EXPLANATION

The Board began an extensive investigation in September, 2012 into the practices of a licensed podiatrist. On September 11, 2014, the Board issued an Order of Emergency License Suspension and Notice of Hearing ("Order"). This Order requires an adjudicatory hearing to be commenced for the purpose of resolving the issues articulated in the Order. The Board is requesting, under RSA 332-G, $3,000 to cover the costs of the adjudicatory hearing.

CHAPTER 332-G

GENERAL ADMINISTRATION OF REGULATORY BOARDS AND COMMISSIONS

Section 332-G:3

332-G:3 Investigatory and Legal Expenses. – Notwithstanding any other provision of law, a board or commission may retain expert witnesses or other qualified persons to assist with any investigation or adjudicatory proceeding. Members of the board or commission are not eligible for retainment. The board or commission may also retain special legal counsel in instances when recommended by the attorney general. To the extent the existing appropriation of the board or commission does not include funds covering such expenditures, the board or commission may request the governor and council to expend funds not otherwise appropriated on the condition that such funds be considered in the next budget of the board or commission when the board or commission sets its fees so as to produce estimated revenues equal to 125 percent of its direct operating expenses for the previous fiscal year.
