Newfields

It was one of the four local divisions of Newmarket, those divisions being Newfields, Lamprey River, Piscassic and the Plains. In 1849 the two divisions, Newfields and Piscassic, were incorporated as a town and named "South Newmarket." In 1852 part of the town was annexed to Newmarket and in 1883 part of Newmarket was annexed to South Newmarket.

Rockingham County.

NEWFIELDS

Originally a part of Exeter and later of Newmarket.

In 1849 incorporated as South Newmarket.

Name changed to Newfields in 1895

There are no Newfield records at the State House.
