New England Public Policy Center

The Center strives to produce high quality research that is objective and that contributes to the development of sound public policy in New England.

We produce evidence-based research and analysis of regional economic and policy challenges.

Our research is guided by interest in what policy makers need to know in order to formulate better policy. The Federal Reserve Bank of Boston's mission of promoting sound economic growth and financial stability in New England guides our work.

We increase understanding of important policy issues through sharing our research with stakeholders.

We host policy forums and webinars and present our work at various public venues. We brief and advise government officials considering significant policy changes. We convene an Advisory Board comprised of regional representatives.
