RE: Basis #3 of my Oct. 31st Complaint

As I told Karen Ladd at about 4:05 p.m. on Monday I didn't want to intrude on David Farrar "if" he does file his own individual complaint by the 4:30 p.m. 3-day deadline, and so put down as basis #3 of "with right to amend", and so after talking this over with Dick Marple and finding out that mine is the ONLY Complaint, here is the basis #3 general information, with proof by documentation from David Farrar and others as it applies not only to Mitt Romney per the writings in the hyperlinks herein provided*, but that of Barack Obama too, in that by the U.S. Constitution only those children of U.S. citizens can be eligible to run for President, and because both those parents of Mitt And Barack were not, then to dis-qualify them as NOT to be put onto the N.H. ballots.

Mitt Romney not qualified

By davidfarrar - 10/29/2011 - 10:01 am

Gov. Perry should know I have spent the last two days pouring over the life and times of Miles Park Romney: Mitt Romney's great-grandfather (paternal), Helamen Pratt: Mitt Romney's great-grandfather (maternal), Gaskell Romney: Mitt Romney's grandfather (paternal), George W. Romney: Mitt Romney's father.

I have found overwhelming prima facie evidence, including a copy of Mexican Naturalization papers for Helamen Pratt, that suggests Mitt Romney's father, was not a US citizen at the time of Mitt's birth, making Mitt Romney a 14th Amendment Citizen and not a natural born Citizen.

George Romney was born in Mexico to expatriated Mormon parents. That made him a citizen of Mexico at birth and not a US citizen "natural born" or otherwise.

Please believe me when I say this issue has nothing whatsoever to do with politics. It is just upholding the provisions of the Constitution, and nothing more.

I call upon Mitt Romney now to either post Gaskell Romney's US naturalization documents (or repatriated record) or George Romney's US naturalization documents he would have filled out and signed when he was 21 years of age, or withdraw from the presidential race as Constitutionally unqualified to take the oath of office of the presidency of the United States.

Lemons in the N.H. House of Representatives too.

By JosephSHAas - 11/01/2011 - 5:50 pm

Reference the "lemonade stand", that's what Gov. Sununu said of Mike C. once.

Plus: re: the 14th Amendment:

The N.H. CONSTITUTION" booklet of 2007-08 @ p. 23 reads: "The fourteenth amendment,... was proposed to the legislatures of the several states by the thirty-ninth Congress on June 16, 1866, and was declared in force July 28, 1868."

Thus: the N.H. State Reps. have been over the lawful limit since 1866, so to find out of those votes on legislation that were either passed or voted down when there were #x number difference. See: <http://quickfacts.census.gov/qfd/states/33000.html> = "New Hampshire ...Population 1,316,470" N.H. persons under 5 years = 5.3%, persons under 18 years = 21.8%, persons 65 years and over = 13.5% and female persons = 50.7%. So in the 18 to 64 age group = 64.7% [100% - 35.3% (21.8 + 13.5)] and "if" all 47 year ages therein that group be equal, (1,316,470 x .647 = 851,756 divided by 2 (for the male and female ratio) = 425,878 by <http://www.calculateforfree.com/>) then those males exactly at age 21 might be (425,878 divided by 47) = 9.042553191489361 of almost 10, and so what? To get rid of almost 10% of the 400 + 24 of the House & Senate? = 40 + 2.4 members? divided by ten (10) counties = 4 Reps per county? Which one? and how? (-)" and;

Your comment please to this "therein" word found in the 14th Amendment: thereIN the state, as opposed to thereFROM the state TO Washington, D.C., or; maybe: thereIN Congress? as in: does it mean to 10% thereof the N.H. Delegation to Congress be reduced? How? That if and when of a tie vote, or by one vote a bill supposedly passes or loses, that the representation therein each of those ten (10) states who do NOT elect their judges be taken into account for the true/lawful votes? To see what The State B.L.C." Ballot Law Commission says of this later this month. Comments from one and all are welcome, as in an Amicus Curiae / Friend of The Court Brief: A Friend or Foe of The N.H. General Court, or just to see that the law be "enforced." "

What's Joe Story's story of a check that bounced?

Karen: What did you "Update... 26 minutes ago"?

I read this last night, and would like to not have to re-read the entire 2 pages to think what you might have added or subtracted? I presume the former.

You still have in there that: "The first candidate listed on the Republican ballot WILL be Joe Story of Jacksonville, Fla. " Aren't you a bit presumptuous? Joe Story's filing by mail arrived on Mon., Oct. 24th with what I presume included a check for $1,000. Checks are processed through the State Treasurer for to be paid, and it takes about 24 hours to accomplish as having to fulfill RSA Ch. 655:48 in that the filing fee SHALL be paid at the TIME of filing, NOT ANYtime during the day of 24 hours, and so technically he filed on the next business day of Tuesday, October 25th, and I presume that his check didn't bounce. But WHERE is the Section 20 "lawful money" to the government as according to The Coinage Act of 1792? Why isn't former State Rep. Dick Marple's Article 15 compensation been paid!? At $100/year salary he claimed gold and silver coin by Article I, Section 10 of the U.S. Constitution. Was it really paid as prescribed by law? "Show me the Money!"

The word monitor is to check or watch from the Latin of one who warns. When is your story on the BLC to occur? When it holds their meeting on the complaint that NONE of them really paid? Especially the last-day filers.

Joseph Haas
