war, applied to the State of New Hampshire for assistance and protection? It is well known they did-and that New Hampshire, at their own expense, hath supplied them with arms, ammunition &c. to a very great amount, as well as paid soldiers for their particular defence; and all at their request, as members of this State—whence then, could this new doctrine, that they were not connected with us, originate? I earnestly desire that this matter may be seriously attended to; and I am persuaded the tendency thereof, will be to anarchy and confusion.

When I consider the circumstances of the people west of Connecticut River, the difficulties they encountered in their first settlement, their late endeavors to organize government among themselves, and the uncertainty of their being admitted, as a separate State, into the confederacy of the United States, I am astonished that they should supply their enemies with arguments against them, by their connecting themselves with people, whose circumstances are wholly different from their own, and who are actually members of the State of New Hampshire. A considerable number of inhabitants of those sixteen towns (I am well informed) are entirely averse to a disunion with the State of New Hampshire, and are about to apply to this State for protection; indeed, some have already applied. And are not the people in this State under every obligation, civil and sacred, to grant their brethren the needed defence?

I beseech you, Sir, for the sake of the people you preside over, and the said people, for the sake of their future peace and tranquillity, to relinquish every connection, as a political body, with the towns on the east side of Connecticut river, who are members of the State of New Hampshire, entitled to the same privileges as the other people of said State, from which there has never been any attempt to restrict them.

I am, Sir, with due respect,
Your obedient humble servant,
MESHECH WEARE,
President of the Council of the State of N. H.
Hon. Thomas Chittenden, Esq.

[Note. On the receipt of this letter, Governor Chittenden convened the council, and Gen. Ethan Allen was requested to repair to Philadelphia to ascertain the views entertained by congress of the proceedings of Vermont. On his return Gen. Allen made report as follows:—ED.]

[Copied from Slade's Ver. State Pap., pp. 92, 93.]

To his Excellency, the Governor, the Honourable the Council, and to the Representatives of the freemen of the State of Vermont, in General Assembly met.*

GENTLEMEN-

The subscriber hereto, begs leave to make the following report, viz.

By the desire of his Excellency, and at the request of several of the members of the honourable the Council, to me made in September last, I have taken a journey to Philadelphia, in order to gain knowledge how the political situation of the State of Vermont stood, in the view of Congress;—which I here exhibit.

On the 16th day of September last, I am informed by members of Congress, that the delegates from the State of New Hampshire exhibited to Congress a remonstrance (which they had previously received from the Council and Assembly of said State†) against the proceedings of the State of Vermont, with respect to their taking into union a number of towns, on the east side of Connecticut river, and in their inviting other towns to revolt from New Hampshire; a copy of which I herewith exhibit: a matter, which they allege, was incompatible with the right of New Hampshire, and an infringement on the confederacy of the United States of America; and, therefore, desired the Congress to take the matter under consideration, and grant some order thereon, to prevent the effusion of blood, and the confusion and disorders which would, otherwise, inevitably ensue.

against the State of Vermont, which, after some altercations, were admitted; and it was agreed that the same, together with the remonstrance from the State of New Hampshire, should be taken under consideration, on the afternoon of the 18th, by a Committee of the whole house;—at which time it was moved to be brought forward; but urgent business occasioned its being deferred to the 19th; at which time I arrived at Philadelphia, and being immediately informed of the business by some of the members of Congress, I used my influence against its being hastily determined ex parte; and particularly objected to the complaints from the States of New Hampshire and New York, their being both considered at the same time, alledging that they were of a very different nature. And, in consequence of this, together with my earnest request and application, I obtained assurance that the matter should not be brought to a decision before I could have an opportunity to lay the matter before this people; as I had, previously, let the members of Congress know, that the Assembly of this State was to sit at this time; and I engaged to transmit the proceedings of this Assembly to Congress, as soon as they transpired at their request.

The allegations, thrown by New-York, received a most severe shock on the perusal of my late pamphlet in answer to his Excellency Governor Clinton's proclamation, dated in February last, containing overtures to the inhabitants of this State; as well as from my large treatise on the nature and merit of the New York claim, and their treatment to the inhabitants of this now State of Vermont. In fine, the New York complaints will never prove of sufficient force in Congress, to prevent the establishment of this State. But, from what I have heard and seen of the disapprobation, at Congress, of the union with sundry towns, east of Connecticut river, I am sufficiently authorized to offer it as my opinion, that, except this State recede from such union, immediately, the whole power of the Confederacy of the United States of America, will join to annihilate the State of Vermont, and to vindicate the right of New Hampshire, and to maintain, inviolate, the articles of confederation, which guarantee to each state their privileges and immunities.

Thus, Gentlemen, I have given you a short representation of the political situation of this State as it now stands in the General Congress of the United States of America, upon which I stake my honour.

Given under my hand, at Windsor, this 10th day of Oct.

ETHAN ALLEN.

[Note. Immediately upon this report, the legislature of Vermont, agreeably to the opinion and advice of Gen. Allen, took measures "to recede from the Union" which had been formed with the sixteen towns east of Connecticut river. Question 3rd. Whether the Towns on the East side of Connecticut River, who are included by Union within this State, shall be erected into a distinct County by themselves?

Yeas 28. Nays 33.

[Note. The votes on the several questions foregoing, virtually rescinded the union which had been formed, inasmuch as they disallowed any and all of the said sixteen towns any connection, either with the already established counties of Vermont, or any county by themselves. Hence, against these proceedings was entered the following PROTEST, viz.:—ED.]

Protest of members of the General Assembly of Vermont, representing New Hampshire towns east of Connecticut river, and border towns west.

We whose names are under written, members of the Council and General Assembly of said State, beg leave to lay before the Assembly the following as our Protest and Declaration against their proceedings on Wednesday the twenty-first instant, in passing the three following votes or Resolutions, viz.

"Ist That the Counties in this State shall remain as they "were established by the Assembly of this State in March "last. 2nd That the Towns on the east side of the River included in the union with this State, shall not be included in the County of Cumberland. 3rd That the Towns on the east side of the River shall not be erected into a distinct "County by themselves." (As by said votes on the Journal of the House may appear:) which votes are illegal, and in Direct violation of the Constitution of this State, and the Sollemn Engagements and publick faith Pledged by the Resolutions of said assembly, as by the following observations plainly appear; (viz.)

Int That as the Towns on the east side of said River were never annexed to any County in said State they are consequently by said votes intirely excluded the Liberties, privileges, Protection, Laws and Jurisdiction of said State;—all which were granted them by the State, by an Act or Re-[P. 83.] solve of Assembly passed at Bennington in June last, containing the union and confederation of the State and said Towns, by which Act or Resolve of Assembly every Town included in the union Received by a Grant from the then State of Vermont all the rights, powers and privileges of any other Towns in said State; which they cannot be deprived of without their consent,—as it is a maxim, that the Grantor or Grantors cannot Resume their grant without the surrender of the Grantee or Grantees.

2nd That said votes are in Direct opposition to a Solemn Resolution of the Assembly Passed the 20th Instant Establishing the Report of the Committee of both Houses, in which Report the Assembly have solemnly covenanted to Defend the whole of the State entire, as it then was, including said Town.

3rd That by the Constitution of the State, especially the sixth Article in the Bill of Wrights, Government is instituted or Declared to be a right of every part of the Community, and not a part only—said Votes are therefore a violation of the Constitution.

4th That so far as the Assembly have power, they have, by said votes totally destroyed the Constitution of the State, by Depriving those Towns included in the union, of the [P. 84.] Exercise of Jurisdiction, power or Privilege granted them; and the Confederation by which the Towns in the State are combined and held together as one body;—and as no political Body can exercise a partial jurisdiction by virtue of a Confederation or agreement for the people, to exercise Government over the whole: it is therefore either void or Destroys both the Confederation and Constitution.

We do therefore hereby publickly declare and make known that we cannot consistant with our Oaths and Engagements to this State (so long as said votes stand and continue in force) exercise any office or place either Legislative, Executive or Judicial in this State; but look upon ourselves as being thereby Discharged from any and every former Confederation and Association with this State.

Letter from Thomas Chittenden to Meshech Weare relating to towns east of Connecticut river, dated

[P. 85.] Sir—I am directed by the Council and Assembly now sitting to acquaint your honor that they have had under consideration, the subject of your letter to me, dated the 22<sup>d</sup> day of August last. Whereupon they have Resolved that no additional exercise of jurisdictional authority be had (by this State) east of Connecticut River, for the time being: on which Resolution the Members who appeared to represent those sixteen Towns east of the said River said to be united to this State, have entered their dissent to such Resolution on the minutes of the house and withdrawn; under which circumstances they can have no pretensions to any claim of Protection from this State,—who are so far from a disposition to interfere on the Rights of N. Hampshire as to gratefully acknowledge their generous and timely assistance at the important battle of Bennington, by which means this Infant State was preserved.

This Assembly of this State have appointed his Hon<sup>7</sup> Ira Allen, Esq<sup>7</sup> to wait on your Honor & Council with this express, who will doubtless be able to give any further satisfaction in the premises.

Letter from Ethan Allen to Meshech Weare, relating to towns east of Connecticut river and his appointment as agent, &c.

Windsor, 23d October, 1778.

SIR—In conformity to my Engagement to Col. Bartlett, one of the members of Congress from New Hampshire, I am Induced to write to your Honor Respecting a Number of Towns to the Eastward of Connecticut River, which inadvertantly by Influence of Designing men, have lately been brought into Union with the State of Vermont;—which in my opinion is Now entirely Desolved. I Engaged Col. Bartlet to use my Influence at this Assembly, for that Purpose. The Governor's Letter to your Honour, Together with what Squire Allen, the Bearer will communicate, will set this matter in its True Light.

The Union I ever view'd to be Incompatible with the Right of New Hampshire, and have Punctually Discharged my obligation to Col. Bartlet, for its Dissolution; and that worthy Gentleman on his part assured me, that he had no directions from the Government of New Hampshire, to extend their claims to the westward of Connecticut River, to interfere with the State of Vermont; and I hope that the Government of New Hampshire will excuse the Imbicility of Vermont, in the matter of the union. I apprehend Col. Payne* had a principal Influence in it, and it was with Difficulty that the Assembly got rid of him.

I am appointed by this Assembly to act as Agent for the State of Vermont, at Congress, where I shall shortly repare, and Defend that New Hampshire will Acceede to the Independency of the State of Vermont, as the late Obstacles are honorably removed.

I am with Due respect
Sir, your very Humble Serv<sup>t</sup>

Honble Meshech Wear, Esqr.

*Col. Elisha Payne came from Connecticut, and was a proprietor and early settler, 1773-4, in Cardigan, now Orange. He was a friend of Dr. Wheelock, and from 1774 to 1801 was a trustee of the college, and in 1779 and 1780 was treasurer. A man of strong mind, of great decision and energy, he early took a leading part in the movement in which the towns east of Connecticut river were engaged. At the October session of the Vermont assembly, 1778, he was a representative from Cardigan. In 1781 he was elected Lieutenant-Governor of Vermont. He was delegate to the convention which met in Charlestown, Jan. 16, 1781, and afterwards, at Cornish, one of the committee to make a report relating to towns west of what was called the "Mason Patent," with a view to union with Vermont. In 1781 he represented Lebanon in the Vermont assembly. He became chief-justice of the supreme court of Vermont, and in 1782 a delegate to congress. In December, 1781, he was a major-general of the militia of the state, and authorized to call them out to repel New Hampshire forces "force by force." He left many valuable papers, which it is said went into the hands, first, of a grandson, Col. Elisha Payne Jewitt, of Montpelier, and afterwards were in possession of the late Henry Stevens.—ED.

Letter from the Convention at Windsor, signed by Joseph Marsh, Chairman, to Henry Laurens, President of Congress.

Windsor, on the New Hampshire Grants, October 23, A D 1778.

Sir

May it please your Excellency:

The Assembly of the State of Vermont had a report laid before them on the 13th Instant, signed by Col: Ethan Allen, purporting that Congress had received sundry matters of information or complaint relative to the proceedings of the Nw Hampshire Grants, and which they had determined to take into consideration; but at his solicitation were deferred, till opportunity might be had to communicate the intelligence to the people on those Grants;-respecting which we beg leave in justice to our cause to remark that Col. Allen nor any other person (that we know of) has as yet been authorized by the people on those Grants to appear in their behalf at Congress, (except those persons who preferred a petition which was dismissed last year) & which measure they had omitted from an apprehension that Congress were desirous not to be troubled with the matter at present. Nor do we by this mean any thing further, than to inform them that, on the above mentioned representation, and copies of letters from the Honble the President of the Council of New Hampshire to their members at Congress, and to Governor Chittenden, the Assembly of Vermont in a Committee of the whole agreed on the enclosed out-lines of a plan for settling all matters of controversy with New Hampshire.

We apprehend we can, and are now in persuit of measures to make it evident to impartial judges, that the New Hampshire Grants on both sides of Connecticut River, are on the same footing, and ought never to be divided:—On that principle the Committee above mentioned proposed and the Assembly agreed to the enclosed plan as having in their opinion the most effectual tendency to support a union of the two sides of the River, and lay a foundation for an amicable settlement with the State of New Hampshire, so that Congress may not have occasion to interpose in the matter. Yet an apprehension arising in the minds of [P. 94.] sundry Members of Assembly that such an union (though in its nature reasonable and just) would, through the influence of ex parte representations, occasion Congress to come to such resolutions as might prevent the establishment of a State on said Grants, has been the occasion of different sentiments with respect to measures proper in the present juncture, and which have arisen to such a pitch as to prevent a persuit of the proposed plan in the channel pointed out by Assembly, by a Protest and withdraw of near one half the members who composed that Body. The protesting members notwithstanding, desirous that the same plan might be pursued, formed a volentary Convention who are in persuit of measures, whereby the whole of the towns on said grants may unite in such proposals to New Hampshire as we flatter ourselves will put an end to all disputes with that State.

An apprehension that measures will be attempted to procure an acknowledgment at Congress of a new State containing only that part of the grants which lie west of Connecticut River, (which we conceive will be very disagreeable to a majority of the inhabitants on said grants) is the occasion of our transmitting this by Col. Wheelock, whom we have also desired to inform your Excellency or Congress more fully of the matter, than the limits of this letter will admit, and request that nothing may be done at Congress which shall prevent the good effects of the measures now taking for an happy settlement with the State of New Hampshire.

I am, Sir, in behalf of said Convention, with great deference and respect,

Your Excellency's most obedient and most Humble Servant,

Joseph Marsh,* Chairman.

His Excellency
Henry Laurens, Esq.,
President of Congress.

[P. 95.] To the Honorable Council and General Assembly of the State of New Hampshire, now siting at Exeter in said State.

The first movement to form the State of Vermont was from the west side of the Green Mountain,—in consequence of which several Committees was sent to the then Counties of Cumberland and Gloucester to see if the People there would unite with the People on the west side of the mountain to make one Body Politick—About two years ago Col. John Wheelock,* being apprised of that movement went to Mason, a descendant of Capt. John Mason, famous in early Indian wars. She was a sister of the Hon. Jeremiah Mason, the distinguished jurist both of New Hampshire and Massachusetts. Col. Marsh was active in revolutionary services, was the father of the late Hon. Charles Marsh, of Woodstock, Vt., and grandfather of President James Marsh, of Vermont University, Dr. Leonard Marsh, of Burlington, Lyndon A. Marsh, Esq., of Woodstock, and the Hon. George P. Marsh, who still lives, eminent for scholarship both in America and Europe. Col. Marsh died Feb. 9, 1811, aged 85. (See a biographical sketch in Vol. 1, Governor and Council, Ver., pp. 235-238.)—ED.

*Col. John Wheelock, son of Dr. Eleazer Wheelock, president of Dartmouth college, was born at Lebanon, Ct., Jan. 28, 1754, graduated at Dartmouth college, 1771, and was tutor in 1772-4. He was a member from Hanover of the fourth provincial congress in Exeter, May, 1775. In the spring of 1777 was commissioned as major of a New York regiment, and in November, the same year, as lieutenant-colonel of Bedel's regiment, New Hampshire. He probably was the first openly to propose the union of western New Hampshire with Vermont. In the Town of Norwich where one of sd Committees were and Proposed to them for a number of Towns on the East side of the River to unite with those towns on the west of sd [P. 96.] River; but was answered by said Committee that they were not acquainted with the situation of New Hampshire, Therefore they should do nothing about it. Last March after the Governor and Council was Declared Chosen and the Assembly formed agreeable to the Constitution of sd State, there came in a Committee from the East side of the River sd to be chosen by a Convention of Committees, whereof Mr. Esterbrooks was chairman, and moved in behalf of the New Hampshire Grants East of sa River (as they were pleased to stile it) for a union with the State of Vermont; -in consequence of which a Committee was chosen from Both Houses to confer with said Committee and make Report of their opinion thereon to the House: the Committee after all the Debate thereon Reported to the House as their opinion, not to connect with said Committee in no way or manner Whatsoever. The House after mature Deliberation Voted to accept of sd Report; which Gave such Dissatisfaction to Several of the members of the Council and Assembly that Lived near Connecticut River, that they declared, if Them People (meaning those on the East side of the River) were to be intirely excluded from connecting with sd State, they would withdraw from the then State of Vermont and connect with them People and form a New Then after Long and Tegious Debates the whole was Refered to the People at learge, and to be brought before the Assembly again at their Next Session in June. [P. 97.] Col. Payne and others of that Committee Then Publickly Declared that they had conversed with a Number of the Leading Members of the Assembly of N. Hampshire from the Eastern Part of the State, who had no objection to their joining with the State of Vermont; but some members in the western part of sd State was opposed to it, but gave it as their opinions that New Hampshire as a State would make no Difficulty about it; this Last Idea was carried to the People, and under this Mistake of the matter a Majority of the Towns in the State Voted for the union, which the General assembly could do no otherwise than confirm, they being previously instructed so by their constituents: The Assembly then Proseeded to business, amongst which there was an order given for Each Town in the State that see fit to choose a Justice of the Peace, and several Temperary Acts were made, all to stand, untill the rising of the next Assembly.

Sum Time in September, Col. Ethan Allen was appointed to wait on Congress to see how the Political State of the State of Vermont was viewed by Congress; who, after the Assembly was formed in October last, Reported to the House, that the Members of Congress was unanimously opposed to the union of the sixteen Towns, otherwise they had none of them any objection to the State of Vermont being a State, (the New York members only excepted) At the session in October last several members from the East side of the River Took their seats in consequence of the [P. 98.] union before mentioned. Then the Assembly proseeded to business; But there appeared such Divisions and Debates Relative to the union that for about thirteen Days there was very little Business done; at which Time three votes were Passed which gave rise to a Desent's being brought in to the House the next day signed by Twenty seven members* of the Council and Assembly (both the Votes & Desent I have Deliver'd to the Hon'bi Council) The General Assembly then Proseeded to the Business of the State and Revived sum old acts and made sum new, amongst which they ordered one Commission to be made for the Justices of each County, and all the names of the Justices in the County of Cumberland to be put in the Commissions for that County & in like manner the County of Bennington. I was credably informed by several worthy Members of the Council and Assembly that the second vote above referred to in its Original was Passed as follows, (viz.) Whether the Towns East of the River included in the Union with this State shall be annexed to the County of Cumberland, Past in the Negative. By several flying Reports was informed that after the above mentioned Twenty seven members with Drew they formed a Convention, chose a Chairman & Clerk, and then Proposed to give an Invitation to all the Towns in the Grants to join them and form a New State by the name of New Connecticut; they then adjourned their Convention to sum time the Next week to be held at Lebanon; there was about Eleven Towns on [P. 99.] the west side of the River joined them in this Convention.

Thus, Gentlemen, I have given a short State of the matter, which I do Certify upon Honour is the Truth according to the Best of my Memory.

Your letter of the 23<sup>d</sup> Ulto was delivered me by Mr. Allen, and hath been laid before the Gen¹ Assembly of this State, who have directed me to observe, that the Resolution of the Representatives of your People which you mention, viz. "That no additional exercise of jurisdictional authority be had (by this State) east of Connecticutt River for the "time being," is not an explicit determination to break off all connection as a distinct political Body with the Towns East of Connecticutt River; but is so ambiguously expressed as to show nothing of your future intentions on the subject. However, as you refer us to Mr. Allen, the Bearer, for *IRA ALLEN, Esq., was the youngest brother of Gen. Ethan Allen, and as much distinguished for diplomacy and ability with his pen as the general was for daring and victory with his sword. Ira was the youngest son of Joseph Allen, of Connecticut, born at Cornwall, Ct., Apr. 27, 1751. He came to Vermont in 1771, then twenty years of age, and his whole life was identified, as was his brother Ethan's, with the early history of that state. He married Jerusha, daughter of Gen. Robert Enos, and had three children, viz., Zimri, Ira H., and Maria Juliet. He died at Philadelphia, Jan. 7, 1814, in the sixty-second year of his age. (See Vt. Hist. Mag., vol. I, pp. 770-776, Gov. and Coun. Rec., vol. I, pp. 112-115.)—ED.

"further satisfaction in the premises," that Gentleman has, with openness and candour informed us that some particular circumstances in your affairs had hindered a more particular and Explicit declaration on the subject; yet assured us, that he had no doubt but a considerable majority of your People, would totally reject any further connection with the people East of Connecticut River as a Political Body: On which state of the matter we shall depend, as that only can hinder dificulties arising between the State of New Hamp<sup>2</sup> and the People settled on the New Hampshire Grants (so called) west of Conn<sup>4</sup> River.

Nevertheless as you have been so full & explicit in your own sentiments, I trust the Body of your people will be of the same opinion, as I am sure every sensible person will, notwithstanding the blind designs of some uneasy and never to be contented persons, whose views must certainly be more detrimental to you than they possibly can be to New Hampshire; whatever may be determined by Congress relative to the acknowledgment of your Independency will be freely acquiesced in by New Hampshire.

Col<sup>o</sup> Ethan Allen.

Note.

About this time, or early in December, a pamphlet appeared, called a Public Defence, &c., which evidently had a great influence on the people in the border towns, and which greatly controlled their future action. The editor obtained a copy of this defence from the library of the Massachusetts Historical Society in Boston, as follows:

[Title-page.]

A Public Defence of the right of the New-Hampshire Grants (so called) on both Sides Connecticut-River, to associate together, and form themselves into an Independent State.

Containing Remarks on sundry paragraphs of Letters from the president of the Council of New-Hampshire, to his Excellency Governor Chittenden, and the New-Hampshire Delegates at Congress.

A Defence of the New-Hampshire Grants, &c.

[Note.—Heretofore articles of considerable length, of this description, have been set up in small type; but for the sake of more ease and comfort in reading, the editor has been advised to use a larger type, as follows:]

Pursuant to a Resolve of the General Assembly of the State of Vermont passed October, 20th, 1778, "that a declaration be drawn up, setting forth the political state of the New-Hampshire Grants (so called) on both sides of Connecticut River, &c." the major part of their Committee, appointed for that purpose, have agreed to present the following facts and observations, together with two several letters from the President of the Council of New Hampshire, and a report of Col. Ethan Allen, with some remarks on them

A Grant was made by the Council of Plymouth March 4th 1628-9, of the Colony of the Massachusetts-Bay; the Northern Line of which was "from three miles northward of any and every part of Merrimack River" to extend west indefinitely. A Grant was afterwards made (in the same year) to John Mason of London, Esq; containing a tract of land between Merrimack and Piscataqua rivers, sixty miles up each river, and these to be bounded by a line across from river to river. This Grant (although expressed in a loose manner) when compared with the Massachusetts Grant, is limited with the greatest precision, southerly and westerly by a line three miles northward of any and every part of Merrimack River, sixty miles up the river—and northerly by a line drawn from the place where the said sixty miles are finished to Piscataqua River, sixty miles distant from the mouth of it.* On this Mason tract sundry towns were formed and considerably settled. And the Inhabitants in the year 1679, petitioned King Charles the 2<sup>d</sup> that they might be erected into a separate Government by the name of New-Hampshire; in compliance with which request a commission was made out to John Cutts Esq; whereby a President and Council were established for ruling and governing said New Hampshire which was in said commission bounded as follows viz. "lying and extending from three miles northward of Merrimack River or any part thereof unto the province of Main." † And in the same commission is this further clause viz. "And it appearing unto us that the ancestors of Robert Mason, Esq; obtained Grants from our Great Council of Plymouth for the tract of land * If the Massachusetts North line begins three miles north of Merrimack, and continues three miles distant from it to three miles morth of the fork or crotch where Merrimack and Pemegawasset rivers meet, and thence extends due west, as their Charter points out, they will cover considerable part of the Grants now in question. A line drawn due west from the place where those rivers meet will intersect Connecticut river about fifteen miles north of Charleston (No. 4) Meeting house, and thence continued across the New Hampshire Grants will come near to Fort Ann on the head of Wood Creek (as these places are delineated on the Maps) which line will include upwards of fifty of the towns on said Grants within the limits of the Massachusetts Charter. Although there was a determination of the King in Council a D 1739 that the North line of the Massachusetts should run west from Patucket falls it seems that they did not acquiesce in the determination; as they refused to join New Hampshire in a survey conformably thereto.

aforesaid, and were at great expense upon the same &c." By which it clearly appears that President Cutts' commission was intended to extend no farther than the western extent of the Mason claim or the Mason line (so called)and jurisdiction was exercised agreeable thereto with little variation, untill a commission was granted to Benning Wentworth Esq; to preside as Governor of New-Hampshire; by which commission his jurisdiction was extended and exercised over the whole of the Grants, on both sides of Connecticut River; or at least he was empowered to extend jurisdiction to the limits of other Governments, grant lands &c. And by virtue of that general clause in his commission, and the determination of the King in Council A. D. 1739,* he did actually extend jurisdiction, and granted the most of the vacant lands as far westward as to the line between Massachusetts and New-York. But New-York not discouraged from endeavoring to extend jurisdiction eastward, by two unsuccessful struggles first with Connecticut, and afterwards with the Massachusetts-Bay, now attempt to effect it against the New-Hampshire commission and the beforementioned determination of the King in council. And here we find them under peculiar advantage to what they were in their former endeavors to encroach on the jurisdiction of the other Governments. In those the people who owned the soil were interested in the jurisdiction: but here the Grantees of the lands had no concern with the jurisdic-That prerogative was retained solely in the King's hand, and exercised by whatever servant the royal mandate should point out. Neither the people in New-Hampshire or New-York had much concern in the exercise of jurisdiction. In New-Hampshire especially the royal prerogative was so extensive and the privileges of the people so small, that their Assembly declined assisting the Governor in any way whatever for the establishment of the line. And accordingly under the influence of sundry false declarations in favor of New York, a decree was passed by the King in Council A. D. 1764, that the western bank of Connecticut River should be the boundary between New-York and New-Hampshire: and the Grantees and Inhabitants living on those lands, not being in capacity to defend against the unreasonable claim and pursuit of New-York in endeavoring

In this situation of affairs, a considerable part of the people in the southwesterly part of the Grants have utterly refused submission to the jurisdiction of New-York, from the time that said line was established as aforesaid, by reason that they not only claimed the jurisdiction but the right of soil also; which was before granted to the settlers and others by the Governor of New Hampshire. All which is more fully set forth in sundry pamphlets, wrote and published by Col. Ethan Allen, relative to the New-York claim. On other parts of the Grants, that were by said decree subjected to the jurisdiction of New-York, the people thro' fear of losing their interests and being turned out of possession of their all, in some measure submitted. And at exorbitant prices obtained regrants of their lands from the Governor of New-York—which he presumed to make out, notwithstanding the express inhibition of the King.

In this situation the people on the Grants continued, untill the late glorious revolution. And upon the declaration of Independence the people on the Grants on both sides of Connecticut River, seeing the kind hand of providence in releasing them thereby from the galling yoke of bondage under which they had been held, began now to look out for themselves, and assert their natural rights and privileges in common with their brethren in the American States.

And as the circumstances of the Grants on the two sides of the river were (on account of the jurisdictional line settled in 1764) circumstantially different, in respect to their connections with New-York and New-Hampshire, the Grants on the west side were fully determined (as they imagined by the proceedings of the Conventions and Assembly of the State of New-York that they had little or nothing better to expect from the new mode of government of that State than they had from the former) not to connect with them; but to form themselves into a distinct State with the whole of the Grants, so soon as time and circumstances would admit: and accordingly overtures were made by a Convention of the Grants on the west side to those on the east side of the river as early as September 1776. But those towns on the east side having transacted some affairs with New-Hampshire from the time that hostilities were first committed by Britain to the time of Independence relative to the war &c—and by reason of some disputes then subsisting between New-Hampshire and them, they were not prepared to enter into a confederacy with the people on the west side of the river, untill the latter had formed their plan of Government.

But in pursuit of the original object (viz. to be all united together in one political body, in case they could not agree to connect with New-Hampshire) a considerable number of towns on the Grants on the east side of the [River], in the month of March 1778, by a Committee appointed for that purpose, proposed to the Assembly of the Grants on the west side, articles of union and confederation; which proposals were accordingly by order of said Assembly laid before the towns on the west side, for their consideration and approbation. And at the Assembly held at Bennington in the month of June last, said towns on the east side of the river were received into union and confederacy with those on the west side, with equal rights and privileges, by a solemn act and resolve of said Assembly; and leave for other towns on the Grants east of the River to join; by virtue of which some others have since united. And they have since acted together as a distinct State, untill an unhappy dispute arose in the Assembly at their sessions in October last, relative to the manner of defending the State against the claim of New-Hampshire to the Grants on the east side of the river included in said union; occasioned by the following letters and report which were then laid before the Assembly, viz.

1. A copy of a letter from President Weare to Governor Chittenden.

"Sir.

"Although I have had information that the people settled on the New-Hampshire grants (so called) west of Connecticut River, had formed a plan for their future Government, and elected you their first Magistrate; yet as they have not been admitted into the confederacy of the United States as a separate distinct body, I have omitted to address you in your magistratical stile, and not out of disrespect to you or the people over whom you preside; which in these circumstances I doubt not your candor will excuse, and that you will attend to the important subject of this address.

"A paper has been laid before the General Assembly attested by Thomas Chandler jun as Secretary of the State of Vermont, dated June 11th 1778, purporting a Resolution of the General Assembly of the State of Vermont, to receive into union with said State sixteen Towns on the east side of Connecticut River, and leave or rather an invitation to any towns contiguous to those sixteen to enter into the same union.

"On which I am directed to represent to you, and to desire it may be laid before the Representatives of your people, the intimation in said Resolve, that the said sixteen towns 'are not connected with any State with respect to their internal police,' is an idle phantom, a mere chimera without the least shadow of reason for its support.

"The town of Boston in the Massachusetts, or Hartford in Connecticut (if disposed) might as rationally evince their being unconnected with their respective States, as those sixteen towns their not being connected with New-Hampshire.

"Were not those towns settled and cultivated under the grant of the Governor of New Hampshire? Are they not within the lines thereof as settled by the King of Great Britain prior to the present Aera? Is there any ascertaining the boundaries between any of the United States of America but by the lines formerly established by the authority of Great Britain? I am sure there is not. Did not the most of those towns send Delegates to the Convention of this State in the year 1775? Have they not from the commencement of the present war applied to the State of New-Hampshire for assistance and protection? It is well known they didand that New Hampshire at their own expense hath supplied them with arms, ammunition &c. to a very great amount, as well as paid soldiers for their particular defence, and all at their request as members of this State—Whence then could this new doctrine, that they were not connected with us, originate? I earnestly desire that this matter may be seriously attended to, and I am persuaded the tendency thereof will be to anarchy and confusion.

"When I consider the circumstances of the people west of Connecticut River, the difficulties they encountered in their first settlement, their late endeavors to organize government among themselves, and the uncertainty of their being admitted as a separate State into the confederacy of the United States, I am astonished that they should supply their enemies with arguments against them by their connecting themselves with people whose circumstances are wholly different from their own, and who are actually members of the State of New-Hampshire—A considerable number of Inhabitants of those sixteen towns (I am well informed) are entirely averse to a dis-union with the State of New-Hampshire, and are about to apply to this State for protection; indeed some have already applied. And are not the people in this State under every obligation civil and sacred to grant their brethren the needed defence?

"I beseech you, sir, for the sake of the people you preside over; and the said people for the sake of their future peace and tranquility, to relinquish every connection as a political body with the towns on the east side of Connecticut River, who are members of the State of New-Hampshire, entitled to the same privileges as the other people of said State, from which there has never been any attempt to restrict them.

"I am sir with due respect
Your obedient humble servant

Meshech Weare { President of the Council of the State of New-Hampshire.

"Exeter in the State of New-Hampshire, Aug. 22<sup>d</sup>, 1778. Honorable Thomas Chittenden, Esq."

2. A Copy of a Letter from President Weare to the New Hampshire Delegates at Congress; which is as follows, viz.

"Gentlemen,

"By order of the Council and Assembly of this State, I am to inform you that the pretended State of Vermont, not content with the limits of the New Hampshire Grants (so called) on the western side of Connecticut River, have extended their pretended jurisdiction over the River, and taken into union (as they phrase it) sixteen towns on the east side of Connecticut River, part of this State, and who can have no more pretence for their defection than any other towns in this State, the circumstances of which you are well acquainted with, and great pains are taken to persuade other towns to follow their example.

"By the best information I have from that country, nearly one half of the people in the revolted towns are averse to the proceedings of the majority, who threaten to confiscate their estates if they do not join with them,* and I am very much afraid that the affair will end in the shedding of blood Justices of the peace have been appointed and sworn into Office in those towns, under the pretended authority of said Vermont; and persons sent to represent them there-I must not omit to let you know that Col. Timothy Bedel. who has received great sums of money from Congress or their Generals, under pretence of keeping some companies last winter, and now a Regiment for the defence of that northern frontier, or to be in readiness for marching into Canada (though very little service has been done as I am informed) by influence of the money and his command, has occasioned a great share in the disorders in those towns: 'tis wished by the more sober solid people in that quarter, he could be removed to some other command, if he must be kept in pay and employed.

"I am directed to desire you on the receipt of this, to advise with some of the Members of Congress on this affair, and proceed as you may judge expedient, after advising as aforesaid to endeavor to obtain aid of Congress, if you think they can with propriety take up the matter—Indeed unless Congress interfere (whose admonitions I believe will be obeyed) I know not what consequences will follow: it is very probable the sword will decide it; as the minority in those towns are claiming protection from this State; and they think themselves bound by every tie to afford it; and you know that every condescending measure has been used from the beginning of the schism, and rejected. I doubt not your application and efforts in this matter, which will if effectual exceedingly serve the State, and probably prevent numberless calamities to the people.

"I am with great respect and esteem, Gentlemen, Your most obedient humble servant

M. Weare, President of the Council of New-Hampshire.
"To the honorable Josiah Bartlett, and John Wentworth jun. Esqrs, Member of Congress. Philadelphia."

- A Report of Col. Ethan Allen, which is as follows, viz.
- "To his Excellency the Governor, the honorable the Council, and to the Representatives of the freemen of the State of Vermont in General Assembly met.

"Gentlemen,

"The Subscriber hereto begs leave to make the following report, viz. By the desire of his Excellency, and at the request of several of the Members of the honorable the Council to me made in Sept. last, I have taken a journey to Philadelphia, in order to gain knowledge how the political situation of the State of Vermont stood in the view of Congress, which I here exhibit. On the 16th day of September last, I am informed by Members of Congress, that the Delegates from the State of New Hampshire exhibited to Congress a remonstrance (which they had previously received from the Council and Assembly of said State) against the proceedings of the State of Vermont, with respect to their taking into union a number of towns on the east side of Connecticut-River, and in their inviting other towns to revolt from New Hampshire, a copy of which I herewith exhibit; a matter which (they alledge) was incompatible with the right of New-Hampshire, and an infringement on the confederacy of the United States of America, and therefore desired the Congress to take the matter under consideration, and grant some order thereon to prevent the effusion of blood, and the confusion and disorders which would otherwise inevitably ensue.

the State of Vermont, which after some alterations were admitted, and it was agreed that the same together with the remonstrance from the State of New-Hampshire, should be taken under consideration on the afternoon of the 18th, by a Committee of the whole house at which time it was moved to be brought forward, but urgent business occasioned its being deferred to the 19th, at which time I arrived at Philadelphia, and being immediately informed of the business by some of the members of Congress, I used my influence against the matter its being hastily determined ex parte, and particularly objected to the complaints from the State of New-Hampshire and New-York, their being both considered at the same time, alledging that they were of very different nature. And in consequence of this, together with my earnest request and application, I obtained assurance that the matter should not be brought to a decision before I could have an opportunity to lay the matter before this people; as I had previously let the members of Congress know. that the Assembly of this State was to sit at this time; and I engaged to transmit the proceedings of this Assembly to Congress as soon as they transpired, at their request.

The alligations thrown in by New-York received a most severe shock on the perusal of my late pamphlet in answer to his Excellency Governor Clinton's proclamation dated in February last, containing certain overtures to the inhabitants of this State; as well as from my large treatise on the nature and merit of the New-York claim, and their treatment to the inhabitants of this now State of Vermont. fine, the New-York complaints will never prove of sufficient. force in Congress to prevent the establishment of this State. But from what I have heard and seen of the disapprobation at Congress of the union with sundry towns east of Connecticut River, I am sufficiently authorized to offer it as my opinion, that except this State recede from such union* immediately, the whole power of the Confederacy* of the United States of America will join to annihilate the State of Vermont,* and to vindicate the right of New-Hampshire, and to maintain inviolate the articles of Confederation, which guarantee to each State their privileges and immunities.

Thus, Gentlemen, I have given you a short representation of the political situation of this State, as it now stands in the General Congress of the United States of America; upon which I stake my honor.

ETHAN ALLEN."

The Col. in addition to his written report, publickly declared before a Committee of both houses, when the matters were under consideration, that the President of Congress in private conversation with him when at Philadelphia told him, that in case the union with those towns on the east side of the river was dissolved, he had no objection to the Grants on the west side being a State. And the following question being put to him, in the same public manner by one of the members of the Assembly viz. "Did not the New-Hampshire Delegates at Congress when you was at Philadelphia agree with you, that in case you would get the union with the towns on the east side of the river dissolved, they would assist you in disputing New York?" To which he answered "Yes they did upon honor."

The foregoing letters report &c. were all taken into consideration by a Committee of Governor Council and Assembly; on which the following proposals were reported to the Assembly, and by them approved, viz

"I. That a declaration be drawn up, setting forth the political state of the Grants on both sides of Connecticut River, from the time of their being granted—viz. that the Grants were taken as being under jurisdiction of the government of New-Hampshire; where the Grantees expected to have remained—that the King of Great Britain under the influence of false and ex parte representation, passed a decree in Council, A. D. 1764, that part of the Grants should be under the control of the government of New-York—that said decree was in its nature void from the beginning, on account of the undue influence under which it was obtained: and that the whole of said Grants were consequently of right, under the same jurisdiction as before said decree took place-but the Governor of New-Hampshire not exercising jurisdiction over those west of the river, they remained part under the jurisdiction of the government of New-York, but the greater part in opposition thereto, till near the time of the declaration of independence of the United States, by which the whole of the Grants become unconnected with any State; and had an opportunity to assert and enter on measures to support their just rights, and were at liberty to unite together, or with any other State which might agree to receive them-in this situation the inhabitants on the Grants west of the River (already determined by the cruel treatment they received from New York, not to be under the control of that State) entered on measures for establishing government among themselves; and a considerable number of towns on the Grants east of the River, after various ineffectual endeavors to unite with New-Hampshire, on such principles as they esteemed just and equitable, united with the Grants west of the River on the plan of Government which they had adopted; and with them have solemnly covenanted to support each other in said Government-and as by their situation and agreement in manners, habits, &c. they conceive they are called upon, and warranted to set up and maintain civil Government in a distinct State; and as those Grants ought not to be divided between New-York and New-Hampshire, or any other way, merely to serve interested views; they are unanimously determined, in every prudent and lawful way, to maintain and support entire, the State as it now stands.

"2. That proposals be made to New-Hampshire; that those towns only which lie west of the Mason claim, and which shall accede to a union with this State, agreeable to a resolve of Assembly at their Sessions at Bennington the eleventh day of June last, be admitted to a union with this State—And in case New Hampshire shall not agree thereto, or to some line that shall be agreed on as an equivalent, that they agree to a submission of all matters of complaint and dispute in the premises, to Congress for a decision; the Grants being allowed equal privileges as the State of New-Hampshire in supporting their cause—or that they submit the matter to any court, that may be agreed on, and constituted by the parties, for a decision; saving to themselves in the trial, all right privilege and advantage which they or might have, by any former grant, jurisdiction, power or privilege, on account of any former situation or connection with any Province or State heretofore had; and notwithstanding any subsequent transactions.

In observing upon said letters &c, will be shown the right of the whole of the Grants to unite and confederate together as before related.

The State of the Massachusetts notwithstanding their undoubted right by charter to a considerable part of those Grants, by their neglect to challenge them as part of that State since the revolution, have tacitly relinquished that right to the people who inhabit them, and not to New-York and New-Hampshire, or either of them; and the right of organizing government among themselves must of course be acknowledged as being vested in the inhabitants until the Massachusetts assert and vindicate their claim; which may be done on much more rational principles than those of New-York or New-Hampshire; and consequently those States must be forever debarred from jurisdiction over those towns, were the matter to be rested on this single point.

As to New-Hampshire; all their right may justly be supposed to be comprised in the two letters from President Weare before recited, as they are the result of the wisdom of the Council and Assembly of that State, after near three years dispute on the subject. But before we proceed to take notice of those letters, we would observe that the people in New-Hampshire never were formed into a political body, until the commission to President Cutts as before mentioned. Under which form of Government they continued (with very small variations) until the commission to Benning Wentworth, Esq.; anno 1740. After which a commission was made out to John Wentworth, Esq; who continued in the exercise of his government until the present revolution.

These commissions are all the Grants or Charters (if they may be so called) which either gave jurisdiction or combined the people together, and whereby they become connected in any way or manner whatsoever. These two last mentioned commissions were made out merely at the will and pleasure of the Crown, and constructed as sovereignty saw fit. By these alone the inhabitants on the Grants were connected with the people within the Mason claim. These were imposed on the people without their previous knowledge or consent, and were continued for such time and liable to such alterations at all times and in such way and manner as the King should see cause, both as to extent of jurisdiction and mode of government. By these commissions the people were subjected without power of chusing or refusing. And the whole of the Grants, by virtue thereof only, remained connected with the people settled on the Mason claim, until the regal power was exercised in an arbitrary manner in 1764, by passing an order or decree in privy council, that the western bank of Connecticut River should be the line or boundary between New-York and New-Hampshire as before mentioned.

This stretch of arbitrary power (obtained by undue influence) gave rise to and has been the occasion of the continuance of all the political disputes and troubles that have subsisted in this part of the country ever since. And the strenuous efforts of New-York and New-Hampshire to establish and maintain that unjust and arbitrary line are the only cause of the present dispute, which must be decided,* it seems (if we believe New-Hampshire) by the point of the sword.* For the people on the Grants, especially on each side of the river, on account of their situation and other circumstances, are utterly averse from being divided.

But to return to those royal mandates—We find that unbounded prerogative is not satisfied with this act in 1764; but has since ('tis said) made great part of the Grants with other territories a distinct province;† but this was too late done to take effect.

Now we candidly ask the the [apparent repetition of "the"—B. P. S.] question, which of those five lines (before mentioned) it is that New-Hampshire mean when they say, "Are they not within the lines thereof as settled by the King of Great Britain in Council prior to the present Aera?

Certainly it cannot be the first, for that takes off considerable part of the Grants to the Massachusetts; nor the second for there is no pretence that the Mason line includes them; nor the third, for that includes all the Grants; and that New-Hampshire, has been utterly averse to, notwithstanding they have been repeatedly requested thereto. Neither may we suppose it to be the last; because that will not answer their purpose. It must then be the line of 1764. But by what rule of right or reason they can make their choice, is beyond our perception to determine—for certainly if they would consider those acts of the King in the nature of grants, the former must have the presidence; but if in the nature of wills, then the line described in Governor Skeen's commission takes place; as that was the last will and testament which George the third made relative to jurisdiction over these territories before his death, unless the Grants were included within the province of Canada, as extended by the Quebec bill, as some have imagined—But, thanks to Heaven, the legatees have never accepted the legacy since the death of the testator. Nor do they mean ever to accept either the will in 1764 or the last. Nor have either of those wills been yet proved or approved, or ever can be, on account of the insanity of the testator.

However, as it appears evident that the line pointed out in the decree of 1764, is the line they mean to maintain, as best suiting their designs (viz.) for each one to have so much and no more than what they can manage to their purpose, and as this line is their capital bulwark and main strength, we will further consider the force of it.

It was obtained, in the first place, by the intercession of the government of New-York, by false representations, that it was the desire of the people living on the lands, to be annexed to New-York—that it would greatly commode them in trade and commerce &c. also by undue influence by that Province, and some principal men in New-Hampshire. And the poor Inhabitants (who alone must suffer the evil consequences) were forsaken of New-Hampshire, and consequently under no circumstances to make any defence, or even to be known in court, of necessity fell a sacrifice. But the King being thus deceived the decree is in its nature void*—much less have the parties right to take advantage thereby of their own wrong, to subjugate the Grants to their sinister designs and purposes: Nay, it is void as to all parties.† Therefore the jurisdiction of New-Hampshire (so long as there was any under the Crown) ought to have taken place as before said decree in 1764 passed.

Again. If the State of New-Hampshire had any right to exercise jurisdiction over the Grants, they have (by refusing or neglecting to exercise it over the whole) forfeited their right to any and every part; for by the right or authority they may have heretofore had to exercise jurisdiction over the whole, they cannot exercise it over a part only; as that would be a different exercise from what they would in that case be empowered to.

Supposing, for argument sake, that the decree, in the time of it, was ever so legal and binding on the people; yet New-Hampshire, under its present circumstances, can claim nothing by it; because that power which the government had by virtue of his commission (when the commission became null and void) never averted to or became vested in the people by virtue of the commission, any more than though it never had been; and consequently New-Hampshire can have no right to exercise government over the Grants, on account of the latter having been connected with the former in the Governors commission, any more than though they never had been thus connected. the King's authority was thrown off and rejected by the declaration of Independence of the United States, the royal commission became a mere nullity, and was to the people as though it never had been, for it contained nothing more than a positive command to the Magistrate therein named to govern, and a requisition or command to the people to Nothing was contained in it reciprocal between the King and people. Nothing that the people could claim as a grant or benefit, not even so much as the continuance of the commission itself: but it rested wholly at the pleasure of the crown. Now as the commission altogether ascertained the extent as well as power of jurisdiction, when the commission was once removed out of the way, there were no more any limits of jurisdiction left than there was power of exercising it.* Consequently there never having been any confederacy of the people,* either by themselves or by any grant or charter from the crown or otherwise, whereby they ever were incorporated and united in a political body, whenever that compulsive power (which alone held them together) ceased, they became unconnected:* and so will remain until by their own act they unite and confederate together,* as much as the thirteen United States were before they entered into a confederacy. Nay the people never were at liberty to unite together or not unite until that despotic power which alone held them together, was thrown off; which was done by the declaration of Independence.*

And as New-Hampshire have not as yet settled any permanent plan of government, or confederated together any other way than by a considerable part of the towns (and those principally in the old Mason claim) acting together only for the purposes of carrying on the war, and in the meantime to guard against criminal offences, and have therefore never as yet ascertained what and where New Hampshire is or shall be; they are rather too early in making their challenges of jurisdiction, and threatening war and devastation upon those towns who have dared to assert their rights, and who have never acted with them since Independence took place, (but have remonstrated against their proceedings from the first setting up government in the manner they have done) except as to the affairs of the war merely; which will be more particularly considered hereafter.

One thing more may be proper in this place to consider, viz. What State the people on the Grants were in when they were released from the government of Britain.

And first. Did they revert to a State of nature?*

We answer. Not wholly so.* For so sure as the coercive power of the King was rejected and ceased to operate, the people made a stand at the first legal stage,* viz. their town incorporations,* which they received from the King as little grants or charters of privileges by which they were united in little incorporated bodies with certain powers and privileges which were not held at the pleasure of the King* (as those commissions were) but were perpetual.* These the people by universal consent held sacred; and so long as they hold those grants, so long do they hold themselves subjects of government according to them: and as such must and do they act, and transact all their political affairs. Hence it is that the major part of one of those towns have a right to control the minor part.* These are all the grants the people ever had from the King whereby they become united together and could hold against the King &c. Consequently they will remain so many distinct corporations until they agree to unite in one aggregate body. But to this doctrine there has been an objection raised by some, viz. That if the case is as here represented, every of those towns (if they please) may be a State by itself &c. To which we answer. Supposing the consequence is just it will not destroy the proposition; and the objection might with as great propriety have been urged against the thirteen united States being distinct separate bodies, before they united or confederated together; for the two cases are exactly similar, except as to their extent. Moreover, so long as men have a regard to the safety of their persons and families, their liberties and properties, they will naturally associate and confederate together, so far as will best secure themselves; which is the whole design of government. And the same principle that influenced to hold sacred those town incorporations, will prompt them to unite still further. Necessity and interest are so influential in this matter that there is not the least danger. The only difficulty ever arising in this case is the manner and form of uniting, and mode of government.

Again, perhaps it will be objected by some, that the principles here laid down will apply as well to the towns within the Mason claim as to the towns on the Grants, and consequently they will have the same liberty &c.

To which it may be said, that there is at least this difference in their circumstances, viz. (I.) The people within the Mason claim, from their education, customs and manners, are of one notion and sentiment in respect to the principles and mode of government; and therefore are well united. (2.) They hold their landed property by the same tenure, but diverse from the Grants. (3.) Marked in written The inhabitants first settled on that claim, agreed in chusing them a King, (alias) a "Not true." kingly government, by petitioning for and receiving it. (4.) They have acted together so long that they may claim any union by prescription, having enjoyed an uninterrupted connection in the exercise of government among themselves beyond the memory of man.

In all these circumstances the people on the Grants are different from those on the Mason claim.

But sufficient has been said here and in a former Letter signed Republican,* as to the right that New-York and New-Hampshire have to exercise jurisdiction over these Grants by virtue of those royal decrees and commissions. We pass on now to consider some other reasons assigned in the foregoing letter, which we should not think worthy of notice, were it not that they are almost all of them palpable falsehoods and misrepresentations, made use of to excite the indignation of the highest power in America against this new rising State, and to bring the power of the United States upon them, without their having an opportunity of defending their cause, or even to know the accusations alledged against them, until the decisive sentence is passed—a measure not parallel except in the inquisition.

We shall therefore in the first place notice that clause in the letter to the State of Vermont, where it is said "that the sixteen towns are not connected with any State with with [literal—B. P. S.] respect to their internal police, is an idle phantom a mere chimera without the least shadow of reason &c.—that the town of Boston in the Massachusetts, or Hartford in Connecticut might as well evince their not belonging to their respective States, as those sixteen towns their not being connected with New Hampshire, &c."

It is surprising that men who pretend to be wise politicians, by being educated under an arbitrary government, are so grossly ignorant of the distinction there is between charter rights and the exercise of despotic power. Do they not know that every individual inhabitant, and consequently every town in the State of Connecticut by charter make up the Governor and Company of that Colony or State. And that by the same grant or charter they hold all their landed property, as much as any body of proprietors of a township or tract of land. And by the same charter they are made a body corporate and politic in name and fact. And in holding this charter sacred they hold themselves indissolubly connected together. Which bond of union must remain so long as the State exists. There never has been nor does there need to be any alteration of the mode of government in that State to comport with a state of independence, but the transposition of the name in which the executive power is exercised from the King to the people.

In the same way and manner are the people in the Massachusetts held together and united viz. by grants and charters from the King containing both landed property and jurisdiction, which the King could not constitutionally alter, and which the people still hold sacred, and thereby hold themselves connected together as much as Connecticut. Now, wherein does New-Hampshire compare with these two States? for take away the royal prerogative power which alone held them together, and what have they left? Nothing but a number of little town incorporations—there is not a shadow of a confederated State left-Nothing but an empty name. New-Hampshire as such never owned one inch of land or farthing of property,* neither could they ever so much as grant a town incorporation, nor had they right to a voice in that matter. In short, they never were a body politic in any legal sense whatever,* and nothing more than a number of people subjected to the obedience of the King's servant in such way and manner as the commission prescribed: very similar to the old feudatory system in England. Now to compare the towns on the grants as being in like circumstances with Boston and Hartford, is not only "an idle phantom, a mere chimera," but an act of profound ignorance. As to the question "Were not those towns settled and cultivated under the government of New-Hampshire."

We answer—They were not. They were granted settled and cultivated under the King of Great Britain, (by the agency of his servant the Governor of New-Hampshire) and entirely at his control, as much as the towns on the Grants west of Connecticut River; and as liable as they to be put under the immediate jurisdiction of any other person than the Governor of New-Hampshire, whenever the King should please to do it.

The next argument made use of is, that most of those towns sent delegates to the Convention in the State in 1775— Tis true they did*—and for the sole purpose of devising measures to defend against the tyrannical power of Britain which then began openly to set itself in hostile array against America. And by the arbitrary conduct of that Assembly in settling the mode of representation* (which they were never authorized to do) they disgusted many towns then connected* with the Province or state, so that they have never connected with them since,* except to remonstrate against their proceedings, both to the Assembly and people at large.

But what of all this? were we not then all under the jurisdiction of the King? Yes: and long afterwards; for independence was then scarcely in idea.**

The next thing alledged is, that from the commencement of the present war they have applied to the State of New-Hampshire for assistance and protection,* and that New Hampshire at their own expense hath supplied them with arms and ammunition to a very great amount as well as paid soldiers for their defence &c.

Here seems to be a magazine of stores played off at once -but if all was fact, we hardly believe it would amount to a consideration-For by the same reason every State upon the Continent would claim jurisdiction not only over the Grants, but over every other State, upon the score of defending them; so that it would be difficult to determine which had the best right-But when the matters are considered in their true light, they will appear but a mere fiction—The true state of the case is this. At the beginning of the war, when we were all connected* we did apply to New Hampshire for arms and ammunition; but to very little purpose: the expense of application was more than the value of what was obtained. Tis true they did advance a few barrels of powder, and a quantity of lead not equal to the powder, and some fire arms; for the whole of which ample security was given to the State at the time of receiving them, either to return or pay for them. And besides, these towns, notwithstanding the repeated solicitations to New-Hampshire for supplies &c. were obliged to apply to other of the united States, and from them received very considerable supplies, on the same terms as those received from New-Hampshire, and without being claimed on that account as being under their jurisdiction, except by New-But what a vain pretence is this that it was done only to defend Us, when in fact the enemy were never known to have been within fifty miles of Connecticut-River, which is the utmost western extent which they claim in those letters. The defence yielded both by New-Hampshire and Us, was at Bennington, the Creek, Ticonderoga and Lake Champlain, &c. where the general cause was the immediate and principal object, and where most of the United States defended, and who notwithstanding we believe never thought of claiming jurisdiction on that account. Such pretences not only argue the weakness of their cause, but meanness of spirit, as it is well known that the people on these Grants have, ever since the commencement of the war, exerted themselves to their utmost in raising Soldiers and Militia to subserve the general cause of the United States. This same plea Britain made,* (viz.) that they had been at great expense in defending America in the last war, and therefore had a right to subjugate them, &c.

Furthermore, 'tis true (tho' not alledged) that the military officers* of the regiments in those towns received commissions from the Conventions of New-Hampshire,* obeyed orders from them, &c. before independence took place, and acted upon them in some measure afterwards. Which they did upon this princple, (viz.) That we must do our part to maintain the American cause; and as we were not nor could be in a situation to regulate our militia until we were settled in a regular state of civil government, it was thought best to continue in that respect as we were for the present, as it mattered not so much what state we acted under in that respect, as that we did our duty. And indeed no part of the state of New-Hampshire hath done equal to what these towns have in supplying men for the continental army, turning out on alarms, scouting, &c.

The next thing mentioned is, "that near one half of the people in those revolted towns* (as they are called) are averse to the proceedings of the majority, who threaten to confiscate their estates,* if they do not join with them; and that they are about to apply to New-Hampshire for assistance; and that some have already applied," &c.

These assertions, as they are represented, are entirely false.—And in order to set them in their true light, we are under the disagreeable necessity of troubling the public with some facts, which we should not otherwise have done.

The truth is, in some of those towns there are a few who do not agree in opinion with the major part; but in those we dare challenge any creditable person to say that ever there was the least threatening by the major part to confiscate their estates,* or even to injure them either in their persons or properties in any way whatsoever on that account. And nothing short of malice and envy could influence any person to make such report.

As to those who have applied for relief, &c. we know of none, except one Col. John Hurd, formerly of Haverhill, at Cohos, (who, to the great joy of the people, has removed out of that part of the country, a mutual disaffection have arisen between him and the people) who has made application to the Assembly of New-Hampshire, and from them obtained a summons or order to notify a certain gentleman living in said Haverhill, to appear before said assembly, to answer to certain defamatory charges some time or other laid in by him against said Hurd-also one Nathaniel Hovey, lately living in Enfield, (who is well known to have been a litigious person from his youth up, and consenting to be a tool for said Hurd, to assist him in holding some lands which he claims in said Enfield) who occasioned such disturbance in the town, that they warned him to departand after some time (he not obeying the order) the constable, by warrant from the select-men, proceeded to remove him and family towards his last settlement, &c. for which transactions we understand he has been incessantly applying to New-Hampshire for assistance as best suiting his circumstances.

These we are well assured, are all the applications that have been made, and the only motion that we know of that kind. These are the terrible things which are painted in such high colours, as tho' they all originated from the joining of those towns with the Grants on the west side of the river; when they are nothing more than mere party disputes, which would have arisen if there never had been such an union. And we suppose that the Council and Assembly of New-Hampshire have in this way had their information of all those extraordinary things mentioned in their letters (including the affair of Col. Bedel†) that are in so solemn a manner transmitted to Congress for a foundation of their passing some decisive sentence against us; which would (according to Col. Allen's report) have immediately taken place, had it not been for his interposition, &c. And as we have no place in Congress, we are obliged in this way to appeal to the public to defend ourselves against such unfair and injurious conduct of our adversaries, who have in that respect an advantage in their hands.

† The suggestion or rather assertion in President Weare's letter, "that Col. Bedel by influence of money and his command has occasioned

Again. We take notice in those letters of their referring to arms to decide the dispute, when at the same time there is not the least hint that the people on the Grants ever meant to defend their right in that way. Nay they expect to support them by fair reasonings founded upon principles of justice and righteousness in an open and public manner, giving their adversaries the opportunity of a fair and impartial trial in any tribunal that may have cognizance of the cause. Whether this frequent recourse to arms is to surprise Congress into an hasty determination by an ex parte hearing or to terrify and affrighten us to a submission, or whether it is for want of justice, argument, and reason to support their claim, or all of them, we submit to the impartial public to determine.

We would here observe further, as to the circumstances of New-Hampshire, that since these disputes have arisen, but little* (if any) more than half the number of inhabited towns,* within the limits they claim jurisdiction over, are represented in their assembly,* or mean to be, under their present mode of acting; and this is the great instituted power that claims such extensive jurisdiction even over a greater extent of inhabited and unrepresented territory, than what is represented. Moreover, this partial assembly, when they issued orders for a convention of delegates* from all the

a great share in the disorders in those towns," is as destitute of foundation as most other articles contained in it. And the information "that very little service has been done by him," and "the desire of the more sober solid people to have him removed," was doubtless from some disaffected persons who apprehend the defence of this frontier, and (perhaps) of the large quantities of continental stores collecting in this quarter will be of very little service, and who wish to have all defence removed that they and the inhabitants may lie open to the depredations of the enemy from Canada, who have (without doubt) been kept from ravaging this frontier, only by their knowledge of Col. Bedel's regiment's being stationed here.

towns in the state (as they claim it to be) to assemble and form a plan of government for the State, would not trust it with them to prescribe how it should be established, but determined* themselves that when the Convention should agree upon and publish a plan of government, it should not take place, unless three fourths of the Inhabitants in the State should agree to it.* Thereby retaining power in five or six towns in the easterly part of the State (by reason of its numbers) to negative near one hundred and fifty other towns. This convention have already existed about six months without agreeing upon any plan, and have adjourned for another six months for consideration; and when they shall have finished their business, or come to an end is uncertain.

Under such conduct, what people that have any regard for themselves or posterity, will submit to their government? Surely none that can do otherwise. And yet they pretend to appear among the confederated States, as having full and compleat right to control these extensive Grants.

Much more might be said (if needful) relative to their conduct in disregarding and rejecting the complaints and remonstrances of the people against their arbitrary proceedings, ever since they set up their present mode of government; and yet they have the confidence to represent in Congress, that "every condescending measure that could be invented, has been tried from the beginning of the schism, and rejected," when in fact they have never given up the least point complained of from first to last. The foregoing facts will evidently appear, whenever they may be called in question, by written and other authentic vouchers.

We shall now offer some reasons of the propriety of the Grants being a distinct State, upon principle of prudence and equity.

And, 1st. As to their local situation—the lands near Connecticut-River, between the mountains heights on each side, that are suitable for cultivation, in a general way are about thirty-six or forty miles wide, and about one hundred and fifty miles in length from Massachusetts North line (as they now exercise jurisdiction) to Canada South line, as settled in 1764; thro' which Connecticut-River runs so as about equally divides it lengthwise, and therefore the River's being made a dividing line between two States, divides a country that Providence has wisely calculated to belong together, and so situated that the inhabitants living thereon may, by being united, manage their political affairs with convenience; and so calculated by proper intervales through the western mountains or heights, that the passes to and from the inhabitants on the Grants west of the Green Mountains (so called) are convenient.

- 2. The connections and commerce of the people* on each side of the river, are, and always will be, so interwoven and connected* with each other, that it would be very disadvantageous to be in two different jurisdictions.
- 3. The inhabitants (almost to a man) emigrated from the Massachusetts-Bay and Connecticut, but chiefly from Connecticut; whereby their manners, customs and habits are conformable to each other, and their principles and sentiments the same in regard to religion and civil government; but very different from the people of the States of New-York and New-Hampshire: which different principles by education and custom are become so habitual and hereditary, that it is beyond the power of man to eradicate them, and therefore will cause a jarring discord between them so long as they are continued together.
- 4. The Grants (exclusive of those in the northeast part which lie more contiguous to the center of New-Hampshire) will make a respectable State by themselves, and the other two States not be injured thereby, especially New-York; and as to New-Hampshire, it will be much larger than it ever was until since the last war, and more than twice as large in extent of territory as the State of Rhode-Island.
- 5. The people inhabiting these lands, having undergone the hardships and fatigues of settling this once howling wilderness, and the sufferings and losses occasioned by the war; and having exerted themselves to their utmost (in the grand American cause) with their brethren of the United States, ought not after all to be divided and apportioned to and between New-York and New-Hampshire, merely to serve them selves of us, for their political and interested purposes—and all because they will establish that arbitrary line of 1764.

- 6. These Grants* are so situated that they will always be an important frontier to the United States* (so long as Canada continues under the control of Great-Britain) and by being a distinct State, will be in a much better capacity to act their part as such, than by being the out-skirts of other States.
- 7. In the early settlement of this country, the Reverend Doctor Wheelock's charity school, founded on the most noble and benevolent basis, and incorporated with a University by grant or patent from the King of Great-Britain, was introduced and settled in this part of the country; which we esteem an inestimable benefit and advantage to this new State, as well as to the Continent; and which the inhabitants of this State are disposed to patronize to their utmost—but on the contrary, if it falls into the State of New-Hampshire, it will be in a State which has heretofore (as such) shewn a very cool disposition towards it, and probably will continue the same neglect of it, and principally (perhaps) on account of its situation.
- 8. The people on the Grants are well agreed and united in their plan of government already adopted, whereas New-Hampshire have not as yet agreed on any, and there is very little prospect (by accounts) that they will soon. And as to New-York constitution or plan of government, if there was no other objection, that alone would be a sufficient bar in the way of connecting them.
- o. The great distance most of the towns would be at from their several seats of government, in case they were connected with New-York and New-Hampshire, is a powerful reason why they should not belong to them, if there was nothing else to be offered on the head.

Therefore, on the whole of the foregoing facts and observations, we are fully persuaded (and believe every impartial judge will be also) that the people on the Grants, considered in every point of view, have a natural, legal and equitable right to unite together and form themselves into a distinct State or Government, in the manner they have done, and that they are all on both sides of the river, upon the same political foundation, and have an equal right to act in the affair: for certainly if the line settled in 1764 is established for New-Hampshire, it is also for New-York: and if it is void as to New-York, it is also void as to New-Hampshire: but sufficient has been already offered to shew that it is void as to both,

And as we are determined to be and remain together, and not be split up and divided merely to serve the interested and designing purposes of New-York and New-Hampshire, or any others; and to convince all that our motives do not arise (as has been represented) from ambitious and schismatical principles: but on the contrary, that they are only to obtain the privileges and benefits of civil government in common with our American brethren, and to put an end to all disputes on account of our being a distinct State, &c. We would recommend that the following terms and proposals be made to the Assembly of New Hampshire, viz.

- I. To agree upon and settle a dividing line between New Hampshire and the Grants, by committees from each party, or otherwise, as they may mutually agree.
- Or, 2. That the parties mutually agree in a Court of Commissioners of disinterested, judicious men, of the three other New-England States, to hear and determining the disputes.
- Or, 3. That the whole dispute with New-Hampshire be submitted to the decision of Congress, in such way and manner as Congress in their wisdom shall prescribe.

Provided always, That the Grants be allowed equal privilege with the other party, in espousing and conducting their cause.

Or, 4. If the controversy cannot be settled on either of the foregoing articles, and in case we can agree with New-Hampshire upon a plan of government, inclusive of extent of territory, that we unite with them, and become with them one entire State, rejecting the arbitrary line drawn on the western bank of Connecticut river, by the King of Great Britain in 1764.

Before we conclude, we think that duty to the public and regard to the honor and dignity of the Continental Congress, require that we make a few remarks on the report and declaration of Col. Ethan Allen, before recited. On which we must observe, that if his account be true, as before related, it is in a degree alarming; as of all other legislative, judicial or executive powers on the continent, the Congress (who hold the supreme power) ought to stand in the highest and fairest point of view; and no court has more justly obtained an established character for wisdom, integrity and impartiality, and none so clear from the imputation of intrigue and bribery of any kind whatsoever. And as it is of the highest importance that their character be supported; and that they and the public be acquainted with everything of a public nature, which is derogatory to the honor and integrity of that august body, we have thought it expedient to publish to the world Col. Allen's representation of the conduct of the New-Hampshire delegates, contained in his report and declaration before rehearsed, which we conceive to be of that kind. And although it has the appearance of partial friendship to this new State, yet we wholly reject it, as being done without their knowledge or desire:* that it savors too much of intrigue and bribery, and is a method of obtaining our cause that we despise, for we desire not to have that honorable body or any member of it, injure their character for the sake of helping us; nor that they do the same to our injury. If the justice of our cause, when rightly understood by impartial judges, won't support us, we are willing to fall. And as the said report and declaration are matters of fact, and lie fair for every one to make his comments upon, we submit them without saying anything further thereon.

New-Hampshire Grants, Dec. 1, 1778.

SECTION VIII.

MEASURES TO FORM A NEW STATE OF TOWNS ON BOTH SIDES OF CONNECTICUT RIVER.

RESOLVES OF A CONVENTION HELD ON THE NEW HAMP-SHIRE GRANTS.*

[P. 101.] At a Convention of Delegates from twenty-two Towns on the New Hampshire Grants from both sides of Connecticut River, held at Cornish, Dec. 9th, 1778;—

Voted unanimously,

- 1. That the members of this Convention will unite together for the purpose of pursuing such legal and regular measures as may have a tendency to secure to these Grants the benefits of good government, without any regard to the distinction made by the arbitrary line drawn on the western bank of Connecticut-river by the King in Council, in the year 1764.
- 2. A pamphlet entitled A public defence of the right of the New Hampshire Grants, &c. compiled by the major part of a Committee appointed by the Assembly of Vermont for that purpose was repeatedly read and unanimously approved.
- 3. Whereas, notwithstanding the request for this Convention, but few of those towns whose members continue to act with said Assembly, after the protesting members had withdrawn, have sent members to this Convention; and the conduct of the Assembly in passing the votes and resolves contained in their printed Journals, the protest, remarks,

&c. have rendered it impracticable for said Assembly to carry into execution said resolves as therein proposed, which difficulty will continue so long as said votes stand in force; and as the people in those towns by justifying the conduct of the Assembly in violating the Constitution, will on their part dissolve the solemn compact which they entered into by the Confederation, and the people consequently become discharged from their allegiance and obligations to the State. Therefore,

Voted, That the proposals contained in the before mentioned address, be made to New Hampshire, viz.

- I. To agree upon and settle a dividing line between New Hampshire and the Grants, by Committees from each party, or otherwise as they may mutually agree.
- Or, 2. That the parties mutually agree in the appointment of a Court of Commissioners of disinterested judicious men of the three other New England States, to hear and determine the dispute.
- Or, 3. That the whole dispute with New Hampshire be submitted to the decision of Congress in such way and manner as Congress in their wisdom shall prescribe:

Provided always, that the Grants be allowed equal privileges with the other party, in espousing and conducting their cause.

- Or, 4. If the controversy cannot be settled on either of the foregoing articles, and in case we can agree with New Hampshire upon a plan of government, inclusive of extent of territory, that we unite with them, and become with them one entire State, rejecting the arbitrary line drawn on the western bank of Connecticut river by the King of Great Britain in 1764.
- 4. Voted, That the inhabitants of those towns on the Grants, in the State of Vermont, who have not sent a representative to this Convention, and whose members joined with the majority of said Assembly in passing the votes, on account of which the protesting members withdrew, be requested to direct their respective members to rescind said votes, and join us in making said proposals to New Hampshire.
- 5. Voted, That in case those towns whose members continued to act with the Assembly of Vermont, still remain firm and steadfast in supporting and continuing said votes of Assembly, and neglect to join in carrying into execution said report of their Committee, we will make overtures to join with New Hampshire, on the last article in said proposals.

6. That all the other towns on said Grants be requested to join us in making proposals to New Hampshire as beforementioned—and that those towns which agree to join therein, be requested to transmit copies of their votes relative thereto, to Governor Marsh, Mr. Woodward, Col. Morey, Maj. Child, Col. Payne, Col. Olcott, or Gen. Baley, who are hereby appointed a Committee* for receiving them, and carrying the foregoing votes and proposals into execution, so soon as the towns on the Grants can have reasonable opportunity to join us therein.

7. Voted, That said Committee be impowered to call a Convention from the towns on the Grant, whenever any thing shall appear, which shall in their opinion, render one necessary.

J. Marsh, Chairman.

Letter from Ira Allen to Meshech Weare, relative to the existing state of affairs, dated

As I wish to do nothing that conserns a Neighbouring State, but what should be there made known, I therefore herewith Inclose to you my Printed Letter to the Inhabitants of this State, as also an Extract of the Prosedure of a * The above named gentlemen of the committee were prominent citizens of the following towns, viz., Lieut.-Gov. Marsh, of Hartford; Bezaleel Woodward, of Hanover—from 1770 to 1778 tutor in Dartmouth college, and afterwards treasurer; Col. Israel Morey, of Orford; Maj. Jonathan Child, of Lyme; Col. Elisha Payne, of Cardigan or Lebanon; Col. Peter Olcott, of Norwich; and Gen. Jacob Bailey, of Newbury.

Gen. Bailey was born in Newbury, Mass., July 2, 1728; was a captain in the French war, 1756, 1757; was colonel at the capture of Ticonderoga and Crown Point, 1759; settled at Newbury, Vt., in October, 1764, and became one of its most distinguished citizens. He died March 1, 1816. (See Biog. Gov. and Coun. Vt., Vol. I, p. 117.)—ED.

Convention called at the Request of those Gentlemen that with Drew from the council and Assembly of Vermont at their session in October last;—said Convention was held at Cornish on the oth day of Instant Decem. As I Providentially Happened at said Convention, and as I have been conversant with the principal men in most of the Towns between this and Cohoos, shall make a few observations on the Present confused State of affairs in those Parts.

There was eight Towns Represented in said Convention from the West side of the River and Probable two or three more may joine them. But in most if not all of said Towns there is a large minority in oposition to such Prosedure.

In the sixteen Towns sed to be in union with this State sinc the Brake in the Assembly of October Last, the Party that was in favour of New Hampshire have considerably Increased.

Within the disaffected Towns on both sides of the River are several Gentlemen whose Design is to Brake up this [P. 106.] State and connect the whole to New Hampshire for the sole Purpose of Bringing the seat of Government on Connecticut River at or near the College, and to establish a Plan of Government similar to Vermont.

There is no authority exercised East of Connecticut River by this State, and I dare Engage at the Risque of my Reputation as a man of Honour or common sense, that the future General Assembly of this State will not countenance an encroachment on the State of New Hampshire.

In the year 1764 by an Arbitrary act of the Crown the Grants West of the River was put under the Jurisdiction of New York, where the Inhabitants have since Experianced all the Evils that a Colden, Dunmore and Tryon, together with a clan of New York Land jobbers could invent and inflict;—in the course of which troubles (as I am informed) application was made to New Hampshire to assert their clame, which was Reffused. The Inhabitants on the West side of the Green Mountain Boldly asserted their Rights and Defended their Property untill the late Revolution; soon after which Overtures was made to the Inhabitants of the them Counties of Cumberland and Gloucester who had in some degree submitt to the Arbitrary Power of New York and had then members in the Provential Congress of said State; after many Perswasive Arguments the Inhabitants in said Counties connected with those on the West side of the Green Mountain to form a State, and proseded to form a Constitution &c.

[P. 107.] Had it not been for that the Inhabitants of this State would by their own consent been effectually bound to New York, by connecting with them in forming a constitution &c. Had that been the case no one would have been so hardy as to have thought of claiming the antient jurisdiction of New Hampshire, nor even New Hampshire of claiming the now State of Vermont, any more than the Massachusetts Bay the southerly part of said States. But it seems a few Restless Uneasy men not having the good of either of the States at Heart, (but their own private Interest and Immoliment) are about to clame the antient Jurisdiction of New Hampshire. Should that be the case, doubt not but they will meet with such treatment as to Justice may appertain.

I am, Honord Sir, with due Respect Your most obedient Humble Servant IRA ALLEN.

Address to the Inhabitants of the State of Vermont, by Ira Allen, dated at Dresden, Nov. 27, 1778.

[P. 109.] TO THE INHABITANTS OF THE STATE OF VERMONT. GENTLEMEN---

Whereas the General Assembly of this State did appoint me to wait on the Honorable Meshech Weare, Esq. President of the Council of the State of New Hampshire, with a Letter from his Excellency Thomas Chittenden, Esq. and another from Col. Ethan Allen, &c. And whereas several of the members of the Honorable Council and Assembly of this State, desired me to write to them (on my return from New Hampshire) the state of affairs relative to the Union with sixteen Towns east of Connecticut-River and this State: I therefore beg leave to state the following as a short state of the matter, viz.

When I arrived at Exeter found the General Assembly then sitting, delivered said Letters to the President, who after examining the same in Council, sent them to the House for their inspection: the said Letters were again read and largely discoursed on, and a Committee appointed from both Houses to answer the same.—I being then present besides having many other conferences with the members of both Houses, found that they were unanimous for maintaining Inviolable their Jurisdiction to the East Banks of Connecticut-River, but that they had no disposition to interfere with the State of Vermont in its first described Limits, which will more fully appear by their Resolution in the affair of Mr. Hovey, and an Extract of President Weare's Letter to Col. Ethan Allen, which is as follows, viz.

"State of New Hampshire

In the House of Representatives, Nov. 10th, 1778. According to the Vote of the House of this day, the Honorable Council and House being met in the Assembly Chamber, the Honorable Meshech Weare, Esq. in the chair, proceeded to take under consideration the Petition of Nathaniel Hovey, preferred to the Honorable Committee of Safety of this State on the 24th September last,* and the further transactions thereon—And upon consideration of the same came to the following Resolutions and reported, That two Hundred Pounds be granted to the said Hovey, out of the Treasury, by order of the President, for his present necessities, to be by him accounted for; and that the persons named as Rioters in his complaint and Petition, together with Nehemiah Estabrook, of Lebanon, be notified to attend the hearing of said Petition before the General Assembly, if sitting, or Committee of Safety of this State in the recess, on the Second Thursday of December next, and that the Secretary be directed to issue proper notice to the said persons; and that Capt. Samuel Atkinson, of Boscawen, be directed to Notify them accordingly:—Which Report was read and accepted."

Sent up for concurrence.

[From Mr. Weare's Letter.]

"As you have been so full and explicit in your own sentiments, I trust the Body of your people will be of the same opinion, as I am sure every sensible person will; notwithstanding blind designs of some uneasy and never to be contented men, whose views must certainly be more detrimental to you than they possibly can be to New Hampshire—Whatever may be determined by Congress relative to the acknowledgment of your Independence will be freely acquiesced in by this State."

[P. 110.] I find by enquiring into the situation of the Grants (so called) east of Connecticut River, that the Towns in the County of Cheshir are almost Unanimously Represented in the General Assembly of New Hampshire—and that about twelve Towns in the County of Grafton are also Represented in the Assembly of New Hampshire—and that in the sixteen Towns in connection with this State by said union, there is a large minority in opposition to said union.

Amongst the arguments made use of by New Hampshire to support their claim to Connecticut River, are the following, viz.

That by the determination of the Court of Great Britain in establishing Provinces in North America, said Lands were included in the jurisdic-diction of New Hampshire, and in consequence of that many Charters for Towns was granted by the Governor of said Province with all the priviledges and immunities that any other Towns in said Province did enjoy, which they held under the Crown untill the Revolution; at which time Circular Letters was sent to the several Towns thro' that Province, to Choose Members to form a Congress to transact the political business of the State, at which time several of those Towns now in union with this State sent Members: About a year after a second Congress was chosen, and some of said Towns sent members. Said Congress then established a Plan of Government which was to remain in force untill the exigencies of the State would admit of more leasure time to form another;—which plan or Constitution of said State has ever since and now remain to be governed by. Since the depreciation of Money, an additional pay has been given by the State of New Hampshire to the Militia of said State, in addition to their Continental pay when in such service; which pay has been cheerfully received by the Militia of said

Thus Gentlemen I have given you a short state of facts, agreeable to the best information I can get, by which you will observe that the State of New Hampshire are willing that the State of Vermont should be a State in its first described limits west of Connecticut River.

I have also to observe, that by several authentick Accounts lately received from the Honorable Continental Congress, that the Delegates are willing that the State of Vermont should be a State within its first described limits (the Delegates of New York excepted) which fully appears from that Honorable Body's not passing any Resolves against any of the Proceedings of the State of Vermont since its formation, although the Proceedings of the State of Vermont since its formation, although the Proceedings of the State of Vermont since its formation, although the Proceedings of the State of Vermont since its formation, although the Proceedings of the State of Vermont since its formation, although the Proceedings of the State of Vermont since its formation.

Having met with several printed papers published by order of those Gentlemen that withdrew from the General Assembly of this State at their session in October last: But as I did not design this Letter for an answer thereto, shall make but few remarks thereon:—

In the course of which papers there is a request to all the Towns on the Grants on both sides of the River, whether united with the State of Vermont or not, to send members to form a Convention to consult and agree upon measures whereby we may all be united together, by being and remaining a distinct State, on such foundation that we may be admitted into confederation with the United States of America, and under their protection, &c.

A very large part of the Towns on the Grants west of the Mason line and East of Connecticut River, are Represented in the General Assembly of New Hampshire, and consequently they are Represented in Congress: therefore they cannot withdraw from New Hampshire, and conferming the states of the congress to be taken into Confederation with the United States, for they are already taken into Confederation by the way of New Hampshire:—The way them Towns could Act, were they to send members to said Convention, would be to act on the latter clause of the Warrant which is to claim the Antient jurisdiction of the Government of New Hampshire, and in that way defend ourselves against the pretended right of jurisdiction of any other State, and thereby become one entire State according to the extent of New Hampshire Province as it stood before the Decree in 1764 took place—But whether that is the design of the Convention or not I leave the candid reader to determine.

I appeal to every person's own conscience in the State of Vermont, whether when the inhabitants on the west and east sides of the Green Mountain, first connected together to become one body politick, they did it under a view that the Grants east of Connecticut River would join them: and if it had not been for that, they would not have joined in said plan.

All those that did unite together in one body politick to form a State west of Connecticut River, will, I doubt not, on due consideration, pursue that desirable object; (if any difficulties should arise so as unhappily to separate those Towns east of Connecticut River from this State) for in that view of the case we should then enjoy all we first expected; and as the Constitution of this State is so happily calculated to preserve inviolable the rights of the people; and as in it there is ample provision made for the propagation of the Gospel, together with proper Seminaries and Schools of learning, which are among the greatest blessings God in his wisdom ever bestowed on the fallen race of man.

By what has already been elucidated, it appears that the State of Vermont is in favor with the United States of America; therefore if the people in said State are, and continue steadfast to maintain the same, they will without doubt support the Independence of said State, so long as the United States do theirs.

Since the choice appears to be in the brest of the good people of this State whether they will be governed by the agreeable Constitution they have made, or lay that a side and seek for connections with a neighbouring State, which is some in debt, and whose known plan of representation is by numbers, so that it would take five or six of our new Towns to send one member; and when we consider that those infant plantations have gone thro numberless fatigues and expences to defend their just rights from the arbitrary power of New-York; and since this present contest we have been a frontier to three neighbouring States, our inhabitants have been a frontier to three neighbouring or soldiery often called forth by alarams, who have fought and bled nobly on the field for the defence of their country:—Is there not a much greater probability that we should be considered for those extraordinary difficulties, by the Honorable, the Grand Council of America, in defraying the expense of this unnatural war, than by the legislature of any State whose private interest would be nearer connected with ours.

I doubt not but every reasonable person will, on due deliberation determine that it is best, wisest, and cheapest for the good people of this State, to steadily pursue their plan of Government which will transmit to posterity the blessings of a free State.

I am, Gentlemen, with due respect
Your most most obedient, Humble servant,
IRA ALLE

"In General Assembly, February 12th, 1779.

Resumed the consideration of the union between this State and sixteen towns east of Connecticut river; when, the instructions of the freemen of this State to their representatives concerning said union, being examined, it appears that they are instructed to recede from such union. Therefore

Resolved, that Mr. Hibbert and Mr. Wells be a Committee to join a Committee from the Council to prepare a draught relative to dissolving the union between the sixteen towns, before mentioned, and this State; and report thereon to this House.

The Committee appointed to prepare a draught relative to dissolving the union with sixteen towns east of Connecticut river, with this State, brought in the following Report, viz.

Whereas, in consequence of a representation made to the General Assembly of this State, at their session at Windsor, in March 1778, by a Committee consisting of seven persons, inhabiting several towns, lying contiguous to the east side of Connecticut river, that a number of inhabited towns, east of said river, were then unconnected with any State, in regard to their internal police; and, on said Committee's application to the General Assembly, that the said towns might be admitted into the union with this State, orders were issued by the Assembly to the representatives' constituents, for instructions in the premises;

And, whereas, in consequence of such instructions, the representatives of said constituents, when met, at their adjourned session, at Bennington, on the eleventh day of June last, did receive into union with said State sixteen towns east of Connecticut river, and grant leave for other towns to unite, if they should choose;

And whereas, a dispute has arisen in respect to the right New Hampshire have to exercise jurisdiction over those sixteen towns, as claimed in a letter to his Excellency Thomas Chittenden, Esq., by Meshech Weare, Esq. President of the Honorable Council of the State of New Hampshire, dated August 124, 1778:

And whereas, the General Assembly of this State did at their session at Windsor, in October last, agree on certain methods (contained in the report of the Grand Committee of both houses) to settle and adjust the dispute with New Hampshire, nevertheless, the measures to be pursued to effect those methods, were rendered impracticable by the members east of said river withdrawing themselves from the house, in an anconstitutional manner, and forming a Convention, in direct violation of the most solemn oaths and obligations into which they had entered, declaring themselves discharged from any and every former confederation and association with this State:

And whereas, your Committee have just grounds to apprehend, that the said sixteen towns are, of right, included within the jurisdiction of

New-Hampshire; they are therefore, of opinion, that the said union ought to be considered as being null from the beginning.

Jonas Fay,* Chairman of Committee.

The above draught being read, was accepted, and this house do, thereupon, resolve that the said union be, and is hereby dissolved, and made totally void, null and extinct: and that his Excellency the Governor be, and he is hereby directed to communicate the foregoing draught, and resolve thereon, to the President of the Council of the State of New Hampshire."

Letter from Thomas Chittenden to Meshech Weare relating to the foregoing Resolve, &c., dated

In Council.

SIR-

Your favour of the 5th of November last was seasonably delivered me by Ira Allen, Esq. I have purposely omited an answer until the General Assembly at their present session, should be able to direct me in what manner I might be warranted to do it, which I find cannot be more explicitly done, than by enclosing their Resolution for dissolving the union (so called) with sixteen Towns east of Connecticut River, which I herein enclose.

The Laws of this State are now nearly fited for the press, and will be immediately printed and circulated amongst the inhabitants; the execution of which, I flatter myself, will prove sufficient to quiet any disturbances among the inhabitants west of Connecticut River; but as those on the east side (who have been heretofore considered as being united with this State) are accomplices with some few disaffected persons on the west side Connecticut River, in creating *Dr. Jonas Fay resided at Bennington, Vt. He was son of Stephen Fay, born at Hardwick, Mass., Jan. 17, 1737, came with his father to Bennington, 1766, and soon took and held prominent positions in civil and military affairs in the new state. At the age of 19 he served in the French war, 1756; was with Ethan Allen, as surgeon, in the capture of Ticonderoga in May, 1775. In July that year was appointed by Massachusetts committee to muster troops sent on to Ticonderoga. Was of the Vermont council of safety in 1777-8, of the state council seven years, agent of the state to the continental congress four times, from 1777 to 1782, a judge of the supreme court, 1782, and judge of probate from 1782 to 1786. After 1800 he resided awhile in Charlotte and Pawlet, and died in Bennington, March 6, 1818, aged 81. (See Biog. Gov. and Coun. Ver., Vol. I, p. 122.)—ED.

Feuds and Jealousies to the disturbance of N. Hampshire as well as this State, your wisdom therefore in quieting those disturbances east of the River will doubtless prove sufficient.

The bearer hereof, Ira Allen, Esq., who is appointed to communicate this, will be able to give further inteligence in the premises.

I am, Sir, with sentiments of esteem Your honor's most obedient humble servant. THOS. CHITTENDEN.

The Honble

Meshech Wear, Esq., President of the honbi Council of the State of New Hampshire.

Letter from Ethan Allen to Meshech Weare, dated Bennington, 4th March, 1779. P. 123. SIR-

The union which Impolitically was for a Time adheard to by a Majority of this State, and which Rec'd its death wound at the session of our General Assembly in October last, at Windsor, has at our late session at Bennington, been in the fullest and most explicit manner Desolved; and that without a Dissenting vote. And as the Laws of this State are nearly ready for the press, and will soon be Promulgated among the People, after which this Government will Exert itself to Quiet the schism on this side of the River, and I hope your Government will vigerously Exert their authority to the East Banks of the River; for I consider the schism on both sides to be equally against both governments, and therefore both should join to suppress it.

I have this further Reason for the Exertion of Government; as I am confident that argument will be lost with them, for the heads of the schism at large are a Petulent, Pettefoging, Scribling sort of Gentry, that will keep any Government in hot water, till they are Thoroughly brought under by the Exertions of authority.

This matter, I submit to your better judgment, and remain, with Due Respects your honor's

Most Obedient and Humle servt, ETHAN ALLEN.

PROPOSAL TO UNITE ALL THE NEW HAMPSHIRE GRANTS WITH THE STATE OF NEW HAMPSHIRE.

Petition of Facob Bailey and Davenport Phelps, relating to a connection of all the New Hampshire Grants with the State of New Hampshire.

[Copied from Slade's State Papers, pp. 104-105.]

To the Honorable the President in Council, and the Representatives of the State of New Hampshire, in General Assembly convened: The subscribers hereto, beg leave to represent:—

That a large number of Charters of Incorporation of certain tracts of land, were formerly issued from their Excellencies Benning Wentworth and John Wentworth, Esqr, in the name of the King of Great Britain, lying and being west of the Mason Grant, and east of a north line drawn from the north-west corner of the now State of the Massachusetts Bay to Lake Champlain, and from thence to the latitude of forty-five degrees: That in the year 1764, the aforesaid King of Great Britain, in violation of his contract with the grantees, and in an arbitrary manner, passed a decree, that there should be a division of the aforesaid Grants between the then Province of New York and New Hampshire; to which decree the inhabitants of said grants were then, and have ever since been averse; as they were, there-by deprived of privileges, which they of right claimed, and, in their settlement, reasonably expected, within the juris-diction of New Hampshire;—That the inhabitants aforesaid, since the declaration of independence, view themselves at liberty to connect in one body politic, or unite with any other State;—That they are now, in general, desirous of an union with the State of New Hampshire;—That the representatives of the people in Assembly, on the 20th of October last, Voted, that a defence of the rights of the people be stated by a Committee appointed for that purpose, and that answers to some letters &c. be drafted by said Committee. Also, that offers be made to the State of New Hampshire either to settle a boundary line between said New Hampshire and the Grants, by a Committee mutually chosen, or in such way as Congress may point out; or to make an offer of the whole of said Grants to New Hampshire:

That on the 9th day of December last, by a Convention of Committees delegated by the inhabitants of said grants,* it was voted, that proposals of an union with said New Hampshire be made to the Assembly of said State.

In consequence whereof, we, the subscribers, being duly authorized for that purpose, do now propose to this honorable Court, that the whole of said grants be connected and confederated with said State of New Hampshire, receiving and enjoying equal privileges and immunities with the good people of said State.

Dated at Newbury, this 17th day of March, 1779,

DAVENPORT PHELPS.

In the House of Representatives, April 2<sup>d</sup>, 1779. The Committee on the petition of Gen. Letter from Thomas Chittenden to Meshech Weare respecting a jurisdictional claim of New Hampshire to the Territory of Vermont, dated

The honorable Ira Allen Esq<sup>r</sup>, who was appointed to wait on the hon<sup>bl</sup> the Council and General Assembly of N. Hampshire in March last, with a letter from me, and to transact other public business of this State with them, having reported to the General Assembly of this State,* that a

Committee of the Assembly of N. Hampshire appointed at their last Session, brought in a Report that they tho't it expedient, that N. Hampshire should lay in a Jurisdictionate Claim to the territory of Vermont, and that the consideration thereof was refered to their Sessions in June instant; and the Assembly of this State, having this day resumed the consideration of said Report, have requested me to acquaint your honor, that after a full & deliberate debate on the subject, they conceive, that such a claim would be attended with very disagreeable consequences to both Governments, as it would tend to encourage a dangerous Schism, created by certain disaffected persons to both Governments, which is now crumbling into its primitive nothing. I therefore earnestly request, that the State of N. Hampshire do not lay in such a claim, as I presume, that by far the greater part of the Inhabitants of this State are strenuously opposed to such a measure. The bearer Ira Allen, Esq<sup>r</sup> will be able to give your honor any further inteligence in the premises.

I am your most obedient

Thos Chittenden.

President of the Council N. Hampshire.

[P. 147.] In Council.

State of \ Vermont \ Agreable to your appointment by the General Assembly of this State, you are hereby authorized and impowered an agent to confer with the Honbl the Council and General Assembly of the State of New Hampshire on any political matter which may concern the Interest, Peace and Tranquility of both States, and in special to settle the boundary line of the respective Governments, as it is apprehended by this Council that such a settlement would be attended with the important consequence of quieting the Schism now subsisting, the design and tendency of which is to subvert the authority of both Governments.

By order of Council

Thos Chittenden.

Honble Ira Allen, Esqr (Copy).

[Note. On the foregoing letter of Gov. Chittenden, and mission of Ira Allen, the General Assembly took action, June 24, 1779, as follows, viz.:—ED.]

In the House of Representatives June 24th, 1779.

According to the order of the day, the Honbl Council & House met in Committee of the whole in the Assembly Chamber, to take into consideration the Letter from Thomas Chittenden Esq<sup>T</sup> & the letter from General Whipple, and the petition of Genl Bailey & Capt. Phelps, and all other matters and things relating to the New Hampshire Grants, so called: The Honbl Meshech Weare, Esq<sup>T</sup> in the chair. Proceeded to consider of the matters to them referred, and after some time spent thereon, came to the following resolution and report: That the Matters refer'd, be considered by the several Houses in their separate capacity. The Comtes then Dissolved and the Speaker resumed the Chair & the report of the Committee being read & considered was accepted.

Adjourned to 3 o'clock P. M. Met accordingly.

The House by vote, took under consideration the report of the  $2^{\rm d}$  day of April last, which was at that session Voted to lay for consideration, untill this Session [see ante, p. 337] relative to the New Hampshire Grants, &c. And the Question being put whether the report of the said Committee be received & accepted or not, it passed in the affirmative.

Sent up by Mr. Marsh. [Concurred by the Council.]

June 26th. Voted, That the Honbl Ebenezer Thompson Esqr be and hereby is chosen and appointed in behalf of this State, to repair to the New Hampshire Grants, and that he be instructed to confer with the Committee of Congress & inform them of the votes of the General Assembly respecting the Grants, and also how far the Jurisdiction of New Hampshire has been exercised, over the Grants as well on the east as on the west side of Connecticut River; and also in what manner, and in what right the Jurisdiction originated; and also to answer any matters that may be laid before the said Committee by New York or by the Inhabitants of the said grants touching the dispute. Sent up by Mr. Whipple. [Concurred by the Council.]

Address by Ira Allen to the Inhabitants of the State of Vermont, relating to the aforesaid affairs.

FRIENDS AND FELLOW-CITIZENS-Pursuant to appointment by the Legislature and Instructions from the Governor and Council of this State, I waited on the General Court of New Hampshire, at their session in June last, and delivered the public Writings intrusted me by the Governor of this State, to the President, which were read in Council, and sent to the House for their inspection: the House, after reading and considering the same, resolved into a Committee, to take into consideration the whole matter respecting Vermont, which was concurred in by the Hon. Board, and Thursday the 24th of June, the Committee met in the Assembly Chamber, and the Resolves of Congress of the 1st and 2<sup>4</sup> of June were read: Among which was the appointment of Col. Peter Olcott and Beza. Woodward, Esq; impowering them as a Committee from the Cornish Convention, to use their influence with the General Court of New Hampshire, to extend their Claim and Jurisdiction over the whole of the New Hampshire Grants. A question was put to said Committee by a Member of the House, How many Towns were represented in said Cornish Convention on the West side of Convention. half of them West of said River. Said Committee then proceeded to exhibit the Returns made on a Hand-Bill formed by the Committee of the Cornish Convention, on the 23d of April last, and sent to the several Towns in this State, for the express Purpose of getting the numbers of the Inhabitants that were willing New Hampshire should extend their Claim and Jurisdiction over the whole of the Grants—their Returns were sixty-five persons. They also alledged that they had mislaid or were sixty-five persons. Iney also alledged that they had missaid or lost the Returns from one Town in which there were one hundred and twenty families, and but four Persons acted in Opposition to connecting with New Hampshire: That the Reason why more Persons had not acted on said Hand-Bill, was, that they had not circulated thro' the Grants, by reason of their falling into the hands of the New Statesmen, who secreted or burnt them: That for Eighty miles up and down the Connecticut River, there were but two Members attended the Assembly of Newsynty.—That so far as they had heap able to collect the Sentiof Vermont:—That so far as they had been able to collect the Senti-ments of the People, they were very generally on the east Side of the Green Mountain, and a Number on the west Side of the Mountain, for connecting with New Hampshire: then referring to the Members of the House who lived contiguous to Connecticut River, to Inform what they knew respecting the matter; Judge Marsh, then arose, and with a Degree of Warmth asserted, that to his certain Knowledge, two-thirds of the Inhabitants of the Grants west of the River, would hold up both hands to connect with New Hampshire. A few more of the Members of the House, in conversation with the other Members had endeavored to insinuate Tenets nearly similar. I then proceeded to make my Defence; in which I observed, That it was strange those Gentlemen were at a Loss to determine how many Towns were represented in the Cornish Convention, as one was the Clerk and both members of the same: That there were but eight Towns west of the River represented in said Convention: That the Town said Committee had Reference to as having one hundred and twenty Families, was the Town of Norwich, in which Col. Olcott lived: That I was informed by several respectable Gentlemen of that vicinity, that all due pains were taken to convene the legal Voters on Town Meeting Day;—Some refused to attend, as they would not act against the State of Vermont; others were tired of Town Meetings, and neglected to attend;—in all, thirty-one Persons met,—twenty-seven for New Hampshire, and four for Vermont: That I had as good, if not a better right to count those who did not attend the Meeting for Vermont, as they for New Hampshire: That said Hand-Bills had been sent into the County of Bennington, in several Places, and that the People there did not take so much notice of them, as to secrete or burn them: That I was knowing to said Hand-Bills circulating thro' a very considerable part of Cumberland County: That in several Towns a very considerable part of Cumberland County: That in several Towns where they had Town Meetings on other Business, said Hand-Bills were read, and the Towns unanimously voted to have nothing to do with them: in other Towns the Select Men said, they knew nothing of "I Marsh, Chairman;" and if they called a Town-Meeting at his Request, by the same Rule they might have a Town Meeting every day, if any Gentleman desired it; therefore they would have nothing to do with it: That by this open and public trial, they had proved, that Gen. Bailey, at least, was mistaken, when he asserted in his Petition (preferred to the General Assembly of New Hambeiter at their Sessions in March the General Assembly of New Hampshire at their Sessions in March last) That the Inhabitants of the Grants were in General, desirous of an Union with New Hampshire: That the Eighty Miles mentioned by said Committee, where there were but two Members attended the Assembly of Vermont, was true; but Part of that Distance was Woods, consequently no Member could from thence attend; and some of the other art was thinly settled, and several Towns joined to choose one member; but in that Distance, and for more than eighty Miles more down the River, thro' a settled Country, there were but four Towns on the River where they had got so much as one man in favor of connecting with New Hampshire, and not so much as one fourth Part of the legal Voters in those four Towns—a very small Minority indeed in favor of connecting with New Hampshire.

I then proceeded to treat largely on the fundamental Arguments, viz. the change of Jurisdiction in 1764—the Proclamation issued by his Excellency Benning Wentworth, Esq. dated about Feb. 1765—the Heads of the Grievances the Inhabitants of Vermont have suffered from New York since 1764, to the present Era—Expence in sending Agents to Great Britain—New Hampshire refusing to exert herself to recover her Jurisdiction, although often requested by the Inhabitants of the Grants, when they were put in the greatest Extremity by New York—the Right the People had to assume Government, since the present Revolution—Constitution and Code of Laws established—officers of Government, together with the Freemen of the State, sworn to support the Constitution thereof, as established by Convention—Letters from the General Court of the State of New Hampshire, in November last, giving their full approbation to the State of Vermont's being established by Congress as such, provided the People there, as a Political Body would dissolve all Connections with sixteen Towns east of Connecticut River, which they alledged to be a Part of New Hampshire.—That every Engagement on the Part of Vermont to New Hampshire, was fulfilled;—That it was one Thing for said State to lay a Jurisdictional Claim to the Territory of Vermont, and another to exercise Jurisdiction.

The Committee of both Houses dissolved, and the House resumed the subject, and voted to lay claim to the Jurisdiction of the Whole of the New Hampshire Grants, to the Westward of Connecticut River; nevertheless, allowing and conceding, that if the Hon. Continental Congress should establish the State of Nermont, that in such case the State of New Hampshire will acquiesce therein; and that said State should not extend Jurisdiction farther West than the West Bank of Connecticut River, till otherwise directed by Congress. Concurred by the Hon. Board. The General Court then chose a Committee to wait on the Committee of Congress, supposing they would come to the County of Grafion.

Although this Proceedure of the Court of New Hampshire doth not appear to be to the Disadvantage of Vermont, but rather as a Bar against New York, yet I must not omit to observe, that there are a number of the members of that Court, who would be exceeding glad to have the Territory of Vermont added to New Hampshire. Their principal Motives to me appear to be these, viz., That the addition of the Territory of Vermont to that State, would most certainly bring the seat of Government into another Neighborhood; but a greater inducement is the unappropriated and Tory Lands within this State, which if added to New Hampshire, would help them in the heavy lift of paying Taxes. If said Lands are a sufficient Motive for some Part of the General Court of New Hampshire to wish to enlarge their Government for a share in them, surely it would not be for the Interest of the Inhabitants of this State, to take in so many Partners on that Footing, but to the interest of each Individual to oppose such an ungenerous Extention of New Hampshire; and warrantable for the following Reasons:

The State of Vermont is at this Time formidable against its old adversary, New York, and has little or nothing to fear from her Power in Arms or Influence at Congress.—In former Days, when under British administration, for any Set of Men to rise and oppose the Authority, was thought a most daring Thing: People in general were under a strong traditional Blas in favor of Government, and but few, how much soever they might be oppressed, had that Fortitude and Patriotism, that they dare appear in Arms, to defend their just Rights, in Opposition to the undue exercise of Law, when attempted to be exercised by legal Officers of Justice; and when they did, seldom failed of losing some of their Lives, and being vanquished by their Adversaries—witness Nobletown, Livingston's-Manor, Bateman's Patent, &c.—In those Days the Green Mountain Boys were put to the sad Alternative of rising in Arms, and opposing the legislative and executive Authority of New York, or of giving up their Lands and Possessions to the Land-jobbers of the said Province. Then the Green Mountain Boys were few in Number, settled in a Wilderness Country, generally poor, but little more than the Heavens to protect them and their Families from the Inclemency of the Weather,—the Justice of their case not publicly known—a rich, powerful and intriguing Province to contend with, who did not fail to send their emissaries amongst them, in order to make Divisions by Commissions, and every other way in their Power. In short no kind of Bribery or Corruption was too mean for them to be guilty of. Then were the Lives, Liberties and Properties of the People at Stake. In this situation a few small Companies of Green Mountain Boys (stimulated by the same patriotic Spirit of Freedom, which has since shined with a superior Lustre from one end of this Continent to the other) baffled all the diabolical Machinations of their inveterate Adversaries for more than seven years together. Can this be accounted for without acknowledging the propitious Agency of the Deity? In those Days, repeated Applications were made to New Hampshire, to exert herself to obtain the Jurisdiction again; but her language then was nearly similar to that of righteous Job; for it was, The King gave, and the King hath taken away, and blessed be the name of the King. From that day to this, said State hath not exerted herself to obtain Jurisdiction again.

It was by virtue of a royal Edict, that New Hampshire ever had a Right of Jurisdiction to the westward of Connecticut-River, and by the same Authority, in 1764, the Jurisdiction was curtailed to the West Bank of said River; and the Assembly of said Province did then acquiesce therein. The members thereof did publicly assert that they had no desire that their Province should extend any farther than said River; and that they would not do any thing to obtain Jurisdiction over a Territory they did not want.—Had the People then submitted to the jurisdiction of New York, and since the present Revolution associated with them, and assisted in forming a Constitution, established Courts, &c. the Inhabitants would now have been effectually bound down to the Jurisdiction of said State; and it would have been now as much out of the power of New Hampshire to extend their Jurisdiction to their ancient mestern Limits, as for the Massachusetts-Bay now to extend their Jurisdiction to their ancient northern Limits,—which I believe none are now so hardy as to think of.

By what has been already elucidated, it appears, that the Inhabitants of the Grants, by their own Exertions, have saved themselves from the heavy Yoke of Bondage which New York had prepared for them and their Posterity; and that the Right of New Hampshire (so late in the Day) to the Territory of Vermont, must be very inconsiderable: And now, for a few of the Members of that General Court, with the Assistance of a few Individuals to the East and West of Connecticut-River (for sinister views) to think of breaking up the State of Vermont, and connecting the Territory thereof to New Hampshire, is an idle Whim, a mere Chimera.—It is well known, that by Reason of Oppression from Great Britain, America revolted from her, and published to the World a List of Grievances for the Vindication of her conduct. In like manner the Inhabitants of the now State of Vermont, published a List of Grievances received from New York, which to me appears as numerous and aggravating as those this Continent has against Great Britain.

All governmental Power was given by God himself to the People: therefore, the Inhabitants of the now State of Vermont did associate together and assume to themselves that inestimable Blessing of Heaven—civil Government. This they did upon the same grand original Basis, or great Rule of Eternal Right, that a Number of the present Powers of Europe revolted from the several Kingdoms to which they paid Allegiance, and on which the United States of America revolted from Great Britain, and assumed to themselves Civil Government. The Inhabitants of Vermont, for more than ten years last past, have nobly exerted themselves for the Defence of their Liberties and Property, and in the present Revolution did most heartily join their Brethren for the joint Defence of the Liberties and Property of the Americans in general, and have distinguished themselves to the World, as a truly brave and enterprising People; and it is conceded to by the United States, that they have done their full proportion in this War;—consequently they are entitled to equal privileges with the Rest of their Brethren in America.

They have not delegated their natural Right of Legislation out of their own Hands:—Their Numbers and Territory are sufficient for a State, and they have now as good a Right to govern their own internal Police as any one of the United States have theirs. By their noble Exertions in the Cause of Liberty, they have acquired the Esteem and Confidence of the United States—merited a Right to the Articles of Confederacy, and a Seat in the Grand Council of America. These precious Privileges, I conceive, will be the ultimate Reward of their many expensive Toils, Battles and Hazards, and for the attainment of which they have suffered such an uncommon share of concomitant Evils.—And as I have Reason to apprehend the Grand Council of America is composed of as great Patriots as any on Earth, doubt not but in due Time they will grant us our reasonable Request: Indeed it is for the interest of the United States to do it, as soon as the Circumstances of the Continent will admit; therefore we need not hurry them. It is an ancient Maxim, that Representation and Taxation should go together; and until this State is represented in Congress, no Continental Tax can justly be laid on it.

Is it not strange that any of the Inhabitants of this State, who have perused the Constitution and Laws, and duly considered the Advantages that would accrue to each Individual by being and remaining a distinct State, would be willing to give up these Privileges, and connect with any other State:—Surely the Constitution is upon the most liberal foundation—the Laws are well calculated to preserve involate the Liberties and Property of each Individual—the Act of Oblivion settles past Controversies, and puts those who made the Laws and those who opposed them, on one Footing, each having a Right to the Protection of the same; and as one common Interest runs thro' the Whole, hope that past Animosities will be forgotten, and all join Hand in Hand to support their common Rights and Interests.

The Circumstances of this State, in some Respects, is different from every other State on the Continent:—it is not in Debt—I have as much money in my office as is due from the State except what I have taken in upon Loan, to balance which, I have in my Office, about as much Money in Continental Loan Office Notes, so that on a Balance, the State is little or none in Debt, excepting what may be supposed to be the State's Proportion of the Continental Debt. (If any Individual in the State is not satisfied with this Stating of Accounts, I invite him to wait on me at my office, and I will exhibit the public Books of Debt and Credit for the Proof of the Assertion.)—But there are several valuable Tracts of Land, the Property of this State:—how far those Lands will go towards paying the Continental Debt, do not at this time take upon me to determine.

Every one of the United States have emitted large Sums of Money, some Part of which has been called in by giving States Loan Office Notes for the same, which are yet due. By this and other Proceedures of the several States, they are in Debt. The Inhabitants of the respective States, have received the Benefits of such Debts, when they contracted them; but the Inhabitants of this State have received no Benefits from such Debt: And why they should any of them wish to connect with any such State, when they know they will be brought in to pay a Part of all such arrearages, is a thing almost unaccountable.

As there are four public Rights of Land in each Town in this State—one for the first settled Minister, one for Schools, one for the first settled Church Minister, and one for propagating the Gospel in foreign parts—I propose for Consideration, whether it would not be advisable for the Assembly to direct each Town to leave out the two latter, and the Avails to be by each Town appropriated for the Support of the Gospel in the Same.

Lastly, I proceed to state two Matters that are Facts, which I believe will not be disputed by any, from which I shall ask two Questions.

Fact First. A certain Fraternity of Gentlemen, contiguous to Connecticut River, after the Inhabitants of the Grants west of said River, had declared themselves to be a free State, by the name of Vermont, did assert that said State had a just Right to be a State; and that the grants East of Connecticut River were unconnected with any State, and had a just Right to join said State.

Question First. Did the Dissolution of the Union (so called) lessen the Right the State of Vermont had to be a State before the said union took place?—If it did, in what Manner?

Fact Second. It was also asserted by said Gentlemen that New Hampshire had no Right, Title or Color of Jurisdiction to the West of the Mason Line.—That the Grants West of the Mason Line, and East of Connecticut River, had a good Right to form themselves into a State, and would do it, if the State of Vermont would not take them into Union.—The foregoing assertions being granted:

Question Second. What Propriety is there now in requesting New Hompshire to extend their Claim and Jurisdiction over the Territory of Vermont?

I beg leave to subjoin the following Copy of a Letter from the Hon. Committee of Congress, to the Committee of the Yorkers in the lower part of Cumberland County.

Bennington, June 23d, 1779.

"GENTLEMEN.—The Subscribers are here at present, as members of a Committee of Congress sent for the express Purpose of endeavoring to bring about an amicable Settlement of the Differences between the State of New York and the Inhabitants of the New Hampshire Grants who have formed themselves into a State called by them, the State of Vermont.

"We have understood that you and others of the State of New York, have declined taking your turn of Militia Duty, for the Defence of the Frontiers, because the Requisition was made under the Authority of the State of Vermont; and that you have met with some Trouble on this Account.

"We have therefore sent this to inform you, that we hope there will be, by Interposition of Congress, a happy Accommodation of all Differences in a short Time. In the mean while we have obtained a Promise of Gov. Chittenden, that you shall not be molested till matters are finally settled; and we have engaged to write to you, voluntarily and freely to raise your full Proportion of Men, whenever your Neighbors are called, and you are informed of this, either by Continental Officers, or the new State, till such time as you have special Directions from the Governor of New York, which we hope to obtain from you, on our return Home. This we are confident you will readily comply with, as otherwise People will be tempted to impute your Conduct to Disaffection to the Cause of the United States.

"We hope that you will understand that the Protection and Forbearance which is promised us on your Behalf is to be considered as the only Condition of your cordially complying with our Request, and in every Respect behaving quietly and orderly, while the Measures for Pacification are on Foot."

We are, &c.

Resolves of Congress respecting the New Hampshire Grants.

[P. 149.] In Congress September 24, 1779. Whereas on the first day of June last, Congress by a certain resolution reciting, "That whereas divers applications had been made to Congress on the part of the State of New York and of the State of New Hampshire relative to differences and animosities among Inhabitants of a certain district known by the name of "the New Hampshire Grants," praying their interference for quieting thereof, did Resolve, That a Committee be appointed to repair to the New Hampshire Grants, and inquire into the reasons why they refused to continue Citizens of the respective States, which heretofore exercised jurisdiction over the said district:—for that as Congress are in duty bound on the one hand to preserve inviolate the rights of the several States; so on the other, they will always be careful to provide that the justice due to the States does not interfere with the justice which may be due to Individuals; That the said Committee confer with the said inhabitants and that they take every prudent measure to promote an amicable settlement of all differences, and prevent divisions and animosities so prejudicial to the United States;" and did further "Resolve That the further consideration of this subject be postponed until the said Committee shall have made report:"

[P. 150.] And whereas it so happened that a majority of the Committee appointed in pursuance of the aforementioned resolution did not meet in the said district, and therefore have never executed the business committed to them, or made a regular report thereupon to Congress:—

Ordered, That the said Committee be discharged: And whereas the animosities aforesaid have lately proceeded so far and risen so high as to endanger the internal peace of the United States, which renders it indispensably necessary for Congress to interpose for the restoration of quiet and good order: And, Whereas one of the great objects of the union of the United States of America is the mutual protection and security of their respective rights; And, Whereas it is of the last importance, to the said Union, that all causes of jealousy and discontent between the said States should be removed, and therefore that their several boundaries and jurisdictions be ascertained and settled; and, Whereas, disputes at present subsist between the States of New Hampshire, Massachusetts Bay and New York on the one part, and the people of a district of country, called New Hampshire Grants on the other, which people deny the jurisdiction of each of the said States over the said districts: [P. 151.] and each of the said States claim the said district against each other, as well as against the said people as appertaining in the whole or in part to them respectively:

Resolved, unanimously, That it be and hereby is most earnestly recommended to the States of New Hampshire, Massachusetts Bay and New York, forthwith to pass Laws expressly authorizing Congress to hear and determine all differences between them relative to their respective boundaries, in the mode prescribed by the articles of Confederation, so that Congress may proceed thereon by the first day of February next at farthest; and further, that the said States of New Hampshire, Massachusetts Bay & New York, do by express laws for the purpose refer to the decision of Congress all differences or disputes relative to jurisdiction, which they may respectively have with the people of the district aforesaid, so that Congress may proceed thereon on the said first day of February next; and also to authorize Congress to proceed to hear and determine all disputes subsisting between the grantees of the several States aforesaid with one another or with either of the said States respecting title to lands lying in the said district, to be heard and determined in the mode prescribed for such cases by [P. 152.] the articles of confederation aforesaid; and further to provide that no advantage be taken of the non-performance of the conditions of any of the grants of the said lands, but that further reasonable time be allowed for fulfilling such conditions.

Resolved, Unanimously, That Congress will and hereby do pledge their faith to carry into execution & support their decisions and determinations in the premises in favor of which soever of the parties the same may be, to the end that permanent concord and harmony may be established between them; and all cause of uneasiness removed.

Resolved, Unanimously, That Congress will, on the said first day of February next proceed without delay to hear & examine into the disputes and differences relative to jurisdiction aforesaid between the said three States respectively, or such of them as shall pass the Laws before mentioned on the one part, and the people of the district aforesaid, who claim to be a seperate jurisdiction, on the other; and after a full and fair hearing will decide and determine the same according to equity; and that neither of the said States shall vote on any question relative to the decision thereof; And Congress do hereby pledge their faith to execute and [P. 153.] support their decisions and determinations in the premises.

And whereas it is essential to the interest of the whole Confederacy that all intestine dissentions be carefully avoided and domestic peace and good order maintained:—

Resolved, Unanimously, That it is the duty of the people of the district aforesaid, who deny the jurisdiction of all the aforenamed States, to abstain in the mean time from exercising any power over any of the Inhabitants of the said district, who profess themselves to be citizens of, or to owe allegiance to any or either of the said States; but that none of the Towns either or in the East or West side of Connecticut river, be considered as included within the said district, but such as have heretofore actually joined in denying the Jurisdiction of either of the said States, and have assumed a seperate Jurisdiction, which they call the State of Vermont. And further, that in the opinion of Congress, the said three States aforementioned ought in the mean time to suspend executing their Laws over any of the Inhabitants of the said district, except such of them as shall profess allegiance to and confess the jurisdiction of the same respectively; and further that Congress will consider any violen-[P. 154.] ces committed against the tenor, true intent and meaning of this resolution as a breach of the peace of the Confederacy, which they are determined to keep and maintain; and to the end that all such violences and breaches of the public peace may be the better avoided in the said district; it is hereby recommended to all the Inhabitants thereof to cultivate harmony and concord among themselves, to forbear vexing each other at law or otherwise, and to give as little occasion as possible to the interposition of Magistrates.

Resolved, Unanimously, That in the opinion of Congress no unappropriated lands or estates which are or may be adjudged forfeited or confiscated lying in the said district, ought, until the final decision of Congress in the premises to be granted or sold.

Ordered, That copies of the aforegoing resolutions be sent by express to the States of New York, New Hampshire and Massachusetts Bay, and to the people of the district aforesaid; and that they be respectively desired to lose no time in appointing their agent or agents, and otherwise preparing [P. 155.] for the hearings aforesaid.

The aforesaid Resolutions being read over and a question taken to agree to the whole:---

Resolved, Unanimously, in the affirmative.

Further Resolves of Congress in relation to the foregoing.

Whereas in the first Resolution of Congress of the 24

Sept. last relative to a district of Country called "New Hampshire Grants" is the following clause, viz. "And also to authorize Congress to proceed to hear and determine all disputes subsisting between the grantees of the several States aforesaid with one another, or with either of the said States respecting title to lands lying in the said district, to be heard and determined in the mode prescribed for such cases by the articles of Confederation aforesaid;" and whereas no provision is made in the said articles of Confederation for hearing & determining disputes between any State & the Grantees of any other State, Resolved, Unanimously that the clause above recited be repealed.

Resolved, Unanimously, That it be and hereby is recommended to the States of New Hampshire Massachusetts bay & New York, to authorize Congress to proceed to hear and determine all disputes subsisting between the grantees of the several States aforesaid with one another or with either of the said States respecting title to lands lying in the said district, to be heard & determined by Commissioners or Judges to be appointed in the mode prescribed by the ninth article of the Confederation aforesaid.

Ordered, That a copy of the preceding resolves be transmitted to the said States of New Hampshire, Massachusetts bay and New York, and also to the inhabitants of the New Hampshire Grants.

Letter from Woodbury Langdon, delegate in Congress, to Meshech Weare, respecting Vermont.

The reasons why I have not done myself the honour of writing to you before, are these: Soon after my arrival here I was taken very ill of a Fever, which confined me to my Bed a considerable time, and since my recovery General Whipple has gone home, who from his long residence and experience at Congress will be able to give you a more perfect account of the transactions here than can be expected from me.

Since my recovery I have attended Congress with the closest application, and shall endeavour to exert myself, if my health continues, to the utmost of my ability while here.

You will have received sundry Resolutions relative to Vermont from the President of Congress, a copy of the last of which I herein inclose; the others of the 24th September were pass'd while I was confined, and I cannot say are altogether to my mind. This Business in my opinion is of the greatest consequence to New Hampshire, and requires her [P. 160.] most serious attention for many very weighty Reasons:-among which, give me leave to mention the following: That as the thirteen United States have declared themselves independent—which they will beyond all doubt support—and at the same time have reserved to each State its particular seperate independence and sovereignty, and as New Hampshire without Vermont will be very small and weak compared with her neighbouring States, and it cannot be expected in the nature of things, but that some day or other differences will arise between that State and her neighbours, in which case she will be under great disadvantages on account of her weakness; it therefore is her indispensable duty in the first seting out, to endeavour by all proper means to be as much on a footing with her neighbours as possible: of the truth of this I am more & more convinced every day; it will also give her greater weight in the grand Councils of America, and be an amazing saving of Tax-both which are objects well worthy consideration. The same reasons will apply to Vermont, against her being a seperate State, and in favor of her being connected with New Hampshire:-indeed there does not appear to me the [P. 161.] least probability that Vermont will be allowed to be a seperate State; and every step that has been or may be taken by New Hampshire to countenance it weakens her claim far beyond what many gentlemen of New Hampshire have any conception of, and will be so considered in deciding the dispute; therefore I wish most heartily that New Hampshire and the Inhabitants of what is called the Grants or Vermont would, for the interest of both, lay aside every thought of making the latter a seperate State, and unite in their endeavours to be one State, in which case, in my opinion, they will succeed; but if Vermont persists in endeavouring to be a seperate State and New Hampshire appears to acquiesce, they will very likely both be disappointed, and in all probability Vermont will be adjudged to New York. I confess I am anxiously concerned for the settlement of this matter; and when I declare that I have no private interest in the tract of country called Vermont, and never expect to have, it will, I flatter myself, be admitted that I can have no view seperate from the true Interest of New Hampshire, when I endeavour to prevent the Grants from being loped off from New Hampshire, of which without vigorous exertions there appears to be danger.

[P. 162.] The Delegates of New York, Massachusetts Bay and New Hampshire have most of them thought it best to recommend to their several States a particular form of an act to answer the end of the Resolution referred to above, in order that there might be a similarity in the acts; the Delegates from the two former States have accordingly sent a form of an Act to their respective States,—a copy of which I have thought it my duty to inclose herein; and the General Court will adopt it or not as they may think proper. should be adopted, it may be very necessary to add a clause making it of force provided New York & Massachusetts Bay pass similar Acts;—otherwise not,—as it is at present very uncertain what will be done by those States; and I hope I shall be pardoned when I say that I hope that care will be taken in forming every part of the Act, that no disadvantage or embarrassment may accrue to the State hereafter in consequence of it.

Yesterday was forwarded to you by express, sundry Resolutions of Congress respecting a supply of the Treasury, the Letter accompanying them together with the inclosed of the 13th Sep<sup>r</sup> past sufficiently point out the necessity of the [P. 163.] measure, without my ading any thing on the subject. It gives me much pain to find that there appears to be a necessity for calling on the States for such large supplies, and confess that I am not without my fears respecting the success of it; but you must see what will be the consequence if it does not succeed. Your Delegates have been able to procure the Proportion of Tax for New Hampshire to be much lower that what it has hitherto been; but it must be remembered that when hereafter the proportion of the Taxes of each State shall be finally fixed agreeable to some former Resolutions of Congress, if it shall then appear that New Hampshire or any other State has been deficient, it will be then liable to make good such deficiency, and on the other hand, if any State has been overrated it will have credit for the same.

The peculiar situation of my Family and other concerns renders it necessary for me to leave this place early in December, in order to return home; which I hope will not be taken amiss by the Court, as they will remember it is agreeable to my engagement with them; it will always be the [P. 164.] height of my ambition to render the State every possible service in my power—doubtless care will be taken that such Persons are chosen to represent the State in Congress as are fully acquainted with the dispute relative to Vermont, and to instruct them fully in that Business.

I am with all due Respect your most obedient H'bl Serv<sup>t</sup> WOODBURY LANGDON.

A Resolve of Congress of the first of June 1779, by which you were appointed a Committee to "repair to the Inhabitants of a certain district known by the name of the New Hampshire Grants, and enquire into the reasons why they refuse to continue citizens of the respective States which heretofore exercised Jurisdiction over the said district," hath been transmitted to the General Court of this State; in consequence of which the s<sup>d</sup> Court appointed Ebenezer Thompson, Esq<sup>r</sup> to wait on you at the said Grants, in behalf of the State, to answer any matters that may be offered by Persons heretofore under the Jurisdiction of New Hampshire as reasons for their refusing to continue Citizens thereof; and any other things that may come under your Enquiry, in which this State is concerned.

Letter from Samuel Huntington, President of Congress, to Meshech Weare, dated

Philadelphia, June 6, 1780.

You will receive herewith enclosed an Act of Congress of the 2<sup>d</sup> Instant, containing sundry resolutions respecting the District of Country commonly known by the name of the New Hampshire Grants.

P. S. June 10. You have also inclosed an Act of Congress* of the 9th Instant assigning the Second Tuesday of September next, for hearing &c. the Disputes respecting the New Hampshire Grants in the manner therein expressed.

I am, ut supra,

S. Huntington, President.

The Honble President of the Council of New Hampshire.

Resolutions of Congress, in relation to affairs in the New Hampshire Grants.

In Congress, June 2d, 1780.

Whereas it is represented to Congress, and by authentic evidence laid before them it appears, that the people inhabiting the district of country commonly known by the name of the New Hampshire Grants, and claiming to be an independent State, have, notwithstanding the resolutions of Congress of the 24th Septem and 2th Oct. proceeded as a seperate Government, to make grants of lands and sales of estates by them declared forfeited and confiscated, and have also in divers instances exercised civil and military authority over the persons and effects of sundry inhabitants within the said district, who profess themselves to be citizens of and to owe allegiance to the State of New York:

Resolved, That the acts and proceedings of the people inhabiting the said district and claiming to be an independent State, as aforesaid, in contravening the good intentions of the said resolutions of the 24th September and 2<sup>d</sup> October last, are highly unwarrantable, and subversive of the peace and welfare of the United States:

That the people inhabiting the said district and claiming to be an independent State as aforesaid be and they hereby are strictly required to forbear and abstain from all acts of authority civil or military over the inhabitants of any town or district, who hold themselves to be subjects of and to owe allegiance to any of the States claiming the jurisdiction of the said territory in whole or in part, until the decisions and determinations in the resolutions aforementioned shall be made.

And whereas, the States of New Hampshire and New York have complied with the said Resolutions of the 24th Sept<sup>t</sup> and 2<sup>d</sup> Oct. last, and by their agents and Delegates in Congress declared themselves ready to proceed in supporting their respective rights to the jurisdiction of the district [P. 174.] aforesaid in whole or in part, according to their several claims, and in the mode prescribed in the said Resolutions; and whereas Congress by their Order of the 21st of March last did postpone the consideration of the subject of the said resolutions, nine States, exclusive of those who were parties to the question not being represented, and by their order of the 17th of May, have directed that letters be written to the States not represented, requesting them immediately to send forward a representation—

Resolved, That Congress will as soon as nine States, exclusive of those who are parties to the controversy, shall be represented, proceed to hear and examine into and finally determine the disputes and differences relative to jurisdiction between the three States of New Hampshire, Massachusetts-bay and New York respectively, or such of them as shall have passed such Laws as are mentioned in the said resolutions of the 24th Sept<sup>r</sup> & 2<sup>d</sup> Oct<sup>r</sup> last, on the one part, and the people of the district aforesaid who claim to be a seperate jurisdiction, on the other, in the mode prescribed in & by the said resolutions.

Letter of Foseph Marsh, Peter Olcott, and Beza. Woodward to the President of Congress.

Dresden, on the New Hampshire Grants July 20, A. D., 1780.

Sir-May it please your Excellency:

We are sensible Congress have reason to expect their resolves of the first of June last, would have such influence that the people on these Grants might wait patiently their decisions respecting them; but such is the disposition of those who have assumed an independent jurisdiction that not only their measures but professions are in direct oppo-sition to those resolves. They have ever since their sessions in March been assiduous to obtain surveys of the ungranted lands and have now sundry parties of men out for that purpose, who instead of resting matters are hastened on account of the late resolves of Congress with a view to obtain surveys of the whole before the sessions of their Assembly in October next, and we understand are determined at that time to make grants of the whole to such persons as they shall apprehend will be most useful to assist in an establishment of a new State, and thereby at one stroke prevent an occasion for any further prohibition of Congress, purchase advocates in adjacent States and procure supplies of money to accomplish their purposes. They are also taking like speedy measures in confiscating estates of persons whom they are pleased to call tories; in respect to which it ought to be noted that their virulence is most poignant against those friends to order who oppose their rash procedures.

Vast numbers are continually making application for lands, and become advocates for their establishment in order to obtain them. Agents are at the same time employed to impress the minds of the people with an apprehension that Congress are conscious they have no right to decide the question in respect to their being an independent State, and mean to postpone it from time to time, that they may establish it themselves, and construe every delay in that light. And experience shows that such suggestions however ill-grounded have too much influence. In short no measures are omitted which may tend to weaken the authority of Congress in the minds of the people and destroy the salutary influence of their late resolves, which they say were passed only to quiet New York till they can establish their State.

New Hampshire continue to call on those towns east of the river (who have connected themselves with those west) for men, money and provisions, but as there is no authority to which they can consistently own allegiance, till Congress decide the dispute, and as they know not any right which New Hampshire (rather than Massachusetts or New York) have to call on them consistent with the resolves of Congress on the subject in Sepr last, they do not comply with their orders in respect to paying taxes, and think it unreasonable that a proposition? [proportion] be allotted to them, till they are put in a condition to perform it, which can be done only by the direction of Congress; they are [as] Zealously affected in the Contest with Great Britain as any part of America, have ever had their quota of men as full as any part, and are now exerting themselves to raise their quota of recruits, from a sense of the importance of the cause; but cannot act with that vigor as though the dispute respecting the grants was decided.

The people in these parts mean to abide the decision of Congress and abhor the sentiments of those who deny their right.—They will cheerfully acquiesce in anything Congress may judge proper, but ardently wish a union of the two sides of the river. New Hampshire will be their choice, if a new State be not admitted, which they have generally done expecting.

We entreat a speedy decision in respect to a new State, and in case one is not admitted, that commissioners may come into the territory to decide the claim of the other States, as we apprehend the future happiness of the inhabitants who are most nearly interested ought to be consulted, inasmuch as they will be principally affected by that decision.

We add nothing in respect to the merits of the case, as we have already laid our own submission and representation of the matter before Congress last winter, which we trust will be considered in its place.

A decision to be published on the Grants before a new election of officers in Vermont (in the beginning of Sep'*) is greatly desired, and in our view absolutely necessary before a meeting of their Assembly (the beginning of Oct'r) in order to prevent their involving hundreds of people in inextricable difficulties, by purchasing their grants of land.

More than thirty thousand people on these Grants must be involved in difficulties while the matter is delayed, and the eyes of the greater part are to Congress for relief; and unless it can be speedily obtained we are undone.

We write in behalf of the Inhabitants in the northern part on both sides of Connecticut river; and have the honor to be with the highest sentiments of duty and esteem, Sir,

Your Excellency's most obedient and most humble Servants.

Letter from Beza. Woodward to Samuel Livermore.

By a letter from Doctor Page of Charleston, I am informed that Congress, by a resolve of the ninth of June have appointed the first Tuesday of Sept. next to hear and finally determine the dispute respecting the New Hamp Grants—that the people in Cheshire County are roused by an apprehension that the Assembly of New Hampshire have no Agent appointed to attend nor delegate instructed to support their claim. We have had accounts here that you are re-appointed; but fear it is a mistake, as we are informed that Gen. Bellows sets off this day for Exeter with a petition for the Court to convene and prepare to support their claim. I hope you will not fail to go, as I well know your ability and disposition to take every proper measure to have set aside the line fixed by arbitrary power at Connecticut River in 1764. The Committee in this part wrote to Congress last week requesting in the most pressing manner, a speedy determination. They are to meet again at this place next week on Thursday on account of the above mentioned resolve, to determine what further may be expedient for us to do in the affair; at which time I would wish for your advice. The people in general in this part have done expecting a new State, and wish to have every proper measure taken to support the claim of New Hampshire to the whole of the Grants. They will peaceably and cheerfully acquiesce in any decision except a re-annexation to New York and establishment of a line at this river.

The settlement of the dispute is an object in which the people feel themselves deeply interested and are anxious for a determination.

I have the honor to be, Sir, with much esteem and respect, your most obedient & most

humble servant

BEZA, WOODWARD.

Letter from Thomas Chittenden to President Samuel Huntington respecting sundry acts of Congress relating to Vermont, dated

Bennington, 25th July, 1780.

Your Excellency's Letter of the 10th ult. inclosing several Acts of Congress of the 2<sup>d</sup> and 9th of the same month, I accidentally receiv'd the 6th instant, have laid them before my Council and taken their advice thereon; and now beg your Excellency's Indulgence, while I treat on a subject of such moment in its nature, and which so nearly concerns the citizens of this State.

However Congress may view those Resolutions, they are considered by the people of this State, as being in their nature subversive of the natural rights which they have to Liberty & Independence, as well as incompatible with the Principles on which Congress ground their own Right to Independence, and have a natural and direct tendency to endanger the liberties of America, which have hitherto been defended at great Expense both of Blood and Treasure.

Vermont's Right to Independence has been sufficiently argued, and the good consequences resulting to the United States from its first assuming Government clearly vindicated in sundry Pamphlets, which have been officially laid be-[P. 180.] fore Congress. I beg leave to refer your Excellency to "Vermont's appeal" &c.* particularly from the 32nd to the 42nd page, in which, among other things is contained a particular answer to the Resolution of the 24th of September, referred to in the Resolve of the 2<sup>d</sup> of June last, and a Denial of the authority of Congress over this State, so far as relates to their existence as a free and independent Government. I find, notwithstanding, by a Resolution of the 9th ult. that Congress have assigned the 2<sup>d</sup> Tuesday of September next to judge absolutely of the Independence of Vermont as a seperate jurisdiction.

Can Congress suppose that this Government are so void of Reason as not to discern, that the Resolves of the 2nd and 9th of June aforesaid (so far as the authority of Congress may be supposed to extend to this State) are directly levelled against their Independency? Vermont as beforementioned, being a free and independent State, have denied the authority of Congress to judge of their Jurisdiction.

Over the head of all this Congress have, it appears by their Resolutions of the 9th ult. determined that they have power to judge the cause, which has already determined the [P. 181.] essence of the Dispute; for if Vermont does not belong to some one of the United States, Congress could have no such power without their consent; so that consequently, determining that they have such a power, has determined that Vermont has no eight to Independency; for it is utterly incompatible with the Rights and Prerogatives of an Independent state to be under the controul, or arbit-rament of any other Power. Vermont have, therefore, no other alternative:-they must either submit to the unwarrantable decree of Congress, or continue their Appeal to Heaven and to arms. There may in future be a Tryal at Congress, which of the United States shall possess this Territory, or how it shall be divided among them, (but this does not concern Vermont) and it is altogther probable that there have been proposals for dividing it between the States of New Hampshire and New York, the same as the King of Prussia, the Empress of Russia and the Empress of Hano-[P. 182.] ver, divided Poland between those Powers; with this difference only, that the former are not in possession of Vermont.

ungenerous claims of New Hampshire and Massachusetts Bay, has been seen, and its motions carefully observed by this Government, who expected that Congress would have averted the storm; but disappointed in this and unjustly treated as the people (over whom I preside on the most serious and candid deliberation) conceive themselves to be in this affair; yet blessed by Heaven with constancy of mind, and some friends as an honest, valiant and brave people, are necessitated solemnly to declare to your Excellency, to Congress, and to the world, that as Life, Liberty, and the Rights of this People entrusted them by God are inseparable, they do not expect to be justified in the eye of Heaven, or that Posterity would call them blessed, if they should tamely surrender and Part.

Without doubt, Congress have (previous to this) been acquainted that this State hath maintained several Posts on its [P. 183.] frontiers, at its own expense, which is well known to be the only security to this Quarter of the frontier Inhabitants of the Massachusetts Bay and New Hampshire; and it is highly probable that Albany, and such parts of the State of New York as lies to the Northward of that, would before this time have been ravaged by the common enemy, had it not been for the indefatigable exertions of this State. and the Fears which the Enemy have been, and are still possessed of, that their Retreat would be intercepted by the Troops from those Posts, and the militia of this State. Thus by guarding the Frontiers has this State secured the friendship of a part of the private Gentlemen and yeomanry, even of those States, whose representatives it seems, are seeking its Destruction; and having the general approbation of disinterested States, this People are undoubtedly in a condition to maintain Government; but should they be deceived in such connections, yet as they are not included in the thirteen United States, but conceive themselves to be a seperate Body, they would have still in their power other [F. 184.] advantages, for they are, if necessitated to it, at liberty to offer or accept Terms of cessation of Hostilities with Great Britain, without the approbation of any other man or body of men; for on proviso that neither Congress, nor the Legislatures of those States which they represent, will support Vermont in her Independence, but devote her to the usurped Government of any other Power, she has not the most distant motives to continue Hostilities with Great Britain, and maintain an important Frontier for the Benefit of the United States, & for no other Reward than the ungrateful one, of being enslaved by them. True, Vermont has taken an active part in the war subsisting between the United States and Great Britain under an expectation of securing her Liberty, considering the claims of Great Britain to make Laws "to bind the Colonies in all cases whatsoever without their consent," to be an abridgment of the natural Rights of Mankind, and it appears that the said Resolves of the 2<sup>d</sup> and 9th of June, are equally arbitrary and that they furnish equal motives to the citizens of Vermont to resist the one as the other. For if the United States have departed from the virtuous principles upon which they first commenced the war with Great Britain, and have assumed to themselves the Power of usurping the Rights of Vermont, it is time, high time for her seriously to consider what she is fighting for, and for what purpose she has been for more than five years last past spilling the Blood of her This government have dealt with severity bravest sons. towards the Tories, confiscated some of their estates, imprisoned some, banished some, and hanged some &c. and kept the remainder in as good subjection as any State belonging to the Union; and they have likewise granted unto worthy Whigs in the neighbouring States some part of their unappropriated Lands, the inconsiderable avails of which have been faithfully appropriated for the Defence of the Northern Frontiers, which eventually terminates in the support of the interest and securing the Independence and sovereignty of the United States: And after having faithfully executed all this, have the mortification to meet with the resentment of Congress circulated in Hand-Bills and in [P. 185.] the New York public papers representing their conduct "in contravening the good intentions of Congress, as being highly unwarrantable and subversive of the Peace and Welfare of the United States." Those Resolves serve only to raise the aspiring Hopes and Expectations, and to revive a languishing flame of a few Tories and schismatics in this State who have never been instrumental in promoting the common cause of America. With regard to the State of Massachusetts Bay, they have not as a Legislative Body, laid any claim to the Territory of Vermont; nor have they enacted Laws judiciously authorizing Congress to take cognizance thereof, agreeable to the aforementioned Resolves;

-a majority of their Legislative Body considering such Pretensions to be an Infringement on the Rights of Vermont, and therefore the State of Massachusetts Bay, cannot be considered as a party in this Controversy. And as to the State of New Hampshire, although they have judicially authorized Congress to make a final adjudication of their late started and very extraordinary claim to the Territory of [P. 186.] Vermont, yet by recurring back to original proceedings between the two States, it appears that the General Court of New Hampshire had, previous to laying their said claim, settled their boundary line with the State of Vermont, and established Connecticut River for the Boundary between the respective Governments; and so far as the approbation of the Government of New Hampshire can go, have previously conceded to the Independence of Vermont: The particulars of which are too prolix to be given in this Letter, but are exhibited at large in a Pamphlet entitled "a concise Refutation of the Claims of New Hampshire and Massachusetts Bay to the Territory of Vermont," &c. which is herewith transmitted* as a Bar against the right of New Hampshire to a Tryal for any part of Vermont. The Government of New Hampshire, ever since the Royal Adjudication of the Boundary Line between them and the government of New York in 1764, have cast the Inhabitants of the contested Territory out of their protection, and abandoned them to the Tyranny of New York; and have very lately, [P. 187.] over the head of the settlement aforesaid, laid claim to the said territory, and enacted Laws as aforesaid, to enable Congress to judicially determine the merit of said

How glaringly illegal, absurd and Inconsistent must their conduct as a Legislative Body appear in this respect. Such irregularities among Individuals, arise from the ill-government of the Human Passions; but when it takes place in public Bodies, it is unpardonable, as its influence is more extensive and injurious to Society. Hence it appears that (legally speaking) neither of the States of New Hampshire or Massachusetts Bay, can be with propriety considered as parties in the controversy, and consequently, New York alone is left a competitor with Vermont. Even admitting that Congress are possessed of sufficient authority to determine those Disputes, agreeable to their Resolutions; which by this Government is by no means admissible. Notwith-[P. 188.] standing the usurpation and Injustice of Neighbouring Governments towards Vermont, and the late Resolutions of Congress; this Government, from a principle of virtue and a close attachment to the cause of Liberty, as well as a thorough examination of their own Policy, are induced, once more to offer Union with the United States of America, of which Congress are the legal Representative Body—Should this be denied, this State will propose the same to the Legislatures of the United States separately, and take such other measures as self-preservation may justify.

In behalf of the Council, I am, obedient Humbl Servant,

Beza. Woodward's petition in behalf of people above Charlestown, N. H., Grants [Gov. and Coun. Ver., Vol. II, pp. 251-253].

[By order of a convention holden at Dresden, Aug. 30, 1780.]

To his Excellency the President and the Honorable members of the Congress of the United States of North America—Humbly sheweth.

The petition of the principle inhabitants on Connecticut river on both sides and northward of Charleston, met in Convention at Dresden on the New Hampshire Grants, August 30th 1780—

That the union of Canada with the United States is in our opinion of the greatest importance to them for the following reasons, viz: there is but one seaport in that country which we shall ever have need to defend, yet good water carriage for near two thousand miles, stretching itself in a circular manner round the thirteen United States, through an excellent country of land, great part of which is inhabited by savages, whose furr and skin trade produces to our enemies an annual profit which is immense.

The annual produce of wheat in that country for exportation is very great, by which the British armies in America receive essential advantage. The capture of that country will be a leading step towards securing to the united States the profit of the fish, oil, &c. produced at and near the St. Lawrence, which would be a greatly beneficial acquisition. While they hold possession of Canada, our frontier must be very extensive, and the savages at their command, and we had almost said, the enemy destroy and take yearly from the frontiers bordering on Canada as much in value as the cost of reducing and holding that country. We are sure the defence of our frontiers costs more.

The securing that country in our favor will be the only effectual means to enable us to secure those of Ohio and Missisipi, both on account of obtaining in that way the interest of the savages in our favor, and as the conveyance for the enemy (while they hold possession of Canada) of men, ammunition and provisions to those parts is not only as easy but more expeditious and safe by the waters St. Lawrence than by the Gulf of Mexico. And in our opinion those countries cannot otherwise be effectually secured. By obtaining Canada we add to our force thirty thousand fighting men and destroy the efficacy of the bill passed in the British Parliament in the year 1774 for extending the province of Quebec which includes the province of Main and great part of New Hampshire, these Grants, &c. the establishment of which is, without doubt, the main object of the enemy in taking and holding possession at Penobscot, and within the extent of which the United States have not a single fortress to cover their claim in opposition to that of the British. In short that bill is so extensive that should it be established the united States would have little or nothing left worth contending for, and we see not how it can be effectually destroyed but by a union of Canada with them.

The body of inhabitants in that country are desirous of such union, and unless it can be bro't about speedily by sending a force into Canada, they will be under necessity to take an active part against us, which they have hitherto avoided. The whole force of Britain now in arms in Canada at all their posts from Quebec to Detroit including one thousand five hundred tories and Indians (who are continually roving and destroying our frontiers) does not exceed five thousand men; one thousand are stationed in the district of Montreal, and six hundred of the rovers have that district for their head quarters.

The communication from the settlements on this river to St. Charles on Chamblee river is easy—the road already opened more than half the way, the rest may be opened at very little expense, and the whole will be very good—the distance about one hundred miles.

A good commander with few continental troops in addition to such Voluntiers as may be raised for that purpose on these Grants and in the New England States, with a suitable quantity of arms and ammunition to furnish those Canadians who are now eager for such an expedition, and will at once join us on arrival of an army there, will easily take possession of and keep the district of Montreal, and that being secured, the country above, even to and beyond the western Lakes must soon submit to the united states.

Your petitioners are confident that fifteen hundred men from these Grants will turn out (if called for) to assist in taking possession of that country. They can and will chearfully furnish five hundred horses, one hundred teams and ten thousand bushels of wheat, and more if necessary, also such other grain as may be wanted on the credit of the continent from the district of country between the heights on the two sides of Connecticut river and north of the Massachusetts Bay, the inhabitants of which, (more than five thousand families) are now chiefly obliged to hold the sword in one hand and tools for husbandry in the other, and probably must continue so to do till that country is reduced, unless we have a large continental force continually supported here to defend us from their ravages, as our frontier is very extensive.

We therefore humbly pray that Congress will be pleased to order an expedition into Canada, by the middle of September next, or as soon as possible, and publish a recommendation to the people on the Grants and to the New England States for voluntiers to join such Continental forces as shall be sent on the expedition, and that we make ready necessary provisions which your petitioners will chearfully comply with to the utmost of their power.

And as in duty bound shall ever pray, &c.
Per order of the Convention,
BEZA. WOODWARD, Clerk.

Another letter from Beza. Woodward to the President of Congress, relating to the New Hampshire Grants.

Dresden on the New Hampshire Grants August 31st, 1780.

May it please your Excellency.

Col. Olcott [is] again appointed* agent in behalf of the people on both sides Connecticut river from Charleston upward, in the dispute betwixt the claiming States and the New Hampshire Grants.—We entreat that a determination of the question "Whether a new State be allowed on the Grants," may be deferred no longer, as every confusion is taking place among the people and will continue while that point is unsettled, of which he can give particular information and to whom we beg leave to refer Congress.

We trust our petition by our agents last winter and the committees letter of the 20th ult. will be brought to the view of Congress when the trial comes on. There is no one point in which the people can agree so well as in an union with N. Hampshire in case the whole on both sides of the river shall not be permitted to unite in a new State, which the body of the people have now done expecting-[two or three words erased] We would however entreat that after the determination that a new State be not admitted, the people may be called upon to show which of the States they wish to be united with, as the happiness and prosperity of the inhabitants will greatly depend on their being gratified in that respect; such a measure also will have the most effectual tendency to procure an universal acquiescence in the resolves of Congress respecting the matter, as it will evidence a tender concern in Congress for their well-demand a union with New Hampshire by virtue of the compact made with them by the King in the Grants he made of the lands by the Governor of New Hampshire.

It has been suggested that the people will take arms and claim protection of Canada under the Quebec bill in opposition to any resolve Congress may pass against a new State, which we can assure them is without foundation in respect to the body of the people, who are waiting with earnest expectation the decision of Congress on the subject, and mean to conform their conduct to it—there are very few but what will readily acquiesce—none of any consequence on this side the green mountains, and few on the other, however some of their leaders may desire to raise a tumult in opposition to them.

Col. Olcott is vested with all the power which our people can confer while in our present distracted situation, and we hope his measures in the matter conformable to this and other papers from this quarter may be considered as the voice of the people.

I write this by order and in behalf of the general Committee in the northern district of the grants and have the honor to be with highest sentiments of respect, Sir,

Your Excellency's most obedient and most humble servant,

BEZA. WOODWARD, Clerk.

[Endorsed]
Read, Sept. 18, 1780.

Letter from Hon. Fohn Sullivan, delegate in Congress, to Meshech Weare, relating to affairs in Vermont.

Congress have not yet come to a single resolution respecting Vermont, though it has been five days on the Tapis. New York seems disposed to have a determination against its being an Independent State, & then to have Commes<sup>78</sup> appointed to say whether it falls to New York or New Hamps<sup>78</sup>. General Foulsom and myself have opposed this and urged the appointment of Commissioners in the first Instance, both upon principles of policy & upon a conviction of the want of power in Congress to take any other step agreeable to the articles of Confederation.

I last evening received Letters from several persons of note in that quarter & the adjacent parts of New Hamp' expressive of the sentiments of the people, assuring me that a Division of the Grants will be Disagreeable to all: That if Congress are determined they shall not be Independent, seven-eighths of them will petition Congress to Re-unite them to New Hampsr. Colo Olcott of Vermont waited on me & assured me that this was the general sentiment of the People. I shall therefore be less violent in my opposition to that Question in future. I am exceeding happy to find that New York have appointed three Gentlemen of high spirits & all deeply interested in the event, to appear as agents for that State, breathing out nothing but Death & Slaughter against those people who have so long set their authority at Defiance & painting the Bitter enmity which they have ever discovered against the Yorkers. To this I have endeavoured to oppose the moderate spirit of New Hampshire; her readiness to acquiesce in the Determination of Congress & even though the Land is clearly within her limits, to submit to its being a separate State if Con-[P. 190.] gress should find it for the good of the whole. I have assisted the Yorkers in establishing the fact of an utter aversion of those people to live under their jurisdiction, and at the same time have taken care to maintain the harmony which has ever subsisted between them & New Hampshire. This I find is likely to have the effect intended. The members begin to see, that if the lands are adjudged to New York, the Continent must be involved in a war to enforce the Determination of Congress, which can only be avoided by adjudging it to New Hamps'; and I am convinced this will finally turn the Scale in favor of New Hampshire. I wish to have forwarded to me as soon as possible, one of the New Hampshire Law Books, in which is Governor Wentworth's Commission, as the Secretary has only furnished me with an extract from it without Date. I am indeed ashamed of the papers furnished from New Hampshire, & hope for success rather from Political considerations than from any other motives: A material paper is the prohibition to the Governor of New York in 1767 [see ante p. 243] to exercise jurisdiction or grant Lands in that Territory. This I cannot obtain; New York agents are possessed of, but will not produce it. I apprehend it must be in the Secretary's office. The several papers which I wrote for when at home or such of them as can be procured ought to be forwarded. The Southern members are as ignorant of the history of New England, as we are of the lands under the Poles. I procured some useful papers in Connecticut & hope to obtain more before the final Tryal. I shall also be glad of every evidence that New Hampshire can furnish & of their Instructions from time to time.

We have nothing new since Gen¹ Gates' defeat. I have seen a private letter from Gen1 Smallwood giving a particular account of the action. The loss on our side was about two hundred; the Enemy's five hundred. The brave Marylanders after being deserted by the Militia and the Commander-in-chief, performed wonders, & retired with regularity. General Smallwood had not heard of General Gates, when he wrote, as he had retired 200 miles from the place of action before he wrote the Letter which so much frightened those who believed it, of which I never was of the We have this day rec'd Intelligence from New York that the second Division of the French fleet is on the I rejoice that Gen<sup>1</sup> Washington gives New Hampshire credit for complying with the requisitions of Congress better than any other State. I wish her to continue her exertions as the army is literally starving, & I fear will disband; we are using every exertion to Remedy the evils which surround us, but it is a very late hour for the Business though I hope not too late.

I have the honor to be most respectfully

Dear Sir, your most obed Servt,

Letter from Gen. Facob Bailey to Meshech Weare, relating to Vermont, Canada, &c.

[p. 193.] SrNewbury, 6th Novr 1780.

I send Inclosed an Extract of a letter from Majr Allen to

Capt. Safford, which is very alarming to me. I question whether either of the United States may proceed so far as that Extract shows they have done. They confine the Truce to this State, as they call it the Threats they have made, and many other concurring reasons Induceth me to think the Letters of importance, and Negotiations mentioned in the abstract are noe other but in consequence of previous Proposals by Gen<sup>1</sup> Allen to the Governor of Canada in behalf of Vermont.* I cannot expect any better of a member on that side the Mountains, if they cannot have their will, than to join the Enemy; and if they do it, will be bad for you as well as us. Immediate care ought to be taken, but the case is, men will not believe till too late: I did give notice to you of the temper of that people, and urge that you would insist at Congress for a determination, whether Vermont was a State or not, and that without delay. Instead of that, I am informed your agent at Congress opposed the motion when put. Therefore the dispute is not settled and time given to the Enemy to make the greatest offers to them People. All the force that can be spared from Canada is at Crown Point and Onion River; and tho' they have been for six weeks in that Quarter, and it has been in their power to Distress the People on the grants west of the mountains, yet not man kiled or Captivated nor a House Burnt; but look on this side where People are opposed to the People on the west, in their Extravagancys they Burn, [P. 194.] kill and Captivate, and have been and now are watching to Destroy this and other places on this River. Also look at York State: What Devastations have they made, even to Fort Miller, the Country is Ransacked and burnt: is it not alarming? On our Part we shall keep a good look out and are determined to oppose to the last. I do expect they will make another attack on this River. I wish you would give orders that the nighest Regts in your State to us might be in Readiness; while I am writing, Lt White came in from Onion River; informs that a party of Enemy

It was carried on from 1779 to 1783, between parties in Vermont, New York, and Canada, with a view to detach Vermont from the United States and to annex it to the king's dominion in Canada. It is called the "Haldimand Correspondence," and is published, very fully, in Gov. and Coun. Rec. Ver., Vol. II, Appendix I, pp. 396-486, to which readers are referred.—ED.

[P. 195.] Extract of a Letter from Maj. Allen, dated at Otter Creek, Oct. 30, 1780, to Capt. Safford at Bethel east of the Mountains.

DEAR SR

I received a letter from General Allen last evening informing that the Evening before he rec'd a Flag from the British Troops at Crown Point with letters of Importance from the Commander-in-Chief at Quebec. Major Carlton hath pledged his Faith that all hostilitys shall cease on his Part during the Negotiation, and he Expects the same on our Part;—you are therefore carefully to observe the rules of war and give strict orders to your scouts and Troops to govern themselves accordingly.

A copy of this Letter you will forward to the Troops stationed on your side of the mountains in this State. I shall inform you of every move necessary for you moving on this side of the mountains. If the spirit of this letter were made known to the Inhabitants on your side the mountains it would be well.

Letter from Gen. Bailey to Meshech Weare, relating to the same affairs.

The season is such that the Enemy is not likely to do any more mischief at present. We thought the soldiers had better be discharged, and I suppose Maj<sup>T</sup> Whitcombs soldiers will be Furlough'd; therefore you need no issuing Commissary here; but I should think if Major Child's or any other man should continue purchasing (which I should think advisable) that Col<sup>o</sup> Charles Johnson should be appointed to Receive. It will be doubtless necessary that at least two Hundred men is sent here as soon as the first of Feb'ry, as then the snow and Ise will be hard, and fit for Snow-shoeing. I understand General Allen has made peace for Vermont till that time; but as we dont own that State we shall be their only butt: If the United States and your State in Particular do not take notice of such Treasonable conduct, we had better let the cause drop; if you had the Jurisdiction of the whole Grants, which I am sure you could if you only desire it, the Country would be safe; but if you split at the River you keep all in confusion, and must still depend for your own safety, and reap no Benefit neither by Tax nor Vacant Land, which is very considerable: While the matter hangs in suspense the Enemy may take possession (they claim it by the Quebec Bill, as well as Part of your State) then where is your State? For my part I am determined to fight for New Hamp and the United States, as long as I am alive and have one copper in my hands; but if our exertions are not greater and more effectual, another year will end the dispute not in our favour.

[P. 201.] The United States suffer themselves to be attacted Front and Rear and on the Flanks. Did General Burgoin get clear when that was the case with him? Our Chariot is in the mire: Praying to Hercules or France without putting too the shoulder with all our might, will not do.

This Frontier is the only one for five hundred miles west Remaining; it is near the Enemy; it is of great Importance to you as well as the other New England States, and the cause in General. Shall we forever be on the defensive, and yet not able to defend ourselves, as it is impossible we should while Canada is in the hands of the Enemy? Shall we not make an attempt on Canada that Harbour for Spoilers, Thieves and Robbers? I must confess the cause is sinking so fast in my view, I am willing (as I see no other remedy) to make the attempt if I run ten chances to one to die in the attempt. Sr I hope you will Excuse my freedom and give me leave to subscribe myself your Hon<sup>58</sup> most obedient

SECTION X.

Fresh measures to form a new State of the New Hampshire Grants on both sides the Connecticut River.

Proceedings of a Convention at Walpole, Nov. 15, 16, 1780.*

[Copied from Slade's State Papers, pp. 126, 127; also, see Gov. and Coun. Ver., Vol. II, pp. 278, 279.]

At a CONVENTION OF DELEGATES, from the several Towns in the County of Cheshire, in the State of New Hampshire, held at Walpole in said County, on the 15th day of November, in the year of our Lord, one thousand seven hundred and eighty.

Voted, That Dr. Page, Col. Hunt, Capt. Holmes, Daniel Jones, Esq., and Col. Bellows, be a Committee to confer with gentlemen from any parts of the Territory, called the New Hampshire Grants, concerning the jurisdiction of the said grants, and to consider what is proper to be done, by the inhabitants thereof, relative to their jurisdiction; that the same may be ascertained and established;—Which Committee, after due enquiry and consideration, report as follows: viz.

*&quot;Delegations from three counties (Cumberland, Gloucester, N. Y., and Grafton, N. H.) having by previous agreement met on the 8th of November, 1780, at Charlestown, N. H., measures were taken to learn the sentiments of the inhabitants residing in the towns included in the district which it was proposed to establish. Until the result of this inquiry should be declared, ultimate action was postponed. Desirous of engaging in the union, the towns in the county of Cheshire, N. H., sent delegates to a meeting which was held at Walpole on the 15th of November."—Wms. Hist. of East. Ver., p. 401.

The Committee appointed by the Convention, held at Walpole, November 15th, 1780, do report, That we have conferred with the several gentlemen present, who were committees from the different parts of the territory, called the New Hampshire Grants, viz. Cumberland, Gloucester and Grafton Counties, and do find, that many matters lately agitated with respect to the jurisdiction of the New Hampshire Grants, render a union of the inhabitants of that territory indispensably necessary. The said inhabitants received the grants of their lands from the same jurisdiction, and settled them while a union was extant; which was an implicit engagement of authority, that it should be continued. But we were unjustly deprived of the advantages resulting from it, in the year 1764, by an arbitrary decree of Great Britain, to which we never acceded; which decree, however, cannot be esteemed efficacious, since the declaration of Independence; it being one of those iniquitous measures, by which they were attempting to oppress the Colonies; and for which we have since thrown off subjection. being the case, the union re-exists. And shall we throw it The situation of the territory aforesaid, off? God forbid. by reason of their being a frontier, as well as many other matters, which are obvious respecting commerce and transactions of a public nature, make it expedient that they be united in all their interests, in order to make their efforts, in that quarter, against the common enemy, more vigorous and efficacious. In respect to government, great disadvantages may arise by a division. In that case delinquents may easily evade the operations of justice, by passing from one State to another, and thereby be induced more readily to practice iniquity in that part where the body of inhabitants and the principal traffick center. And we imagine that a union of public interests, is the only means by which the contentions and animosities, now subsisting among the inhabitants of the territory aforesaid, can be brought to a happy issue: for, so long as the course of justice is in different channels, where people are so nearly allied, disturbances will arise. From authentic information, we cannot but apprehend, that the State of New Hampshire is greatly remiss, if not grossly negligent (to call it by no harsher name) in trusting affairs of such great importance as the settlement of their western boundary, to a committee, some of whom, we conceive, would risk the loss of half the State, rather than New Hampshire should extend their claim west of Connecticut river. from the best authority that can be obtained, it appears that the agent of the State aforesaid, is endeavouring to confirm a division of the Grants, contrary to their true interests; which has given the people on the Grants, just occasion to rouse and exert themselves in support of an union of the We therefore earnestly recommend, as the only means to obtain an union, preserve peace, harmony and brotherly love, and the interest of the community in general, that a convention be called from every town within the said grants, to be held at Charlestown, on the third Tuesday of January next, at one of the clock, in the afternoon; and that one or more members be appointed from each town, with proper instructions to unite in such measures as the majority shall judge most conducive to consolidate an union of the grants, and effect a final settlement of the line of jurisdiction.

Letter from Thomas Chittenden to Meshech Weare, enclosing a copy of his Letter to Congress of the 25th of July last (see ante, p. 366).

Bennington Dec. 12th, 1780.

Sir—

Inclosed I transmit your Excellency a Copy of my Letter to Congress of the 25th July last, which together with this, I request may be laid before the Legislature of the State over whom you preside, for their perusal and consideration.

The arguments and representations therein exhibited, are equally applicable for the consideration of the several Legislatures of the United States separately.

Many and great are the evils which Vermont labour under,-Congress claiming a Jurisdiction over them, three of the United States claiming their Territory in whole or in part, and Vermont at the same time a Frontier in part to to these very States, and exposed to British Invasions, who being possessed of the Lakes, can suddenly bring their whole force into this State, which beyond Hessitation will be their object next campaign (unless some immediate measures are adopted to prevent it) as they have already destroyed the frontier settlements of the State of New [P. 204.] York; In a word, their Force will undoubtedly be so great, that it will be out of the power of this State to form Magazines and support a Body of Troops sufficient to withstand them; and the consequence must inevitably be, either, That the inhabitants of this State be sacrificed or 2<sup>ndly</sup>, be obliged to retire into the interior parts of the United States for safety: or 3rdly be under the disagreeable necessity of making the best terms with the British that may be in their power.

Nearly the same would be the condition of either of the United States seperately considered from their union (as they would be unable to withstand the British power;)—which may abundantly serve to evince, that it is out of the power of Vermont to be further serviceable to them, unless they are admitted into union.

This State are of opinion that it is high time she had better assurances from the several States now in union, whether at the conclusion of the present war, she may without molestation enjoy her Independence, or whether she is only struggling in a Bloody War, to establish neighbouring States in their Independence, to overthrow or swallow up her own, and deprive her citizens of their landed estates.

I do therefore, in Behalf of this State, demand your Legislature that they relinquish their claim to jurisdiction over any and every part of this State, and request them to join in a solid union with Vermont against the British Forces which invade the American States. Such a union for the mutual advantage of both States, I am ready to ratify and confirm on the part of this State.

I have the honor to be, with sentiments of Respect & Esteem, your Excellency's very obed<sup>t</sup> Humble servant, Tho<sup>s</sup> Chittenden.

P. S. I would recommend to your Excellency's favorable notice, Maj<sup>r</sup> Fay the Bearer, who is a Gentleman in whom the highest confidence may be put for any further particulars of Intelligence.

CONVENTION AT CHARLESTOWN.

Note. The author of the history of Charlestown, Rev. Henry H. Saunderson, says (page 144),—"When it became known that there was to be a convention at Charlestown, each of the different parties exerted themselves to the utmost to convince the people of the importance of adopting their favorite scheme. New Hampshire, elated with expectation on account of the report of the convention at Walpole, was busy, through her agents, to gain every possible advantage to herself. The New York agents, who were in favor of a new state that should comprehend the towns from the Masonian line to the ridge of the Green Mountains, were also busy in propagating their views. Vermont had also those in the field who to an indomitable energy added a vigilance that was not easy to be foiled,"—ED.

Origin of the Charlestown Convention of Jan. 16, 1781.

of said River. And that a majority of the persons above named or such of them as shall meet at Charlestown on Wednesday the Eighth of November next be empowered to act in the premises.

Fournal of the Convention of Delegates from forty-three Towns of the New Hampshire Grants, Jan. 16, 1781.

[Copied from Saunderson's History of Charlestown, pp. 145-152.]

The Honorable Samuel Chase, Esq.* was chosen chairman, and Bezaleel Woodward Esq. clerk.

Resolved, That General Bellows, Daniel Jones Esq. Colonel Hunt, Mr. Woodard, Colonel Bedel, Colonel Paine, Colonel Olcott, Captain Curtiss, Mr. White, Colonel Wells, Mr. Knowlton and Mr. Townsend, be a Committee to prepare matters necessary to be transacted by this Convention; and that they report the same with all convenient speed.

January 18th, 10 o'clock, A. M.

The Committee above named, made report, which being read, is in the words following, viz: Whereas, the Governor of New Hampshire, before and after the close of the last war, did exercise jurisdiction over, and grant the greatest part of the lands within the territory commonly called the New Hampshire Grants, on both sides of Connecticut River, to sundry companies of persons, principally inhabitants of New England, who offered to undertake, and carry into effect, settlements thereon, subject to the jurisdiction of the Crown of Great Britain, in connection with the Colony of New Hampshire:

And, Whereas, the said undertakers did undergo infinite hardships, trials and fatigues, in forming settlements in the several townships, on both sides of the river, agreeable to their engagement; induced by the happiness in prospect for themselves and posterity, resulting in great measure from an happy union of their settlements on the two sides of the river, under the same jurisdiction; the benefits of which had long been experienced in adjacent governments, and which were plighted to them by the circumstances and conditions under which they received and held their grants:

And, Whereas, the king of Great Britain did, in the year 1764, pass an arbitrary decree, that the said territory should be divided at Connecticut River; subjecting one part to the jurisdiction of his Governor of New York, and continuing the other part under the jurisdiction of his Governor of New Hampshire, whereby the said territory was divided without the consent or knowledge of the owners and proprietors, in violation of the royal engagements, and contrary to the true interests of the Inhabitants; against which measure those most immediately affected, so soon as the matter came to their knowledge, did, in the most humble, earnest and affecting manner remonstrate and petition; sent agents to Great Britain to state before the King their grievances, and humbly interceded for redress; and at the same time took every prudent measure to obtain the interest of adjacent Colonies in their favor, especially that of New Hampshire, from connection with which they had been separated:

And Whereas, the said connection rendered the Government of New Hampshire more extensive than the object of their first incorporation, viz.—the Mason Patent;—which extension has ever been a source of uneasiness and discontent to several persons of influence and importance in that Government, and the Assembly of New Hampshire therefore refused to use their influence in favor of a reunion of the Grants, after the division of them by the decree of 1764, when applied to for that purpose, in behalf of the owners, proprietors and inhabitants of the said territory:

And, Whereas, the obligations of the inhabitants of the said territory, as well as of all others in the United States, to allegiance and subordination to the Crown of Great Britain have ceased, on account of the series of unconstitutional and oppressive measures of that authority, towards the American plantations; and independence has therefore been declared by the inhabitants of the said grants, with the United States, whereby all these connections have ceased, which resulted from and were dependent on a subordination to Great Britain: And, as the said territory was never annexed by Charter to any one or more of the American Colonies, nor otherwise connected than by an order from the King to his Governors, to exercise authority there in behalf of the Crown, and, by a grant of the feoffees to claim a right to be continued in union with one another in matters of Government: The Jurisdiction was, of consequence, by the declaration of Independence, transferred to the inhabitants; which they had good right to undertake and exercise, whenever they should see fit :- Yet, the said inhabitants influenced by attachments to the different governments with which they had been connected (resulting from a habituated submission to despotic power) and not immediately attending to the singular circumstances under which independence from the power of Great Britain left them, did many of them passively submit to, and act with those governments to which the king of Great Britain had last annexed them; while on the other hand, a considerable part of the inhabitants of the said territory, influenced by uneasiness with the measures of those governments, and being early led to enquire into our peculiar situation (to which others were inattentive) did observe and publish to the world, their views in respect to our independence, and in conformity thereto broke off connection with the States of New York and New Hampshire; and of those on the west side of the river, who had withdrawn connection with the State of New York, only viewing the operation of independence from Great Britain, in respect of themselves, and not attending that the whole of the Grants were thereby placed in similar situation, did associate together, and set up a new and independent government.

And Whereas, as the States of New York and New Hampshire, influenced by the refusal of a respectable number of inhabitants of those parts of the grants, which they severally claimed, to submit to their respective jurisdictions, complained to the Congress of the United States of measures taken by the said inhabitants in respect to their independence; and also made known to Congress, that they had claims to the said territory; -And as Congress, on the 24th of September, 1779, did resolve and publish, that they would take upon themselves a final settlement of the disputes respecting the said Grants, provided the states concerned should agree thereto; (and, among other things, recommended that no State should exercise jurisdiction over any of the inhabitants of the said district, except such as should profess allegiance to, and confess the jurisdiction of the same) which was complied with by the States; And as sundry periods have elapsed, which Congress had appointed for a decision of the said matter in controversy, without any thing material being transacted on the subject, and as, notwithstanding the claim of New Hampshire to the whole of the Grants, the evident object of both States, by their agent at Congress, has of late been to establish a division at the river, contrary to the true interest of the inhabitants; as they would thereby be deprived of those advantages, in respect to commerce, and transactions of a public nature, which would naturally result from that union of the two sides of the river, which they had warrant to expect, and have right to demand, from the nature, tenor and circumstances of the grants which they hold:

And Whereas, a considerable part of the inhabitants on the said territory, having disavowed connection with any State already formed, have subsisted for some time without any regular form of government, and have been destitute of civil regulations, for want of which they are reduced to lamentable circumstances; and as they are thereby prevented in a great degree from performing that part in the present contest with Great Britain, which might otherwise reasonably be expected, and which might be of essential service in the grand dispute; And as the contiguity of the said grants to the Province of Canada, renders the inhabitants a frontier to the New England States; and as the Parliament of Great Britain have done what in them lies, towards annexing the greater part of the said territory to the Province of Canada, by the act commonly called the Quebec Bill, for the purpose of obtaining an establishment whereof, it is to be expected they will further employ their force, in attempting the reduction of the inhabitants, or destruction of them and their property: And as the British forces in conjunction with their savage allies, have of late begun a new scene of devastation among us, by burning some of our towns, and carrying the peaceable inhabitants into captivity; and it is to be expected that great part of the said territory will be treated in the same manner, unless vigorous measures are taken to prevent them; and as there is no military force employed by the Continent, or any of the States for our defence;—which renders an union without delay absolutely necessary, or great numbers will immediately abandon their habitations, which will give such advantage to the cause of Britain, and so open and extend this frontier, that a much greater force will then be necessary for its defence: And as nothing considerable can be done by the inhabitants of the said territory, tending to their own defence, until they are firmly united for that purpose, and in measures of government:

This Convention, therefore, taking the aforesaid matters into their most serious consideration, and being duly authorized by their constituents, the inhabitants of the said territory, do hereby publish and declare that notwithstanding all the unjust measures which have been, or may be, taken to divide us, the right of union still remains to the inhabitants of said territory, which we are determined to maintain and support; and bind ourselves by the ties of virtue and honor, as we are already bound by the ties of interest, to unite in all such lawful measures as the majority of the representative body of the inhabitants of said territory, duly convened, or such as they may appoint under them, shall agree upon, to maintain and support a union of the inhabitants on the whole of said grants; holding ourselves in duty bound to abide the decisions of Congress on the subject, when the matter shall be properly stated before them, and their resolutions thereon be obtained.

As the primary object of this Convention is, that an union of the whole of the grants be formed and Consolidated upon principles that the majority think proper; and as a considerable part of the said Grants are represented in the State of Vermont;—

Resolved.—That a Committee be chosen to confer with the said Assembly, at their next Session, on the subject of said union, and invite them to join in measures which may be most conducive to obtain the object proposed.

Resolved—That the proceedings of this Convention be laid before the several Towns on the Grants, for their approbation; recommending that those towns which concur in the measures, and have no representatives or delegates in this Convention, appoint members for that purpose; and that each and every town impower their members to join with the representatives of other towns on the Grants, who shall agree to unite together, in all such measures as shall be necessary for our internal regulations and defense.

Which declarations and resolutions having been repeatedly read and maturely considered, the question was put whether this Convention do agree with their Committee in their said report:——which was carried in the affirmative.

Whereupon Resolved—That Dr. William Page, Daniel Jones, Esq. and Mr. Elijah Frink, of the County of Cheshire; Luke Knowlton, Micah Townsend and John Bridgman, Esq. of the County of Cumberland; Colonel Peter Olcott, Noah White, Esq. and Captain John Strong, of the County of Gloucester; and Colonel Paine, Bezaleel Woodard, Esq. and Mr. Davenport Phelps, of the County of Grafton, be a Committee to confer with the Assembly of Vermont, agreeable to the foregoing resolutions.

Resolved—That the proceedings of this Convention be printed, and one copy thereof transmitted to each town on the Grants; and that Major Day, Mr. Townsend, and Mr. Lovell be a Committee for that purpose.

Resolved—That this Convention do adjourn to meet at the meeting House in Cornish on the first Wednesday in February next, at one of the clock in the afternoon.

PROTEST OF A MINORITY OF THE DELEGATES.

In Convention, at Charlestown, Fanuary 18, 1781.

We the subscribers, delegates from the several towns to which our names are affixed, wishing for and endeavouring to form a Union of the New Hampshire Grants on both sides of Connecticut River, and contented that they be annexed to New Hampshire, or be a separate State, as Congress may judge proper; but thinking ourselves not authorized by our Constituents to unite with the said Grants, in the method resolved by the said Convention; and being of opinion that their proceedings have a tendency to weaken the reins of government—to retard the exertions of those who are engaged to oppose the public enemy—to introduce irregularity and disorder in the County of Cheshire, and not conducive to the end proposed;—think it our duty to protest against the proceedings of said Convention.

BEZALEEL WOODWARD, Clerk.

[Copied from Rec. Gov. & Coun. Ver., Vol. II, pp. 284, 285.]

The Governor and Council appointed Colonel Ira Allen to repair to Charlestown to meet that Convention, and to take such measures as his prudence should dictate, and which might be conducive to the interest of the State. Mr. Allen took credentials from Sunderland, as a member, to meet the Convention, from that town, agreeable to invitation: before he arrived, the Convention had been in session two days, and had appointed a Committee to state the business of their meeting. Forty-three towns were represented in the Convention; twelve of those representatives were members of the Council and Assembly of New Hampshire.

Mr. Allen did not take a seat as a member of the Convention, nor produce his credentials. At length the Committee reported to unite all the New Hampshire Grants to New Hampshire, which was adopted by a great majority, and went in fact to annihilate the State of Vermont. Mr. Allen informed some confidential persons, that the Governor, Council, and some other leading characters, on the west side of the Green Mountains, were for extending their claim of jurisdiction to the Mason line; and that if the Convention would take proper measures, the Legislature of Vermont would extend their claim at their adjourned term in February 1781; and that he was authorised to give such assurance.

A motion was made and carried, to consider the report, and re-commit it to the committee, to be corrected and fitted for the Press, as it would be a matter of public notoriety, and to lay it again before the Convention next morning. The friends of New Hampshire, were much pleased with their success, and well enjoyed the night: but the scene changed the next morning, and the committee reversed their report, and reported to unite all the territory of New Hampshire, west of Mason's east line, extending to Connecticut river, with the State of Vermont; and which report was accepted by a great majority of the Convention, it being principally opposed by twelve members of the Council and Assembly of New Hampshire, who, thereupon, withdrew to remonstrate against the proceeding.

This bare-faced conduct of the members of the Legislature disclosed their intention at once, and furnished Vermont with fair pretensions to extend her jurisdiction on grounds of similar policy and self-preservation.

The Convention then appointed a Committee to confer with the Legislature of Vermont at their next term, and adjourned to meet at Cornish (only three miles from Windsor, the place of session of the Legislature of Vermont, agreeable to adjournment) on the same day with them.

On February 10th, the Committee informed the Assembly, then sitting at Windsor, that "the Convention of the New Hampshire towns, was desirous of being united with Vermont, in one separate independent Government, upon such principles as should be mutually thought the most equitable and beneficial to the whole." In consequence of this application, the Legislature resolved, on February 14th, that "in order to quiet the present disturbances on the two sides of the river (Connecticut) and the better to enable the inhabitants on the two sides of said river to defend their frontier, the Legislature of this State do lay a jurisdictional claim, to all the lands whatever east of Connecticut river, north of Massachusetts, west of the Mason line, and south of latitude 45°; and that they do not exercise jurisdiction for the time being."

The Convention of New Hampshire towns was then sitting at Cornish, on the opposite side of the river; and on February 22<sup>d</sup>, the articles of union were agreed upon and confirmed; nevertheless, the right of dissolving the union of the district was retained by the State of Vermont.

NOTE BY THE EDITOR.

Agreeably to adjournment, the Charlestown Convention, of Jan. 16th -18th, met at Cornish, N. H., Feb. 8, 1781, and immediately gave notice to the general assembly of Vermont, then in session at Windsor, requesting to be heard on the business of their appointment, and sending to the assembly the resolutions adopted by the convention at Charlestown. The assembly of Vermont, in Committee of the Whole, gave a hearing, adopted a report presented by a committee of their appointment, and then proceeded to form a union, on terms mutually acceded to by the assembly on the one part, and by the delegates to the convention at Cornish on the other. The report in full, and details of this procedure, are found in Slade's Ver. State Pap., pp. 128-138, and in Records of Gov. and Coun. Ver., Vol. II, pp. 287-297, to which readers are referred. No complete minutes or report of the convention in Cornish have been found by the editor; but the following items and facts, so far as related to New Hampshire, are gathered from authentic sources:

Result of negotiations, or terms of Union.

The terms of Union as mutually agreed upon were in substance,* as follows: "That the Constitution of the State of Vermont, should remain unchanged, until it should be altered in the mode therein pointed out; that, as soon as circumstances would permit, the Legislature of the State. should apply to Congress, to be admitted into the Confederation; and that after such admission, Congress might determine questions of disputed boundaries; that the expenses and losses of the several towns on both sides of Connecticut river, occasioned by the war, should thereafter be equitably adjusted; that a general act of amnesty and oblivion should be passed by the Legislature, for all offences and acts of trespass committed against the authority of the State, by persons under a claim of being subjects of New York; and all suits, prosecutions and judgments against them, should be discharged and annulled. Other provisions, of less importance, were made, and it was agreed that the question of forming the union on such terms should be submitted to the several towns in the State of Vermont, and to the towns to about twenty miles east of Connecticut river; and that, if two-thirds of the towns, on each side of the river approved of the union, it should be considered as ratified and completed."†

On the 22<sup>d</sup> of February 1781, the articles of union were mutually confirmed, by the Legislature of Vermont, and by the Convention, at Cornish: On the part of the latter the ratification was signed by

The two bodies then adjourned to meet again in their respective places on the first Wednesday in April, 1781.

"In Convention at Cornish, April 5th, 1781,

Voted, That a Committee of three be appointed to wait on the Assembly of Vermont, now sitting at Windsor, to inform them of the State of the returns from the towns on the east side of Connecticut river, and that the way is clear on our part for the proposed union, agreeable to the articles of the treaty, and to Request information whether the Assembly are ready to receive the members returned to sit in the Assembly, on the union's taking place. ## SECTION XI.

DISPUTED JURISDICTION.

Exeter, June 20th, 1781.

Gentlemen—Enclosed you have copies of three petitions from different towns in the County of Cheshire, by which you will see the embarrassed situation we are in, occasioned by the dispute relative to the New Hampshire Grants not being settled.

New Hampshire flattered herself that dispute would have been long since adjusted by Congress, and have been at great expense in sending agents to Philadelphia for that purpose. The amazing unexpected delay therein has been attended with the greatest mischief to the United States in general, and to the State of New Hampshire in particular. It has given an opportunity to many disaffected persons, who are the principal leaders in the disturbances, to do much injury, and who, it is said, and not without foundation, have entered into negotiation with the enemy. In short, New Hampshire is brought into such a dilemma, and the Government thrown into such confusion by this delay in Congress, that it is impossible for her to comply with the requisitions of Congress, to any great degree, while this dispute remains unsettled; and it is in vain for them to expect it of her, as no supplies of men, money or provision can be collected at present from more than ards even of that part of the State which lies east of Connecticut River, and unless Congress brings matters to an immediate issue, we cannot tell how far the contagion may run, but very much fear that the State will be very soon ruined in a great measure, and not able to contribute farther towards the war. Therefore you are directed to lay this dispatch before Congress as soon as may be, and earnestly request that they would immediately take the matter under consideration, and make a final decision thereon without any further delay, as it is of much greater consequence than can be described. I am, Gentlemen, your most humble servant.

Mr. Livermore and myself were honored with your Letter of the 20th June, with the Enclosures rec'd by yesterday's Post, which were immediately laid before Congress and refered to a Committee, with Directions to report as soon as possible: When the report is brought in & considered, we shall give you official Information. I expect the Result will be a prohibition to the pretended State of Vermont exercising any Jurisdiction East of the River, and an appointment of a Day for proceeding upon the Examination of the Dispute. This will end in the appointment of a Committee to Determine thereon. The Reason why this has not been sooner done is because there has not been a competent Congress since last fall, untill within a few weeks past: I am every day more and more convinced of the Danger and impolicy of suffering the Question of the Independence of Vermont to come upon the Tapis; for if it should be de-[R. 208.] nied, New York alone will receive the advantage, for the Reasons mentioned in my former Letter. But I apprehend that this would not be the case. I rather incline to think that the present members would make desperate strugles in favor of its Independence. I scarcely dare trust my thoughts on paper; but be assured, Sir, that the Policy of Vermont has induced them to make enormous Grants to men of Influence in several States, & even to members of Congress. Mr. Livermore & myself no doubt will concur in the proper plan, to avoid the danger arising from this & other Quarters. The only plausible argument in favor of determining the Question of Independency, is, that this is not simply a dispute between New York & New Hampshire; but between them and a people claiming to be Independent of both. The answer to this is simple & plain, viz. That New Hampshire & New York both by ancient and modern determinations join upon each other: Of course, no Independent State can possibly exist, between them, & their claim of Independence can no more operate to alter the mode of Tryal pointed out in the Confederation, than if Massachusetts & New Hampshire both laid claim to the County of Essex, & the Inhabitants were to [P. 209.] Declare themselves Independent of both: Here the first step should be to settle the Dispute between the States; & if it was determined to appertain to Massa no other Question would be necessary. Besides, if we admit for a moment, the possibility of its being Independent, we declare it out of the union, & oust ourselves of any Jurisdiction, as we have nothing to do with more than thirteen States; a fourteenth would have a right to Deny the Jurisdiction of Congress, which it seems Vermont has already done. safest ground therefore for New Hampshire, is to insist that there is no intermediate spot between New York & New Hampshire; & that as Congress have Included Vermont within the limits of the Thirteen United States, it must belong to some one of them; and, Therefore Congress ought to Determine to which, agreeable to the rules Laid Down in the Confederation.

I confess myself astonished at the proceedings of Vermont, & more so at the conduct of the Inhabitants in our Counties. I am unwilling to believe them Influenced by the British; but a variety of Circumstances have almost con[P. 210.] firmed me in this opinion. I suppose what ever can be done here will be done in a week or fortnight at furthest. The Commissioners will no doubt meet at Springfield or Hartford, where the titles will be Discussed & the Right Determined. Of course my attendance here will be no longer necessary on that account. I wish therefore that Mr. Gilman may be directed to set out to relieve me immediately, as my Domestic concerns will oblige me to set out perhaps before his arrival. Should the state call on me to argue the cause before the Commissioners I shall attend with pleasure.

I have the honor to be, with the most perfect esteem, Dear Sir, your most obet servt JNO. SULLIVAN.

GENTLEMEN-

I am informed that you have rec'd some late Intelligence from Gen¹ Sullivan respecting the New Hampshire Grants—if it is any thing favourable to the friends of N. Hampshire, I wish it may be published & sent to us by the next Post: for we are in a very distressing and dangerous situation, and need every possible Encouragement & assistance to enable us to support the Rights of N. Hampshire against the rapacious claims of Vermont. They have, by a Resolve of their General Court appointed and authorized a Committee to take the Records of the Court of Common pleas in this County, and have order'd the Clerk to deliver them up for the use of (what they call) the County of Washington. They have laid a Tax of 10/silver money upon every hun-[P. 215.] dred acres of our Land, and are making hasty Preparations to collect it. They have Commissioned Judges for their County Court, which is to be held in Keene the 14th day of August inst. and I suppose will proceed to do Business under Vermont, unless prevented by New Hampshire. In this critical Juncture, I have to ask your advice & Direction, and hope you will bear us in mind, and not forsake us in our Distress.

Your humble servant

Philadelphia, Augst 21st, 1781.

DEAR SIR-

A Comtee of Vermont has been here by an appointm<sup>t</sup> in June, to unite their State with the United States, and to sit in Congress. They knew nothing of the resolution of the 7th Augst untill their arrival in this City. After sundry manouvres, Congress informed them by a Resolution yesterday, (Augst 20th) That it would be an indispensable preliminary to their Independence and being admitted into the union, that they relinquished all pretensions east of the west banks of Connecticut river, &c.

The committee will return home to consult their constituents.

The enclosed paper will give good news.

Letter from several inhabitants of Haverhill (Coos) to the Committee of Safety, N. H.

Gentlemen-

Doubtless the State of Vermont is the subject of much conversation with you as well as in the other parts of the Continent;—but we are uncertain whether you have obtained some intelligence which we immagine of great importance: We take this opportunity to state a few facts for your consideration.

The State of Vermont (as it is called) has settled a carteel with the Enemy in Canada, & the unjust Basis upon which it is founded, gives us reason to believe that no authority but that of Vermont was privy to the same.

This new modled Carteel according to the best information we can get, allows the Brittish to receive a soldier for a citizen: this being the case, the inhabitants on our frontiers are bargained to the Enemy at a very cheap rate, & no doubt will be plundered, as it will be easier for the Enemy to obtain their prisoners by plundering the inhabitants, than by getting our soldiers by the fate of war.

Since this Carteel was settled, a proclamation has been issued, whereby not only all prisoners in the Country that have a mind to return to the Brittish, are encouraged to make the best of their way to Bennington; but that all those who have deserted into the country, should to the utmost of their power be apprehended & conveyed there in order to be exchanged. Many of the above are settled, and have taken up arms for the country, and are fast friends, but are carried off by force.

Two prisoners captured at Ticonderoga made their escape from the care of one Watson at Hartford, & on their way from Coos to Canada were taken up & sent back. But * * [Something appears to be missing from the letter, as it here closes.—Ed.]

[F. 224.] P. S. There have this instant come in, since the writing of the within, six Deserters from Canada, who declare that there was a report in Canada, that the inhabitants taken from Vermont & confined in gaol there, were to be exchanged for prisoners taken at the point of the sword; and that said Inhabitants nobly scorned so base a proposal, & said they had rather lay in Gaol a year longer than to be exchanged on such a footing; as it would open so wide a Door for the plundering the Inhabitants of the frontiers. So noble a spirit ought to raise a blush on the assumed authority of Vermont.

N. B. It would be agreeable that our names might not be exposed, before necessity may require it.

Neverless, we have the happiness to inform your Honours that on a motion made to know how many of the Inhabitants Disapprove of the measures taken, Eighty of the Inhabitants, namely-

That, Whereas it has bin Reported, that the People in Chesterfield are Unanimously agreed in the Union taking place Between the State of Vermont & the Grants on this side of the River, this is to acquaint the world, that we, whose Names are under written are of oppinion that the measures alReady taken are Illegal & unjust as they are conducted, & we are altogether against those measures, unless they are carried on with more general Satisfaction to the United States & to the State of Newhampshire in Particular, whose subjects we profess to be, till we are Legally set of by the United States.

Proceedings of a meeting of Persons from ten Towns in Cheshire County, held at Keene, Sept. 21, 1781.

[P. 229.] At a meeting of sundry Persons from ten of the Towns in the County of Cheshire on the New Hampshire Grants East of Connecticut river, at Keen, ye 21st of September, 1781, viz. Keen, Swanzey, Richmond, Winchester, Chesterfield, Westmoreland, Walpole, Surry, Gilsom and Alstead: Benjamin Bellows, Esqr in the Chair. After mature and deliberate consideration of the Disturbances and confusion which have arisen on account of the right of Jurisdiction over said Grants; It was very unanimously agreed by the persons convened as aforesaid, that some person be appointed to wait on the Honble Committee of Safety at Exeter, as soon as Possible, and to lay before them the State of this County respecting the aforesaid dispute, and in particular that those persons who adhere to the late unhappy union of the New Hampshire Grants, are either Ignorantly or Willfully blinded, in regard to the construction they put upon the Resolves of the Honble Congress of the 7th & 8th of August last, which serves in some Towns to confirm some Persons, who are for the Union, in their former opinion, and some who were not fully Established, have (by some means or other, since the said Resolve became Publick) consented to the union; and some who are attached to New Hampshire, say the Congress have not determined whether we shall belong to Vermont or not; that the difficulties in this Quarter are rather likely to be increased than diminished by what is already done to re-[P. 230.] move the same. It was also agreed that the Honble Committee of Safety be requested (if they think proper) to send printed copies of the aforesaid Resolves to the several towns upon the Grants East of Connecticut River, at least to those in the County of Cheshire, with their explanation, advice, &c., and that they acquaint Congress with the aforesaid Premises, if they shall think it advisable.

The above was unanimously Voted.

Letter from Samuel Livermore to Meshech Weare.

[p. 233.] Dear SirPhiladelphia, Octo. 2d, 1781.

I am informed that a Comtee of our house and Council have proceeded to Connecticut river to treat with the people concerning their attachmt to Vermont, or something to that effect. I did not hear the names of the Comtee However, I hope the measure will be attended with good consequences. That Comtee will doubtless be returned before this reaches you. I should be glad to be immediately informed of the result of their proceedings: As it may relate to the subject before Congress, and strongly influence their resolutions. Tis probable the Comtee of Vermont will be here before the last of Octo. for a final decision of their affair. I am very anxious to get this matter settled and to return home. I shall presume the State will not be against my returning when this business is finished. I long to see the County of Grafton Active and our whole internal policy settled.

Hon. President Weare.

Memorial of John Clark, of Landaff, to the Committee of Safety, N. H. giving an account of the hardships, insults, and losses he had sustained from certain ringleaders of the "pretended State of Vermont," &c.

[P. 235.] To the Hon<sup>ble</sup> Committee of Safety for the State of New Hampshire—

The Memorial of John Clark, of the Township of Landaff, in the County of Grafton and State aforesaid,—humbly sheweth:—

That the memorialist was one of the first settlers in said from that town to the General Assembly, New Hampshire, 1778, 1779, 1780.—ED.

Landaff, where he hath, in opposition to wheedlings, flatteries, promises, frowns, threats, insults, and every other conceivable machination, invariably, to the utmost of his ability, endeavored to support the common cause of these United States under the Government, and agreeable to the Laws of the State of New Hampshire.

That notwithstanding the many difficulties usually occurring in the settlement of new plantations, and the peculiar embarrassments which have hitherto attended the settlement of said Township, the memorialist hath, by his industry, at great fatigue and expense acquired considerable property, a peaceable enjoyment of which would afford a comfortable prospect for the subsistence of a numerous family and dependents; and enable him to aid others in the further settlement of that new country, and to contribute somewhat for the support of the public cause.

That the variety of hardships, insults and losses, which the ringleaders of the pretended State of Vermont, by usurping and exercising jurisdiction over the inhabitants of a number of Towns in that part of the State of New Hampshire, which lies adjoining on the east of Connecticutt River, have driven many of the good and peaceable citizens of those Towns to sustain, on account of their inflexible attachment to the Laws and government of the State of New Hampshire, and the strategems practised by those ringleaders and their emissaries, to alienate the affections of honest and well meaning subjects of said State of New Hampshire; to induce them to renounce their allegiance, and to strengthen the bonds of faction; being matters of such notoriety, your memorialist humbly conceives the honble Committee would esteem a rehearsal of them altogether needless. However, the memorialist cannot think himself censurable, when he begs leave just to observe, that the sentiments of the good people in many of those unhappy Towns, cannot be determined by the votes in their Town-meetings, as none are allowed to vote but such as solemnly renounce all dependence on, or political connection with, the State of New Hampshire, and take an oath to support the government and laws of said Vermont; so that ten men having received the sop, will carry on the business of the meeting, when perhaps three times that number who have not the mark of the and from principle cannot join the faction, are obliged to stand mute:—and in cases where a large minority, if allowed a suffrage, would appear in the negative, the proceedings are entered unanimous; by means whereof most of the Town officers chosen at such meetings are from among those who are aliens from the commonwealth of New Hampshire, and who endeavor by every possible means to prevent the knowledge and execution of the Laws of New Hampshire, among the people.

[P. 236.] That the memorialist and others have patiently endured suffering, persecutions & new-coined insults and indignities, not to be described, firmly relying, that the authority and government of the State of New Hampshire, would not suffer the State to be dismembered, her authority trampled on, the laws contemned, or her devoted citizens to perish under the tyranny of faction, for want of her succour, and the due execution of her Laws: And what has added much to the confidence of the unhappy sufferers hath been the spirited and unequivocal resolves of the General Assembly of said State, especially that passed on the 20th of June last, viz. "That this State will exert them-"selves to preserve their jurisdiction unimpaired, and to "give effectual speedy support, protection, and succour to "the faithful and distressed subjects thereof."

That the memorialist flatters himself, both he and his fellow-sufferers, have some idea of the complicated and almost invincible embarrassments, which have hitherto attended the due execution of the laws in the County of Grafton, for the protection of its inhabitants; but as the oppression of those usurpers hath arrived to such a height, your Honors candor will forbid attributing it to a petulant disposition in the memorialist, or his want of confidence in the authority of the State, when he assures your Honors he can no longer endure the torture of such accumulated distress.

That on the morning of the 29th of September last at Landaff aforesaid, your memorialist being in the peace of God and the good people of the State, about his lawful employment, travelling in the public road from his house to a remote part of his farm, when on a sudden, he saw a banditti of about a dozen men, armed with guns and other offensive weapons, gathered in a riotous manner, near a barn in the possession of one Samuel Titus; when one of the ringleaders in the riot, stepped forth from among the rest, and seized the horse on which your memorialist was riding, and commanded the memorialist forthwith to join in the riot, to turn John Cressey, John Cressey jun, and families out of their houses, to perish in the wilderness; but the memorialist obstinately refused to comply; and after some words had passed, it was proposed and voted by the rabble, that the memorialist should be confined: Whereupon, Eleazer Wheelock, James Wheelock, Ebenezer Cleveland, Absalom Peters, Asa Bayley and others, immediately, with force and arms in a high-handed riotous manner, made a violent assault on the body of your memorialist, and made great efforts to bind him on his horse. By this time the mob was in a tumult-some accusing the memorialist of speaking against the rioters, and saying that he would oppose their lawless proceedings; others that he was against the authority of Vermont; and others that he was an enemy to the College Party:—while some were pulling the horse by the bridle, others whipping, some yelling, others firing guns: thus in triumph they carried off the unhappy victim of their malice; And after carrying the memorialist about in manner aforesaid, with threats, insults and abuses from place to place, till near the setting of the sun, when the said Eleazer Wheelock, with some other of the rioters, seized violently on the Body of the memorialist, and by force drag'd him toward the house of one Noyce, who was among the gang, whereby the memorialist was most grievously injured both in body and mind.

That the said rioters then, and at divers other times, before & since uttered and declared such threatening and menacing words and speeches, of, and concerning the memorialist, as that he is in great anxiety of mind about the present unsafe situation of his person, family and property; and unless some speedy and effectual measures are [P. 237.] adopted for their relief, he, with many others have the gloomy prospect of being driven to the sad alternative of submitting to the mandates of a lawless banditti, on the one hand; or on the other, forsaking their dearearned habitations, to seek an asylum.

Your memorialist begs leave further to suggest as his opinion, that most of the political difficulties subsisting in the counties of Cheshire and Grafton, originate from the machinations of certain subtil tories, joined by those who have ye conducting of the Indian School at Hanover, and their emissaries, to promote the views of British administration, rather than any attachment they have to support the pretended State of Vermont.

Wherefore your memorialist in behalf of himself and his fellow sufferers, humbly prays the interposition of the Honble Committee, that you will take the premises under your wise consideration, and issue orders to such officers in said County of Grafton, as are willing to exercise the powers of their respective offices, which they now hold under the State of New Hampshire, to exert the same in protecting those who conduct themselves as good subjects of said State, in their persons and property, from the insults and abuses of Mobs, riots or lawless individuals, and from the execution of any Laws, or the exercise of any other authority, than that which is under the government and people of the State of New Hampshire;—or relieve the memorialist and others in such way and manner as your Honors in great wisdom, shall judge most conducive to the public tranquillity.

And your memorialist, as in duty bound, shall ever pray.

Report of a Committee of Congress, to whom was referred certain papers relative to New Hampshire, Oct. 17, 1781.

[P. 241.] The Committee to whom was referred the report of a Comtee on certain Letters & Papers relative to the people inhabiting the district of Country commonly known by the Name of the New Hampshire Grants, do report the following resolution, to be adopted by Congress:

Congress having resolved on the 7th day of August last, that in case they should recognize the Independence of the people of Vermont, they would consider all the Lands belonging to New Hampshire & New York respectively, lying without the limits of Vermont afs<sup>d</sup>, as coming within the mutual Guarantee of Territory contained in the Articles of Confederation; and that the United States will accordingly guarantee such Lands and the jurisdiction over the same, against any claims or Incroachments from the Inhabitants of Vermont aforesaid.

And Congress having on the 20th day of the same month required (as an indispensable preliminary to the recognition of the Independence of the people inhabiting the Territory afad, and their admission into the federal union) the explicit Relinquishment of all demands of Lands or Jurisdiction on the East side of the West Bank of Connecticut River, and on the west side of a line beginning at the Northwest corner of the State of Massachusetts, thence running twenty miles East of Hudson's River, so far as the said River runs North Easterly, in its general Course; thence by the West bounds of the Townships granted by the late Government of New Hampshire, to the River running from South Bay to Lake Champlain; thence along the said River to Lake Champlain; thence along the waters of Lake Champlain to the latitude of forty five degrees north, excepting a neck of Land between Missiskoy Bay and the waters of Lake Champlain.

And the People inhabiting the Territory aforesaid, not having as yet made the relinquishment af a sabove required, and attempting since the date of the above Resolutions to extend & establish their Jurisdiction over part of the Lands guaranteed to the States of New York & N. Hampshire as abovesaid; and it being indispensably necessary to bring all disputes respecting the Jurisdiction of the peo-[P. 242.] ple residing within the territory af<sup>sd</sup> to a speedy issue:

Resolved, That the district of Territory commonly known by the name of the New Hampshire Grants, by whatever name it may be called is, and shall be bounded Westward by a line beginning at the North West corner of the State of Massas, thence running northward twenty miles East of Hudson's River so far as the sd River runs North Easterly in its general Course; thence to the west boundary line of the townships granted by the late Government of N. Hampshire; thence Northward along the sd West boundary line to the River running from South Bay to Lake Champlain; thence along the sd River to Lake Champlain; thence along the waters of Lake Champlain to Latitude forty-five Degrees north, including a Neck of Land between the Missiskov Bay and the waters of Lake Champlain; thence it shall be bounded North by latitude forty-five Degrees North and Eastward by the West Bank of Connecticut River from forty-five Degrees north to the Northern Boundary line of the State of Massas, and southward by the sd northern boundary of the State of Massa from the sd west Bank of Connecticut River to the North west corner of Massachus abovementioned.

Resolved, That in case the inhabitants residing within the limits af<sup>sd</sup> within one Kalendar month from the delivery of a Certified Copy of these Resolutions, by the Commissioners herein after mentioned, to Thomas Chittenden, Esq. of the Town of Bennington within the limits af<sup>sd</sup>, or from the time of the said Commisrd leaving such certified Copy at the usual place of residence of the s<sup>d</sup> Tho<sup>s</sup> Chittenden, Esq<sup>r</sup>, shall by some authenticated Act recognize the last above described boundaries to be the limits and extent of their claims both of Jurisdiction & Territory, and shall accede to the Articles of Confederation and perpetual union between the States of New Hampshire, Massachu<sup>s</sup>, R. Island & Providence plantations, Connecticut, New York, New Jersey, Pennsyl<sup>s</sup>, Delaware, Maryland, Virginia, N. [P. 243.] Carolina, S. Carolina & Georgia, as agreed to in Congress on the 15th day of November 1777, and shall thereupon appoint Delegates on their behalf with full powers, Instructions and positive orders, immediately to repair to Congress, and to sign the s<sup>d</sup> articles of Confederation, and afterwards to represent them in the U. S. in Congress af<sup>d</sup>—their said delegates shall be admitted to sign the same and thereupon the Inhabitants of the above described District shall be acknowledged a free, sovereign and Independent State, by whatsoever name they shall choose to be called, and shall be considered as a component part of the federal Union and entitled to the advantages thereof.

Resolved, That in case the sd Inhabitants within the above described District, do not desist from attempting to exercise Jurisdiction over the lands guaranteed to New Hampshire & New York as afd, and shall not within the time limited as afd comply with the terms specified in the foregoing Resolutions, Congress will consider such neglect or refusal as a manifest indication of designs hostile to these U.S., and that all the pretentions and applications of the sd inhabitants heretofore made for admission into the federal Union, were fallacious and delusive; and that thereupon the forces of these States shall be employed against the said Inhabitants within the district aford accordingly. And Congress will consider all the lands within said territory to the Eastward of a Line drawn along the summit of a ridge of mountains or heighth of Land extending from South to North thro'out the sd Territory between Connecticut River on the East & Hudson River & Lake Champlain on the West, as guaranteed to New Hamp- . shire under the articles of Confederation; And all the Lands within said Territory, to the westward of said Line, as guaranteed to New York, under the articles of Confeder-[P. 244.] ation, provided always, That Congress will consider any other partition which shall hereafter by an agreement between the Legislatures of New Hampshire & N. York, be made between their respective States concerning the Territory afd, as guaranteed to them according to such agreement; saving, in either case, all rights accruing to the State of Massachu<sup>a</sup> or any other State under the Articles of Confederation afs<sup>d</sup>, and provided always that for the more effectually quieting the minds of the inhabitants afs<sup>d</sup>, the sd States of N. Hampshire & N. York respectively, shall pass Acts of Indemnity & oblivion in favour of all such persons as have at any time previous to the passing such acts, acted under ye authority of Vermont so called, in any manner whatsoever, upon such persons submitting to the jurisdiction of sd States respectively; and provided always, that the sd States of New York & New Hampshire respectively, do pass acts confirming & establishing the Titles of all Persons whatever, to such Lands as they do now actually occupy & possess within the limits of the District afs, under whatever Title the same may be held, either from N. York, N. Hampshire or Vermont so called; and also for confirming & establishing the Titles of all persons whatever, to such lands within the district afsd as they may be entitled to under Grants from N. York, New Hampshire or Vermont so called, according to the priority of such Grants in point of time, excepting in such cases where the Lands are in the actual occupancy & possession of the claimants, as mentioned in the proviso above said. But inasmuch as some persons claiming in right of grants made under the authority of the district or Territories called Vermont, and not actually occupying the same may be deprived thereof by the interference of other prior grants ;-

Resolved, That in case the partition afs<sup>d</sup> shall take place, any person claiming, and deprived as afs<sup>d</sup>, his or her assignee or representative shall receive full compensation in [P. 245.] lands or otherwise to be provided by Congress.

Resolved, That it be, and it is hereby earnestly recommended to the States of New Hampshire & New York respectively, to pass acts of oblivion & Indemnity in favour of all such persons residing without the limits of the district above Described, who shall heretofore have taken part with the Inhabitants residing within the same against the Governments of either of those States, upon such persons quietly and peaceably submitting themselves to the Government & Jurisdiction of such State respectively, to which they belong.

Resolved, That in case of the neglect or refusal of the Inhabitants residing within the District afs<sup>4</sup>, to comply with the terms prescribed in the resolutions afs<sup>4</sup>, That the Commander-in-chief of the Armies of the U. S. do without delay or further order, carry these Resolutions as far as they respect his Department into full Execution.

Resolved, That a Commist be appointed on the part of these U. S. whose duty it shall be, immediately to repair to the District afs<sup>d</sup>, and deliver a certified copy of these Resolutions to Thomas Chittenden, Esq. of the Town of Bennington afs<sup>d</sup>, or leave such copy at his usual place of Residence, & also to enforce on the Inhabitants of the s<sup>d</sup> District the necessity of their complying without delay, with the Terms above prescribed by Congress, or submitting themselves peaceably to the Jurisdiction of the States of New Hampshire & New York, agreeably to the above Resolutions.

Report of the Council and Assembly of Vermont, in Committee of the Whole, on the Report of the Vermont Delegates to Congress, Oct. 16-19, 1781.

[P. 247.]

STATE OF VERMONT.

Charlestown 16th October, 1781.

The Governor and Council having joined the General Assembly in a Committee of the whole, to take into consideration the report of the honorable Jonas Fay, Ira Allen and Bezaleel Woodward, Esquires, who were appointed by the legislature of this State, in the month of June last, to repair to the American Congress, with powers, to propose to, and receive from them, terms for an Union of this, .... with the United States, &c.

His Excellency, Thomas Chittenden, Esq<sup>r</sup>. in the chair; The said agents laid before the Committee the following Papers, which were read by the Secretary, in their order, viz.

- 1st & 2<sup>d</sup> A Copy of their letter to the President of Congress, of the 14th of August last, inclosing a duplicate of their Commission.
- $3^{\alpha}$  The Resolutions of Congress of the 7th and 8th of August last.
- 4th Brigadier General Bellows and Associates petition to New Hampshire, 25th May, 1781.
- $\mathfrak{z}^{th}$  Petition of the Select-men of Swanzey, to New Hampshire, June  $\mathfrak{z}^{th},\ 1781.$
- 6th Hon<sup>ho</sup> Meshech Weare Esq's Letter, to be laid before Congress, dated 20th June, 1781.

8th Resolve of Congress, dated 17th August 1781.

9th Written Proposals to Committee of Congress, dated August 18th, 1781.

[F. 248.] IOth Questions proposed to the Agents of Vermont, by the Committee of Congress, August 18th, 1781.

11th The foregoing Questions, with the Answers annexed.

12th Resolutions of Congress, of the 20th of August, 1781.

The further Consideration of the report being referred, Adjourned, till tomorrow morning 9 o'clock.

October 17th Met according to adjournment.

The Committee proceeded to the consideration of the Resolutions of Congress, of the 20th day of August aforesaid, and other Papers mentioned in the report of said agents, and after some time spent thereon:

Resolved, That in the opinion of this Committee the Legislature cannot comply with the Resolutions last referred to, without destroying the foundation of the present universal Harmony and agreement, that subsists in this State, and a violation of Solemn Compact, entered into by Articles of Union and Confederation.

The further consideration of the report being postponed, Adjourned to 9 o'clock, tomorrow morning.

October 18th. The Committee having resumed the further consideration of the said report,

Resolved, That inasmuch as the Resolutions of Congress of the 7th and 20th of August last, did by no means comport with, but entirely preclude any Propositions made by our agents, it is therefore the opinion of this Committee, that the Propositions made by our Agents to the Committee of Congress on the 18th of August last, ought not, in future, to be considered as binding, on the part of Vermont.

Resolved, That it be, and is hereby recommended to the [P. 249.] Legislature of this State, that their thanks be returned to their honorable Agents, for their good services in behalf of this State, on the Business of their late mission to the Congress of the United States of America.

And this Committee recommend to the Legislature of this State to remain firm in the principles on which the State of Vermont first assumed Government, and to hold the Articles of Union which connect each part of the State with the other inviolate: and for the further information and satisfaction of the honorable the Congress, and the world, do recommend to the Legislature to publish the following Articles, which respect the admission of Vermont into the federal Union, viz.

Art. 1st "That the Independence of the State of Vermont be held sacred, and that no member of the Legislature shall give his vote or otherwise use his endeavors, to obtain any Act or Resolution of Assembly, that shall endanger the Existence, Independence and well-being of said State, by referring its independency to the arbitrament of any power."

Art. 2<sup>d</sup> "That whenever this State becomes united with the American States, and there shall then be any disputes between this and any of the United States respecting boundary Lines; the Legislature of the State of Vermont, will then, (as they have ever proposed) submit to Congress, or such other tribunal as may be mutually agreed upon, for the settlement of any such disputes."

And that the impartial world may be fully convinced of the good and laudable disposition of Vermont, and of her readiness to comply with any reasonable proposal for the adjustment of the disputes respecting boundary Lines, between this and the neighboring States of New Hampshire and New York, this Committee further recommend to the Legislature, to make the following Proposals to the said [P. 250.] States of New Hampshire and New York, respectively:—

That, whereas disputes have arisen between the States of New Hampshire and Vermont relative to Jurisdictional boundary Lines &c;—the Legislature of Vermont being willing and desirous, as much as in them lies, to promote unity and good accord between the two States, do propose to the State of New Hampshire, that all matters relating to the aforesaid dispute, shall be submitted to five or more judicious, unprejudiced persons, who shall be mutually agreed on, elected and chosen by a Committee of Legislature, on the part of each State respectively; and that the States of New Hampshire and Vermont, do pledge their faith, each to the other, that the Decision had, by the persons so elected, being made up in writing, signed by the President of such Commissioners, and delivered to the Secretary of each State respectively, shall be held sacredly binding on each of the said States of New Hampshire and Vermont, for ever. And, that Proposals of the same Tenor, be also made to, the Legislature of New York.

And the Committee do further recommend that nine persons be elected Commissioners by the Legislature on the part of Vermont, to treat with Commissioners to be elected on the part of New Hampshire and New York respectively, for the adjusting the aforesaid jurisdictional boundary Lines; and that they be commissioned by his Excellency the Governor, and the faith of this State be by him pledged, on behalf of the State, that the Decision thus had, shall in future be held as sacredly binding, on the part of Vermont.

This Committee further recommend to the Legislature that the Proceedings of this Committee be officially transmitted to the Congress of the United States; and that they be enclosed in a Letter, under the signature of his Excellency [P. 251.] the Governor, and directed to the President of Congress.

And this Committee do further advise the Legislature to recommend to the authority, in every part of the State, to remain firm in the support of Government, and the punctual Executions of the Laws, notwithstanding the various measures taken to create Divisions and Discord.

Resolved, That it be an Instruction to the said Commissioners, that they prepare and make the necessary defence in the Premises; and that they introduce the said matters to New Hampshire and New York, in such way, as to them shall appear best.

19th October 1781.

Voted, that this Committee be dissolved.

By his Excellency's command, Tho' Tolman, Dep. Sec<sup>y</sup>.

Proclamation of Thomas Chittenden for a day of Public Thanksgiving.

A PROCLAMATION.

It having pleased the Supreme Governor of the Universe, in the course of his holy & righteous Providence, to give us, his people, reason to rejoice and give thanks in the midst of his heavy Judgments, with which we are justly afflicted; we are under the strongest obligations to devote our lives to his glory, & with due acknowledgment to render praise to his Name.

I have, therefore, thought fit, by & with the advice of the Council, & at the request of the General Assembly of this State, to appoint, and I do hereby appoint, Thursday, ye sixth day of December next, to be observed & kept as a day of Public Thanksgiving and Praise to Almighty God: And I do hereby call upon, & strictly require all persons residing within this State of every Denomination, carefully to observe & keep sd Day; that we may with united hearts & voices gratefully acknowledge the beneficence and goodness of Jehovah, in the repeated Tokens of his mercy towards us; That he has preserved so many of our lives the year past, and been graciously pleased to defend our frontier settlements, in the midst of a calamitous War, and in so singular a manner granted success to the American arms, and their Allies in every part, both by sea and land; That he has been pleased to direct our Councils and bless the Administration of Civil Government in this State: and preserved so much unity and peace amongst us; That he has blest so many of us with health and safety in our dwellings; That notwithstanding our sinfull provocations, we are yet favored with a preached Gospel, which manifests that he is yet waiting to be gracious unto us; That he has smiled upon and Blessed the Labours of our hands, and gave us so fruitful a season with plentiful Harvest; That he has filled our Hearts with Joy and Gladness, and crowned the year with his Loving kindness and Tender mercies.

At the same time Humbly implore the Divine favor, that God in his mercy would continue those blessings we injoy, and in his own time avert his heavy Judgments, and grant Peace to this Land; That he would turn us from our evil ways and cause pure and undefiled Religion to revive and flourish throughout this Land; The Gospel run and be Glorified; That he would raise up and send forth faithful labourers into his harvest; That the many Destitute Congregations may be supplied with faithful ministers of Jesus Christ; That in Due time the Just Cause of this State may be fully acknowledged, when our Enemies shall be confounded, when iniquity shall hide its Head, and all Nations be at Peace, and the whole Earth Filled with his Glory.

And all servile labour is forbidden on said Day.

Given under my hand, in Council at Charlestown, this 27th Day of October, in the fifth year of our Independence, A. D. 1781.

THOMAS CHITTENDEN.

GOD SAVE THE PEOPLE.

SECTION XII.

Collision in Border Towns.

NOTE BY THE EDITOR.

The long and as yet unsettled dispute respecting territorial jurisdiction, between New Hampshire and Vermont, had by this time reached such a pitch as to bring the divided inhabitants in border towns into direct collision. The facts relating to these disastrous conflicts, which required both the civil and military power of the state to suppress, are detailed in the papers which immediately follow. A portion of these papers—in addition to those on file in the MS. volume in the secretary's office—is copied from the "Correspondence of the Committee of Safety of New Hampshire, 1779-1784."

Letter from Gen. Benjamin Bellows to Meshech Weare relating to the unhappy condition of affairs in that portion of the State.

Walpole, Novr. 15th, 1781.

Hond Sir,-

Being prevented by bodily indisposition from doing myself the honor of waiting upon you with a verbal account of our unhappy situation in this part of the State, by reason of the claim of Vermont upon us, must do it as well as I can by writing;—that the Authority of the State may take such effectual measures as they in their Wisdom may Judge the Present Exigency of affairs calls for. The Inclosed Declaration and other Acts shews that the pretended Officers of Vermont, notwithstanding any Resolutions of the Congress of the United States, mean to exercise their authority, East of Connecticut River, in all cases whatsoever, in every place, where their numbers render it safe for them so to do; and to Prevent either Officers or People, still adhering to Hampshire, from the exercising any Act of Government or Priviledge according to the Laws of said State. If these things are suffered by this State and the Government of Hampshire will sit still and see her faithful adherents Dragg'd to Gaol, for supporting in an orderly way, her Jurisdiction over a Territory Guaranteed by Congress,—our case is Pittiable. Vermont has levied a Tax upon the Lands on this, as well as the West side of the River, and mean to collect it where they have a majority; -the consequence of which I much fear, will be violent if not sanguinary measures. We wait with impatience for some measures taken by you to allay our fears and quiet our minds, under our present Prospects. If the Wisdom of the State should think it necessary to use more vigorous methods than they have as yet done, (as no doubt they will): Tho' I mean not to dictate; yet I think it might be Best for any Officers sent to support Government here, with their Posses, to come from off the Grants, as it would be more likely to settle us in peace, than the employing any among us, for this Purpose, where we are so intermix'd and near Equally Divided. I must Further let Your Honor know that if Effectual methods were taken by the State to secure some of the leaders of the revolt, which I doubt not might safely, if secretly and Prudently attempted, be [P. 263.] done; in all probability matters would rest quiet, till the United States would do something decisive, if they did not take a turn in our favor.

Your Honor will make such use of what I have wrote you in Confidence, as the good of the whole State may call for, so as not to Prejudice unnecessarily any against one, who is with much sincerity your Honors most Obedient and Humbl Servt,

Honble M. Weare.

Substance of the complaints exhibited against Nath'l Bingham & John Grandy by Sam'l Davis.*

[P. 269.] To the Honal Saml King Esqr Justice of the peace, Complains Saml Davis, that on the Night of the 5 of Novr Instant—being in the house of Nathl Bingham in the Execution of his office as Constable in attempting to serve a precept upon James Robartson, that John Grandy did by force & arms oppose him the sd Saml Davis, and Did Not Suffer him to make his service, all which in against the peace & Dignity of this State: this is therefore to pray your honr to grant a warrant to apprehend the sd Grandy so that he may be Done with as Law & Justice Doth thereunto appertain, as in Duty Bound your complainant in Duty Bound shall Ever pray.

SAM1 DAVIS, Cons.

*The matter referred to in the paper which follows is minutely narrated in Hist. of Charlestown, ch. XI, pp. 168-184. The affair took place in Chesterfield. Moses Davis, constable, acted under authority of Vermont. Bingham and Grandy were for New Hampshire. Col. Samuel King, also, was in the Vermont interest; and the court before which the trial was had was a Vermont court. This transaction gave rise to a succession of severe conflicts in the border towns, which will be more fully disclosed by documents which follow.—Ed.

Mr. Bingham's Crime was that on the above s<sup>d</sup> Night, s<sup>d</sup> Bingham Did by force & arms oppose the s<sup>d</sup> Davice & ordered him to Depart his house & told him that None of his Precepts should be served in his house.

To Both of the above Complaints when the Questions were asked Whether Guilty or Not, they said Not Guilty: then the Influence of their Court was used for them to throw themselves on the mercy of their Court & submit their Cause to a Jury, but they Refusing they proceeded to examine into the Complaint & Endeavoured to support it by four Evidences; whereupon the Crime appearing so high the Justices ordered them to Recognize to the Superior Court & procure Bonds or Go to Jail; they offering to go to Jail the Greatest pains Possable was taken to Pursuade them to procure Bail & offers made to them even to take arry persons words which they would produce in Lieu of Bonds if they would But comply.

By the Best Information that can be obtained of a Complaint which is exhibited against Lt. Lee, he is charged with thretening to take the Life of the s<sup>d</sup> Sam¹ Davis; whereupon a Warrant is issued & orders given to break up any house where the s<sup>d</sup> Lee may be found.

Petition of Nath'l Bingham and John Grandy, Jun., to the Council and House of Representatives, N. H.

[P. 275.] State of New Hampshire To the Honorable Cheshire, ss. the Council and House of Representatives in General Assembly now sitting at Exeter:

The Petition of Nathaniel Bingham and John Grandy, junr of Chesterfield in said County: Humbly shews—

That your Petitioners are now confined in the Gaol in Charlestown in said County by two several Mittimuses, the one signed by Samuel King, the other by Moses Smith of Chesterfield aforesaid, for the supposed Crime of opposing a Constable acting under the authority of the State of Vermont in said Chesterfield, as by the copies of the Mittimuses herewith transmitted will appear. How far we are justly chargeable with the fact of opposing the said Constable (for we suppose it to be no crime) your Honors will be able to judge from an impartial account of our conduct, presented by the Bearer. The pain we feel from our disagreeable confinement induces us to trouble the Assembly with this Petition, not doubting but they will grant us such relief as on full consideration of our case shall be tho't expedient;— and as in duty bound shall ever pray.

NATH BINGHAM JOHN GRANDY, Junz

Charlestown, Nov ye 16th. 1781.

Statement of facts by Nathaniel Bingham.

As the Town of Chesterfield in the County of Cheshire has been some time destitute of any Officers either civil or military who would act under the authority of New Hampshire, we were advised by some of the principle Persons in the County to nominate one or two persons as Justices of the peace and return their names to the Assembly to be commissioned if they tho't proper. We were accordingly assembled for that purpose at my House in said Chesterfield on the evening of the sixth of November Instant. About 8 o'clock in the evening Samuel Davis of Chesterfield aforesaid, who was legally appointed and sworn as Constable for said Town for the present year, but has since taken another oath as Constable for the same Town under the authority of the State of Vermont, under which authority only, he will act—came in with five others, and after some conversation took a book from under his coat, which I suppose to contain the Laws of Vermont, and said he would be glad to read a paragraph in it. I told him I did not choose to have him read any of the Acts or Laws of Vermont there, and forbade his doing it, and desired him to withdraw for he interrupted us, and some one in the company said if he read any riot act there, it would be kicked into the fire; after some other conversation he put up his book, and said he had a Precept against one of the Company, and I forbade his reading any Precept under Vermont in my house,—on which he and his attendants left us.

On the twelfth of Nov<sup>2</sup> ins<sup>4</sup>, I was taken by a Warrant signed by Moses Smith, directed to the Sheriff of the Coun-[P. 278.] ty of Washington, and was carried before the said Smith, and sentenced as set forth in the Mittimus, and kept in close confinement untill the afternoon of the 13th instant; then conveyed to the north part of Walpole; and the next day committed to this Gaol with John Grandy jun<sup>2</sup>, who is in the same situation with myself, except that he was committed by Samuel King.

The above is a true state of facts, which I beg leave humbly to submit to the General Assembly of the State of New Hampshire.

NATHANAEL BINGHAM.

Charlestown, Nov. ye 16th, 1781. To the Speaker of the House of Representatives. An Act of the General Assembly of New Hampshire for empowering the Sheriff of the County of Cheshire to release certain persons from Prison, in Charlestown.

[P. 281.] STATE OF NEW HAMPSHIRE.

In the year of our Lorp, one thousand seven hundred and eighty one.

AN ACT,

For empowering the Sheriff of the County of Cheshire to release from Prison sundry of the good subjects of this State, imprisoned by certain evil-minded Persons, assuming authority for so doing under the People inhabiting a Territory commonly called Vermont; and for apprehending the persons so offending.

Whereas the people inhabiting a tract of country on the West side of Connecticut River, originally granted by this State, and afterwards claimed by the State of New York, have erected themselves into a separate and independent Jurisdiction by the name of the State of Vermont; and whereas sundry persons have, by color of authority under the said pretended State of Vermont, acted as Civil Officers, passed Judgment and committed to prison sundry of the good Subjects of this State, and have seduced many of the inhabitants of the Counties of Cheshire and Grafton to submit to the Jurisdiction of the said pretended State of Vermont, by means whereof the proper officers of the said Counties may be unable to release the good subjects of this State from such illegal imprisonment, and to apprehend the persons so offending, without the special Aid of this Assembly; and inasmuch as an impartial trial of the said Offenders cannot probably be had within the said Counties where the Offences have or may be Committed; Therefore,

Be it therefore Enacted by the Council and House of Representatives, in General Assembly convened, and by the Authority of the same, it is hereby enacted, That the Committee of Safety be, and hereby is impowered and authorized to issue their order to the Sheriff of the County of Cheshire to release from Prison all persons confined or who may hereafter be confined in either of the said Counties by order, Process or Authority of any pretended Court, Magistrate, Officers or other Persons claiming Authority from the said pretended State of Vermont, and to apprehend the persons who heretofore have exercised, or who hereafter shall attempt to exercise any Office, Power or Authority within the said Counties of Cheshire or Grafton from, by or under the said pretended Authority of Vermont, and to convey said Offenders to the Common Gaol in the County of Rockingham, or such other County in this State as the said Committee may order, there to remain until released by order of the General Assembly, the Committee, or by due course of Law.

And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the said Committee of Safety be, and hereby are impowered to authorize the Sheriff of the said County of Cheshire to call upon the Sheriffs of any or either of the other Counties in this State, to raise the body of their respective Counties to aid and assist him in executing the order of the Committee of Safety, either to release persons imprisoned as aforesaid, or to apprehend the person or persons imprisoning them, and to convey the said Offenders to any Prison within this State, and also to command the Aid of any Officer or Officers of the Militia or Troops of this State, which may at the time be within the limits thereof, and commanded by an Officer commissioned by this State, and all Officers and other subjects of this State shall yield due obedience to such command.

And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the several and respective Courts of Judicature in the County or Counties where the said Offenders may be confined, be and they are hereby respectively impowered to hear, try and determine any Process or Processes against the said Offenders, and to give Judgment and award Execution thereon in the same manner as though the Offence had been committed within the Body of the County where such Trial is had;—Any Law, Usage or Custom to the contrary in any wise notwithstanding.

SIR-

The methods taken by the General Assembly for Liberating Mess<sup>m</sup> Bingham and Grandy are so far from being effectual for that Purpose, that the Authority of Vermont have imprisoned the Sheriff of the County of Cheshire who was sent here for the purpose aforesaid; the authority of said Vermont are determined to keep the Goal and their prisoners, and also to withstand and oppose (by force of arms) all the Sheriffs and their Posses who may be imployed by New Hampshire to counteract any of their Purposes or designs: it is said they can raise (by their account) six Hundred men at the shortest notice, who will resolutely dispute the Ground Inch by Inch. That the Posse should be raised to carry the orders of this State into Execution now, is absolutely necessary; something effectual must be done; dallying will not answer, and unless some force can be obtained from without the County of Cheshire, it will not be advisable to Dispute the Ground any longer. You can't but be sensible of the ill consequences of such an attempt from within ourselves within this County, and Especially within the Grants;—for should the Friends of New Hampshire generally exert themselves at this time it would universally alarm the Vermonters, and many who would not otherwise arm in this Quarrel would exert themselves to the utmost to oppose the orders of the Assembly, and all the New Hampshire Authority. I should think that if New Hampshire are determined to Support and Protect their Friends in this Quarter, and to maintain their Jurisdiction, it will be absolutely necessary that a sufficient force should be collected from without the Grants be sure, if not without the County of Cheshire; You will put yourself in our circumstances, and especially in those of the Sheriff and the other Prisoners, and I think you can't hesitate a moment respecting what is necessary to be done and how it should be done.

NOTE BY THE EDITOR.

While affairs were in the condition above delineated in the western parts of the state, the authorities of New Hampshire in the eastern part were prompt in measures to maintain their jurisdiction, and give relief, if possible, to their oppressed subjects. Hence, the Committee of Safety at Exeter, on the 5th of December, issued orders, as follows:

[Copied from MS. Records in Secretary's office, of Committee of Safety, 1779-1784, pp. 108-115.]

State of New In Com<sup>too</sup> of Safety Exeter Decem<sup>r</sup> 5th, Hampshire I 1781.

SIR—By the inclosed Order you will see, that you are to raise the body of your County for the purpose of liberating the sheriff of the County of Cheshire from his illegal confinement.

The Committee have wrote Gen<sup>1</sup> Nichols and Gen<sup>1</sup> Bellows on the subject of raising men for that purpose to whom you will apply.

You have inclosed a copy of the act of the Gen¹ Court, impowering the Committee to liberate persons confined in the Counties of Cheshire and Grafton by any persons acting under the pretended authority of Vermont & for apprehending all persons who have or shall attempt to exercise such authority in either of said Counties.

You will receive herewith a Warrant directed to Col® Hale or (in his absence or incapacity to act) to yourself for liberating from confinement and for apprehending sundry persons acting as aforesaid—You will first proceed to liberate Col® Hale and afterwards give him your assistance agreeably to the Act of the General Court. If (by any cause whatever) Col® Hale should not be able to execute said Warrant, you will consider and proceed to execute the same as full to all intents and purposes as though originally intended for you.

The Confining Coll. Hale is a Crime of such magnitude, that the General Court (as we conceive) had no idea of it, and demands speedy redress, doubt not but you and all the good people of this state who may be called upon for the purpose will exert yourselves to give speedy relief to those confined and to bring to Justice all concerned in such unconstitutional proceedures.

You will call on Francis Blood Esq for a supply of Provisions, to whom we have wrote on the subject—You will give the Committee (or the General Court if sitting all necessary intelligence from time to time in order (if need be) that you may have further support.

SIR—I have to inform your Hon that I wait the pleasure of the Hon Committee of Safety, who I trust, well know my situation. Sir, I have given Bonds for the liberty of the yard, but could not give Bonds to appear at an unknown Court, for the Honor of the State that sent me to this place: however I was prevented doing the Business that I was sent upon yet I found the People to be much disappointed when they see that I Refuse to recognize and said that it would emediately bring on a quarrel, and many said they never would take up arms for the sake of Jurisdiction and could ownly wish to know the pleasure of Congress on the matters,—which I think has been kept from them by designing persons.

Sir, Even those that are leading in the insurrection were pannick struck on hearing that two thousand men was on their march but have since been much incouraged by hearing that the State of New Hampshire did not know what to do with them. Sir, I think that Now is the Time to Put

[P. 299.*] Arlington, 14th December 1781. Sir—

I have received dispatches from William Page Esqr. Sheriff of Washington County, which gives me to understand that there is a high probability that the Government of New Hampshire are about taking coercive measures to compel the peaceible citizens of this State to submit to the Laws and authority of New Hampshire. The Sheriff further desires my special orders in matters relating to the premises; and as my remote situation renders it impracticable that I should have the knowledge of the particular occurrences which may take place should such an attempt be made by New Hampshire, therefore I can only give you General Orders in the matter: viz. Provided that New Hampshire reject the proposals † of the Legislature of this State, and insist upon hostile measures, you are hereby directed to call on such of the members of the Council & the Generals Fletcher and Olcott, and such of the field Officers of the Militia on the East side of the Mountain as you may think proper, and after having consulted matters, if need be you are directed to call on any or all of the Militia of this State to the Eastward of the Range of Green Moun-[P. 300.] tains to your Assistance, and assist the Sheriff in carrying into Execution the Laws of this State, and to defend its citizens against any insult, and provided New Hampshire make an attack with an armed force you are hereby ordered to Repel force by force; and in the mean time you will use every means in your power consistant with the pease, happiness and dignity of this State to prevent the Effusion of human Blood, which at this time might be more or less injurious to the common cause of America as well as attended with many other serious considerations; and which I pray God may never take place.

Letter from Samuel Livermore in Congress to President Weare, relating to proceedings in Congress.

Philada Decr 18th 1781.

DEAR SIR-

I rec<sup>d</sup> yours of the 4th Instant with the Papers inclosed which I this day laid before Congress (except those which contain the maneuvers of Vermont Assembly at Charlestown, which Congress were already possessed of.) Congress appointed a Com<sup>tee</sup> of five to take them into consideration and report. Every member of Congress but one appeared in our favour & against Vermont as far as I could judge. Nevertheless, I do not pretend to predict the measures that will be taken. The labouring Oar I think is on Congress to support their own honour, dignity and authority; I wish to keep it so. I shall further advise of what may turn up.

I am with great esteem your most obed servant

Honble President Weare.

The Resolutions of Vermont were bro't to Philadela last week by one Mr. Brunson a Counsellor as I understand of that State.

President Wheelock is here & professes to have no hand in politicks, but is trying to get contributions for his Indian School, &c.

Letter from Elisha Payne, Lieut. Governor of Vermont, to President Weare, proposing amicable measures, f.c.

Charlestown, Dec. 21st 1781.

SIR-

I herewith transmit to your Honor a copy of orders received from the commander in chief of the State of Vermont issued in consequence of coercive measures persuing by New Hampshire, from which you will learn my situation.

Inclination and duty conspire to induce my compliance with any measures which reason and justice may point out to avert threatening hostilities pregnant not only with the horrors of civil war, but also the greatest injury to the United States, whose interest it is our desire as well as yours to support;—have therefore by advice of sundry members of the Council of this State and other Gentlemen of influence and consideration now present, appointed Brigadier General Enos and William Page, Esq* in conjunction with Col<sup>o</sup> Ira Allen (already appointed by the Governor to wait on your Assembly) to state before the said Assembly the reasonableness of the late proposals of the Legislature of Vermont transmitted to your Honor by a committee ap-[P. 296.] pointed by said legislature for that purpose, for a settlement of the disputes between New Hampshire and Vermont.

You must be sensible it has ever been our idea to have justice and equity take place in the decision, and therefore by the advice aforesaid renew proposals that the controversy in respect to the territory, the jurisdiction of which is in dispute between the said States, be decided by an impartial tribunal, on principles of right and equity, in the mode Congress have pointed out by articles of Confederation of the United States, in cases where disputes arise between two or more States in respect to boundary, jurisdiction, &c, Vermont being allowed equal privileges as the other party in support of their claims;—and that hostilities between the said States be suspended till such trial can be had.

We doubt not a compliance on the part of Vermont with the foregoing proposals which appear to us equitable and just, and are persuaded that New Hampshire are so possessed of principles of justice and equity as shall induce a compliance on their part, and hope for their favorable answer to lay before the Assembly of Vermont for their con-[P. 297.] currance at their meeting on the last Thursday in January next.

In case New Hampshire refuse compliance with equitable terms (as we view the foregoing) and are determined on hostilities previous to attempts for an amicable settlement, shall find myself under the disagreeable necessity to execute the orders I have received in raising the force of Vermont to repel encroachment on its jurisdiction exercised by consent of the people, and which I doubt not their most spirited exertions to support till the dispute is decided, confident that New Hampshire in case they commence hostilities must be accountable for the consequences.

I have the honor to be with esteem and respect, Sir, Your Honor's most obedient and most humble servant

ELISHA PAYNE, Leut Govr.

His Honor Meshech Weare, Esq. President of the Council of New Hampshire.

Orders from Elisha Payne, Lieut. Gov., to Roger Enos and William Page.

State of Vermont.

To Brigadier General Roger Enos* and William Page, Esquire.

Gentlemen—

By advice of sundry members of the Council of this State, you are hereby appointed and empowered to repair forth-

*General Enos first appeared in Vermont history in March, 1780, when the town of Enosburgh was granted to him and his associates. In 1781 he commanded all the Vermont troops in service; but previously he had been in the continental service, from the opening of the revolutionary war—accompanied Gen. Arnold in his expedition to Canada, 1775. His residence was in Hartland, Vt., which town he repeatedly represented in the legislature, from October, 1782, to 1792. He died in Colchester, Vt., Oct. 6, 1808, in the 73d year of his age. [See Rec. Gov. & Coun. Ver., Vol. II, p. 108.]—ED.

with to the Assembly of New Hampshire and in conjunction with Col<sup>o</sup> Ira Allen (already there by appointment of the Governor) use your endeavours that said Assembly consider and concur in the proposals made to them for settlement of the dispute between the two States relative to jurisdiction, and agree on measures to prevent hostilities till an equitable and impartial determination of the said disputes can be obtained.

ELISHA PAYNE, Leut Gove.

Letter from Enoch Hale to President Wears respecting measures for adjusting the boundary lines, &c.

I have this moment an oppertunity by Doct* Page of paying my Respects to the General Assembly, but the small Entilegence I have Received since my Confinement Puts me under some disadvantage in Righting. The surspention of opperation on the part of New Hampshire in support of there Jurisdiction is to me unknown and I Percive that a further surspention will be Requested on the part of the People on the New Hampshire Grants which I could not object to in Case that might be Productive of an honorable Settlement and the Provention of human blud. I have urged the Necessity of Jurisdiction on the Part of New Hampshire at least that it should not be arrested out of our hands without any Trial or Consent-You will now see by the dispaches on there Part that a Trial is Proposed (though in the mean time they chuse to hold the Key) and in case the General Assembly of New Hampshire shall consent to such a Trial to com in for the same in Two seperate bodies in the line Proscribed by Confederation for settleing boundary lines I should Expect a surspention of those matters and govern myself as the wisdom of the General Assembly may direct—but in case the Proposals on there Part should appear to the General Assembly of New Hampsh<sup>r</sup> to be inadmissable and no Proposals made by our Assembly should be Complyed with—in such case I Humbly Concive that a surspention of opperation would be attended with bad consequences—as sending out orders and counter orders to the militia would be Productive of a spirit of slumber in them and weaken the hands of Government—The wisdom of the General Assembly will direct them—have ownly to ad that I have been used well as a Prisner have had the liberty of the yard and they Now begin to Desier me to Depart out of there Course. I am Sir your Honoras most obedient Humble Serv<sup>t</sup>.

Letter from Samuel Livermore to President Weare relating to "Vermonters."

[P. 317.] DEAR SIR- Philadelphia, Jany 1st, 1782.

I wish you a happy New Year. Nothing material has turned up here since my last. I hope to have something to write by next post. I am anxious to hear the event of Genl Nicholls expedition. The Vermonters are very turbulent about Hudson's River and a strong suspicion of their being in League with the Brittish—you will hear more in my next, if bro't to any head in Congress.

Your most Obedt Servant,

SAMUEL LIVERMORE.

Hon. Presd<sup>1</sup> Weare.

Philadelphia 1st January, 1782.

SIR—I received your favor of the 14th of November, by Mr. Brownson. You cannot be at a loss to know why I have not heretofore, and why I cannot now address you in your public character or answer you in mine: But the confidence which you have been pleased to repose in me, gives me an opportunity of offering you my sentiments, as an individual, wishing most ardently to see the peace and union of his country preserved, and the just rights of the people of every part of it fully and firmly established.

It is not my business, neither do I think it necessary now, to discuss the origin of the right of a number of inhabitants to that tract of Country, formerly distinguished by the name of the New Hampshire Grants, and now known by that of Vermont. I will take it for granted that their right was good, because Congress, by their resolve of the 7th of August, imply it; and by that of the 21th, are willing fully to confirm it, provided the new State is confined to certain described bounds. It appears, therefore, to me, that the dispute of boundary is the only one that exists, and that being removed, all further difficulties would be removed also, and the matter terminated to the satisfaction of all parties. Now I would ask you candidly, whether the claim of the people of Vermont was not, for a long time, confined solely, or very nearly, to that tract of country which is described in the resolve of Congress of the 21th August last; and whether, agreeable to the tenor of your own letter to me, the late extension of your claim upon New Hampshire and New York, was not more a political manœvre, than one in which you conceived your-selves justifiable. If my first question be answered in the affirmative, it certainly bars your new claim. And if my second be well founded, your end is answered, and you have nothing to do, but withdraw your jurisdiction to the confines of your old limits, and obtain an acknowledgment of independence and sovereignty, under the resolve of the 21st of August, for so much territory as does not interfere with the ancient established bounds of New York, New Hampshire and Massachusetts. I persuade myself you will see and acquiesce in the reason, justice, and indeed the necessity of such a decision.

You must consider, Sir, that the point now in dispute is of the utmost political importance to the future union and peace of this great country. The State of Vermont, if acknowledged, will be the first new one admitted into the confederacy; and if suffered to encroach upon the ancient established boundaries of the adjacent ones, will serve as a precedent for others, which it may hereafter be expedient to set off, to make the same unjustifiable demands. in my private opinion, while it behoves the delegates of the States now confederated, to do ample justice to a body of people sufficiently respectable by their numbers, and entitled by other claims to be admitted into that confederation, it becomes them also to attend to the interests of their constituents, and see, that under the appearance of justice to one, they do not materially injure the rights of others. am apt to think this is the prevailing opinion of Congress, and that your late extension of claim has, upon the principle I have above mentioned, rather diminished than increased your friends; and that, if such extension should be persisted in, it will be made a common cause, and not considered as only affecting the rights of those States immediately interested in the loss of territory;—a loss of too serious a nature, not to claim the attention of any people. There is no calamity within the compass of my foresight, which is more to be dreaded than the necessity of coercion on the part of Congress; and consequently every endeavour should be used to prevent the execution of so disagreeable a measure. It must involve the ruin of that State against which the resentment of the others is pointed.

I will only add a few words upon the subject of the negotiations, which have been carried on between you and the enemy in Canada and in New York. I will take it for granted as you assert it, that they were so far innocent, that there never was any serious intention of joining Great Britain in their attempts to subjugate your country; but it has had this certain bad tendency—it has served to give some ground to that delusive opinion of the enemy, and upon which, they in a great measure, found their hopes of success; that they have numerous friends among us, who only want a proper opportunity to show themselves openly; and that internal disputes and feuds will soon break us to pieces. At the same time the seeds of distrust and jealousy are scattered among ourselves by a conduct of this kind. If you are serious in your professions, these will be additional motives for accepting the terms which have been offered, (and which appear to me equitable) and thereby convincing the common enemy, that all their expectations of disunion are vain, and that they have been worsted at their own weapon—deception.

As you unbosom yourself to me, I thought I had the greater right of speaking my sentiments openly and candidly to you. I have done so, and if they should produce the effect which I most sincerely wish,—that of an honorable and amicable adjustment of a matter, which if carried to hostile lengths, may destroy the future happiness of my country—I shall have attained my end, while the enemy will be defeated of theirs.

Believe me to be, with great respect, Sir, your most obedient Servant,

GEORGE WASHINGTON.

Letter from Gen. Bellows to President Weare, relating to the rescue of Samuel King by a mob.

[P. 325.] SirWalpole, Janry 2d, 1782.

I have often troubled you with a Narative of our Distresses and difficulties in this part of the State, notwithstanding I presume you, and the rest of the Honble Comtee of Safety will exercise your wonted indulgence while I give an Account of some new difficulties arising upon the officers attempting to convey one Samuel King of Chesterfield to Exeter: which Rescous you will have an account of before this reaches you. Upon the return of the Mob, after proper refreshment at said King's they sought for all those Persons, who were any way concerned in assisting the aforesaid officer, some of which they got into their hands and have abused in a shameful and barbarous manner by Striking, Kicking, and all the indignities which such a Hellish pack can be Guilty of, obliging them to promise and engage never to appear against the new State again;—and this is not all; they sware they will extirpate all the adherents to New Hampshire, threatening to Kill, Burn and Distroy the Persons and Properties of all who oppose them; that the Friends to this State, can not continue at said Chesterfield with their Families, but are obliged to seek an Asylum in other Towns among the Hampshire People. I have two respectable Inhabitants of said Chesterfield now sheltering themselves under my roof; who I have the Greatest reason to think would be Treated by them in a barbarous manner were they in their Power, as they have stove the Doors and Broke up Houses in search of them. I am credibly informed that there is in said Chesterfield about an Hundred Persons who support said King, who Damn New Hampshire and all their authority [P. 327.] to Hell, and say they (New Hampshire) can do nothing only in a mean under handed way; in short, they Defy all the authority and force of the State, and are determined to support and maintain their usurped authority maugre all attempts that have or shall be made to curb and restrain their usurpations. The wrath of man and the Raging of the Sea are in Scripture put together, and it is He alone who can rule the latter and restrain the former.

I hope and trust the Author of Wisdom will direct the  $\operatorname{Hon^{hle}}$  Committee to such measures as will ultimately tend to the peace and happiness of this part of the State, and more especially those adherents to New Hampshire who are in a sense suffering for Righteousness sake.

Hampton falls Dec 4th 1782-[1781?]

DEAR SIR-

I received your favor of the 6th of Novem ulto respecting this State's proportion of the Tax proposed to be raised by the United States for defraying the charges of the ensuing year which was immediately laid before the General Assembly then sitting, who are fully convinced that we shall be taxed greatly beyond our just proportion by the number of Inhabitants which Congress have taken to settle each State's Quota and have directed me to write you on the affair, which I shall do as soon as I can procure the accounts of the number of Inhabitants in this State which have been taken or any other matter which may serve to give light in the affair.

I have also received your favor of the 13th ulto in which you mention that you had heard nothing from Vermont respecting their Compliance with the Resolutions of Congress. I now inclose you copies of the Proceedings of their General Assembly at a session which they held at Charlestown (N° 4) in October last transmitted to this State. Altho' it is probable that before this reaches you, Congress will have received copies of the same. By which it appears, that they are determined to pay no regard to any Resolutions of Congress but to support themselves upon their own Authority. How far such proceedings will endanger the peace of all the United States, Congress will judge.

You see they have proposed settling Boundaries between them and New Hampshire by a Committee which on their part they have chosen; But this method our General Assembly have rejected, I think with good reason. For should we comply with that proposal it would be acknowledging them an Independent State which (I think) we have no right to do, but is a matter proper for the determination of Congress only. It would moreover be acknowledging them a State on both sides the River, for as such they now act, and in that case, upon what principles any boundary Line could be settled I know not, they may (for any thing I can see) as well claim the whole of the State as what they now do, for what they tell about the Grants is a mere Device of their own without any foundation, for Mason's Patten, you well know, was a grant of the soil only and had no relation to Jurisdiction or Government. But their Temper, Disposition, high handed Proceedings and injurious Treatment of such Persons, as do not Join with them, and their Contempt of the Authority of this State will more fully appear by their proceedings in imprisoning Messrs Bingham & Grandy as appears by the papers laid before the General Court, Copies of which, I inclose to you; Upon considering of which the General Court ordered Col<sup>o</sup> Hale the Sheriff of the County to liberate them from Gaol and what followed in consequence of this going to execute the orders of the General Assembly. You will learn from Gen! Bellow's Letter which I have just received by Express, Copy of which I likewise inclose—It is impossible as yet to determine to what length they will carry matters, and what alarming Consequences may follow-This State have hitherto, for the sake of maintaining peace and in hopes of a speedy determination of Congress forborn, exercising Jurisdiction over those, who have pretended to join with Vermont; We have not made distress for Taxes, tho' a great part of the Towns of the Counties of Cheshire & Grafton have refused paying any Taxes or contributing to the support of the War, which has greatly embarrassed our affairs and rendered it extremely difficult and in some cases impracticable for us to comply with the Requisitions of Congress-It is now absolutely necessary for the state to exert our authority to relieve our Fellow Citizens, distress'd, threatened and dragg'd to Gaol and to oppose such illegal and altogether unjustifiable proceedings; and I cannot doubt but Congress will support us herein, and grant us such assistance as may at any time, be necessary for supporting us as one of the United States agreeable to their Resolutions and Guarantee.-You will doubtless inform Congress of these proceedings of the Vermonters and take their advice respecting our Conduct, we have submitted the matter to them and Rely on their supporting us in our just Claims and earnestly request they would make a final Settlement and Determination in the affair-Shall be glad to hear from you respecting this matter as speedily as may be.

DEAR SIR-

In my letters of the 4th Inst I gave you some account of the proceedings of some of the Vermont Officers in imprisoning Col<sup>o</sup> Hale the Sheriff of the County of Cheshire; Since which Orders have been given for raising the Militia to liberate them, what the consequence of this may be, I am not able now to inform you, perhaps may in my next.

I now inclose you a Copy of a Petition of Capt Ebent Green to the General Court with their Vote upon it which is all the information I can give you of the matter—You will please to lay them before Congress for their Determination.

I likewise inclose you a Copy of a Return of the number of Inhabitants in this State taken by the Selectmen of the several Towns & Parishes in the year 1775 and Return made under Oath, except a few Places where for want of Selectmen or some other impediment or neglect the Returns were not made the Number of Inhabitants in these places were estimated from the best information could be obtained from Persons fully acquainted and capable of judging very nearly what numbers were in each; These Numbers are but few, and the numbers at which they were estimated are set down in the last Column but one, which makes the whole Number of Inhabitants at that time 82,200, which from former accounts and estimates taken as well as from the Integrity of the Persons employ'd to take the account I am fully satisfied is the extent of the Numbers we then had.

There was an account sent to our Delegates in Congress in the year 1775 of the number of Inhabitants as near as it could then be obtained, many towns had not then made their Returns, who have since made them, so that, that account was made more by estimation than that which we now have, which probably may make some variation between them, that I think amounted to about 80,000, and if in settling our Quota of the Tax, the number of Inhabitants in this State are supposed to be more at that time than what is contained in the inclosed Return we shall certainly be so far taxed beyond our just Proportion. Moreover, as far as I can Judge from all former estimates and accounts which I have had of the number of Inhabitants in the different States (if the Numbers mentioned in your letter, be the Numbers by which the several Quota's are settled) we shall be much too high in proportion with other States, if our Numbers are set at 82000.

And when in addition to this I consider our situation with respect to the great numbers in the Counties of Cheshire & Grafton, who under Pretence of joining with Vermont have hitherto and still do absolutely, Refuse to pay any part of the Taxes of this State, I think it absolutely impossible to comply with the Requisitions made by the Financier, which I received by the last Post, and shall lay before the General Assembly, who are to convene next week, who doubtless will deliberate on the matter and come to some Determination of which you will be informed.

I am &c.

M. WEARE.

Sam1 Livermore Esq.

Hampton-falls Jan. 21st 1782.

[P. 132.] Dear Sir

By reason of a fall which I met with from my horse I was prevented from attending the General Court for some time, On which account Capt Langdon was desired to forward to you a Copy of the vote of the Court for Continuing you a Delegate for this State which I trust you have received.

I was in hopes Capt Langdon would have set out for Congress before now, in order to join you and on that account have omitted writing to you for sometime past, as he would have been able to give a full account of the situation of our affairs. But his private affairs not admitting of his proceeding at present, there are two other Delegates chosen Mr. John Taylor Gilman and Col<sup>o</sup> Walker but neither of them can go forward at present. But I am in hopes that Capt. Langdon will be able to settle his affairs so that he may set out for Philadelphia in a short time. We are very desirous that one of our Delegates should go forward as soon as may, as it is of great importance not only to this but (as I apprehend) to all the United States that Congress should be fully informed of the Conduct of those, who profess to belong to Vermont, which cannot be so well done by writing as if some Person were present, who may be able to give a general Account of it, and Circumstances relative to it.

In my letter of the 10th of Decr I informed of the Conduct in imprisoning Col Hale, the Sheriff of Cheshire County, who was sent by Order of the General Court for liberating Messrs Bingham & Grandy. Upon information of their proceedings respecting Col. Hale, Orders were issued for apprehending Mr King, the justice who sign'd the Mittimus for committing Messrs Bingham & Grandy, And also for apprehending Messrs Giles and Prentice, who signed the Mittimus for committing Col Hale. King was taken and bro't part of the way, but a mob was soon raised, who pursued and Rescued him from the Officer, and afterward Shamefully abused many of those who they took to be friends to New Hampshire by insulting, kicking and threatening them in such a manner that they could not think themselves safe in their Habitation but were obliged to flee elsewhere for protection. One man was struck with a sword over his head, very badly wounded and narrowly escaped with his life, and I am inform'd that a mob of twenty men have kept together ever since. Esq Giles has been twice taken and Rescued.

Upon a Representation of these proceedings of the Mob, being made to the General Court with Earnest Sollicitations from the injured persons for Redress, the Court tho't they were bound in duty to protect the Citizens of the State from insult, and to support their Officers in the exercise of the Duties of their respective Offices and in Order to this they are driven to the disagreeable Necessity of raising an armed Force as there was no prospect that any other measures would be of any avail, they have therefore ordered 1000 men to be raised. On what account they are raised will appear by the Proclamation issued by Order of the Court, one of which I inclose.

I could not have tho't after the Resolutions which Congress have pass'd relative to these affairs that the Authority of Vermont would have proceeded so far as not only to deny the Authority of Congress in the matter (unless they would please to settle it in the way which Vermont Assembly is pleas'd to point out) But also undertake to support their pretensions by force of Arms, against Congress and every body else. Yet this seems to be the purport of Gov Chittenden and Mr Payne's Letters, Copies of which I inclose.

The men voted by the General Court for protecting our Citizens & Magistrates in the execution of their Offices are not yet raised, and I most ardently wish that something might be done that might prevent the necessity of their being rais'd. But nothing I conceive will be sufficient for this end but the speedy & final Determination of Congress on the matter, which I doubt not you will endeavour to obtain. I need not inform you how impossible it is for us in this Situation to comply with the Requisitions of Congress respecting other matters, or how great Difficulties this makes in our own affairs, these must appear evident. I wish to hear from you as speedily and as fully as you can inform me, what is done or likely to be done respecting this matter.

I am &c

Honble Samuel Livermore Esq.

Letter from Wm. Page, in Gaol at Exeter, to Elisha Payne.

[p. 329.] Dear SirExeter, January 8, 1782.

I have requested for liberty to go home but whether I shall be able to obtain it is uncertain—I am unhappy to find things in such a distracted scituation, no man whishes to prevent the present measures more than I do—the minds of the people in this part of the State are much sowered against those that have taken up government under the State of Vermont-what shall I say,-the Gen1 Court are determined not to listen to any thing but absolute unconditional submission to the Government of New Hampshire, and since Colo King has been taken and been Resqued and sundry letters and Representations from that part which I suppose are Agrevated, the Gen1 Court have ordered two Thousand men to be Raised immediately in the Counties of Rockingham and Strafford & March them to Subjugate the People in the Counties of Cheshire and Grafton; I understand that a Proclamation is to be Issued and a Standard Erected and whoever Refuses to submit to the authority of New Hampshire to be subjected, should this method be proceeded What a scene of distress will open on my friends who appear to me to be inocent and what distress on those that live in that part which are friends to New Hampshire for it will be Equilly distressing to both parties. Contentiones of this kind will Ruin Society. I have mentioned to some of the Assembly that if the Matter could be put off untill a final determination of Congress could be obtained, the difficulties might subside, as the Resolution New Hampshire principally depend on is not final, nor sufficient to dissolve the Engagements we are under to Vermont, and to Attempt to drive people into Submission under such circumstances to say no more of it is hard. I wish that feel-[P. 330.] ings of Humanity, and as much Consideration as can be consistent with Honour might take place on both sides. I am sorry to find that all our conduct is misconstrued, and our proceedings misrepresented. Who could have thought that after we had by our delegates informed Congress that our scituation was such that we could not dissolve the union with Vermont, and desired Congress to Recognize the old limits of Vermont and have the lines settled between the two States agreeable to the mode prescribed by the Articles of Confederation for the settlement of disputes of this Nature, I say, who could have thought after all this, that it would have been said we had Renounced the authority of Congress: And why Congress took up the matter and left it undetermined, and ordered the people to do what was not in their power is to me unaccountable. I wish I could Express my feelings on the subject. Are we to be Killed for not understanding a matter Right, or not doing what was [not?] in our power to do---

In addition to what I mentioned in my last, have to observe that at the last Sessions of the Assembly of New Hampshire, the honest deacon Moses Robertson* was down and motioned to Gen! Folsom and others this plan of settling the dispute between Vermont and Hampshire or Rather to carry into Execution the Plan proposed by the legislature: if you, said he, will appoint a Number of men to joyn a Number we shall chuse to settle the line between us, I will engage our men shall give it in your favor—and [P. 331.] you know who to Appoint; we never had it in view to take the East side of the River only to get Rid of them the first opportunity—who can Justify such conduct (you know this is not the sentiments of the people) I fear the sending the Troops will prevent the method being procured to our advantage as hinted at in last letter by Gen!

I am, Sir, your most Obedt Servant

Letter from Samuel Livermore in Congress to President Weare.

[P. 337.]

Philadelphia, Jany 8th 1782.

DEAR SIR

Nothing material has occurred since my last. Congress are come to no determination concerning Vermont. They are much divided in opinion about the Steps that ought to be taken. However the Committee on that subject have at last reported. The substance of the report is adapted to carry into execution the Resolution of the 20th of Augst last; by giving Vermont an opportunity to revise their doings in Octo and renouncing their late acquired jurisdiction on the east of the river, &c. 'Tis proposed to send a commissioner from Congress to treat with them & to explain matters: and to denounce terror in case of their not complying. Whether this report will be accepted is uncertain; and the effect on the Vermonters is alike uncertain.

The report is to be taken up soon. I am Very Anxious about the event of this matter.

I am Dear Sir your friend and most obed servant

DEAR SIR,

I received your favors of the 1st and 8th Instant by the last Post. I am glad that Congress have the affairs of Vermont under consideration. I hope the matter will be pursued until a final settlement is made. I think the honor of Congress, the interest of the United States as well as the peace of this State in particular call for the final resolution of Congress on this matter. The conduct of the Vermonters is astonishing to me: that when Congress had given them so fair a prospect of being made a separate state and received into the Union upon their renouncing all claim east of Connecticut river, that they should reject this proposal and wholly deny the authority of Congress in the matter, for the sake of keeping up a claim East of the River, for which they have not a shadow of foundation. How far the British councils may influence them in this matter I will not pretend to say, but there is no doubt but they have been negotiating with the Britons on some plan or other. Mr. Allen was twice at Canada and once at New York last Summer as I am well informed. I doubt not but Congress will make full inquiry respecting their conduct and come to a final determination. I have heard nothing respecting their conduct since my letter by last Post. Probably may give you some further account in my next.

I am with much respect

Letter from General Bellows to Meshech Weare, relating to Doct. Wm. Page's release,

[P. 339.]

Walpole, Jany 10th, 1782.

Sir-

I was informed by General Enos on his return from Exeter, that it was probable Doc<sup>r</sup> Page would be allowed to return in a short time, and further, he recommended to the Inferior Court of Common Pleas, siting at Charlestown, to Write the Hon<sup>blo</sup> Assembly or Committee of Safety, advise them to allow it so to be, supposing it would have a good effect respecting our disturbances; what the sentiments of the Court may be, I cannot certainly say, but I can say, I imagine it would have a different effect. I take it to be good policy, that in order to suppress Insurrections, the Leaders of the insurgents are to be apprehended and kept from the mob if Possible. I am very far from wishing ill to the Doc, desiring his being kept from his Family and friends any otherwise than for the Public peace and Tranquility; the mob want nothing but a leader, to cause them to perpetrate the most shocking outrages; the apprehending some of the Commanders and the attempts upon others, have had no bad effect; the people seem cooler and more fearful—to this it is owing in my opinion that the Court hath set peaceably and done business at this Term in this County. One Court of Common Pleas is sufficient for this County, consequently one Sheriff. Should the Docr be Liberated, undoubtedly there will be an attempt in February to hold a Vermont Court at Charlestown, which would be attended with bad consequences: it would Destroy the good we experience, and prevent the Further advantage we expect from the late spirited measures of the authority of this State. The Sheriff took Esq Giles about ten days [P. 341.] since, but was rescued. The Sheriff is this day in pursuit of him again.

Letter from Col. Enoch Hale to Meshech Weare, relating to the rescue of Esquire Giles, and his own seizure by the mob.

Walpole, January yo 11th, 1782.

Sir-

I once more venture to Trouble your Hon with a few Lines as I think it to be my duty to Give the earliest Inteligence in my Power of the conduct of the People in our unhappy County. Sir, as General Bellows has Rote I shall omit many things that I should otherwise have mentioned. Could ownly wish to mention the Particular Circumstances of Esquire Giles being Resqued from me a Second Time—and to give the true character of the Inhabitants of the Town of Charlestown, where we are under the disagreeable Necessaty of Holding Two Courts in a year without the least help from them or any Town in that Quarter, respecting Jurors &c. and have to undergo the further mortifycation of well Known Combinations Consulting the overthrough of our Courts and the Imprisonment of the officers of the same. But any further on that head I forbear.

Sir, I have had great oppertunity of hearing the People in that part of the County finding fault with every movement of our General Assembly—when they thought the militia was coming out, they said, Why should the People all suffer for the Rash Conduct of some of there Civil officers, and seamed to condemn the measures they had takenbut, when the Assembly seamed to comply with their own wishes they must still find fault and said, Why do they make night work of it, let them com like men by day light and they would not met with any dificulty-but still I find what dont sute the will can never sute there hand. It hapned on the Tenth Instant that I took Esquire Giles about twelve miles up the River and Brought him down to Charlestown in open day light, and on my arrival Just at Evening the People collected and arrested him out of my hands in a most extroydinary manner and all deaf to my commands for assistance, notwithstanding many ware Present that had been our Pretended frinds. They son [P. 344.] after held a Consultation for Taking and Carrying me to Bennington, but fearing that would not so well sute, they sent me their Judas to advise me as a frind to make my escape immediately to avoid Going to Bennington. I gave for an Answer that if that was their intention I would Tarry all night. But in the morning I had a second mesage that they would be Ready for me in half an I gave for Answer that that would be time enough for me to take breakfast, which I then called for-and after breakfast I had another mesage that if I did not make my Escape they would Catch me before I got three miles, for which he should be very sorry. I gave for answer that I should have the less way to come back—but if I was not molisted I ment to set out for hom soon, but finding that all their stratigems would not Prevent my Taking breakfast and leaving the Town in an open and Publick manner, they then Rallied all their forces that was Near at hand to the amount of about forty men and a Pretended deputy Sheriff at their head; but for a frunt Gard they Raised some of their most abelist women and sent forward with some men dressed in Womens apparril which had the Good luck to take me Prisnor, put me aboard one of their slays and filled the same with some of their principal women and drove off Nine miles to Williams Tavern in Warlpole, the main body following after with aclimations of Joy—where they Regailed themselves and then set me at liberty Nothing doubting but that they had intirely subdued New Hampshire.

Sir, you will pardon me for Righting this Extroydinary letter; I should not have don it had I not been desierous that plane Facts of there conduct might be Known. Some go in fear, and all good subjects of New Hampshire Grone under the burthen; it has become a serious matter and a Remedy much wanted—and in full beliefe that the wisdom of the General Assembly will be surficient to direct them I Rest Assured and Remain your Hon<sup>rs</sup> most

Obedient and most Humbl Servant

Sir, I had forgott in my letter of the 11th Instant to inform your Hon that I Never Received any order from the Hon let Committee of Safety as mentioned in the Act of the General Assembly of the Twenty Eighth of November last past, which has been a great hinderance in my Progress, for after outrages had been committed I might have secured several of the Perpitrators of the same, had all our good subjects been fully convinced that my authority had been surficient, which I think would had a very Great Tendency to Check those that have been so fon of Resquein Prisnors.

I have rec<sup>d</sup> your favour of the 12th instant informing me that Vermont had receded from their late encroachments. The Com<sup>toe</sup> upon your letter about the 5 million dollers & quota of the 8 million have made a report plumply against us.

I have got a day assigned for debate which is next Monday. As I suppose we shall soon hear from Vermont in a manner that will end that tedious business, I hope to see you in May. There is no news from Charlestown since my last. Gen. Washington is gone to North river.

NOTE BY THE EDITOR.

The action of Vermont, referred to in the foregoing letter from Mr. Livermore, is fully reported in the Rec. of Gov. and Coun. of Vermont, Vol. II, pp. 379-383, and in Slade's State Papers, pp. 168, 169,—from which it appears that, on the 19th of February, 1782, the General Assembly of Vermont, in session at Bennington, resolved itself into a committee of the whole to take into consideration the action of Congress of the 7th and 20th of August last, His Excellency Gov. Chittenden in the chair; that then letters were read relating to the matters in controversy, and particularly the letter from Gen. Washington of January 1, 1782 [see ante, p. 462], which evidently had much influence with the whole body. On the 20th inst. the committee adopted the following resolution, viz.:

"Resolved, That in the opinion of this Committee, Congress, in their resolutions of the 7th and 20th of August last, in guaranteeing to the respective states of New York and New Hampshire all territory without certain limits therein expressed, have eventually determined the boundaries of this State."

This resolution being accepted and adopted by the assembly, then, on the 22d inst., an act was passed "to relinquish the claims to territories therein mentioned;" and on the 23d it was

"Resolved, That the west bank of Connecticut River & a line beginning at the northwest corner of the Massachusetts State, from thence northward twenty miles east of Hudson's river, as specified in the Resolutions of August last, shall be considered as the east and west boundaries of this State, and that this Assembly do hereby relinquish all claim and demand to and right of Jurisdiction in and over any and every district of territory without said boundary lines; and that authenticated copies of this Resolution be forthwith officially transmitted to Congress and the States of New Hampshire and New York respectively."

This relinquishment of jurisdiction virtually ended the controversy between New Hampshire and Vermont, so far as related to boundaries; but still, as Dr. Belknap said in his history,—"Though cut off from their connexion with Vermont, the revolted towns did not at once return to a state of peace: but the divisions and animosities which had so long subsisted, continued to produce disagreeable effects."

SECTION XIII.

BORDER TOWNS UNSETTLED.

Resolutions of Committees of the Towns of Newbury, Moretown, Norwich, Hartford, &c.

[r. 355.] In pursuance of Votes passed and instructions given by the Towns of Newbury, Moretown, Norwich and Hartford lying on the N. Hampshire Grants so called west of Connecticut River, proposing to take some measures to be informed of the honorable Gen¹ Court of New Hampshire, whether a union of the territory aforesaid can be effected with the State of N. Hampshire, in consequence of their claim over the same, on terms honorable and mutually beneficial—and appointing Committees from those several Towns to meet at Thetford in order further to consult on the subject and gain information therein, in such way and manner as may appear most adviseable:

The said Committees being convened in consequence of the votes and instructions aforesaid—after mature deliberation came to the following RESOLUTIONS.

Resolved, That it evidently appears to be the wish and desire of the inhabitants of the towns above named as by their said votes and instructions is expressed, and also by good information it appears to be the desire of several other towns who have not had opportunity to be represented at this time—that the territory aforesaid or part thereof should be united with the State of N. Hampshire & be under its jurisdiction, provided it can be done on terms that may be honorable and mutually advantageous;—And that we therefore think it our duty to enquire of the said General Court of N. Hampshire whether agreable to their claim aforesaid, the territory or Grants above mentioned or part thereof may on such terms be united with & become a part of that State; and that we imagine such an union might be formed to the general benefit, well-being and interest of the whole:

Resolved, that if the hon. Genl Court of N. Hampshire are disposed or desirous to extend jurisdiction over the territory aforesaid or a part thereof,—they be earnestly requested to signify their disposition therefor to the several towns in their said claim as soon as conveniently may be; and also manifest their ideas respecting judicial and other proceedings under the authority of Vermont—cases now pending in [p. 356.] Courts &c.;—and if a reasonable adjustment of these last mentioned and other necessary matters can take place, we have full reason to believe and assert that the greater part of the inhabitants in said territory would readily acknowledge the authority of N. Hampshire;—expecting doubtless at the same time that some direction or assistance will be afforded in guarding the frontiers:

And whereas a negotiation or correspondence has been evidently—and from many circumstances we suspect is still carrying on—by persons in high office in Vermont with the british officers and Government, greatly prejudicial to the cause of America, and destructive of the final welfare of this country—whereby there is the utmost reason to fear and helieve that many persons who are disposed and doubtless do harbour and give intelligence to our enemies, cannot be bro't to public justice under our present situation,—and other accumulated evils consequential thereto cannot now be remidied—

Therefore Resolved, That the Court of N. Hampshire be requested to order a number of troops to the defence of the frontiers—it being from many circumstances apparent that unless relief and assistance be speedily afforded from some quarter, the situation of these frontiers will be truly deplorable.

Resolved, That the following MEMORIAL be transmitted to and laid before the hon. Gen<sup>1</sup> Court of N. Hampshire together with these Resolutions, and that Abel Curtis Esquire* be appointed agent to wait on that honorable Court with the same;—And that said Agent be desired and impowered to make or receive such further proposals agreeable to the tenor hereof as may then be judged beneficial and expedient.

*ABEL CURTIS, Esq., resided in Norwich; was a member of the Vermont Assembly in October, 1778, 1781, and 1782; was associated with Hon. Elisha Payne, Jonas Fay, and Ira Allen as an agent to Congress to solicit the recognition of the independence of Vermont, &c., 1782. He was judge of the Windsor county court in 1782-3.—ED.

MEMORIAL.

[P. 357.] To the honorable general Court of New Hampshire to be convened at Concord in and for said State on the second Tuesday in June next, the Committees aforesaid in the name and behalf of the Towns above named, beg leave to represent:—

That the Grantees and occupants of the greater part of the lands in the territory aforesaid were possessed of titles from the Governor of New Hampshire and in expectation of having continued under the jurisdiction of that Government.

That the people in said territory were very unexpectedly and disagreably involved in difficulties and calamities by being annexed to New York by the royal edict in the year 1764—out of which they ever were desirous & endeavored to extricate themselves—but without success, until after the memorable american revolution—when for their mutual benefit and protection against the efforts of internal and external foes—they were impelled by necessity to form into a separate jurisdiction.

That necessity and necessity only induced the inhabitants of the Towns above mentioned and many others to unite and continue under the new government—Being unjustly deprived of that jurisdiction and protection from N. Hampshire which they had a right to expect and enjoy. And while they have esteemed the Congress of the United States to be the guardians of the rights of a numerous & free people, and have been ready to stand forth in defence and support of the cause of America—they have for a long while looked to them for a settlement of our unhappy disputes, but hitherto to no purpose:

That while on the one hand we view with keenest anxiety a negotiation on foot with the british greatly to the detriment of the public cause and tending to our final ruin, without a speedy remidy—which we are not at present in a capacity to obtain or afford—on the other hand we may view our rights violated in the most flagrant manner and [P. 358.] our liberties trampled upon by a number without rebuke or remorse—And therefore unless a number of men be raised or afforded for the defence of these frontiers, we must view their situation to be indeed very distressed and unhappy.

That altho' we would not wish to involve ourselves under greater disadvantages to obtain relief from our present troubles, we think it our duty nevertheless to inquire whether the jurisdiction of New Hampshire may not be as real as its claim, and whether the territory aforesaid may not be speedily united with and become a part of that State on such principles as may be honorable, mutually beneficial & advantageous to the whole—Being persuaded that the said territory on account of its fertility &c. may greatly add to the wealth and resources of New Hampshire.

The Committees aforesaid therefore beg that your honors would take the several matters herein before suggested into your wise consideration and rest assured you will pursue such measures thereupon as will eventually prove for the best good of New Hampshire and the territory aforesaid, whose interest ought doubtless to be inseperable.

Signed by order and in behalf of the Committees aforesaid, this thirty-first day of May in the year of our Lord seventeen hundred and eighty-two, and in the sixth year of American Independence.

BILDAD Andros,* Chairman.

bury, Moretown, Norwich and Hartford lying on the West side of Connecticut River as expressing their desire to be under the Jurisdiction of New Hampshire, in case they could be received upon such terms as were honourable & mutually advantageous, and also intimating that it would probably be agreeable to the Inhabitants of that part of the territory of Vermont that is situated to the Eastward of the heighth of Land, to join New Hampshire on the same terms:

Resolved, That although this State suppose they have a just title to the Territory called Vermont, which has long been controverted between this and the State of New York, Nevertheless, for the sake of peace and a good harmony with said State of New York, and to accommodate the said inhabitants east of the said heighth of land, this State is willing to extend their Jurisdiction over that part of the Territory called Vermont, that lays East of the said heighth of Land, provided the generality of the Inhabitants thereof shall desire it: Provided also, that New York will settle a Boundary line upon the said heighth of Land; and also, that in such case, this State will do whatever may be found useful & reasonable to be done towards establishing the proceedings of said District under the authority of Vermont, and also will afford them such protection against the common enemy, as the nature of the case will admit; and that the President be desired to inform the State of New York of our proceedings herein and desire their sentiments respecting the same. Sir-

I have the honor of Inclosing to your Excellency a Resolve of the General Assembly of the State of New Hampshire pass'd in Consequence of a Representation from sundry Towns on the west side of Connecticut River.

Your Excellency is not Unacquainted with the many difficulties which have Arisen, both to this State and the State of New York, by reason of the claim of Vermont so called, which matters have been submitted to the determination of Congress: But there does not at present appear a prospect of a Speedy Determination of Congress respecting the Matter. It is represented, that an Agreement between the States of New York and New Hampshire, respecting the Boundaries, might probably tend to bring the matter to an issue, and that the people in general between Connecticut River and the height of land, would be better satisfied to belong to New Hampshire than to Vermont, if Vermont could be made a seperate State. What the disposition of the people on the west side of the height of land may be, I am not able to say. If these difficulties could be settled to general Satisfaction, it would be happy. I am to request, Sir, that you would take the mind of your Legislature Respecting the Matter, and favor me with the result of their deliberations thereon, as soon as may be.

Letter from Thomas Sparhawk and Benjamin Bellows, relating to affairs in Cheshire County.

[P. 359.] To the Honble Committee of Safety for the State of New Hampshire:

Gentlemen—It is with great concern we behold the spirit of opposition to the authority and measures of this State advancing with horrid strides within this County,—which is apparent from the conversation and conduct of too many in every Town. The friends of Great Britain have taken unwearied pains to seduce the common People from their allegiance, and herein have been too successful; and it is morally impossible to convince the People of their danger. The idea of the Tyranny of New Hampshire is immovably fixed. The General Assembly, the Compilers of the Constitution, and the Executive authority have combined together to enslave the People, of which, they say, they are fully apprized and are resolved to free themselves from the shackles. They are determined to raise no men nor pay any Taxes for carrying on the war; this is a burden they cannot and will not bear; they have raised too much already for the great ones to pocket &c. a particular detail of conversation of this kind would fill a volume; a general run whereof you are not unacquainted with-shall not therefore trouble you with any more of it. We have great reason to think that coercive measures must be used in some if not in most of the Towns in this County to collect the Taxes. We were informed yesterday by two persons from West-moreland that two thirds of that Town are against paying the Tax, and that Capt. Daniel How who hath done much heretofore in the common cause now declares openly for the King of Briton and his Government, and thus it is in almost every place, there are persons of similar sentiments, Ches-[P. 360.] terfield, Richmond, Claremont, Cornish, Plainfield and Croydon pay no Taxes. The Collector of Beef Cattle hath agreeable to his orders notified the Towns of his appointment, and of the time and places of his and his Deputies attending to receive Cattle; some Towns have nearly completed their first payment, and why those above mentioned which most of them are wealthier, have done nothing, cannot be conceived, unless upon the foregoing Principles of not paying any Taxes at all. Upon the whole we think from the temper and disposition of too many of the People in this part of the State, troublous times are approachingwhich may Heaven avert; -and you and all who are intrusted with our publick concerns be directed in the way to shun and ward off impending dangers.

A question arises amongst the People who are willing to pay their Taxes, whether Beef shall be received at three pence per pound for the first payment of the Tax? Upon which the Collector and many others would be glad of your opinion; some people also are desirous that the collector may be impowered to exchange Cattle wheh are returned to him (whereof many are not fit to Kill) for those which are; and it appears to us, that such a method in many instances might be beneficial to individuals, and not injurious to the State;—but this is submitted to your better judgment.

We have seen a letter signed by His Excellency Meshech Weare Esq. to Mr. Jenison, wherein Jenison is at least impeached of male conduct in his office of Collector of Beef Cattle. Mr. Jenison's integrity and uprightness was never called in question, and we are humbly of the opinion ought not now: we believe that in his late appointment he hath (as he always did upon all occasions heretofore) exerted himself for the best interest of this and the United States. He and his Deputies may have given receipts for cattle dated a day or two later than the fifteenth of July, yet not with a view of helping himself or his friend, or of injuring the State; but because he could not accomplish the business of apprising, receipting, &c. upon the very day pointed out in his order. We know he hath turned away cattle to the great displeasure of those who offered them, and we are not in the least apprehensive that he would knowingly in the smallest degree swerve from the intent and meaning of his Instructions & orders which he shall from time to time receive.

Wishing you, this State, & the United States prosperity, and freedom from popular Tyranny and oppression, We subscribe ourselves, your obedient Humble servants.

Thos Sparhawk Benja Bellows.

Letter from Doct. William Page to President Weare.

[P. 363.] SIR, Charlestown, July 31st 1782.

Your Honor doubtless remembers I stand recognized to appear before the Superior Court to be holden at Exeter in Sept<sup>r</sup> next for accepting an office under the Authority of Vermont. I wish to be discharged from the trial and beg your Honor to lay the matter before the Committee of Safety and take their opinion on the subject. Should they judge I ought to be holden to trial, I pray for the liberty of trial in this County, for which I should have apply'd to the Assembly at their last Sessions, had I not been confident that as the jurisdiction was given up by Vermont and the people returned to New Hampshire, the Assembly would have pass'd an Act of Indemnity or at least Repealed that act that subjects persons here to Trial in any County in the State. Should the Committee not grant my request, I wish the matter might be postponed, if it can be done without my appearing, & I not forfeit my Bonds, untill I have time to lay it before the Assembly. Why I should be subject to a trial in a case where many others under like circumstances are taken no Notice of, cannot conceive. I pray for an answer by Col<sup>o</sup> Hunt.

And am sir Your Honors Most Hbl Servant

JACOB KENT Town Clerk.

Letter from P. White and John Taylor Gilman, delegates in Congress, to President Weare.

[p. 367.] SirPhilada Dec. 11th, 1782.

On the 9th Inst. we were Honored with your Letter of the 26th ultimo, Inclosing a Representation from Mr. Blanchard in behalfe of the New Hampshire Line and the Report of a Committee thereon. The subject of a settlement with the army for Pay, Depreciation & Retained Rations is now under consideration. The substance of the Report is, that Settlements should be immediately made by the United States up to the last Day of December 1781. The propriety of this measure and the Impropriety of such Settlements being made by the States Individually is much urged: We shall endeavour to have this matter determined as soon as possible, and (for sundry reasons) are Induced to urge that [P. 368.] settlements should be made by the State's Individually up to the last day of Dec. 1781.

You have Inclosed sundry Resolutions passed the 5th Inst. respecting the affairs of Vermont; a Resolution is now under consideration for assigning a Day when Congress will make their Final Determination respecting that Territory. This we Endeavoured to have determined in season to be Transmitted by this Post, but it has met with such obstructions as has hitherto prevented; it will probably be done in a few Days—as the final Determination of this matter is of very great Importance, we have to repeat the request that the Honorable the Legislature would be pleased to give their explicit Instructions on the subject. They will undoubtedly Examine the Act of November 1779, and other Resolutions and Instructions now in force on this subject. [P. 369.] It is probable the first Question will be whether they shall be a separate and Independent State; if this should be determined in the Negative, we should then wish to know whether the Honorable the Legislature would desire to have the matter determined in the Mode prescribed by the Ninth Article of Confederation, or attempt an agreement and accommodation respecting the same with New York & Massachusetts.

We have frequently heard while in the State that this affair might be easily settled, but although much has been done by the State to obtain a settlement, special agents have been appointed for the purpose, and it is now more than three years since the Act passed submitting the affair to Congress, Still it remains unsettled and is greatly embarrassed.

Inclosed is an Extract of a Letter from Gen<sup>1</sup> Greene to the Secretary of War respecting the Evacuation of Charlestown.

[P. 370.] Three members of Congress, viz. Mr. Osgood of Massachusetts, Gen¹ Mifflin of Pennsylvania & Mr. Nash of North Carolina are appointed to go to the State of Rhode Island on the subject of the five per cent Impost, to lay before them a state of Facts and to represent the necessity of their Compliance.

As we consider it a matter worthy of the first consideration of the Honorable the Legislature that the State should be constantly represented in Congress, and as we wish to return to the State the beginning of April next, hope Delegates will be seasonably appointed to relieve us at that time. In the Interim shall be in want of some Money to pay Expenses which hope will be seasonably furnished.

Letter from John Taylor Gilman, in Congress, to Meshech Weare.

Your favour of the 30th ultimo (on the subject of Vermont affairs) came to hand yesterday—am sorry to find that the Honble the Legislature have not given any direction in that matter. The Legislature of New York are now in session, and from some information which I have had this Day, think it is probable they will repeal their Act by which the Decision of this matter was submitted to Congress. If it should be proposed (in the present state of this matter, and without deciding on the Question of their Independence) that it be recommended to New York and New Hampse to adjust this matter between themselves, (reserving to Massachusetts the right of claiming and a Trial upon the principle of Confederation) and that Congress pledge themselves for carrying their agreement into effect,—How ought we to vote on the Question?

For my part I feel embarrassed by that part of the Act of 1779, by which a special agent is appointed, and other Instructions heretofore given on that subject.

I have conversed freely with Gen! Whipple on the subject at large; he has had opport! to converse with others, and will give full information.

Have no News to write, more than is in the Papers inclosed.

Letter from Enoch Hale to Meshech Weare, relating to difficulties in Cheshire County.

[P. 373.]

SIR-

I Received your Honor's favourable advice together with General Sullivan's letter of the 5th of January last Respecting my Power in raising the Body of the County if needed to assist me in Collecting Publick Taxes, the Legality of which I had not much doubted, but the way & manner of carrying the same into Execution under our present Circumstances is the grand object. But Notwithstanding many dificulties we labour under, I immediately sent orders to Colonel Reuben Alexander* to raise the body of his Regiment and to march them into Chesterfield on Tuesday yo 21st of that month or as many of them as might be surficient to assist me in Carrying the Act of the General Assembly into Execution; but the clammer of the People has been such that he fears to comply with the orders:—Giving me for Reason that in such case the greater part that could be raised would turn out with intent to mutinize and confound our Proseedings; and the same opinion is prevailing with Capt. Doolittle, Esqr. Lee, and many others of our well-wishers to Government, some of which affirm that they fear to speak their own opinion openly and wish to be protected in some other manner as the Wisdom of the Genl Assembly might direct,—but in case we cannot have assistance by Troops stationed with us, I could wish to have the militia inshured of having an addiquate reward for their servises in case of their being raised in the lower Part of the County. Sir, I could wish to have something mentioned to the General Assembly that I Rote in my second Letter, respecting Personall Estate not being surficient of the Selectmen of several Towns.

NOTE BY THE EDITOR.

Here end the official papers and documents which have been preserved on file in the Secretary's office, N. H., relating to the protracted controversy with New York and Vermont respecting the "New HAMP-SHIRE GRANTS." The editor has not found anything of importance on the subject in subsequent proceedings of the General Assembly, or of the Governor and Council of New Hampshire. The boundary between New Hampshire and Vermont being determined by Congress, and the troubles in border towns gradually subsiding, New Hampshire had nothing more to do in the controversy. Vermont, however, was decided and persistent in her claims for Independence, and to be received on equal terms into the union of the states. The measures adopted to attain this important end are fully detailed in Volume III, of Records of the Governor and Council of Vermont, Appendix, pp. 266-489, to which readers are referred. These records may be found in the library of the New Hampshire Historical Society, and in the State library in Concord. Vermont was admitted into the Union, February 18th, 1791.

BY THE

NEW HAMPSHIRE COMMITTEE OF SAFETY,

NOTE BY THE EDITOR.

The papers which follow are copies of letters written by the Committee of Safety of New Hampshire, 1779-1784, in relation to matters of immediate concern at that time; and are of especial historical value, as showing the embarrassments of the country,—the difficulty of raising money for the support of the war; the dangers of frontier towns; the patriotic spirit of the committee, and the sacrifices made by the people. That portion of the papers which relates to the troubles in border towns, 1780-1783, is printed in connection with other documents relating to the same affairs. The letters were mostly written by Hon. Meshech Weare, President of the Committee of Safety, but a part of them by Hon. Josiah Bartlett, who was next to Mr. Weare in influence and authority.

LETTERS, &C., BY THE COMMITTEE OF SAFETY.

[P. I.] State of New Hampshire.

In Committee of Safety January 9th 1779.

Sir.—A Letter from your committee to the Committee of Correspondence for the town of Alstead, has been laid before this Committee, and the son of Simon Baxter (mentioned by you) examined, who hath confessed, that he received of his said father about six hundred Dollars in Bills which he supposes were counterfeits, that he passed to one Joseph Welsh of Cambridge in your State about two hundred Dollars in said Bills for which he received of said Welsh two Guineas and two half Johannes's in hard money & the use of two horses to carry him & his Baggage to Littleton, that Welsh knew the money was counterfeit, and that Welsh is a great enemy to the United States, which he knew before and therefore called on him at that time. Some part of the money he says hath not been passed and the Committee expect to get possession thereof as an officer is gone in quest of it, as also to apprehend some person accused of uttering several Bills. If any thing of moment should turn up in further sifting this affair relative to sd Simon Baxter, or any Person in your state the earliest notice will be sent you.

[P. 2.] P. S. The examinant declareth that said Welsh manifested a great desire of getting to New York and enquire concerning the Rent of Houses & there.

State of New \ To the Officer or Officers having the Hampshire. \ charge of the Continental Stores of Provisions & Ammunitions at Coos: By direction of the General Assembly of this State, I am to request you to furnish the Troops sent by this State for the defence of the Western frontiers with the necessary Supplies of the above articles during their continuance in those parts.

Exeter March 7th 1780.

Sir-

The Treasurer of this state laid before the General Assembly two Drafts from Congress on him in your favour for three hundred thousand Dollars cash, and at the same time, represented that the Treasury was destitute of money.

I am directed to inform you, that notwithstanding the whole sums which Congress called on this State for, to be paid by the first of January last, have been assessed on the Inhabitants & the greatest part thereof paid into the Treasury as also a large sum for the contingency of the State & [P. 3.] in addition thereto as much as could be procured on Loans; Yet such hath been the amazing Depreciation of the Currency as so far to exceed our Calculations, that the whole hath been found quite insufficient for the Demands which we are under the necessity of answering within our own State, such as recruiting the Army, providing cloathing, paying a small part of what we have agreed to pay our soldiers for Depreciation, and other contingencies, that it is with great regret they find it impossible to pay your Drafts.

I am &c.

State of New Hampshire In Committee of Safety March 31st 1780.

To Major Joseph Bass, Clothier for the New Hampshire Troops in the Continental Service.

In executing the Business of your department you are to strictly observe (as possible) all the Acts, Rules, and Regulations of Congress relative thereto. Also to observe & obey the Instructions & Directions you shall receive from the Board of War of this State, to whom you are to apply from time to time for Orders in managing the Business you are intrusted with, And you are constantly as opportunity shall offer, & circumstances require, to correspond with said Board of War & inform them of the state of the supplies in your hands, & call on them for new supplies.

[P. 4.]

Sir.

I am honored with the receipt of your favour of the 18th Inst which I immediately laid before the Genl Assembly, who after due consideration thereof were very sensibly impressed with the distresses of our Brethren, inhabitants of the eastern parts now suffering and exposed to the enemy holding possession of Penobscot, And of the importance of Defending against their excursions in those parts and if possible to rescue that Post out of their hands; And are very sorry that they cannot at this time afford assistance to a sister State in Defence of that Country being under the necessity of raising considerable forces to defend their Northern & Western Frontiers which we apprehend to be in eminent Danger from Canada. But in Case an expedition should be ordered by Congress to reduce the enemy at Penobscot this State will exert themselves to the utmost to assist in carrying it into execution.

Hon. Jerem' Powell Esq.

GENTLEMEN-

The Indians drove from the Seneca County having arrived in Canada the winter past and the probability of their being inspired with sentiments of Revenge have greatly alarmed the inhabitants of our Western frontiers together with the likelihood of their being joined by a great number of Refugees from this and the neighbouring States. The Canada Indians & perhaps some of the British Troops

- [P. 5.] hath so intimidated them, that unless they are strengthened with more Troops to guard them than can possibly be afforded by this State, it is feared the settlements on Connecticut River will brake up and perhaps fifty miles of Country the most fertile in this State left Desolate. Wherefore I am directed by the General Assembly to desire you to make application to Congress for such aid as they shall judge adequate to assist in Guarding our extensive frontiers the situation of which you can give full information.
- P. S. Continued reports from Canada of the designs of the enemy against our frontiers hath much added to the fears excited by the reasons above mentioned.

Honr Messre Peabody & Folsom at Congress.

In Committee of Safety, May the 12th 1780.

Collo Ionathan Chase.

Pursuant to a vote of Council & Assembly of 22d of April 1780—

That sixty men be raised from your Regiment Col<sup>o</sup> David Websters & Col<sup>o</sup> Moreys, and employed for the Defence of the frontiers for the term of six months unless sooner discharged; To be officered with one Captain, one Lieutenant, and one Ensign of the Militia of which number of men your Quota is one Captain and twenty men.

You are hereby ordered & directed immediately to engage [P. 6.] one Captain & to raise by enlistment draught or otherwise twenty four men from your Regiment to Rendezvous at Haverhill as soon as possible, there to be under the Direction of Col<sup>o</sup> Charles Johnston & Maj. Benj. Whitcomb. Officers & soldiers will be paid such Wages as the General Court shall determine at there sessions in June next.

State of New Hampshire In Committee of Safety May 12th 1780.

GENTLEMEN-

By order of the General Assembly sixty men are to be immediately raised & stationed as a guard on Connecticut River to Rendezvous at Haverhill & wait your Commands.

I am to direct you, that you Detach twenty five men with one officer out of the sixty & to send them to upper Cohoss to guard the settlements there, who are to be instructed by you relative to their Station & Conduct.

The remaining thirty five you will employ in scouts & Guards as you think will best secure the inhabitants—We expect they will be supplied out of the Continental Stores; but if any thing should prevent that we must rely on your [P. 7.] procuring what may be wanting for those at lower Cohoss for which you shall be paid by the State. And Mr John Holbrook if absolutely needed will supply those at upper Cohoss—If any difficulty should arise in the Continents allowing for the supply this state will replace the Provinces.

State of New Hampshire In Committee of Safety May 26th 1780.

Resolved that it be recommended to all persons possessed of Wheat or Flour, on Connecticut River, for sale, to keep the same & not dispose thereof untill the General Court can have opportunity to purchase it for the use of the United States. The Court will meet at Exeter on the first Wednesday in June next, when the Committee have the greatest reason to believe they will appoint some person or persons to buy all the Wheat & Flour that can be spared in those parts & provide ways and means to pay therefor.

Exeter, May 26th 1780.

State of Six—A number of Gentlemen from New Hampshire the Western Frontiers of this State have suggested to me the favorable appearance of circumstances for making a descent into Canada——some who have lately been into that Country affirm that the Peasants of Canada almost to a man are ready & disposed to join the American Arms, whenever an opportunity shall offer.

[P. 8.] I beg leave to suggest to your consideration whether getting possession even of the Western part of Canada will not be of more consequence to America in negotiating a peace than dispossessing great Britain of all the Post they hold in the United States, and I think I may venture to assert, that we can reasonably expect to get possession of all Canada with less loss of Blood, and Treasure than the City of New York—Now Sir, if you should think favorable of this projection, I could wish you would propose it to your Court for their consideration—Although I have not been instructed in this matter & only offer my own private opinion, yet I think it probable, if Congress should direct an expedition that way this State will be ready to do all in their power to forward it.

I am &c

President Powell.

Sir-

I received yours of the 2<sup>d</sup> Inst and at the same time two orders of Congress in favour of Chaloner & White on me for three hundred thousand Dollars each was presented for payment.

The Treasury being destitute of money I applied to the President for Directions who informed me that a Letter from Eph<sup>m</sup> Blaine Esq. Commissary Gen<sup>1</sup> to our Delegates in Congress had been forwarded to him, advising that he had ordered you to put said order into the hands of Major Jona-[P. 9.] than Childs of this State who was to apply for payment, and that in consequence of said Information measures had been taken for paying said Drafts to Major Jonathan Child by procuring Grain on Connecticut River from sundry Towns who are delinquent in paying their Taxes, which is likely to be effected and hopes it will answer the end as well as paying the money which at this time I am unable to Do.

Gentlemen—

I am informed by many persons from your parts that there are many abuses committed by People in trading with the Indians in friendship with us cheating them of their property & other abuses;

The consequence of which is easy to be foreseen, that their affections will be alienated from us & very likely induce them to revenge.

I must request of you, for the sake of your Country, and for your own sakes who are so immediately concerned to use the utmost vigilance and detecting everything of the kind & to see that strict Justice is done the Indians, & that they are held as friends—Be kind enough to communicate copies of this Letter to the several Committees on the River, and if any Persons should prove refractory, in making restitution where they have wronged the Indians I must request that the Committees send to me the name or names [P. 10.] of the Persons concerned with the evidence and the General Court will see Justice done to the Indians in some way or other let the trouble or expence be ever so much.

GENTLEMEN-

This State the year past actually paid 333,000 Dollars for the Ship Hampden (lost at Penobscot) Stores mens wages &c and also have advanced very large sums for [P. II.] cloathing for the Army which with the other expenditures in paying Depreciation to Soldiers &c hath taken up the money raised the year past for the use of the United States.

I have been informed that Congress hath postponed the Calling on the State of the Massachusetts Bay for so much of the Taxes due from them, as they expended in the Penobscot expedition.

I must request that you will desire the same favor of Congress for this State and also for money advanced for Cloathing to the amount at least of 600,000 Dollars—I cannot at this time ascertain the Sum. This State has laid as large Taxes on the People as it was supposed they could possibly pay without distressing them & creating great uneasiness. Yet such hath been the great Contingences that they have proved very insufficient. And I am well assured New Hampshire will continue to exert all its strength in Co-operating with their Sister States in every measure recommended by Congress.

In the Account of New Hampshire with the United States for Taxes transmitted by the Board of Treasury dated the 15th of April last, I observe an omission of crediting the State for 200,000 Dollars the Tax of 1778 for which our Treasurer has a Receipt from Francis Hopkinson Esq. Your calling on the Treasury Board & getting that matter put right will be a Benefit to the State.

The General Assembly of this State in their last session, Pursuant to a Resolve of Congress agreed to Raise two companies of sixty men each besides officers for the Defence of the western frontiers to be in the Continental service untill the last day of December next; But the Assembly did not give directions who should have the ordering where the men should be stationed or employ'd and as we suppose that you have at present the Chief Command in those parts, we have ordered the men under your care to be employed for the Defence of the western frontiers of this State in such [p. 17.] manner as may best answer that design & desire you to give the necessary direction for their being supply'd with provisions &c and inform us from time to time of the situation of Affairs.

Exeter in New Hampshire July 1st 1780.

GENTLEMEN-

I had the honor of receiving yours of the 19th Inst this day and have inclosed three acts of this State passed in consequence of your Requisitions—Those troops who are to recruit the Continental Army are ordered to rendezvous at three several places on the southern extremes of this State of the 4th of July Inst where Continental officers will attend to forward them with the greatest expedition, and from the various accounts I have received, I have reason to expect the Major part of them at least will rendezvous by the time appointed. The Militia are ordered to be at the same places, on the 12th July Inst in their way to camp, [P. 19.] which was as soon as could be expected, considering the great distance from Exeter to the remote parts of our scattered settlements-I am led to believe, that the Militia also will be on their way at the appointed time, as very great exertions, are making to raise them-The Cattle in this part of the Country at this early season of the year, are generally lean, and but few really fit for Beef, yet such as they are, I believe the Quota allotted to this State for July will be ready to be delivered the Commissary Generals Orders—The first months proportion of Rum, viz. twenty five Hhds, is now ready at Portsmouth & waits the Commissary's Order-Persons are employed to purchase 150 Horses for the use of the Army, and I think it probable, that in a few days most of them will be likewise ready and wait the Quarter Master Genle Order.

Rum is very scarce in this State, yet no pains will be wanting in having the several Quantities ready at the Peri-[P. 20.] ods fixed as well as the other articles. In your letter of the 2<sup>d</sup> of June last you say—"The supplies apportioned to your sate are as follows—166,835 pound of Beef per month and 25 Hhds of Rum per month, to be transported to & delivered where the Commissary General shall direct; Also 150 Horses to be attached to the Army & to be delivered where the Quarter Master General shall direct,"—to which you also refer me in your Letter of the 12th Inst—In consequence of which, every measure tho't feasable hath been pursued to have the Articles in readiness to be delivered on Receipt of the Commissary Gen¹ and Quarter Master Gen¹ Orders: But no orders from either hath yet been received.

In your letter of the 19th of June last you say "The two points we wish to impress most forceably on yours and the minds of the Legislature of your State, are immediately forwarding your Quota of Troops necessary to Complete your Batallions in the Continental Army, and of supplies of Provisions agreeable to the estimate inclosed you in their Let-[P. 21.] ter of Inst"—As it was understood by us, that agreeable to the recited paragraph of the 2<sup>d</sup> of June last, our supplies of provisions must wait the Orders of the Comsy. Gen!8 &c—the sending them forward was not thought of untill such orders were received, and indeed we know not where to send them; Yet by the recited passage of your last Letter there seems to be an implication of our sending such supplies forward without such order. Wherefore I wish that no misunderstanding may happen in those matters, least by mistake the Army may suffer, as we desire punctually if possible to fulfill every Requisition.

Exeter July 6th 1780.

SIR--

The Committee of Congress by their Letters of the 2<sup>d</sup> & 12th Ulto called on this State for a specific quantity of Beef & Rum monthly the first to be ready to be delivered by the first of July then next to the Com Genlo Order—since which I have been repeatedly call'd on by said Committee to forward such supplies, but have had no order from the Commissary General. Anxiously concerned lest there should [P. 22.] be a failure of provision in Camp on the Arrival of the new Levies occasioned by neglect, or mistake, hath induced me to send Major Gains (one of the Committee fully impowered to draw forth the Resourses of the State) to wait on you and request a communication of the mode you are pursuing in sending forward supplies, whether you have any orders from the Commissary General, and what those orders are as we are at a loss how to proceed. Any matters relative to our recruits, or supplies of which you may wish to know, Major Gains can fully inform you.

Exeter July 6th 1780.

Gentlemen-

By the last post I gave you full information of what this State had done relative to procuring men & supplies for the Army, since which I received yours of the 23<sup>a</sup> Ulto urging the necessity of sending forward supplies, but as no orders from the Comsy General hath yet been received, we remain at a loss how to proceed. Nevertheless we have ordered the Collecting about 200 Head of Cattle immediately & shall send them forward as soon as they can be collected towards the North River by the way of Springfield in expectation that the Drivers will find or meet some persons authorized [P. 23.] to give them directions. However we wish to have explicit Directions relative to the Supplies, where they must be delivered, to whom & where & which we shall endeavour as punctually to comply with as circumstances will possibly admit of.

The recruits for the Continental Army are marching forward, upward of one hundred left Kingston Tuesday & Wednesday last & by the best information we have, they are equally forward in the Counties of Hillsborough & Cheshire.

The militia will march the beginning of next week and I believe will not fall much short of the number called for.

State of New Hampshire } In Committee of Safety July 13th 1786.

To Nicholas Gilman Esq:-R. G.

Make out in Notes agreeable to the Resolution of the Gen¹ Court of the —— of June last for fifty thousand pounds in the names of the persons, in such respective sums as M¹ Jewett shall desire & produce Receipts from setting forth such purchases.

[P. 24.] Exeter in New Hampshire July 15th 1780.

SIR—I had the Honor of receiving yours of the 4th Inst yesterday. I believe that you may have from this state five Tons of Powder which is near half of the whole stock, and that the same will wait your order.

As early as I was able to give any precise information of the succours that might be depended on from this State, which was on the first day of this Inst July—I fully stated the same in my letter to the Committee of Congress of that date—since which by the best information I have received I Judge that the greater part of the men required from this State have marched, and in a weeks time there will be but few behind.

The Beef and Rum required is ready to be delivered the Commissary Generals Orders, for which orders we have waited some time. The Collector Gen¹ of Beef is now ordered to send 200 Head of Cattle towards Springfield in the state of Massachusetts in expectation of meeting orders which way to drive them—Most of the seamen of this State are prisoners with the enemy or gone into other Business since the War. Four ships, Letters of Marque going to sail in concert have waited several weeks at Portsmouth for want of men although they offered very large wages.

[P. 25.] At this time, I am not able to let you know with any Degree of certainty whether any Seamen can be obtained, or if any on what Terms but will immediately make inquiry & send you the earliest notice thereof, As there is a considerable of River navigation in this State. I believe it would be vastly easier to procure men acquainted with rowing & managing Boats &° than Seamen if such would answer, numbers of them may be found among both our Continental Troops and Militia.

State of New Hampshire In Committee of Safety July 15th 1780.

To Mr. Noah Emery Jun*:

In the Business you are going to transact the following things you must get determined, viz.

After delivering the letters you are intrusted with, you must endeavour to obtain from Gen¹ Washington the Commissary Gen¹, or Quartermaster Gen¹ full & explicit directions relative to the supplies this State are called on for, where they must be delivered, to whom and when, you can inform that the Beef, Rum, & Horses are ready to be delivered; But we know not to whom, or where; you will be particular in getting some particular Directions relative [P. 26.] to the oxen which will go forward next week, that you may meet the Drovers on the way and inform them, how they shall proceed. They will be directed to Springfield, where we expect some person from the Army, or in behalf of the Continent will take the Charge of them. You will note, that the Beef and Rum mentioned to be ready, includes only what the state were to provide in the month of July and can inform that the other parts will be ready at the stated periods.

SIR. Your letter of the 20th Inst Directed to the President of this State, I have recd and opened, and shall lay the same before the Committee of Safety to-morrow, when I think it very probable that they will appoint one or more persons to meet and consult with the Commissioners of the other New England States agreeable to your request.

To Col. Stephen Evans-

SIR—As we have received repeated Letters from his Excellency Gen¹ Washington, requesting in the most earnest manner the forwarding the full Quota of Troops to be raised by this State, both for filling up the Continental Army and also of the Militia, which request is urged in the most convincing manner from the important and interesting situation of affairs at this time, We are obliged again to call on you to see that the Quota call'd from your Regiment both for filling the Continental Army; and also of the Militia for three months be immediately compleated, and march'd forward without one moments delay.

You are also to inform the Committee immediately what number of men in your Regiment are raised and marched or ready to march and also what officers are appointed to go with them, who should be directed to proceed forthwith.

And if there is yet wanting, either of officers or men to compleat your full Quota they must be procured & sent forward without the least delay, the present critical situation will not admit of the least failure.

It is necessary that the Committee should have the most exact & particular information in this matter, and as speed-[P. 30.] ily as possible, as we are called on to give information from time to time of our proceedings, that Gen¹ Washington may know what to depend on.

We expect your immediate answer.

In Committee of Safety July 28th 1780.

Sometime past the Committee' received the Resolutions of Congress of the 2<sup>d</sup> and 9th of June last ordering that the second Tuesday in September next be assigned to proceed to hear & examine into and finally determine the disputes & differences relative to jurisdiction between the three States of New Hampshire, Massachusetts Bay and New York, and the people of the district commonly known by the name of New Hampshire Grants & —Which the Committee immediately forwarded in a Letter to you, that you might be seasonably inform'd of the time when it will be necessary for you to be present on behalf of this State; But we have not received any information, whether you have received our Letter and can comply with the request to attend on that important matter at the time appointed.

As this is a matter of great importance we have sent this by express that we may be fully inform'd, whether you will [P. 31.] attend this business which we hope you will not fail to do as it may be very injurious to the State should we fail of having an Agent present when the affair comes on to be determined before the Committee of Congress.

Exeter Augst 2d 1780.

SIR-

Some days past the Treasurer informed me that the Draughts from Congress on this State in your favour were again presented for payment, and that he was unable to pay any part of them—considering the trouble & expense you had already been put to, I was determed to leave no probable method untried to procure the money, And accordingly sent off expresses to the distance of forty miles for that purpose.

The Constables have been called on and Loans solicited, and yet such is the scarcity of the Current Bills, that but about fifty thousand Dollars have been procured, and so much are we straightened, that (with concern) I am obliged to say, that there will be an uncertainty in fixing on any future period for the payment.

When our court set last, there was a probability of having the money soon, but the raising recruits for the Army, providing supplies Horses &c. hath taken of whatever could be drawn into the Treasury and indeed hath been very insufficient for the Contingencies and at this time when every dollar in the Treasury hath been paid your order, one hundred and fifty horses are waiting only for money to pay the Drivers expenses &c to proceed to Fishkill where they are ordered by the Quarter Mast Gen—On the whole, I trust [P. 33.] you will believe that nothing but the impracticability of getting the money hath hindered the payment which shall be made as soon as possible & of which the Treasurer will give you the earliest notice.

I am &c.

SIR-

I received yours of the 31st ulto and laid the same before the Committee who were very sorry that affairs were so circumstanced that you would not attend at Philadelphia in behalf of the State on settling the affair of the Grants &o.

The calling of the General Court together at this time would be a very great expense to the public, and more sensibly felt now, as it is with the utmost pains, that money is procured day by day for the contingent expenses and indeed the time is not sufficient to give the members notice, for them to meet, do the business, & then for the Person appointed to arrive in time at Philadelphia—Wherefore the [P. 34.] Committee, anxious to have the best care taken of said business that they could devise have applied to General Sullivan (who as a Delegate, may properly act for the State) to go forward immediately, and have engaged him to set out in a few days, which makes it necessary that he should have all the papers, and other assistance possible to be obtained to enable him to transact the business, and many of the papers that you collected at Portsmouth (The Committee are informed) are originals in particular a state of the case drawn by Colo Atkinson. Therefore I desire you to send by the Bearer all the papers you have relative to those matters, if you have them by you, or if left at Philadelphia, or elsewhere, that you will be kind enough to give such directions as may be sufficient for him to find them.

And as you have had opportunity to get much information in those affairs I should be exceeding glad that you would consummate in writing to Gen¹ Sullivan such things as you think material, and will be of advantage to him in the case.

I received yours of the 4th Inst and am at a loss in answering some matters, just hinted at therein referring me to a former Letter, which I have not received—Inclosed is a letter to Dr. Phelps, desiring him to perform the business of Surgeon to the Troops under your Command—At present it is not possible to procure any proper Camp Kettles in this part of the State, & of course the men must make the best shift they can until an opportunity of providing some appears. Mr. Noah Emery Jr. of this Town is appointed by the Commissary Gen¹, Deputy Commissary of purchases in this State, but is to apply to the State for money.

So many are the pressing calls for money in supplying the Army, that enough cannot be procured to answer the purpose. If the Constables on, & near Connecticut River in the County of Grafton will supply money to Mr Emery to [P. 38.] purchase the Beef you are in need of, or the Beef in lieu thereof he will be ready to furnish you, & appoint some person to superintend the business; otherwise I dont see that the money can be procured here; Although the August Tax is coming into the Treasury daily yet not fast enough to answer the Demands of the Army, as our Troops there are now wholly supply from home.

The money advanced by any of those Towns shall be allowed out of their Taxes.

I am honor'd with the Receipt of your favor of the 14th Inst by express.

The fatal consequences that will attend the want of supplies for the Army strike me very powerfully.

This State have proportioned the Beef Cattle to be supplied as our Quota, to the several Towns and appointed a person to collect them to be sent forward, who has hitherto industriously attended to that business — about two hundred head of Cattle are already sent forward—about sixty head are to go forward this day, & we have issued new orders for him to procure & send forward as many as he can with all expedition, which I have no doubt but he will comply with, and that we shall furnish our Quota agreeable [P. 42.] to a requisition as speedily as they can be sent forward. Every exertion in our power will be used for this purpose.

I am &c.

Eph. Blaine Esq. Com G. P.

SIR-

I find by the Muster Masters Return that the number of men Mustered from your Regiment to join the Continental Regiments for six months falls short five men of the number required.

General Washington has urged their being sent forward with the greatest speed, which I must also request you to do without fail.

To Capt Sam¹ Gilman Trustee of the State of the late Governor Wentworth's Estate—

Provided any person in behalf of the heirs of Joseph Simmes late of Portsmouth deceas'd should bid off any lands belonging to said estate in Middleton in the County of Strafford at Vendue, you are desired to take security therefor & not Demand the money.

In Committee of Safety Sept. 6th 1780.

To Majr Child,-

SIR-

Whereas Mr. Noah Emery Jr. is appointed by the Comsy General, An Assist Comsy of Purchases for this State & as he has appointed you to furnish supplies & You are therefore desired to call upon the Constables in the County of Grafton, also on the Constables in Cornish & Plainfield in the County of Cheshire, for a sum of money sufficient from time to time for supplying those troops which are stationed for the defence of the Western frontiers. And on your accounting for what money you receive of said Constable the same shall be allowed them in part of the public Taxes.

Sir-

The Commissary General of Purchases has represented to Congress the miserable Situation our Army is in for want of supplies, they are now fed from day to day & scarcely a week has passed this three months that they have not been one or two days wanting either Bread or Beef, that the Magazines are now empty and that the season of the year approaching fast when it will be extremely difficult & expensive if not impracticable to transport the necessary Supplies, so that if the States do not exert themselves immediately to send forward the quota of supplies they are called on for, there is the utmost danger that the Army will infallibly break up.

Should this be the case, the consequences are too painful for contemplation.

From this situation of our Army we are called on by Congress to take into serious consideration the present want and distrisses of the Army and by the most efficatious means and unremitted attention to send forward our supplies.

[P. 45.] The Committee therefore desire you immediately to call on every town in your district that have not furnished their full Quota of Beef Cattle—to do it without loss of time—that the whole may be forwarded with all possible speed—Inform them of the state of our Army and great danger we are in if we neglect.

The Committee flatter themselves, that there is not a single Town, who have the least regard for our own Safety and the Good of the Common Cause when they know the situation of the Army, that will hesitate a single moment about complying.

We are called on by Congress to send forward from time to time accounts of what supplies are procured and it will be painful to the Com<sup>too</sup> to inform of a single Town neglecting to comply when the necessity is so urgent, and the danger of neglect so apparent.

[P. 46.] We have no doubt of your exertions at this critical time and desire you to give us as speedy & particular an account of your success as may be that we may inform Congress.

[P. 48.] In Committee of Safety, Exeter, Feb. 9th 1781. SIR—

We wrote you yesterday requesting that you would deliver provisions &o to Gen¹ Nichols & Colo Ellis since which we are informed that Colo Hunt is appointed Assistant Deputy Quarter Master for the Western District of this State & the furnishing provisions, Barracks &o comes immediately under his Department. We have wrote Colo Hunt on the Subject & you will take his orders respecting the same (the letter wrote you yesterday notwithstanding).

SIR.

The Committee have lately wrote to Francis Blood Esq. Coll<sup>r</sup> Gen¹ of Beef for the western District, desiring him to deliver to Gen¹ Moses Nichols and Colo Timothy Ellis, Muster Masters in the western district such Quantities of provisions as they may require to be by them issued to the Recruits now raising in this State, have also desired Gen¹ Nichols and Colo Ellis to provide Barracks & other necessaries for the Troops, since the writing those letters we are informed that you are appointed Assistant Deputy Quarter Master for the western District, and as we conceive the business of furnishing provisions Barracks &c is within your Department we now desire that you would take up the matter of furnishing provisions barracks &c at Amherst and Keene the places of Rendezvous, & we shall immediately inform Gen¹ Nichols, Col° Ellis and Mr. Blood of the supposed necessary alterations. Mr. Emery the assistant Deputy Quartr Master in this Department will supply at this place as we have wrote Gen¹ Nichols & Col° Ellis on the subject of issuing provisions &c perhaps it might be agreeable if you should think proper to appoint them for that purpose.

Colo Hunt.

[P. 49.] In Committee of Safety, Exeter, Feb. 9th 1781. SIR—

We wrote you yesterday respecting the issuing of provisions furnishing Barracks & for the Troops and to call on Francis Blood Esq for a supply of such provisions, since which we are informed that Colo Hunt is appointed Assistant Deputy Quarter Master for the Western District and that the furnishing provisions, Barracks & comes immediately under his Department. We have wrote Colo Hunt on the subject & doubt not he will give the necessary orders respecting the same, if so it will be unnecessary for you to do any thing respecting provisions or barracks, unless you receive Colo Hunts orders therefor, which we have mentioned in the Letter to him.

SIR

There is no Continental Stable established within this State, & we have much trouble, & are at considerable expense for want thereof, & our officers are under many difficulties. As I conceive that business is within your Department & this State as much entitled to such a provision as any other, should be glad you would appoint some proper person for that purpose as soon as possible. This place being the present Seat of Government, our officers naturally resort here & I suppose that it would be the most proper [P. 50.] place for such a Stable——please to let me hear from you as soon as may be.

GENTLEMEN-

We are under the most pressing necessity to call on you again to give directing to your Collector or Collectors to send into the Treasury what money they now have of the State Taxes, and to proceed with all possible expedition to Compleat their Collections. We were lately obliged to call for what money the Collectors then had in order to send forward some to the Army, who were suffering for want, not having received any pay for a long time, that money has been forwarded. The Treasury is still empty, there are now many officers & soldiers now come home on furlow who were obliged to borrow money to get home and are in the greatest want of some. Our Soldiers have the greatest need of shoes, stockings, shirts & almost every sort of Cloathing, and there is no money to purchase any. We are called on by Congress for sending forward money immediately for paying the Army & for the relief of our Prisoners suffering the most inhumane treatment in the hands of our enemies, besides Demands of various kinds, daily occurring, for large sums of money for defraying the charges of the War. Congress inform us they have no other resourse for all these purposes, but by applying to [P. 51.] the several States. In short without the spirited exertions of the people to furnish the Treasury with money it will be impossible to proceed in our affairs: We therefore rely upon your exertions at this critical time for the immediate sending to the Treasury what yet remains of your Taxes.

By Lieut Joshua Merrow who has the care of a party of Recruits from this State, we send a person by the name of Jason Tyler, who says he belongs to Wallingford in your State. He was apprehended the 23<sup>d</sup> inst on suspicion of his being an enemy to the United States. The Evidence [p. 68.] which we have had against him is one John Lawrance, who was apprehended & brought to this place sometime past (Lawrance acknowledges himself a Deserter from Col<sup>o</sup> Meigs Regiment Capt Leavensworths Company in which he was engaged during war). He has Deposed, that he saw said Tyler on Long Island about the month of May 1779—And that said Tyler then & there (mentioning the particular place, House &c) informed him that he had one hundred Thousand pounds Counterfeit money which he had received from Rivington & that he was going to distribute the same on the Main.

He likewise mentions other conversation which he & said Tyler there had. Both Lawrance and Tyler being strangers here & their Characters to us unknown, we have thought proper to send them to you to be conducted with as you shall think best—One Circumstance which adds much to the validity of Lawrances evidence is that he without (as we have sufficient grounds to believe) having seen said Tyler since his coming into this part of the country & before he was pursued to be apprehended, gave a particular description of his person, age &c.

I have the honor &c.

You are likewise directed to take with your party one John Lawrance (now in custody of said Ladd) and conduct him in safety to his Excellency as an Evidence against said Tyler.

P. S. Since the foregoing Letter was wrote Tyler it seems has drawn up a Deposition to invalidate Lawrance's Evidence, & has procured one Danford a Soldier to make oath to the same. Danford has been with the Comtee & asserts that at the time of his making Oath he was intoxicated & has no knowledge of the matters contained in the sd Deposition, that his intoxication was occasioned by repeated draughts of Liquor being given him by the said Tyler prior to the drawing up said Deposition. His Conduct in procuring this & some other Depositions in this place give the Comtee great reasons to suspect him—doubt not but your Excellency will cause proper examination to be made respecting the matter.

Inclosed you have a copy of Major General Heath's letter in consequence of which we have ordered Lieut Colonel [P. 95.] Raynolds with the regiment under his command to march to Charlestown as soon as may be. We have requested of Colo Hunt to supply them with provisions as Issuing Commissary in case there is no Continental Issuing Commissary there & if there is not any continental store there, we have desired him to call on Esq Blood for beef & bread to whom we have wrote on the subject and directed him to receive such quantities of bread (in lieu of beef) from the towns as may be necessary for that purpose. As we have no money in the Treasury to purchase with must rely on the towns supplying with the necessary quantities. We shall request of Majr Gen1 Heath that the men may remain in this State or parts adjacent that they may be ready to assist in case the enemy should attempt to make any inroads from Canada. We have directed Colo Raynolds, in case there is no continental General Officer in that department to command him to receive such orders as may be given him from time to time by any Gen1 Officer belonging to this You will therefore give him such orders & directions from time to time as you may judge necessary.

We have wrote to Colo Hunt to call on Francis Blood Esq. for supplies, and to see to the issuing the same to the troops.

In case of an attack by the enemy it is likely that Colo

Raynolds will be sent to your assistance: he is to be under the Command of Gen¹ Bellows, in case there is no continental Officer sent to take command. Should they be sent to your assistance, it is expected you will do all in your power to supply Esq. Blood with beef & bread, who will call on the towns for the same. The price of the bread supplied will be deducted from the beef called for by this State, as there is not money in the Treasury to purchase it. It is probable that Col⁰ Hunt will see that some person is employed to issue provisions, if they should marct up the river. We have inclosed some copies of a Resolve of Congress relative to the Vermont affair, which you may distribute as you [P. 97.] please. SIR—Your letter of the 17th instant directed to the President of this State was received the 25th instant. The President being absent, the Committee have taken the same under consideration. The accounts we have lately received from the western parts of this State serve to confirm us in the sentiments held forth in your letter, that the enemy will probably attempt to make inroads on the settlements at Connecticut river.

Some part of our militia had marched previous to the receipt of your letter & had orders to rendezvous at Springfield; But the great difficulties subsisting in the western part of this State, on account of the dispute of Vermont, in addition to the probability of the enemy's movements that way, induced the Committee to order that those men, who [P. 98.] had set out for Springfield should be immediately marched to Charlestown and that those who had not marched should be sent thither by the nearest rout. We are doubtful whether the continental stores there are sufficient for the men and have given orders for the supplying them from the provisions which we were to raise by orders of Congress the present year.

We have given orders to the Commandant of the Regiment to report to you name rank and the number of militia with him, agreeably to your letter.

The greater part of the towns in two Counties of this State (East of Connecticut river) deny the jurisdiction of the State, and have soined the State of Vermont (so called) and notwithstanding the late Resolutions of Congress still persist in joining Vermont.

The difficulties are so many and great in those parts, that the Committee are of opinion that it is absolutely necessary the men should remain in that Quarter. If the men should be ordered to the Southward the march will be long, and the term of their enlistment being short will expire before they can do much Service—If you should be of opinion that they remain there and no Continental Officer should be in [P. 99.] that quarter to give them orders, Brigadier General Bellows (of this State's Militia, who lives at Walpole) will be near and will give the necessary orders in case of alarm &c.

Honble & Dear Sir,

The Vermont affair grieves me more than our war with Great Britain. Heathens were shocked when brother killed brother in battle: how much more ought christians to shudder at the very thought of brother killing brother about a line of jurisdiction. For mercy's sake, Sir, if possible, prevent every hostile measure until the homble. Continental Congress explicitly fixes their bounds, and informs them what to depend upon, and New Hampshire how to conduct. Taking one man may begin a war, but when, or how it will end, the Great Ruler only knows. From the best information, a great majority on both sides of the river will acquiesce in the determination of Congress: If so, and we wait, all will be peace. If they will not, and we wait, it will be the thirteen United States against the Vermonters. If we do not wait, it may be called a premature act of New Hampshire. I know it is said, take a few of the leaders, and the rest will submit. The British ministry reasoned the same way about Americans. What will the rest be about while our men are taking and bringing away the few. Send an army before they are prepared many say. They are prepared to begin a war whenever we provoke them, and I presume it will be done very soon. Give them time and they will join with the Britains, Canadians and Indians, are thought powerful reasons for expedition. I think for procrastination, because they have had time sufficient time already, and if they intend to prosecute that scheme, it is not best to begin. If so, it ought to be the thirteen United States, and not one of the smallest, to engage them. The power of making war or peace is delegated to the honble. Continental Congress, and it would be impertinent to ask, if one has the power that every State has given up to Congress. Pray, Sir, excuse this trouble. It does not come to dictate, but to ease my mind, anxious for my country and the peace and happiness of mankind. I humbly submit the aforesaid thoughts and the enclosed* to your better judgment: And have the honor to be

Many months past a Delegate was appointed and he accepted to proceed to Congress to join Mr. Livermore in the Representation of this State, But such is our unhappy Situation with respect to a Currency, that it has not been in our Power to furnish him with a sufficiency of hard Money and none other will answer. Conti-[P. 129.] nental Bills had been the only medium circulating in this State. The People here had no opportunity to trade for any and indeed had no apprehension but that it would answer their purposes. But that being suddenly and unexpectedly rejected they were left destitute of any Medium and such is the scarcity of specie in these part that scarce any thing will produce it, that we have not been able to supply the Treasury with any specie to Answer any Demands, nor do I at present see any prospect that it can soon be done. It is the Disposition of the People of this State to exert themselves to the utmost as they have hitherto done in support of the common cause; But our present situation with regard to a Medium is truly alarming. A Committee are now here from our Army in order to settle with the State for what may be due for Depreciation, and also for what may be due for back Rations or subsistence Money. They think there has been some Resolutions of Congress recommending to the States to settle respecting Rations or Subsistence Money as well as Wages & at what Rate they are to be settled. We cannot find any Resolutions of Congress relative to this matter among those that have been transmitted to us; for want of which the Committee cannot proceed in the Settlement. You are therefore desired to send me by the first Post after you re-[P. 140.] ceive this letter, Copies of such Resolutions or Recommendations as Congress may have pass'd relative to settling for back Rations or Subsistence money that may be due to Officers or Men.

I have nothing particular respecting the affairs of Vermont since my last, by what I have heard, they are somewhat more calm.

We hear that Messrs. Allen & Fay are gone to Congress from Vermont. I cannot say what Plan they are now upon but I conjecture they would willingly Renounce all on the east side of Connecticut River if they could be admitted to be a separate State to the West. But whatever may be their schemes I think there cannot be the least danger that they will ever be allowed to hold any thing East of the River.

I am impatient to hear how the Affair stands at Congress, hope you will inform me by ever opportunity.

State of New Hampshire SirExeter Feby 23d 1782

Agreeably to a Vote of the Gen¹ Court of this State, I am to give Information respecting a sum of Continental Currency now remaining in our Treasury over & above the proportion assigned to this State by a resolution of Congress of the 18th of March [P. 142.] 1780; Also on the Subject of the proportion to 8,000,000 Dollars assigned to this State by a resolution of Novembr 2<sup>d</sup> 1782.

In pursuance of a resolution of Congress of the 18th

March 1780 this State made provision (by their Act of the 29th of April 1780) for calling in the proportion of Continental Currency assigned them by said Resolution by which, a part of said Sum was collected, but it was generally supposed that at the time which said Tax was granted there was not half the Sum which was called for then in possession of the Inhabitants of this State-By an Act of our General Court passed Jan 27th 1781 for raising the sum of £120,000 in Bills of the new Emission for the support of the war & defraying the necessary Charges of this State Liberty was given to all persons to pay the whole of said Tax in new Bills or in Continental Currency at the rate of forty for one (which was then the Common Exchange & agreeable to the Resolutions of Congress) the Court being unanimously of opinion that the whole quantity of Continental Currency then in this State would not [P. 143.] amount to near the proportion assigned them by the Resolution of Congress and not doubting the compliance of the other States with the aforesaid Resolution, were not apprehensive of its being in the power of this State to Collect more than their proportion.

The Tax of £120,000 was payable at different Periods, the last of which, was affixed at the last of Nov<sup>1</sup> 1781—While said Tax was collecting Continental Currency depreciated rapidly in the States to the Southward and before the people here had knowledge of the same, large Quantities were pushed in from thence, and the General Court finding that the Tax which was principally designed to pay something to the support of the War and other Exigencies of the State would not answer the intended purpose did by a resolution prohibit the receiving any Continental Currency into our Treasury for said Tax after the 23<sup>d</sup> day of July 1781.

As some States had not complied with the resolutions of Congress for calling in the Continental Currency and [P. 144.] as the value thereof, when compared with new Emission was much altered after the passing our Act in consequence of the rapid Depreciation of the former the money was pushed into the Treasury in large Sums, and the State found that by the said 23<sup>4</sup> day of July last, they had in their Treasury upwards of five Million Dollars Continental Currency over and above the proportion assigned them as aforesaid, and considerable sums still remain in the hands of Individuals by which means the principal Intention of the State in granting said tax of £120,000 was in a great measure defeated, many Debts which were determined to be discharged by said Tax, are now unpaid which occasions many complaints and those debts must be discharged out of the Taxes for the present year and the State will be unable to pay any considerable Sum to the United States, unless some of those States, who have not called in their proportion should be directed to purchase the same from us or otherwise the Continental Currency be received [P. 145.] in part payment of our Taxes for the current year.—

With respect to the proportion to 8,000,000 Dollars assigned this State by a Resolution of Congress of Nov 2d 1781, I must say that the same far exceeds any Ideas that we have ever had of our just proportion, that the Gen¹ Court are unanimously of Opinion, that the same is too high by a very considerable sum, that by our numbers which were taken in the year 1775 by the selectmen of the several Towns & Parishes & Return made under Oath (Copy of which I sent you some time past) this proportion will appear much too large. I am sensible the resolutions of Congress purport that these proportions are not to be final; But that the same may be adjusted hereafter. This State is very unable at present to pay their just proportion. have very little Trade, our Farms are many of them new, and produce very little and with respect to hard money we never had but a small Quantity within the State and having estimated paper money at a higher rate than some [P. 146.] of our sister States, the little hard money we had is drained from us. Add to this the great difficulties and embarrassments we are under on account of the disputes subsisting in the Western parts of this State & our Inability to pay (even the just proportion of the State) will be easily perceived.

The Subjects of this State (in General) seem willing to exert their utmost abilities in support of the common cause, but any addition to their proportion of Taxes will serve to discourage them unless they can be at the same time assured of the justice thereof; and Jealousies may arise, that their proportion of future taxes will be in some degree estimated by their past exertions. You will lay this before Congress and endeavour to have the late proportions of Taxes altered and that the Old Currency may be received from us in discharge of a part of our just proportion.

I am &c.

GENTLEMEN-

Your favor of the 30th Ulto by Mr Balch has been laid before the Committee of Safety. They are much alarmed & greatly concern'd at the situation of your affairs & the Temper and Disposition, which by the most wicked arts is fomented & kept up among the People in your quarter and are fully convinc'd of the necessity of some proper measures being speedily taken to enforce the Laws of the State & to convince the People how grossly they are imposed upon by crafty & designing Enemies who compass Sea & Land to make Proselites & to bring all into confusion. But to direct the particular measures that are to be taken to remedy these Evils the Committee think it is not so proper for them to prescribe, especially as the General Court is so nigh at hand. As to the Question Whether Beef shall be received at three pence per pound for the payment of the first Tax, The Committee are also of Opinion, that it does not lay with them to determine nor can it make any great difference, to have it de-[P. 165.] termined before the Court meets as the Cattle will be gaining and the Court will doubtless do what shall appear to be most satisfactory & for the public Good—The Committee have no Authority to give any liberty for exchanging Cattle.

I am sorry my letter of the 20th of July to Mr Jennison has been so misunderstood as if it was designed to impeach him of Maleconduct in his office, the Committee had no such design. They were informed that sometime after the time limited by the Act for receiving Cattle for the June Tax was expired, he was still going on to receive Cattle for that Tax, which made the Committee apprehend that by some Accident he might not have received the Act or might be under some misapprehension about it, and therefore thought it necessary to inform him, that it could not be received to prevent his proceeding any further which might occasion Disputes.

I have received a Letter from M<sup>r</sup> Jennison wherein, he [r. 166.] gives particular Information of what he had done in the matter by which it does not appear that he was receiving Cattle in the manner the Committee apprehended or in a manner any way amiss.

I am sorry it was so misunderstood as if it was designed as a Charge of Maleconduct in you; The Committee had no such design but as a caution to prevent any disputes that might arise if you should continue receiving Cattle for that Tax.

Hampshire SIR—

Exeter, June 6th, 1783.

In answer to your several Queries respecting a settlement with the Army would inform you, that the State of New Hampshire in Settling with their Troops, supposed the Paymaster paid them their wages in Continental money to Jan<sup>7</sup> 1st 1780, and that it amounted in the year 1777 to one half, in 1778 to one sixth, and in 1779, to one twentieth of the sum promised, and accordingly made up Depreciation to the three Battalions of the New Hampshire [troops] those in Majr Whitcomb's Corps, and in Colo Jackson's Regiment who were returned from the Board of War at Philadelphia as part of this State's Quota.

In settling Depreciation for the years 1780 & 1781 agreeably to the inclosed Act, the Pay Masters Accounts have been reduced by the State Scale inclosed and deducted accordingly.

The State has paid to Brigd Genl James Reed the Balance for Wages & Depreciation to Decembr the thirtieth [P. 8.] 1780 inclusive, and for 9372 detained Rations at 8d each agreeably to a Resolve of Congress of the 14th Decr 1781.

The State has also paid to Brigd Genl John Stark, Depreciation for the years 1778, 1779 and 1780: likewise six months Wages amounting to £225, and Seventy two pounds sixteen shillings for six months subsistence agreeably to a Recommendation of Congress of the 28th Septr 1781.

There has been paid the Rev<sup>d</sup> Israel Evans and others as p<sup>r</sup> inclosed accounts.

Inclosed you have an account of monies advanced by the State towards wages for the year 1782.

The inclosed Act for settling depreciation for the years 1780 and 1781 was passed in consequence of General Recommendations of Congress for the Several States settling with their respective lines and before the Resolutions of Congress for the payment of the Army after August 1780.

An Answer would have been sent before had notice been timely given, but the first information was by his Excellency Gen<sup>1</sup> Washingtons Letter of the 14th of April, which was received about the middle of May,—on receipt of which the accounts were ordered to be prepared as soon as possible. Mr. Morris's Letter dated 20th of March 1783 was not received untill the 25th of May 1783.

The short time since the receiving of the Letters relative [F. 9.] to the forwarding of the accounts renders it impracticable, with respect to the Cloathing, to be sent by Lieut. Harvey, but shall be sent forward as soon as possible.

CENSUS OF 1786.

NOTE BY THE EDITOR.

It was known that a census of the inhabitants of this province was ordered by Gov. Wentworth in 1773; but search was made for it in vain. Neither Dr. Belknap nor John Farmer, Esq., discovered the returns. Recently, however, they were found on file in the library of congress by the Hon. A. H. Cragin, senator from New Hampshire, and by him copied and generously presented to the New Hampshire Historical Society. The following is a copy of Mr. Cragin's letter to the society, accompanying his presentation of the census:

CENSUS OF 1773,

Taken by order of His Excellency John Wentworth, Governor.

> United States Senate Chamber, Washington, May 16, 1876.

Sir:

I take pleasure in presenting to the New Hampshire Historical Society a correct copy of the first census* of New Hampshire, taken by direction of Governor John Wentworth in the year 1773, as appears by original manuscript papers on file in the library of congress.

There are some minutes of proceedings of council, with other manuscript papers, which, in part, I am unable to read; but as they may at some future time be deciphered, I suggest that several blank sheets be bound with this book, so that the whole may be copied in this volume.

The recapitulation, with index, &c., the officers of the society can make when the work is arranged for binding, as that can better be done under their direction.

Respectfully,

A. H. CRAGIN.

Rev. N. BOUTON, Sec. N. H. Historical Society, Concord, N. H.

The following is a copy of the order sent out by Gov. Wentworth to the selectmen of each town in the Province, in relation to the census which they were to take:

*A census of the province was taken in 1767, according to which the number of inhabitants was 52,700. (See Prov. Pap. N. H., Vol. VII, pp. 168-170.)—ED.

Portsmouth, October 15th, 1773.

JOHN WENTWORTH.

[It appears that the returns from the several towns were made in exact conformity to the above schedule. But inasmuch as it is unadvisable to repeat the order and form of schedule for each town, the editor has judged it sufficient to arrange the returns in tabular form, according to the schedule, with the names of the selectmen, and such remarks as are needful for explanation, as made on the returns.—ED.]

CENSUS OF 1786.

NOTE BY THE EDITOR.

The census which follows, of 1786, has never before been published. The original returns from the several towns in the state were lately accidentally discovered stowed away in a box in the attic of the state house, with other old papers. They are of great value, not only as showing the number of inhabitants in 1786, but also as throwing light on the status of the colored population then in the state. The attention of readers is invited to a note by the editor in Vol. IX, "Town Papers" N. H., pp. 896-898, in which the editor expresses his opinion that "slavery in New Hampshire was virtually and in effect abolished" by the adoption of the constitution in 1784, and particularly by the first and second articles of the Bill of Rights. In this opinion he is confirmed by this census of 1786. Readers will please take notice, that, according to the census of 1767, the number of "slaves" in the province was 633; the number returned in 1773 was 674; the number in 1775, of "negroes and slaves for life," was 657.* But it is noticeable that in the resolution and order for this census of 1786, by the General Assembly of the state, two years after the adoption of the new constitution, not a word is said about "slaves for life." Slavery itself seems to be ignored. The general term, "bound to servitude for a term of years," would include indented apprentices as well as any others. The form of the resolution ordering the census to be taken seems to be of doubtful meaning. It is therefore not surprising that the returns made by the selectmen or assessors of the several towns have no uniformity. They seemed not to know what was meant by "those bound to servitude for a term of years," or what "other persons not comprehended in the foregoing description" were included. The curious reader will find entertainment in carefully examining the returns.

The following is the exact form of the order for the census:

NOTE BY THE EDITOR.

The papers contained in this Appendix are of great value in relation to the early history of New Hampshire. They are here inserted, under the advice of His Excellency Gov. Prescott, as supplementary to the Ancient Grants, contained in Vol. I, Provincial Papers N. H., pp. 4-40. Readers of that portion of Vol. I must have perceived that there was a want of distinct historic statement respecting both the Squamscott or Hilton's Point Patent and the Grant of the Province of Laconia. Of the latter, especially, nothing exact and definite was known. Dr. Belknap, in the first volume of his History of New Hampshire, chapter 1, had fallen into a great mistake in calling the grant to Sir Ferdinando Gorges and Capt. John Mason of August 10, 1622, by the name of the Province of Laconia. The proper name of that Grant, as appears by the late publication of it, was the Province of Maine.* In consequence of that error in Dr. Belknap, confusion was introduced into subsequent parts of our history. The Grant of the Province of Laconia was not made till seven years subsequent to that bearing date August 10, 1622. The copy of this Grant, as herein published, was made from the original in the English archives in London, 1874, under the supervision of John S. Jenness, Esq., of New York, formerly of Portsmouth, N. H., and may be relied on as of unquestionable authority. The copy of the Dover Combination and of the letter of Capt. Thomas Wiggin was also made by the same hand.

The Squamscott Patent, as it is called, was known by historians to have been in existence; but as a copy of it could nowhere be found, uncertainty was attached to the date, the conditions, and the bounds of it. But fortunately a copy of it was discovered by Hon. Charles H. Bell, president of the N. H. Historical Society, among ancient files of the superior court in Exeter, in the spring of 1870. It was filed with other court papers in a bundle superscribed Allen v. Vaughan. An exact copy of it, as found by Mr. Bell, was made by the editor, and is herein published.†

Readers will please notice that the Laconia Grant and the Squamscott Patent both have an important bearing on the question of the validity of the Wheelwright Indian Deed (so-called),—see Vol. I, Prov. Pap., pp. 56-60,—inasmuch as that deed, dated May 17, 1629, antedates them both, one by six months and the other by ten months, presenting the strange anachronism of Walter Neale and Thomas Wiggin witnessing the delivery of that deed in their official character before the Laconia Company was formed, before the Grants under which it was pretended they acted were made in England, before either of them received their appointment, more than a year before either of them was in this country, and even about seven years before the Rev. John Wheelwright arrived hither, which was in May, 1636.

COLONIAL STATE PAPERS. Vol. 6, No. 68.

[No. IV.]

(1632. Nov. 19.).

Right honoble-

Havinge lately bin in New England in America and taken notice both of some Comodities and advantages to this

State web that Contrie will afford, and there havinge visited the plantations of the English and amongs the rest that especially in the Mattachusetts (being the largest best and most prospering in all that land) I have made bold to informe yor honor of some observations wen I have taken both of the Contrie and that Plantation.

As for the Contrie it is well stored with goodly Timber and Masts for shippinge, and will afford Cordage, Pitch and Tarr and as good hempe and fflax as in any pte of the world, growes there naturally fitt for Cordage and sayles, whereof this kingdome will soone find the benefitt, if the plantacon proceed awhile weth out Discouragemt as hitherto it hath done.

ffor the plantation in the Mattachusetts the English there being about 2000 people, yonge and old, are genally most industrious and fitt for such a Worke, havinge in three yeares done more in buyldinge and plantinge, then others have done in seauen tymes that space, and with at least ten tymes lesse expence.

Besides I have observed the planters there, and by their louinge just and kind dealinge with the Indians, have gotten theire loue and respect and drawne them to an outward Conformity to the English, soe that the Indians repaire to the English Gouernor there, and his Deputies for iustice.

And for the Gouernor himself I have observed him to bee a discreete, and sober man, givinge good example to all the planters, wearinge plaine apparell such as may well beseeme a meane man, drinkinge ordinarily water, and when he is not Conversant about matters of iustice, putting his hand to any ordinarye labour with his seruants, ruling wth much mildnes and in this pticular I observed him to be strict in execucon of Justice, upon such as haue scandalized this state, either in Ciuill, or Ecclesiasticall goueruem to the greate Contentm' of those that are best affected, and to the terror of offendors.

Of all weh I my selfe havinge bin an eye witnesse am the rather induced to pr sent the same to yor honor to cleare the reputation of the plantation from certaine false rumon and scandales, weh I p ceiue since my retorne to England some psons ill affected to the plantations there, haue cast abroad; as namely one ST Xhofer Gardiner, whoe leavinge two wives here in England, went with another youge woman into New England, there, being discovred by letters from England he was sepated from his wench. A second is one Moreton whoe (as I am Informed by his wifes soune and others) upon a foule suspition of Murther fled hence to New England and there falling out with some of the Indians, he shott them with a fowling piece, for wen and other misdemeanom upon the Indians complaint his howse by order of Court there, was destroyed and he banished the plantacon.

A third was one Ratcliffe whoe as I am Crediblie informed, for most horible blasphemy was Condemned there to lose his eares, whoe with the former two, and some other the like discontended and scandalous psons, are lately returned hither, seekinge to Couer the shame of theire owne facts, by castinge reproaches upon the plantation, doe addresse themselues to Sr ffardinando Gorges, whoe by theire false informacons, is nowe piectinge howe to deprive that plantation of the previledges graunted by his Ma<sup>to</sup> and to subuert their gouernm<sup>t</sup> the effects whereof wilbe the utter ruine of this hopefull plantation, by hindringe all such as would goe to them, and drivinge those alredy planted there, either to retorne, or disperse into other places, weh I leaue to you graue iudgmt my selfe being none of theire plantation, but a neighbour by, have done this out of that respect I bere to the genal good, I have ben too breife in this relation in regard I feared to be ouer troublesome to yor honors Soe I take leaue and rest.

The xixth daye of Nouember, 1632

Tho Wiggin

NOTICE.

JOINT RESOLUTION, passed by the Legislature of New Hampshire.

Resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court convened, That His Excellency the Governor be hereby authorized and empowered, with the advice and consent of the Council, to employ some suitable person, and fix his compensation, to be paid out of any money in the treasury not otherwise appropriated, to continue the collection, compilation, and to superintend the publication of such portions of the early State and Provincial Records, and other State Papers of New Hampshire, as the Governor may deem proper, not to exceed one volume; and that eight hundred copies of the same be printed by the State Printer and distributed as follows: namely, one copy to each City and Town in the State, one copy to such of the Public Libraries of this State as the Governor may designate, two hundred copies to the New Hampshire Historical Society, and the remainder to be in the charge of the State Librarian, who is authorized to exchange the same for similar publications issued by other States.

Approved July 18, 1876.

ÈDITOR'S PREFACE.

The publication of this tenth volume terminates my official labors as editor and compiler of the Provincial and State Papers of New Hampshire. The contents of the volume are of permanent value, including articles never before published in full. The Journal of the New Hampshire Convention in 1788, which ratified the constitution of the United States, and that of the Convention in 1791-2, which revised the state constitution of 1784, furnish the names of the distinguished men who composed those conventions, and mark an era in our history of which the state may justly be proud.

The papers relating to the long controversy with New York and Vermont, in respect of what were called the "New Hampshire Grants," form a mass of material which, wrought into a volume of history with like papers from other sources, will equal if not surpass any story of our early times.

The letters, orders, &c., sent out by the Committee of Safety during the latter years of the Revolution, furnish the best evidence on record of the extreme privations of the people, and the noble patriotism which animated them. The census of 1773, ordered by Governor John Wentworth, and that of 1786, ordered by the General Assembly of the state,—neither of which was ever before published,—exhibit comparatively the growth of the state between those periods, and also show how SLAVERY, as it existed in the province before the Revolution, came to a quiet end. The Constitution of 1784, in its Bill of Rights, "spake, and it was done." Slavery vanished without noise, without a single known civil suit, without a ripple of disturbance or turmoil on the face of society.

In an Appendix to the foregoing Papers, the editor, with advice of His Excellency, Governor Benjamin F. Prescott, has thought proper to supplement the first volume of Provincial Papers by several very important documents which have recently been brought to light. One is what is called the Squamscott Patent, or the Grant to Edward Hilton of land at Dover Neck, where a settlement was begun in 1623; another is the Grant of the Province of Laconia, Nov. 17, 1629, which serves to correct a capital mistake made by our historian, Dr. Jeremy Belknap, as to the name given to the grant to Gorges and Mason, in August, 1622, and also the confusion in the first chapter of his history respecting the Laconia Company and the Wheelwright Indian Deed.*

In conclusion of his labors, the editor begs leave to renew his acknowledgments of obligation and gratitude to the Honorable Frederick Smyth, ex-Governor, upon whose recommendation to the legislature the work was undertaken, and to the several Governors of the state in succession, by whose encouragement and favor, through eleven years, the work has been carried forward; also to the gentlemen, respectively, in the office of Secretary of State, who have afforded him every desired accommodation to consult early records and papers; and no less to the president and officers of the New Hampshire Historical Society, whose advice has frequently been sought.

However, some errors and imperfections may be detected in the execution of the work, yet the editor is conscious of having aimed to accomplish the great undertaking with entire impartiality, and with strict accuracy in the transcript of original records and documents, adding only such notes and explanations as appeared to him necessary and just. It is gratifying to the editor, and will be to the people of New Hampshire, to know that the volumes, as they have been published one after another, have become at once a standard authority for reference in matters of history. They are quoted freely by historians and writers both in this country and England. Surviving the decay and ravages of time, they will remain to instruct future generations in the early history, and in all the official proceedings and events of the state.

To the candid judgment and acceptance of the PEOPLE OF NEW HAMPSHIRE, this last volume of Provincial and State Papers,—as also all the preceding,—is most respectfully submitted and humbly commended by their obedient servant, the compiler and editor.

NATHANIEL BOUTON.

The biographical sketch of Col. Nathaniel Head (p. 2a) is not fully correct. There were two men of the same name. Col. Nathaniel Head, of Fembroke, was from Bradford; died Oct. 16, 1825, aged nearly 83 years. Nathaniel Head, Esq., of Hooksett, was the grandfather of Gen. Natt Head; he died Oct. 4, 1829, aged 75.—ED.
