DEAR SIR:

SUPPLEMENT TO 2017 NEW HAMPSHIRE
STATEMENT OF FINANCIAL INTERESTS - RSA 15-A

In the interest of full disclosure, I wish to supply further information about my consulting business activities in case anyone might consider these activities to merit such disclosure.

I operate CORRIGAN CONSULTING as a "DBA" and offer consulting services in both actuarial (insurance-related) and political areas.

In practice I have had no actuarial clients for the last five years and do not expect any future clients, which I am not actively seeking. I am a retired Fellow of the Society of Actuaries and cannot render actuarial opinions required by law to be made by FSAs or Members of the American Academy of Actuaries (MAAAs).

(COVER)

I also offer services to clients of a political nature (candidates, PACs, other political organizations) through my consulting firm. These services include Fiscal Agent Reporting to the Secretary of State of NH and in other jurisdictions, treasurer duties and campaign management, all on a paid or volunteer basis. I have been working exclusively on a volunteer basis for the last couple of years and do not expect any paid political assignments in the near future.

I have considered the spirit and letter of RSA 15-A and believe I have no reportable special interest at present and do not expect any in future. If any paid consulting assignment emerges that changes this, I hereby undertake to promptly disclose such to your office.

Yours sincerely,

R. DENNIS GARRIGAN.
